CAP. XCIX.

An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Management and Improvement of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases; and for other Purposes relating to the said Land Revenue. [4th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Management and Improvement of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases, of the Land Revenue of the Crown within the Survey of the Exchequer in England, and of the Land Revenue of the Crown in Ireland; and for extending certain Provisions relating to the same to the Isles of Man and Alderney, it was (amongst other things) enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, as therein is mentioned, from Time to Time to demise and lease, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for demising and leasing, any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the now-reciting Act related, to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years from the Time of making such Lease or Agreement; (that is to say,) amongst other Hereditaments, of Land or Ground proper for the Erection of any Houses or other Buildings thereupon, with or without Gardens, Yards, Curtilages, and other Appurtenances to be used therewith, and where the Lessee or intended Lessee should covenant or agree to erect a Building or Buildings thereon of greater yearly Value than such Land or Ground; and it was further enacted, that in every Lease to be granted under the Power therein-before given there should be reserved and made payable, during the whole of the Term thereby granted, such clear yearly Rent as to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should appear a reasonable Rent or Consideration for such Lease, without taking any Fine for the same, except as therein-before mentioned; and it was further enacted, that in any Lease to be granted, under any of the Powers therein-before given, of any Land or Ground, Tenements, or Hereditaments, where, at the Time of granting such 10 G. 4. c. 50.

Lease,

'Lease, (or, if such Lease should be granted in pursuance of a previous Agreement, at the Time when 'such Agreement should have been made,) there should not be any substantial Building or Buildings 'upon the Land or Ground to be demised, and the Lessee or Lessees should agree to erect on such Land 'or Ground any Building or Buildings of greater yearly Value than the Land or Ground demised or 'agreed to be demised, it should be lawful to reserve, during any Period not exceeding the first Three 'Years of the Term thereby granted, a nominal Rent or such other Rent only as to the said Commis-'sioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should seem fit; and 'it was also further enacted, that before the making or entering into any Agreement for making any 'Lease by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the 'Powers therein-before contained, a Survey of the Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues 'of the Crown proposed to be leased, where the same should be capable of such Survey, and an Estimate 'of the Value thereof, should be taken and made as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas by an

2&3 W. 4. c. 1. 'Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for uniting the Office of Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings with 'the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and for other 'Purposes relating to the Land Revenues, it was enacted, that the Persons to be appointed as therein 'mentioned, and their Successors, should be called "The Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, 'Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings," and that all Acts of Parliament, Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, 'Agreements, and other Instruments in which the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and 'Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, were named or 'mentioned, should apply to the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, 'Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, so to be appointed as therein mentioned, as if such last-men-'tioned Commissioners had been originally named and made Parties to such Acts of Parliament, Deeds, 'Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, and other Instruments, instead of the Commissioners of His Majesty's 'Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public 'Buildings: And whereas an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His late

3&4 W. 4. c. 69. 'Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to extend and enlarge the Powers of the Commis-'sioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings in relation to the 'Management and Disposition of the Land Revenue of the Crown in Scotland: And whereas it is 'expedient that the said Powers of leasing contained in the said recited Acts should be altered and 'extended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in the Execution of the Powers of leasing or agreeing to lease in the said recited Acts contained of any Land or Ground by the said Acts authorized to be leased for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the Time being, to demise and lease, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for demising and leasing, all the Estate, Right, Title, and Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of Her Crown, of and in any Portions of the Shore of the Sea or any Arms thereof, or of navigable Rivers or Lands, derelict or gained, or which may hereafter become derelict or be gained, from the Sea or any Arms thereof, or navigable Rivers, as by the said recited Acts is provided with regard to Land or Ground thereby authorized to be leased for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years as aforesaid, except that when the Lessee or Lessees shall covenant and agree to make any Embankments, or do other Acts, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners necessary or expedient for the reclaiming any such Land, or to construct or erect Wharfs, Docks, or other Works thereon, or on any Part thereof, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners and for the permanent Improvement of the Value of the said Land, it shall not be necessary that such Lessee or Lessees should agree or enter into any Contract to erect on such Land, or any Part thereof, any Building or Buildings, other than and except as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. may demise or lease any Portion of the Shore of the Sea or navigable Rivers or Lands derelict or gained from the Sea for 99 Years, where Lessee shall covenant to embank or to construct Docks, &c. thereon.

When any Persons have erected Buildings on Crown Lands in Ignorance of Title of the Crown, Commissioners to grant such Leases as by recited Acts is provided.

II. And be it enacted, That when any Leases shall be granted or Agreements entered into after the passing of this Act, in pursuance of the Powers in the said recited Acts or this Act contained, of any Land or Ground, and whereon or on any Part whereof any Person or Persons to whom any such Leases may be granted, or with whom any such Agreements may be entered into, may have erected any Buildings which in the Opinion of the said Commissioners were erected in Ignorance of the Crown's Title to such Land, then such Leases may be granted or Agreements entered into in all respects as by the said recited Acts is provided, but without reference to or taking into consideration the Value of the Buildings so erected, and with reference only to the Value of the Land for Building Ground, either at the Time of the Erection of such Buildings, or at the Time of granting the said Lease, or of entering into the said Agreement, as the said Commissioners may think fit.

Leases heretofore granted of Ground intended to be applied for Building Purposes, reserving different Rents for different Portions of the Term, instead of one

III. 'And whereas, in the Execution of the Powers of granting Leases in the said first-recited Act 'contained, Leases have from Time to Time been granted of certain Parcels of Ground intended to be 'applied for Building Purposes; and by reason that the ultimate Value could only be ascertained and 'realized after a long Period, instead of one uniform Rent having been reserved in respect thereof during 'the whole Term of the Lease so granted as aforesaid, different Rents for different Portions of the Term 'for which such Leases were granted have been reserved therefore, as being the most beneficial Mode 'of disposing of such Ground for Building Purposes; and inasmuch as Doubts may be entertained as 'to the Validity of such Leases, by reason of such varying Amount in the Rents reserved, instead of one 'uniform Rent during the Term granted, it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed;' now therefore therefore be it enacted, That all such Leases so granted as aforesaid, so far as regards any Doubts which may arise with respect to any such Reservation of Rent as aforesaid, shall be as from the making thereof absolutely confirmed, and shall be taken to have been made within the Powers of the said first-mentioned Act contained, any thing therein to the contrary notwithstanding. uniform Rent, confirmed.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in the Exercise of the Powers in the said first-recited Act or in this Act contained with regard to Ground authorized to be let or agreed to be let for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years for Building Purposes, where the Lessee or Lessees shall agree to erect Buildings thereon, or otherwise, as herein-before mentioned, or on any Part thereof, the said Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, either reserve one uniform Rent in respect thereof, or may reserve separate Rents for separate Parts of the Term demised or agreed to be demised, varying in such Manner as may be determined on by the said Commissioners for the Time being, instead of one uniform Rent during the said Term; but all and every the Leases or Agreements for Leases by the said Act or this Act authorized to be granted or entered into shall in all respects be made and entered into in the Manner and subject in all respects as by the said first-recited Act is provided, except as far as the Terms and Provisions of the said first-recited Act, as to the granting and making such Leases and Agreements as aforesaid, are hereby altered or extended. Commissioners, in future Exercise of Powers given of granting Leases for 99 Years, to reserve either one uniform Rent, or separate Rents for separate Parts of the Term.

V. And be it enacted, That where any Licence or Waiver of any Forfeiture or Power of Re-entry reserved in any Lease heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown shall at any Time after the passing of this Act be given by the said Commissioners or any Two of them, (which they are hereby authorized to do, by any Memorandum in Writing, without Stamp,) every such Licence or Waiver shall, unless otherwise expressed, only extend to the actual Breach of the particular Covenant or Condition in respect of which the same is given, or to any specific Breach of any Proviso or Covenant made or to be made, but not so as to prevent any Proceeding for any subsequent Breach or Omission (unless otherwise specified in such Licence), or to the actual Assignment, Under-lease, or other Matter thereby specifically authorized to be done; and all Rights under Covenants and Powers of Forfeiture and Re-entry in the Lease contained shall remain in full force and virtue, and shall be available as against any subsequent Breach of Covenant or Condition, Assignment, Under-lease, or other Matter not specifically authorized or made dispunishable by such Licence or Waiver, in the same Manner as if no such Licence or Waiver had been given; and the Condition or Right of Re-entry shall be and remain in all respects as if such Licence or Waiver had not been given, except in respect of the particular Matter waived or authorized to be done or omitted. Where any Licence or Waiver of Forfeiture reserved in any Lease of the Land Revenues of the Crown shall be given by the Commissioners, such Licence, &c. shall extend only to the Breach of the particular Covenant.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, in the Execution of the Powers contained in the said Act passed in the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth, to accept a Surrender of any Lease of any of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown, and to grant separate Leases of the Hereditaments so surrendered, for the Residue of the Term for which such surrendered Hereditaments were held, and to apportion the Rent reserved in or by any such surrendered Lease, as they shall think fit; and any Leases which may heretofore have been made on any such Surrender as aforesaid, and which might have been made if this Act had passed, are (so far as relates to any Question as to the Validity of any such Surrender and Re-grant) hereby confirmed. Commissioners may accept a Surrender of any Lease, and grant separate Leases thereof and apportion the Rent reserved by surrendered Lease;

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever a Surrender shall be made of any existing Lease, for the Purpose of taking a new Lease or Leases by virtue of this Act, the new Lease or Leases shall be taken to be a Renewal of the surrendered Lease, within the Scope and Meaning of the Sixth Section of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds committed by Tenants, and for the more easy Recovery of Rents and Renewal of Leases, so far as to render unnecessary the Surrender of any Under-leases previously to the granting of such new Lease or Leases, and to give full Effect to such new Lease in all respects, notwithstanding any Under-lease or Under-leases may not be surrendered. and if Surrender be made for the Purpose of a new Lease, the new Lease to be a Renewal of the surrendered Lease.

VIII. 'And whereas in many of the Leases of Crown Lands there is contained a Covenant on the 'Part of the Lessee to insure the Buildings therein against Fire in the Names of the Commissioners for 'the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and in many 'Cases such Covenants have not been strictly observed, by reason of the Changes of the said Commis-'sioners, or otherwise; and it is expedient that the Lessees should be relieved from the Forfeiture 'incurred by such Non-observance of Covenants, and that some Provision should be made for facilitating 'the due Observance thereof in future;' be it enacted, That where in any Lease heretofore made, or which shall at any Time hereafter be made, in pursuance of the Powers in the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth or in this Act contained, there shall be contained a Covenant on the Part of the Lessee to insure against Fire the Buildings erected, or the Hereditaments therein comprised, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or any Two of them, at their Discretion, to release by Licence or Waiver, as herein-before is provided, the Tenant or Lessee from any such Covenant, whether Default has been made in the same or not, or for any particular Breach thereof; and where any such Insurance is covenanted to be made in the Names of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or in the joint Names of the same Commissioners and any other Person or Persons, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two of them, at their Discretion, to designate in Writing any Person or Persons in whose Name or Names such Insurance is to be made in lieu of the Names of the said Commissioners for the Commissioners may relieve Tenants from Forfeiture by reason of Non-compliance with their Covenants to insure Buildings in Names of the Commissioners for the Time being; and may designate in Writing any Persons in whose Names such Insurance is to be made instead of the or any such Insurance may be made in Name of Commissioners as if they were a Corporation, or jointly with other Names; and such an Insurance shall be deemed a Compliance with the Covenant.

Time being; and the Name or Names of such Person or Persons shall be in all respects equivalent to the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being, for the Purposes of any such Insurance and Covenant, and shall so continue until such Designation as aforesaid shall be revoked in Writing, and a new Person or Persons appointed for the Purposes aforesaid by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or any Two of them; or any such Insurance may be made in the Name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, as if they were a Corporation, or jointly in such Name and in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons; and the Commissioners aforesaid, from Time to Time, by the Name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, alone or jointly with any other Person or Persons, as the Case may be, shall sue and recover and receive under any Policy so effected as aforesaid, in all respects by such Name as aforesaid, and as if they were incorporated by such Name; and any Insurance made in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so nominated as aforesaid, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons (as the Case may be), or in the Name of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and either jointly or solely as aforesaid, and as the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two of them, shall direct, shall be and be deemed to all Intents and Purposes a Compliance with and Performance of any Covenant already entered into, or hereafter to be entered into, to insure in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons, or otherwise.

Where a Tenant of Crown Lands has transferred or may hereafter transfer any Stock for Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax on such Lands in ignorance of the Exception in 38 G. 3., the Commissioners may transfer to such Tenant so much Stock as shall be a Compensation for the Stock transferred by such Tenant.

IX. 'And whereas by the Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, 'for the Redemption of the Land Tax, the Tenants of Crown Lands were excepted from the general 'Preference in purchasing or redeeming the Land Tax therein given to Persons having any Estate or 'Interest in Lands or Hereditaments wherein any Land Tax was chargeable: And whereas by the Act 'of the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, for making further 'Provisions for the Redemption of the Land Tax, after mentioning that it might have happened that 'Tenants or Lessees of Crown Lands had redeemed the Land Tax charged thereon, and had transferred 'the Consideration for the Redemption thereof as if they had been empowered to contract for the same, 'it was by the last-mentioned Act provided that it should be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the 'Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, in all such Cases to cause to be trans-'ferred to any such Lessees or Tenants so much Capital Stock as should be equivalent in Amount to the 'Stock transferred by such Lessees or Tenants for the Redemption of such Land Tax, which ought not 'to have been contracted for, and thereupon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should be entitled 'to the Benefit of such Land Tax: And whereas by the aforesaid Act of the Tenth Year of His late 'Majesty King George the Fourth it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners 'for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to redeem the Land Tax 'charged on any Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and to purchase any Land Tax on any Part 'thereof which might have been redeemed or should be redeemed by any other Person or Persons, but 'such Provision was not to authorize any Person or Persons to purchase or redeem the Land Tax charged 'on any Crown Lands contrary to the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty-second Year of King George 'the Third: And whereas Lessees or Tenants of Crown Lands may have entered into, or may hereafter 'enter into, Contracts for the Purchase or Redemption of the Land Tax on such Lands, and may have 'transferred or may transfer to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt Sums of 'Three per Centum Bank Annuities, as the Consideration for the Purchase or Redemption of such Land 'Tax, in ignorance of the Exception in the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said 'Majesty King George the Third, herein-before referred to; and it is expedient that the Commissioners 'of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being should be 'empowered to reimburse such Tenants or Lessees, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as after 'mentioned, and that thereupon such Crown Lands as aforesaid should become exempt from Land Tax;' be it therefore enacted, That in any Case where any Tenant or Lessee of any Part of the Possessions of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth or this Act relates shall have transferred, or at any Time hereafter shall transfer, any Sum or Sums of Stock into the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of purchasing or redeeming the Land Tax on the Crown Lands of which such Person was or shall be such Tenant or Lessee, and such attempted Purchase or Redemption shall be invalid or doubtful under the aforesaid Provision of the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of King George the Third, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, with the Consent in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, or of any Three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, by and out of the annual Income of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to purchase and cause to be transferred to any such Lessee or Tenant as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, so much Stock as, under all the Circumstances of the Case, shall, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, be a due Compensation for the Stock so transferred by such Tenant or Lessee; and upon the Execution by the Party to whom such Stock shall be so transferred of an Instrument in Writing acknowledging the Transfer thereof (to be enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments), the Lands on which the Land Tax shall have been so attempted to be purchased or redeemed by such Tenant or Lessee as aforesaid shall become and be absolutely freed and discharged of and from the Payment of the Land Tax, and all Arrears thereof: Provided always, that during the Continuance of the Estate of any such Tenant or Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by whom such such attempted Purchase or Redemption of Land Tax as aforesaid shall have been made, Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall have and be entitled to a Rent-charge to be issuing out of such Lands the Land Tax whereof shall have been so redeemed, equal in Amount to the Land Tax redeemed; and such Rent shall be payable yearly, and shall be recovered by Distress as in case of Rent reserved on Lease.

Such Parts of an Estate near Millbank, Westminster, now vested in Her Majesty, as have not been required for the Penitentiary to be under the Management of Woods, &c.;

X. 'And whereas it is expedient that such Parts of an Estate situate at or near Millbank in the City of Westminster and County of Middlesex, and now vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as have not been required for the Purposes of the Penitentiary at Millbank, should be let on Building Leases, or otherwise advantageously disposed of;' be it therefore enacted, That such Parts of the said Estate and Hereditaments at Millbank aforesaid as have not been used for the Purpose of the said Penitentiary shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, in like Manner in all respects as the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth relates are under the Management of the same Commissioners under or by virtue of the last-mentioned Act, or any other Act or Acts now made or hereafter to be made; and the said Hereditaments shall be taken and considered as Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth relates; and every Grant, Lease, or Agreement of such Parts of the said Hereditaments, already made or entered into by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, is hereby confirmed, in all respects as if the same had been made or entered into after the passing of this Act.

and Grants, &c. already made confirmed.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. empowered to purchase the Grapes Tavern at Kensington, for the Purpose of Improvements.

XI. 'And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to grant Building Leases of the Royal Kitchen Garden at Kensington, and to form and improve other Royal Gardens; and to enable the said Commissioners to purchase Lands of Copyhold or Customary Tenure: And whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Session 2), intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to form a new Opening from the Knightsbridge Road into Hyde Park, and a new Opening from High Street, Kensington, into an intended new Road across the Palace Green, and for annexing a Piece of extra-parochial Ground in the Royal Garden to the respective Parishes of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington and Saint Mary Paddington in several Portions: And whereas the Opening from High Street, Kensington, into the new Road across the Palace Green, contemplated by the last-mentioned Act, has been made, but the same being narrow and confined it is desirable and expedient that such Opening should be widened and enlarged;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, and they are hereby empowered, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom, or any Three or more of them, to purchase a certain Piece or Parcel of Ground, Messuage or Tenement, and Buildings, with the Appurtenances, situate on the North Side of High Street, Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, known as the Grapes Tavern, and all subsisting Terms, Estates, Charges, and Interests therein, and to pull down such Buildings when so purchased, and to appropriate the Site thereof, or any Part thereof, towards widening the said Entrance or Approach from High Street, Kensington, aforesaid, into the new Road across the Palace Green aforesaid.

Powers in 10 G. 4. c. 50. (as far as applicable) to extend to the said Premises.

XII. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions contained in the herein-before recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, with reference to Contracts and Sales to be made to and with His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or to and with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on behalf of Her Majesty, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend and apply to the said Piece or Parcel of Ground, Messuage, and Buildings, with the Appurtenances, known as the Grapes Tavern, at Kensington aforesaid, and to the Owners or Occupiers thereof, or other Parties in anywise interested therein; and all the Provisions in the said Act as regards Stamps shall apply to this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to take or use the said last-mentioned Premises against the Consent of the Parties interested therein, and by the Act last herein-before mentioned authorized and empowered to convey the same.

Monies paid by the Commissioners for said Premises, and for certain Houses in High Street, Kensington, and Costs of forming Roads, &c., to be recouped to Commissioners before any Surplus shall be applicable for the Purposes of that Act.

XIII. And be it declared and enacted, That all Monies paid or to be paid by the said Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for or incident to the Purchase of the Grapes Tavern, with its Appurtenances, aforesaid, and all Monies paid or to be paid by the said Commissioners for or incident to the Purchase of the Houses and Hereditaments in High Street, Kensington, aforesaid, described in the Schedule to the herein-before recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Session 2), and also all the Costs and Expences incurred or to be incurred by the said Commissioners in forming and completing Roads or Sewers upon or across or otherwise in appropriating and adapting for Building Purposes the Ground at or near Kensington, mentioned in the Schedule to the herein-before first-recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, shall be taken into account, and recouped to the Funds or Property under the Charge of the said Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, before any Surplus shall be deemed to have arisen or become applicable for the Purposes mentioned in the said last herein-before mentioned Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby directed and empowered, from Time to Time (on an Application to them, agreed to at some quarterly or other Meeting the Consolidated Fund.

Meeting of the Commissioners, attended by Five at least of the Commissioners, and certified under their Hands,) to cause to be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund to the Secretary of the Commissioners such a Sum of Money as the Commissioners shall in such Application have certified to be requisite to pay and discharge so much of the Salaries, Costs, Charges, and Expences herein-before directed to be paid out of the Monies received by the said Secretary for Licences and otherwise as aforesaid as such Monies shall be inadequate to pay, and the said Secretary shall thereupon apply such Money in or towards the Payment or Discharge of such Salaries, Costs, Charges, and Expences respectively; and that it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, from Time to Time to advance by way of Imprest to the said Secretary such Sum or Sums of Money as to such Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appear requisite and reasonable, for or towards the Payment or Discharge of all or any such Salaries, Costs, Charges, or Expences as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums to be accounted for by the said Secretary in his then next Account.

Application of Monies received for Licences by Clerks of the Peace.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That all Monies to be received for Licences granted by any Justices shall be applied by the Clerk of the Peace for the County or Borough in or towards the Payment of the Salary or Remuneration of the Clerk to the Visitors for such County or Borough, and in or towards the Remuneration of such of the same Visitors as are herein-before directed to be remunerated, and in or towards the Payment or Discharge of all Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred by or under the Authority of the same Justices or Visitors in the Execution of or under or by virtue of this Act.

Clerks of the Peace to make out annual Accounts, to be laid before the Justices in Session, of all Receipts and Payments.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace for every County or Borough shall keep an Account of all Monies received and paid by him as aforesaid, and of all Monies otherwise received or paid by him under or by virtue of or in the Execution of this Act; and such Account shall respectively be made up to the First Day of August in each Year, and shall be signed by Two at least of the Visitors for the County or Borough; and every such Account shall be laid by the Clerk of the Peace before the Justices at the Michaelmas General or Quarter Sessions, who shall thereupon direct the Balance (if any) remaining in the Hands of the Clerk of the Peace to be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer for such County or Borough, in aid and as Part of the County or Borough Rate.

Balance of Payments over Receipts may be paid out of the Funds of the County or Borough.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices for any County or Borough in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, if they shall think fit, to order to be paid to the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough, out of the Rates or Funds thereof, such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall on Examination deem to be necessary to pay and discharge so much of the Salary, Remuneration, Costs, Charges, and Expences herein-before directed to be paid out of the Monies received by such Clerk of the Peace for Licences and otherwise as aforesaid as such Monies shall be inadequate to pay; and also that it shall be lawful for the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, if they shall think fit, from Time to Time to order to be advanced out of the Rates or Funds of such County or Borough, to the Clerk of the Peace, such Sum or Sums of Money as to such Justices may appear requisite and reasonable, for or towards the Payment or Discharge of any such Salary, Remuneration, Costs, Charges, or Expences as last aforesaid; and every such Sum of Money as aforesaid shall be paid and advanced out of the Rates or Funds of such County or Borough by the Treasurer thereof, and shall be allowed in his Accounts, on the Authority of the aforesaid Order by the Justices for the Payment or Advance thereof.

Provision in case of the Incapacity or Death of the Person licensed.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person to whom a Licence shall have been granted under this Act or under any of the Acts herein-before repealed shall by Sickness or other sufficient Reason become incapable of keeping the licensed House, or shall die before the Expiration of the Licence, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or for any Three Justices for the County or Borough, as the Case may be, if they shall respectively think fit, by Writing endorsed on such Licence, under the Seal of the Commissioners or under the Hands of such Three Justices, to transfer the said Licence, with all the Privileges and Obligations annexed thereto, for the Term then unexpired, to such Person as shall at the Time of such Incapacity or Death be the Superintendent of such House, or have the Care of the Patients therein, or to such other Person as the Commissioners or such Justices respectively shall approve, and in the meantime such Licence shall remain in force and have the same Effect as if granted to the Superintendent of the House; and in case a Licence has been or shall be granted to Two or more Persons, and before the Expiration thereof any or either of such Persons shall die, leaving the other or others surviving, such Licence shall remain in force and have the same Effect as if granted to such Survivors or Survivor.

In case of a licensed House being taken for public Purposes, or accidentally rendered unfit, or of the Keeper wishing to transfer his Patients to a new House.

XL. And be it enacted, That if any licensed House shall be pulled down or occupied under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or shall by Fire, Tempest, or other Accident be rendered unfit for the Accommodation of Lunatics, or if the Person keeping such House shall desire to transfer the Patients to another House, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (if the new House shall be within their immediate Jurisdiction), at any quarterly or other Meeting, or for any Two or more of the Visiting Justices for the County or Borough within which the new House is situate, as the Case may be, upon the Payment to the Secretary of the Commissioners or the Clerk of the Peace, as the Case may be, of not less than One Pound for the Licence (exclusive of the Sum to be paid for the Stamp), to grant to the Person whose House has been so pulled down, occupied, or so rendered unfit, or who shall desire to transfer his Patients as aforesaid, a Licence to keep such other House for the Reception of Lunatics, for such Time as the Commissioners or the said Justices, as the Case may be, shall think fit: Provided always, that the same Notice of such intended Change of House, and the same Plans and Statements and Descriptions of and as to such intended new House, shall be given as are required when Application is first made for a Licence for any House, and shall be accompanied by a Statement in Writing of the Cause of such Change of House; and that, except in Cases in which the Change of House is occasioned by Fire or Tempest, Seven clear Days previous Notice of the intended Removal shall be sent, by the Person to whom the Licence for keeping the original House shall have been granted, to the Person who signed the Order for the Reception of each Patient, not being a Pauper, or the Person by whom the last Payment on account of such Patient shall have been made, and to the Relieving Officer or Overseer of the Union or Parish to which each Patient being a Pauper is chargeable, or the Person by whom the last Payment on account of such Patient shall have been made.

Power of Revocation of Licences granted by Justices.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if a Majority of the Justices of any County or Borough in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall recommend to the Lord Chancellor that any Licence granted by the Justices for such County or Borough, either before or after the passing of this Act, shall be revoked, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to revoke the same by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal, such Revocation to take effect at a Period to be named in such Instrument, not exceeding Two Calendar Months from the Time a Copy or Notice thereof shall have been published in the "London Gazette;" and a Copy or Notice of such Instrument of Revocation shall be published in the "London Gazette," and shall before such Publication be transmitted to the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted, or to the resident Superintendent of the licensed House, or be left at the licensed House: Provided always, that in case of any such Revocation being recommended to the Lord Chancellor, Notice thereof in Writing shall, Seven clear Days previously to the Transmission of such Recommendation to the Lord Chancellor, be given to the Person the Revocation of whose Licence shall be recommended, or to the resident Superintendent of the licensed House, or shall be left at the licensed House.

Power of Revocation and of Prohibition of Renewal of Licences granted by the Commissioners or by Justices.

XLII. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners shall recommend to the Lord Chancellor that any Licence granted either by the Commissioners or by any Justices, either before or after the passing of this Act, shall be revoked or shall not be renewed, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal to revoke or prohibit the Renewal of such Licence; and in the Case of a Revocation the same shall take effect at a Period to be named in such Instrument, not exceeding Two Calendar Months from the Time a Copy or Notice thereof shall have been published in the "London Gazette;" and a Copy or Notice of such Instrument of Revocation shall be published in the "London Gazette," and shall before such Publication be transmitted to the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted, or to the resident Superintendent of the licensed House, or shall be left at the licensed House: Provided always, that in case of any such Revocation or Prohibition to renew being recommended to the Lord Chancellor, Notice thereof in Writing shall, Seven clear Days previously to the Transmission of such Recommendation to the Lord Chancellor, be given to the Person the Revocation or Prohibition of Renewal of whose Licence shall be recommended, or to the resident Superintendent of the licensed House, or shall be left at the licensed House.

Hospitals receiving Lunatics to have their Regulations printed, and a resident Medical Attendant, and to be registered.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the Regulations as to Lunatics of every Hospital in which Lunatics are or shall be received shall be printed, and complete Copies thereof shall be sent to the Commissioners, and also kept hung up in the Visitors Room of such Hospital; and that every such Hospital shall have a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary resident therein, as the Superintendent and Medical Attendant thereof; and such Superintendent shall immediately after the passing of this Act (or immediately after the Establishment of such Hospital, as the Case may be,) apply to the Commissioners to have such Hospital registered, and thereupon such Hospital shall be registered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the Commissioners; and in case the Superintendent of any such Hospital shall at any Time omit to have Copies of such Regulations sent or hung up as aforesaid, or to apply to have such Hospital registered as aforesaid, he shall for every such Omission forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

No House to be kept for the Reception of Two or more Lunatics without a Licence.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Person to receive Two or more Lunatics into any House, unless such House shall be an Asylum or an Hospital registered under this Act, or a House for the Time being duly licensed under this Act, or one of the Acts herein-before repealed; and any Person who shall receive Two or more Lunatics into any House other than a House for the Time being duly licensed as aforesaid, or an Asylum or an Hospital duly registered under this Act, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

No Person (not a Pauper) to be received without an Order and Medical Certificate.

XLV. And be it enacted, That no Person (not a Pauper), whether being or represented to be a Lunatic, or only a Boarder or Lodger, in respect of whom any Money shall be received or agreed to be received for Board, Lodging, or any other Accommodation, shall be received into or detained in any licensed House, and no Person (not a Pauper) shall be received into or detained as a Lunatic in any Hospital, without an Order under the Hand of some Person according to the Form and stating the Particulars required in Schedule (B.) annexed to this Act, nor without the Medical Certificates, according to the Form in Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act, of Two Physicians, Surgeons, or Apothecaries who shall not be in Partnership, and each of whom shall separately from the other have personally examined the Person to whom it relates, not more than Seven clear Days previously to the Reception of such Person into such House or Hospital, and shall have signed and dated the same on the Day on which such Person shall have been so examined; and every Person who shall receive or detain any such Person as aforesaid in any such House or Hospital as aforesaid without such Order and Medical Certificates as aforesaid, and any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall knowingly sign any such Medical Certificate as aforesaid which shall untruly state any of the Particulars required by this Act, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Medical Practitioner to specify Facts upon which Opinion formed.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary signing such Certificate shall specify therein any Fact or Facts (whether arising from his own Observation or from the Information of any other Person) upon which he has formed his Opinion that the Person to whom such Certificate relates is a Lunatic or an Insane Person, or an Idiot, or a Person of unsound Mind.

Proviso that in certain Cases a Person may be received on a Certificate signed by One Medical Practitioner only.

XLVII. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That any Person (not a Pauper) may, under special Circumstances, be received into any such House or Hospital as aforesaid, upon such Order as aforesaid, with the Certificate of One Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary alone, provided that such Order state the special Circumstances which have prevented the Person from being examined by Two Medical Practitioners; but in every such Case another such Certificate shall be signed by some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, not being connected with any such House or Hospital, who shall have especially examined such Person within Three Days after his Reception into such House or Hospital; and every Person who, having received any Person into any House or Hospital as aforesaid upon the Certificate of One Medical Practitioner alone, as aforesaid, shall keep or permit such Person to remain in such House or Hospital beyond the said Period of Three Days without such further Certificate as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

No Pauper to be received into any House or Hospital for Lunatics without a certain Order and Certificate.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That no Pauper shall be received into or detained in any licensed House, or any Hospital, without an Order and Statement according to the Form and stating the Particulars required in Schedule (D.) annexed to this Act, under the Hands of One Justice or an officiating Clergyman, with the Relieving Officer or One of the Overseers of the Union or Parish from which such Pauper shall be sent, (which said Justice or which said Clergyman and Relieving Officer or Overseer, as the Case may be, shall have personally examined such Pauper previously to signing such Order,) nor without a Medical Certificate according to the Form in the said Schedule (D.) annexed to this Act, and dated not more than Seven clear Days previously to the Reception of such Pauper into such House or Hospital; and every such Certificate shall be signed by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary (not being the Medical Officer of such Parish or Union) on the Day whereon he shall examine such Pauper; and every Person who shall receive any Pauper into any such House or Hospital as aforesaid without such Order and Medical Certificate as last aforesaid shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

No Medical Practitioner who is interested in or attends a licensed House or Hospital to sign a Certificate for Admission of a Patient into such Place.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who, or whose Father, Brother, Son, or Partner, is wholly or partly the Proprietor of or a regular professional Attendant in a licensed House or an Hospital, shall sign any Certificate for the Reception of a Patient into such House or Hospital; and no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who, or whose Father, Brother, Son, or Partner, shall sign the Order herein-before required for the Reception of a Patient, shall sign any Certificate for the Reception of the same Patient; and any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall sign any Certificate contrary to any of the Provisions herein-before contained, or without having complied with all the Provisions hereby required in the Case of the Patient to whom the same shall relate, or who shall in such Certificate describe his Medical Qualification untruly, or shall untruly state any thing therein, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Every Person receiving a Person as a Lunatic into any House or Hospital to make an Entry thereof in a certain Form.

L. And be it enacted, That every Proprietor or Superintendent who shall receive any Patient into any licensed House or any Hospital shall, within Two Days after the Reception of such Patient, make an Entry with respect to such Patient in a Book to be kept for that Purpose to be called "The Book of Admissions," according to the Form and containing the Particulars required in Schedule (E.) annexed to this Act, so far as he can ascertain the same, except as to the Form of the mental Disorder, and except also as to the Discharge or Death of the Patient, which shall be made when the same shall happen; and every Person who shall so receive any such Patient, and shall not within Two Days thereafter make such Entry as aforesaid (except as aforesaid), shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Two Pounds; and every Person who shall knowingly and willingly in any such Entry untruly set forth any of the Particulars shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Form of Patient's Disorder to be entered in "The Book of Admissions."

LI. And be it enacted, That the Form of the mental Disorder of every Patient received into any licensed House or any Hospital shall within Seven Days after his Reception be entered in the said Book of Admissions by the Medical Attendant of such House or Hospital; and every such Medical Attendant who shall omit to make any such Entry within the Time aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Two Pounds.

Every Person receiving a Patient into any House or Hospital to transmit a Notice thereof to the Commissioners, and if within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, then also to the Clerk of such Visitors.

LII. And be it enacted, That the Proprietor or resident Superintendent of every licensed House (whether licensed by the Commissioners or by any Justices), and the Superintendent of every Hospital, shall after Two clear Days, and before the Expiration of Seven clear Days from the Day on which any Patient shall have been received into such House or Hospital, transmit a Copy of the Order and Medical Certificates or Certificate on which such Person shall have been received, and also a Notice and Statement according to the Form in Schedule (F.) annexed to this Act, to the Commissioners; and the Proprietor or resident Superintendent of every House licensed within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors shall also within the same Period transmit another Copy of such Order and Certificates or Certificate, and a Duplicate of such Notice and Statement, to the Clerk of the Visitors; and every Proprietor or Superintendent of any such House or Hospital who shall neglect to transmit such Copy, Notice, or Statement to the Commissioners, or (where the same is required) to the Clerk of the Visitors, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Notices to be given in case of LIII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Patient shall escape from any licensed House or any registered Hospital the Proprietor or Superintendent of such House or Hospital shall within Two clear Days Days next after such Escape transmit a written Notice thereof to the Commissioners, and if such House be within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors then also to the Clerk of such Visitors; and such Notice shall state the Christian and Surname of the Patient who has so escaped, and his then State of Mind, and also the Circumstances connected with such Escape; and if such Patient shall be brought back to such House or Hospital such Proprietor or resident Superintendent shall, within Two clear Days next after such Person shall be so brought back transmit a written Notice thereof to the Commissioners, and also, if such House be within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, to the Clerk of such Visitors; and such Notice shall state when such Person was so brought back, and the Circumstances connected therewith, and whether with or without a fresh Order and Certificates or Certificate; and every Proprietor or resident Superintendent omitting to transmit such Notice, whether of Escape or of Return, shall for every such Omission forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

the Escape of any Patient, and of his being brought back.

LIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Patient shall be removed or discharged from any licensed House or any Hospital, or shall die therein, the Proprietor or Superintendent of such House or Hospital shall, within Two clear Days next after such Removal, Discharge, or Death, make an Entry thereof in a Book to be kept for that Purpose according to the Form and stating the Particulars in Schedule (G. 1.) annexed to this Act, and shall also within the same Two Days transmit a written Notice thereof, and also of the Cause of his Death, to the Commissioners, and also, if such House shall be within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, to the Clerk of such Visitors, according to the Form and containing the Particulars in Schedule (G. 2.) annexed to this Act; and every Proprietor or Superintendent of any such House or Hospital who shall neglect to make such Entry or transmit such Notice or Notices, or shall therein set forth any thing untruly, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Entry to be made, and Notice given, in case of the Death, Discharge, or Removal of any Patient.

LV. And be it enacted, That in case of the Death of any Patient in any licensed House or any Hospital, a Statement of the Cause of the Death of such Patient, with the Name of any Person present at the Death, shall be drawn up and signed by the Medical Attendant of such House or Hospital, and a Copy thereof, duly certified by the Proprietor or Superintendent of such House or Hospital, shall by him be transmitted to the Commissioners, and also to the Person signing the Order for such Patient's Confinement, and to the Registrar of Deaths for the District, and if such House be within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, then also to the Clerk of such Visitors, within Forty-eight Hours after the Death of such Patient; and every Medical Attendant, Proprietor, or Superintendent who shall neglect or omit to draw up, sign, certify, or transmit such Statement as aforesaid shall for every such Neglect or Omission forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

On Death of a Patient, the Cause of Death to be transmitted to the Commissioners, and, if within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, to Clerk of the Visitors also.

LVI. And be it enacted, That if any Superintendent, Officer, Nurse, Attendant, Servant, or other Person employed in any licensed House or registered Hospital shall in any way abuse or ill-treat any Patient confined therein, or shall wilfully neglect any such Patient, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and that in the event of the Release of any Person from Confinement in any Asylum or private House who shall consider himself to have been unjustly confined, a Copy of the Certificates and Order upon which he has been confined shall at his Request be furnished to him or to his Attorney by the Clerk to the Commissioners, without any Fee or Reward for the same; and it shall be lawful for the Home Secretary, on the Report of the Commissioners or Visitors of any Asylums, to direct Her Majesty's Attorney General to prosecute on the Part of the Crown any Person who shall have been concerned in the unlawful taking or Confinement of any of Her Majesty's Subjects as an insane Patient, and likewise any Person who shall have been concerned in the Neglect or Ill-treatment of any Patient or Person so confined.

Abuse or Ill-treatment or (in certain Cases) Neglect of a Patient to be a Misdemeanor.

LVII. And be it enacted, That in every House licensed for One hundred Patients or more there shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary resident as the Superintendent or Medical Attendant thereof; and that every House licensed for less than One hundred and more than Fifty Patients (in case such House shall not be kept by or have a resident Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary,) shall be visited daily by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; and that every House licensed for less than Fifty Patients (in case such House shall not be kept by or have a resident Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary,) shall be visited twice in every Week by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Visitors of any licensed House to direct that such House, and for the Commissioners to direct that any licensed House, shall be visited by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary at any other Time or Times, not being oftener than once in every Day.

Houses having 100 Patients to have a resident Medical Attendant, and Houses having less to be visited by a Medical Attendant.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any House is licensed to receive less than Eleven Lunatics it shall be lawful for any Two of the Commissioners or any Two of the Visitors of such House, if they shall respectively so think fit, by any Writing under their Hands, to permit that such House shall be visited by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary at such Intervals more distant than twice in every Week as such Commissioners or Visitors shall appoint, but not at a greater Interval than once in every Two Weeks.

Number of Medical Visits may be reduced in Houses licensed for less than 11 Persons.

LIX. And be it enacted, That every Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, where there shall be only One, keeping or residing in or visiting any licensed House or any Hospital, and where there shall be Two or more Physicians, Surgeons, or Apothecaries keeping or residing in or visiting any licensed House or any Hospital, then One at least of such Physicians, Surgeons, or Apothecaries, shall once in every Week (or, in the Case of any House at which Visits at more distant Intervals than once a Week are permitted, on every Visit,) enter and sign in a Book to be kept at such House or Hospital for that Purpose, to be called "The Medical Visitation Book," a Report, showing the Date thereof, and also the Number, Sex, and State of Health of all the Patients then in such House or Hospital, the Christian and

A Book to be kept, to be called "The Medical Visitation Book," in which a weekly Entry is to be made, showing the Condition of the and Surname of every Patient who shall have been under Restraint, or in Seclusion, or under Medical Treatment, since the Date of the last preceding Report, the Condition of the House or Hospital, and every Death, Injury, and Act of Violence which shall have happened to or affected any Patient since the then last preceding Report, according to the Form in Schedule (H.) annexed to this Act; and every such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall omit to enter or sign such Report as aforesaid shall for every such Omission forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and every such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall in any such Report as aforesaid enter any thing untruly shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

A Medical Case Book to be kept.

LX. And be it enacted, That there shall be kept in every licensed House and in every Hospital a Book to be called "The Case Book," in which the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary keeping or residing in or visiting such House or Hospital shall from Time to Time make Entries of the mental State and bodily Condition of each Patient, together with a correct Description of the Medicine and other Remedies prescribed for the Treatment of his Disorder; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time, by any Order under their Common Seal, to direct the Form in which such Case Book shall be kept by such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; and immediately after a Copy of such Order shall have been transmitted by the Secretary of the Commissioners to such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall thereupon keep such Case Book in the Form which shall be directed by such Order; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (whenever they shall see fit) to require, by an Order in Writing under their Common Seal, such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary to transmit to the Commissioners a correct Copy of the Entries or Entry in any Case Book kept under the Provisions of this Act, relative to the Case of any Lunatic who is or may have been confined in any such licensed House or Hospital; and every such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall neglect to keep the said Case Book, or to keep the same according to the Form directed by the Commissioners, or to transmit a Copy of the said Entry or Entries, pursuant to such Order or Orders as aforesaid, shall for every such Neglect forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

All licensed Houses and Hospitals to be visited by the Commissioners.

LXI. And be it enacted, That every licensed House shall, without any previous Notice, be visited by Two at least of the Commissioners (one of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and the other a Barrister,) Four Times at the least in every Year, if such House shall be within the immediate Jurisdiction of the Commissioners, and if not, twice at least in every Year; and every Hospital in which Lunatics shall be received shall, without any previous Notice, be visited by Two at least of the said Commissioners (one of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and the other a Barrister,) once at least in every Year; and every such Visit shall be made on such Day or Days, and at such Hours of the Day, and for such Length of Time, as the Visiting Commissioners shall think fit, and also at such other Times (if any) as the said Commissioners in Lunacy shall direct; and such Visiting Commissioners, when visiting such House or Hospital, may and shall inspect every Part of such House or Hospital, and every Outhouse, Place, and Building communicating with such House or Hospital, or detached therefrom, but not separated by Ground belonging to any other Person, and every Part of the Ground or Appurtenances held, used, or occupied therewith, and see every Patient then confined in such House or Hospital, and inquire whether any Patient is under Restraint, and why, and inspect the Order and Certificates or Certificate for the Reception of every Patient who shall have been received into such House or Hospital since the last Visit of the Commissioners, and in the Case of any House licensed by Justices shall consider the Observations made in the Visitors Book for such House by the Visitors appointed by the Justices, and enter in the Visitors Book of such House or Hospital a Minute of the then Condition of the House or Hospital, and of the Patients therein, and the Number of Patients under Restraint, with the Reasons thereof, as stated, and such Irregularity (if any) as may exist in any such Order or Certificates as aforesaid, and also whether the previous Suggestions (if any) of the Visiting Commissioners or Visitors have or have not been attended to, and any Observations which they may deem proper as to any of the Matters aforesaid or otherwise, and also, if such Visit be the first after the granting a Licence to the House, shall examine such Licence, and, if the same be in conformity with the Provisions of this Act, sign the same, but if it be informal enter in such Visitors Book in what respect such Licence is informal: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, on a Representation by the Commissioners setting forth the Expediency of such Alteration, by any Writing under his Hand, to direct that any House licensed by Justices shall (during such Period as he shall therein specify, or until such his Direction shall be revoked,) be visited by the Commissioners once only in the Year, and also to direct that any House licensed by the Commissioners, and not receiving any Pauper Patients therein, shall (during such Period as he shall therein specify, or until such his Direction shall be revoked,) be visited by the Commissioners twice only in the Year.

Licensed Houses not within the immediate Jurisdiction of the Commissioners to be inspected Four Times a Year at least by the Visitors.

LXII. And be it enacted, That every licensed House within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors appointed by Justices shall be visited by Two at least of the said Visitors (one of whom shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary,) Four Times at the least in every Year, on such Days, and at such Hours in the Day, and for such Length of Time as the said Visitors shall think fit, and also at such other Times (if any) as the Justices by whom such House shall have been licensed shall direct; and such Visitors when visiting any such House may and shall inspect every Part of such House, and every House, Outhouse, Place, and Building communicating therewith, or detached therefrom, but not separated by Ground belonging to any other Person, and every Part of the Ground or Appurtenances held, used, or occupied therewith, and see every Patient then confined therein, and inquire whether any Patient is under Restraint, and why, and inspect the Order and Certificates or Certificate for the Reception of every Patient who shall shall have been received into such House since the last Visit of the Visitors, and enter in the Visitors Book a Minute of the then Condition of the House, of the Patients therein, and the Number of Patients under Restraint, with the Reasons thereof as stated, and such Irregularity (if any) as may exist in any such Order or Certificates as aforesaid, and also whether the previous Suggestions (if any) of the Visitors or Visiting Commissioners have or have not been attended to, and any Observations which they may deem proper as to any of the Matters aforesaid or otherwise.

The Proprietor or Superintendent of every House and Hospital to show every Part and every Patient to the Visiting Commissioners and Visitors.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That the Proprietor or Superintendent of every licensed House or Hospital shall show to the Commissioners and Visitors respectively visiting the same every Part thereof respectively, and every Person detained therein as a Lunatic; and every Proprietor or Superintendent of any licensed House or any Hospital who shall conceal or attempt to conceal, or shall refuse or wilfully neglect to show, any Part of such House or Hospital, or any House, Outhouse, Place, or Building communicating therewith, or detached therefrom, but not separated as aforesaid, or any Part of the Ground or Appurtenances held, used, or occupied therewith, or any Person detained or being therein, from any Visiting Commissioners or Visitors, or from any Person authorized under any Power or Provision of this Act to visit and inspect such House or Hospital, or the Patients confined therein or any of them, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Inquiries to be made by the Commissioners and Visitors on their several Visitations.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That the Visiting Commissioners and Visitors respectively, upon their several Visitations to every licensed House and to every Hospital, shall inquire when Divine Service is performed, and to what Number of the Patients, and the Effect thereof; and also what Occupations or Amusements are provided for the Patients, and the Result thereof; and whether there has been adopted any System of Non-coercion, and, if so, the Result thereof; and also as to the Classification of Patients; and also as to the Condition of the Pauper Patients (if any) when first received; and also as to the Dietary of the Pauper Patients (if any); and shall also make such other Inquiries as to such Visiting Commissioners or Visitors shall seem expedient; and every Proprietor or Superintendent of a licensed House or an Hospital who shall not give full and true Answers to the best of his Knowledge to all Questions which the Visiting Commissioners and Visitors respectively shall ask in reference to the Matters aforesaid shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Books and Documents to be produced to Visiting Commissioners and Visitors.

LXV. And be it enacted, That upon every Visit of the Visiting Commissioners to any licensed House or to any Hospital, and upon every Visit of the Visitors to any licensed House, there shall be laid before such Visiting Commissioners or Visitors (as the Case may be), by the Proprietor or Superintendent of such licensed House or of such Hospital, a List of all the Patients then in such House or Hospital (distinguishing Pauper Patients from other Patients, and Males from Females, and specifying such as are deemed curable), and also the several Books by this Act required to be kept by the Proprietor or Superintendent and by the Medical Attendant of a licensed House or an Hospital, and also all Orders and Certificates relating to Patients admitted since the last Visitation of the Commissioners or Visitors (as the Case may be), and also, in the Case of a licensed House, the Licence then in force for such House, and also all such other Orders, Certificates, Documents, and Papers relating to any of the Patients at any Time received into such licensed House or Hospital as the Visiting Commissioners or Visitors shall from Time to Time require to be produced to them; and the said Visiting Commissioners or Visitors, as the Case may be, shall sign the said Books as having been produced to them.

A Book to be kept called "The Visitor's Book," for the Result of Inspection and Inquiries; and a Book called "The Patient's Book," for Observations.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That there shall be hung up in some conspicuous Part of every licensed House a Copy of the Plan given to the Commissioners or Justices on applying for the Licence for such House; and that there shall be kept in every licensed House and in every Hospital in which Lunatics shall be received a Queen's Printer's Copy of this Act, bound up in a Book to be called "The Visitors Book," and that the said Visiting Commissioners and Visitors respectively shall at the Time of their respective Visitations enter therein the Result of the Inspections and Inquiries herein-before directed or authorized to be made by them respectively, with such Observations (if any) as they shall think proper; and that there shall also be kept in every such House and Hospital a Book to be called "The Patients Book," and that the said Visiting Commissioners and Visitors respectively shall at the Times of their respective Visitations enter therein such Observations as they may think fit respecting the State of Mind or Body of any Patient in such House or Hospital.

Proprietor or resident Superintendent to transmit all Entries by Visitors and Visiting Commissioners to the Clerk of the Visitors and to the Commissioners.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That the Proprietor or resident Superintendent of every licensed House and of every Hospital shall, within Three Days after every such Visit by the Visiting Commissioners as aforesaid, transmit a true and perfect Copy of the Entries made by them in "The Visitors Book," "The Patients Book," and "The Medical Visitation Book" respectively (distinguishing the Entries in the several Books) to the Commissioners, and shall, within Three Days after every such Visitation by the Visitors, transmit a true and perfect Copy of the Entries made by them as aforesaid (distinguishing as aforesaid) to the Commissioners and also to the Clerk of the Visitors; and the Copies so transmitted to the Clerk of the Visitors of all such Entries relating to any licensed House, and made since the Grant or last Renewal of the Licence thereof, shall be laid before the Justices on taking into consideration the Renewal of the Licence to the House to which such Entries shall relate; and every such Proprietor or Superintendent as aforesaid who shall omit to transmit, as herein-before directed, a true and perfect Copy of every or any such Entry as aforesaid, shall for every such Omission forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Commissioners visiting a House licensed by Justices to make an Entry in the LXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners visiting any House licensed by Justices shall carefully consider and give special Attention to the State of Mind of any Patient therein confined, as to the Propriety of whose Detention they shall doubt (or as to whose Sanity their Attention shall be specially called), Patients Book as to the State of Mind of any doubtful Patient, and the same to be sent to the Clerk of the Visitors, who are thereupon to visit such Patient.

called), and shall, if they shall think that the State of Mind of such Patient is doubtful, and that the Propriety of his Detention requires further Consideration, make and sign a Minute thereof in the Patients Book of such House; and a true and perfect Copy of every such Minute shall, within Two clear Days after the same shall have been made, be sent by the Proprietor or Superintendent of such House to the Clerk of the Visitors of such House, and such Clerk shall forthwith communicate the same to the said Visitors, or some Two of them (of whom a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall be One), and such Visitors shall thereupon immediately visit such Patient, and act as they shall see fit; and every such Proprietor or Superintendent who shall omit to send a true and perfect Copy, as herein-before directed, of every or any such last-mentioned Minute, and every Clerk who shall neglect to communicate the same to Two of the Visitors as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Visiting Commissioners to report on every Hospital, &c. out of their Jurisdiction.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That the Visiting Commissioners shall, after every Visitation by them to every licensed House not being within their immediate Jurisdiction, and to every Hospital, report in Writing the general Result of their Inspection thereof (together with such special Circumstances, if any, as they may deem proper to notice,) to the Commissioners, and the Secretary of the Commissioners shall thereupon enter the same in a Book to be kept for that Purpose.

Power for the Commissioners or any Five of them to make Rules.

LXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or any Five of them, at any quarterly or Special Meeting, by any Resolution or Resolutions under their Common Seal, or to be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and signed by Five at least of the Commissioners present at such Meeting, from Time to Time to make such Orders and Rules as they shall think fit for regulating the Duties of the Commissioners or any of them, or of their Secretary, Clerks, and Servants, or for the due or better Performance of the Business of the Commission: Provided nevertheless, that the Secretary of the Commissioners shall give to every Commissioner, so far as Circumstances will admit, not less than Seven Days Notice of every such Special Meeting, and shall in the Summons for such Special Meeting state the Purposes for which the same is intended to be held.

Power in certain Cases to visit by Night.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners, or any Two Visitors, to visit and to inspect any licensed House or Hospital at such Hour of the Night as they shall think fit: Provided nevertheless, that no such Visitor shall make any such Visitation or Inspection except of a licensed House within their Jurisdiction.

Discharge of private Patient by Person who ordered his Reception.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That if and when any Person who signed the Order on which any Patient (not being a Pauper) was received into any licensed House or into any Hospital shall by Writing under his Hand direct that such Patient shall be discharged or removed, then and in such Case such Patient shall forthwith be discharged or removed, as the Person who signed the Order for his Reception shall direct.

Provision for the Discharge of a private Patient when the Person who signed the Order for his Reception is incapable.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That if the Person who signed the Order on which any Patient (not being a Pauper) was received into any licensed House or into any Hospital be incapable by reason of Insanity or Absence from England, or otherwise, of giving an Order for the Discharge or Removal of such Patient, or if such Person be dead, then and in any of such Cases the Husband or Wife of such Patient, or if there be no such Husband or Wife, the Father of such Patient, or if there be no Father, the Mother of such Patient, or if there be no Mother, then any one of the nearest of Kin for the Time being of such Patient, or the Person who made the last Payment on account of such Patient, may by any Writing under his or her Hand give such Direction as aforesaid for the Discharge or Removal of such Patient, and thereupon such Patient shall be forthwith discharged or removed as the Person giving such Direction shall direct.

Mode of Removal or Discharge of Pauper Patients.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Guardians of any Parish or Union may by a Minute of their Board, or an officiating Clergyman of any Parish not under a Board of Guardians, and One of the Overseers thereof, or any Two Justices of the County or Borough in which such last-mentioned Parish is situate, may by Writing under the Hands respectively of such Clergyman and Overseer or of such Justices direct that any Pauper Patient belonging to such Parish or Union, and detained in any licensed House or any Hospital, shall be discharged or removed therefrom, and may direct the Mode of such Discharge or Removal; and if a Copy of such Minute or such Writing be produced to the Proprietor or Superintendent of such licensed House or such Hospital, he shall forthwith discharge or remove such Patient, or cause or suffer such Patient to be discharged or removed accordingly.

No Patient to be removed under any of the preceding Powers, if certified to be dangerous, unless the Commissioners or Visitors consent, or for the Purpose of Transfer to some other Asylum.

LXXV. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no Patient shall be discharged or removed, under any of the Powers herein-before contained, from any licensed House or any Hospital, if the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary by whom the same shall be kept, or who shall be the regular Medical Attendant thereof, shall by Writing under his Hand certify that in his Opinion such Patient is dangerous and unfit to be at large, together with the Grounds on which such Opinion is founded, unless the Commissioners visiting such House or the Visitors of such House shall, after such Certificate shall have been produced to them, give their Consent in Writing that such Patient shall be discharged or removed; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Patient from being transferred from any licensed House or any Hospital to any other licensed House or any other Hospital, or to any Asylum, but in such Case every such Patient shall be placed under the Control of an Attendant belonging to the licensed House, Hospital, or Asylum to or from which he shall be about to be removed for the Purpose of such Removal, and shall remain under such Control until such Time as such Removal shall be duly effected.

Commissioners may discharge any Patient confined in a

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners to make Visits to any Patient detained in any House licensed by the Commissioners, on such Days and at such Hours at they shall think fit; and if after Two distinct and separate Visits so made (Seven Days at least to intervene between such Visits) it shall appear to such Visiting Commissioners that such Patient is detained detained without sufficient Cause, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to make such Order as to the Commissioners shall seem meet for the Discharge of such Patient, and such Patient shall be discharged accordingly.

House licensed by themselves.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners, of whom One shall be a Physician and One a Barrister, to make special Visits to any Patient detained in any House licensed by the Justices or in any Hospital, on such Days and at such Hours as they shall think fit; and if after Two distinct and separate Visits so made it shall appear to such Visiting Commissioners that such Patient is detained without sufficient Cause, they may make such Order as to them shall seem meet for the Discharge of such Patient, and such Patient shall be discharged accordingly.

Special Visits for Discharge of any Patient in a House licensed by Justices or in an Hospital.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of the Visitors of any licensed House, of whom One shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, to make special Visits to any Patient detained in such House, on such Days and at such Hours as they shall think fit; and if after Two distinct and separate Visits so made it shall appear to such Visitors that such Patient is detained without sufficient Cause, they may make such Order as to them shall seem meet for the Discharge of such Patient, and such Patient shall be discharged accordingly.

Similar Powers for Two Visitors as to Houses within their Jurisdiction.

LXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Order by any Commissioners or Visitors for the Discharge of a Patient from any House licensed by Justices, or from any Hospital, shall be signed by them, and that each of such special Visits shall be by the same Commissioners or Visitors; and that it shall not be lawful for such Commissioners or Visitors to order the Discharge of any Patient from any such last-mentioned House or Hospital without having previously, if the Medical Attendant of such House or Hospital shall have tendered himself for that Purpose, examined him as to his Opinion respecting the Fitness of such Patient to be discharged; and if such Commissioners or Visitors shall, after so examining such Medical Attendant, discharge such Patient, and such Medical Attendant shall furnish them with any Statement in Writing containing his Reasons against the Discharge of such Patient, they shall forthwith transmit such Statement to the Commissioners or to the Clerk of the Visitors, as the Case may require, to be kept and registered in a Book for that Purpose.

Every Order for the Discharge of a Patient under the last preceding Powers to be signed by the Persons exercising them, and to be subject to certain Restrictions.

LXXX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That not less than Seven Days shall intervene between the First and Second of such special Visits; and that such Commissioners or Visitors shall, Seven Days previously to the Second of such special Visits, give Notice thereof, either by Post or by an Entry in the Patients Book, to the Proprietor or Superintendent of the House licensed by Justices or of the Hospital in which the Patient intended to be visited is detained; and that such Proprietor or Superintendent shall forthwith, if possible, transmit by Post a Copy of such Notice, in the Case of a Patient not being a Pauper, to the Person by whose Authority such Patient was received into such House, or by whom the last Payment on account of such Patient was made, and in the Case of a Pauper, to the Guardians of his Parish or Union, or if there be no such Guardians, to One of the Overseers for the Time being of his Parish, and also in the Case of any Patient detained in a House licensed by Justices to the Clerk of the Visitors of such House.

The last preceding Powers to be exercised under certain other Restrictions.

LXXXI. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That none of the Powers of Discharge herein-before contained shall extend to any Person who shall have been found lunatic by Inquisition or under any Inquiry directed by the Lord Chancellor, in pursuance of the Powers in that Behalf hereinafter given to him, nor to any Lunatic confined under any Order or Authority of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or under the Order of any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction.

Preceding Powers not to extend to Persons found lunatic by Inquisition, &c.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Visitors of any licensed House at any Time to determine and regulate the Dietary of the Pauper Patients therein; and that it shall be lawful for the Visiting Commissioners at any Time to determine and regulate the Dietary of the Pauper Patients in any licensed House or in any Hospital; and that if such Determination and Regulation of any Visitors and of the Visiting Commissioners shall not agree with each other, then the Determination and Regulation of the Visiting Commissioners shall be followed: Provided always, nevertheless, that every such Regulation shall be made to take effect only from such Time as not to affect any Contract existing on the First Day of June last for the Maintenance of Pauper Patients before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, or the Expiration of such Contract, whichever shall first happen.

Power for Visitors and Visiting Commissioners to regulate the Dietary of Pauper Patients.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall apply to any Visitor in order to be informed whether any particular Person is confined in any licensed House within the Jurisdiction of such Visitor, the said Visitor, if he shall think it reasonable to permit such Inquiry to be made, shall sign an Order to the Clerk of the Visitors, and the said Clerk shall, on Receipt of such Order, and on Payment to him of a Sum not exceeding Seven Shillings for his Trouble, make search amongst the Returns made to him in pursuance of this Act whether the Person inquired after is or has been within the then last Twelve Calendar Months confined in any licensed House within the Jurisdiction of such Visitor; and if it shall appear that such Person is or has been so confined the said Clerk shall deliver to the Person so applying a Statement in Writing, specifying the Situation of the House in which the Person so inquired after appears to be or to have been confined, and of the Name of the Proprietor or resident Superintendent thereof, and also the Date of the Admission of such Person into such licensed House, and (in case of his having been removed or discharged) the Date of his Removal or Discharge therefrom.

Power for any Visitor to give an Order to the Clerk of the Visitors to search and give Information.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall apply to any Commissioner in order to be informed whether any particular Person is confined in any licensed House, or in any Hospital, Asylum, or to the Secretary of the Commissioners to search and give Information whether any particular Person is or has been within Twelve Months confined in any House or Hospital.

Power for any Commissioner to give an Order

or other Place by this Act made subject to the Visitation of the Commissioners, such Commissioner, if he shall think it reasonable to permit such Inquiry to be made, shall sign an Order to the Secretary of the Commissioners, and the Secretary shall, on the Receipt of such Order, and on Payment to him of a Sum not exceeding Seven Shillings (to be applied as herein-before provided), make search amongst the Returns made in pursuance of this Act, or of any of the Acts hereby repealed, whether the Person inquired after is or has been within the last Twelve Calendar Months confined in any House, Hospital, Asylum, or Place by this Act made subject to the Visitation of the Commissioners; and if it shall appear that such Person is or has been so confined the Secretary shall deliver to the Person so applying a Statement in Writing, specifying the Situation of the House, Hospital, Asylum, or Place in which the Person so inquired after appears to be or to have been confined, and also (so far as the said Secretary can ascertain the same from any Register or Return in his Possession) the Name of the Proprietor, Superintendent, or principal Officer of such House, Hospital, Asylum, or Place, and also the Date of the Admission of such Person into such licensed House, Hospital, Asylum, or other Place, and (in case of his having been removed or discharged) the Date of his Removal or Discharge therefrom.

Any One Commissioner or Visitor may give an Order for the Admission to any Patient of any Friend or Relation, or any Person named by a Friend or Relation.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any One of the Commissioners, as to Patients confined in any House, Hospital, or other Place (not being a Gaol) hereby authorized to be visited by the Commissioners, and also for any One of the Visitors of any licensed House as to Patients confined in such House, at any Time to give an Order in Writing under the Hand of such One Commissioner or Visitor for the Admission to any Patient of any Relation or Friend of such Patient (or of any medical or other Person whom any Relation or Friend of such Patient shall desire to be admitted to him), and such Order of Admission may be either for a single Admission, or for an Admission for any limited Number of Times, or for Admission generally at all reasonable Times, and either with or without any Restriction as to such Admission or Admissions being in the Presence of a Keeper or not, or otherwise; and if the Proprietor or Superintendent of any such House, Hospital, or Place shall refuse Admission to, or shall prevent or obstruct the Admission to any Patient of, any Relation, Friend, or other Person who shall produce such Order of Admission as aforesaid, he shall for every such Refusal, Prevention, or Obstruction forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Proprietor or Superintendent, with Consent of Two Commissioners or Visitors, may take or send a Patient to any Place for his Health.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Superintendent of any licensed House or of any Hospital, with the Consent in Writing of any Two of the Commissioners, or in the Case of a House licensed by Justices of any Two of the Visitors of such House, to send or take, under proper Control, any Patient to any specified Place for any definite Time for the Benefit of his Health: Provided always, nevertheless, that before any such Consent as aforesaid shall be given by any Commissioners or Visitors the Approval in Writing of the Person who signed the Order for the Reception of such Patient, or by whom the past Payment on account of such Patient was made, shall be produced to such Commissioners or Visitors, unless they shall, on cause being shown, dispense with the same.

In case of Removal of a Patient, or of his Escape and Recapture within 14 Days, the original Order for his Reception to remain in force.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Patient shall, under any of the Powers or Provisions of this Act, be removed temporarily from the House or Hospital into which the Order for his Reception was given, or be transferred from such House or Hospital into any new House, and also in every Case in which any Patient shall escape from any House or Hospital, and shall be retaken within Fourteen Days next after such Escape, the Certificate or Certificates relating to and the original Order for the Reception of such Patient shall respectively remain in force, in the same Manner as the same would have done if such Patient had not been so removed or transferred, or had not so escaped and been retaken.

Commissioners to report to the Lord Chancellor periodically.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall, at the Expiration of every Six Calendar Months, report to the Lord Chancellor the Number of Visits which they shall have made, the Number of Patients whom they shall have seen, and the Number of Miles which they shall have travelled during such Months, and shall on the First Day of January in each Year make a Return to the Lord Chancellor of all Sums received by them for travelling Expences, or upon any other and what Account, and shall also in the Month of June in every Year make to the Lord Chancellor a Report of the State and Condition of the several Houses, Hospitals, Asylums, and other Places visited by them under this Act, and of the Care of the Patients therein, and of such other Particulars as they shall think deserving of Notice; and a true Copy of such Reports, showing the Number of Visits made, the Number of Patients seen, and the Number of Miles travelled, and also a Copy of such Return of Sums received for travelling Expences, or on any other and what Account, shall be laid before Parliament within Twenty-one Days next after the Commencement of every Session of Parliament.

Constitution of the Private Committee.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That the permanent Chairman for the Time being of the Commissioners, and Two other of the Commissioners to be appointed by the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time as Occasion may require (one of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and the other a Barrister), shall be a Committee, to be called "The Private Committee," for the Purposes herein-after mentioned.

No Person (except a Person deriving no Profit, or a Committee,) to take charge of

XC. And be it enacted, That no Person (unless he be a Person who derives no Profit from the Charge, or a Committee appointed by the Lord Chancellor) shall receive to board or lodge in any House, other than an Hospital registered under this Act, or an Asylum, or a House licensed under this Act, or under one of the Acts herein-before repealed, or take the Care or Charge of any One Patient as a Lunatic or alleged Lunatic, without the like Order and Medical Certificates in respect of such Patient as as are herein-before required on the Reception of a Patient (not being a Pauper) into a licensed House; and that every Person (except a Person deriving no Profit from the Charge, or a Committee appointed by the Lord Chancellor,) who shall receive to board or lodge in any unlicensed House, not being a registered Hospital or an Asylum, or take the Care or Charge of any One Patient as a Lunatic or alleged Lunatic, shall, within Seven clear Days after so receiving or taking such Patient, transmit to the Secretary of the Commissioners a true and perfect Copy of the Order and Medical Certificates on which such Patient has been so received, and a Statement of the Date of such Reception, and of the Situation of the House into which such Patient has been received, and of the Christian and Surname and Occupation of the Occupier thereof and of the Person by whom the Care and Charge of such Patient has been taken; and every such Patient shall at least Once in every Two Weeks be visited by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary not deriving, and not having a Partner, Father, Son, or Brother who derives, any Profit from the Care or Charge of such Patient; and such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall enter in a Book, to be kept at the House or Hospital for that Purpose, to be called "The Medical Visitation Book," the Date of each of his Visits, and a Statement of the Condition of the Patient's Health, both mental and bodily, and of the Condition of the House in which such Patient is, and such Book shall be produced to the Visiting Commissioner on every Visit, and shall be signed by him as having been so produced; and the Person by whom the Care or Charge of such Patient has been taken, or into whose House he has been received as aforesaid, shall transmit to the Secretary of the Commissioners the same Notices and Statements of the Death, Removal, Escape, and Re-capture of such Lunatic, and within the same Periods, as are herein-before required in the Case of the Death, Removal, Escape, and Re-capture of a Patient (not being a Pauper) received into a licensed House; and that every Person who shall receive into an unlicensed House, not being a registered Hospital nor an Asylum, or take the Care or Charge of any Person therein as a Lunatic, without first having such Order and Medical Certificates as aforesaid, or who, having received any such Patient, shall not within the several Periods aforesaid transmit to the Secretary of the Commissioners such Copy, Statement, and Notices as aforesaid, or shall fail to cause such Patient to be so visited by a Medical Attendant as aforesaid, and every such Medical Attendant who shall make an untrue Entry in the said Medical Visitation Book, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

a single Lunatic, except upon such Order and Medical Certificates as aforesaid, and under certain Obligations.

XCI. And be it enacted, That the Secretary to the Commissioners shall preserve every Copy transmitted as aforesaid of the Order and Certificates for the Reception of any Patient as a Lunatic into an unlicensed House, and every Statement and Notice which may be transmitted to such Secretary with respect to any such Patient as aforesaid, and shall enter the same (in such Form as the private Committee shall direct) in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, to be called "The Private Register," and such Private Register shall be kept by such Secretary in his own Custody, and shall be inspected only by the Members for the Time being of the said Private Committee, and by such other Persons as the Lord Chancellor shall by Writing under his Hand appoint.

Copy of Order, &c. with respect to Lunatics received into an unlicensed House to be entered in a private Register.

XCII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any One Member of the said Private Committee, on the Direction of such Committee, or of any Two Members thereof (of whom the One Member aforesaid may be One), at all reasonable Times to visit every or any unlicensed House in which One Patient only is received as a Lunatic (unless such Patient be so received by a Person deriving no Profit from the Charge, or by a Committee appointed by the Lord Chancellor), and to inquire and report to the said Private Committee on the Treatment and State of Health, both bodily and mental, of such Patient; and a Copy of every or any such Report shall be entered in a Private Register, to be kept for that Purpose, by the Secretary of the Commissioners, and another Copy thereof shall, if such Private Committee think it expedient, be laid before the Lord Chancellor.

Members of the Private Committee to visit unlicensed Houses receiving a single Patient, and report.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, on the Representation of the said Private Committee, accompanied with a Copy of a Report made as last aforesaid as to any Patient received or detained as a Lunatic in an unlicensed House as aforesaid, to make an Order that such Patient shall be removed from such House, and from the Care and Charge of the Person under whose Care and Charge such Lunatic may be; and any Person detaining such Lunatic in such House, or in such Care or Charge, for the Space of Three Days after a Copy of such Order shall have been left at such House or served on such Person, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

The Lord Chancellor on such Report, and the Representation of Private Committee, may order a Lunatic to be removed.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That whenever the Commissioners shall have Reason to suppose that the Property of any Person detained or taken charge of as a Lunatic is not duly protected, or that the Income thereof is not duly applied for his Maintenance, such Commissioners shall make such Inquires relative thereto as they shall think proper, and report thereon to the Lord Chancellor.

Commissioners to report if Property of Lunatics be not duly protected, &c.

XCV. And be it enacted, That when any Person shall have been received or taken charge of as a Lunatic upon an Order and Certificates, or an Order and Certificate in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, or of any Act herein-before repealed, and shall either have been detained as a Lunatic for the Twelve Months then last past, or shall have been the Subject of a Report by the Commissioners in pursuance of the Provision lastly herein-before contained, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to direct that One of the said Masters in Lunacy shall, and thereupon One of the said Masters shall personally examine such Person, and shall take such Evidence and call for such Information as to such Master shall seem necessary to satisfy him whether such Person is a Lunatic, and shall report thereon to the Lord Chancellor, and such Report shall be filed with the Secretary of Lunatics; and it shall be lawful

The Lord Chancellor to direct the Master in Lunacy to report as to the Lunacy of any Person detained as a Lunatic, and to appoint Guardians of his Person and lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to make Orders for the Appointment of a Guardian, or otherwise, for the Protection, Care, and Management of the Person of any Person who shall by any such Report as last aforesaid be found to be a Lunatic, and such Guardian shall have the same Powers and Authorities as a Committee of the Person of a Lunatic found such by Inquisition now has, and also to make Orders for the Appointment of a Receiver, or otherwise, for the Protection, Care, and Management of the Estate of such Lunatic, and such Receiver shall have the same Powers and Authorities as a Receiver of the Estate of a Lunatic found such by Inquisition now has, and also to make Orders for the Application of the Income of such Lunatic, or a sufficient Part thereof, for his Maintenance and Support, and in Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the Protection, Care, and Management of the Person and Estate of such Lunatic, and also as to the Investment or other Application for the Purpose of Accumulation of the Overplus, if any, of such Income for the Use of such Lunatic, as to the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time in each Case seem fit: Provided always, that such Protection, Care, and Management shall continue only during such Time as such Lunatic shall continue to be detained as a Lunatic upon an Order and Certificates or Certificate as aforesaid, and for such further Time not exceeding Six Months as the Lord Chancellor may fix: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor in any such Case, either before or after directing such Inquiry by such Master as aforesaid, and whether such Master shall have made a Report as aforesaid or not, to direct a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo to issue, to inquire of the Lunacy of such Person.

Masters in Lunacy to have all necessary Powers of Inquiry, and to make Inquiries referred to them.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That such Masters shall have Power, in the Prosecution of all Inquiries and Matters which may be referred to them as aforesaid or otherwise under this Act, to summon Persons before them, and to administer Oaths, and take Evidence either vivâ voce or on Affidavit, and to require the Production of Books, Papers, Accounts, and Documents; and that the Lord Chancellor may by any Order (either general or particular) refer to the said Masters any Inquiries under the Provisions of this Act relating to the Person and Estate of any Lunatic as to whom a Report shall be made by a Master as aforesaid, in like Manner as Inquiries relating to the Persons and Estates of Lunatics found such by Inquisition are now referred to them.

Lord Chancellor to make Orders and Regulations, and fix Fees.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to make such Orders as shall to him seem fit for regulating the Form and Mode of Proceeding before the Lord Chancellor and before the said Masters, and of any other Proceedings pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, for the due Protection, Care, and Management of the Persons and Estates of Lunatics as to whom such Reports shall be made by the said Masters as aforesaid, and also for fixing, altering, and discontinuing the Fees to be received and taken in respect of such Proceedings, as to the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time seem fit: Provided nevertheless, that all Fees to be so received and taken shall be paid into the Bank of England, and placed to the Credit of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Account intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," in like Manner as and together with the Fees payable under the Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and amend the Practice and Course of Proceeding under Commissions in the Nature of Writs de lunatico inquirendo, and be applied in like Manner as such last-mentioned Fees.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 84.

Masters Expences how to be paid.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That the travelling and other Expences of the said Masters and their Clerks shall be paid to them, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Court of Chancery, out of the said Fund, intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," in the same Manner as their Expences under the said last-mentioned Act.

Proprietors, Superintendents, and other authorized Persons, may plead the Order and Certificates for receiving any Lunatic in bar of all Proceedings at Law.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That every Proprietor and Superintendent of a licensed House or registered Hospital, and every other Person hereby or by any of the Acts herein-before repealed authorized to receive or take charge of a Lunatic upon an Order, and who shall receive or has received a proper Order, in pursuance of this Act or any of the said repealed Acts, accompanied with the required Medical Certificates or Certificate, for the Reception or taking charge of any Person as a Lunatic, and the Assistants and Servants of such Proprietor, Superintendent, or other Person, shall have Power and Authority to take charge of, receive, and detain such Patient until he shall die or be removed or discharged by due Authority, and in case of the Escape at any Time or Times of such Patient to retake him at any Time within Fourteen Days after such Escape, and again to detain him as aforesaid; and in every Writ, Indictment, Information, Action, and other Proceeding which shall be preferred or brought against any such Proprietor, Superintendent, or other Person authorized as aforesaid, or against any Assistant or Servant of any such Proprietor, Superintendent, or authorized Person, for taking, confining, detaining, or retaking any Person as a Lunatic, the Party complained of may plead such Order and Certificates or Certificate in defence to any such Writ, Indictment, Information, Action, or other Proceeding as aforesaid, and such Order and Certificates or Certificate shall, as respects such Party, be a Justification for taking, confining, detaining, or retaking such Lunatic or alleged Lunatic.

Commissioners and Visitors may summon Witnesses to give Evidence, with a Penalty

C. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Two of them, and also for the Visitors of any licensed House, or any Two of such Visitors, from Time to Time as they shall see Occasion, to require, by Summons under the Common Seal of the Commission, if by the Commissioners, and if by Two only of the Commissioners or by Two Visitors, then under the Hands and Seals of such Two Commissioners or Two Visitors, as the Case may be, (according to the Form in Schedule (I.) annexed annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the Case will permit,) any Person to appear before them to testify on Oath the Truth touching any Matters respecting which such Commissioners and Visitors respectively are by this Act authorized to inquire (which Oath such Commissioners or Visitors are hereby empowered to administer); and every Person who shall not appear before such Commissioners or Visitors, pursuant to such Summons, or shall not assign some reasonable Excuse for not so appearing, or shall appear and refuse to be sworn or examined, shall, on being convicted thereof before One of Her Majesty's Justices for the County or Borough within which the Place at which such Person shall have been by such Summons required to appear and give Evidence is situate, shall for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds. for Noncompliance.

CI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Commissioners or Visitors who shall summon any Person to appear and give Evidence as aforesaid to direct the Secretary of the Commissioners or the Clerk of such Visitors, as the Case may be, to pay to such Person all reasonable Expences of his Appearance and Attendance in pursuance of such Summons, the same to be considered as Expences incurred by such Commissioners and Visitors respectively in the Execution of this Act, and to be taken into account and paid accordingly. Provision for the Payment of Witnesses Expences.

CII. And be it enacted, That every Complaint or Information of or for any Offence against this Act, where any pecuniary Penalty is hereby imposed, (except when hereby otherwise provided for,) may be made before One Justice; and when any Person shall be charged upon Oath before a Justice for any such Offence against this Act, such Justice may summon the Person charged to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, and upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons (either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode) any Two Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the Case, or may issue their Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before any Two Justices; and any Two Justices shall and may, upon the appearing of such Person pursuant to such Summons, or upon such Person being apprehended with such Warrant, or upon the Non-appearance of such Person, hear the Matter of every such Complaint or Information, and make any such Determination thereon as such Justices shall think proper; and upon Conviction of any Person such Justices may, if they shall think fit, reduce the Amount of the Penalty by this Act imposed for such Offence to any Sum not less than One Fourth of the Amount thereof, and shall and may issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals for levying such Penalty or reduced Penalty, and all Costs and Charges of such Summons, Warrant, and Hearing and all incidental Costs and Charges by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person so convicted; and it shall be lawful for any such Two Justices to order any Person so convicted to be detained and kept in the Custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the said Offender shall give Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justices, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, for his Appearance before such Justices, on such Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security; but if upon the Return of such Warrant of Distress it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had whereupon to levy the said Penalty, and such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justices, either by the Confession of the Offender or otherwise, that the Offender hath not sufficient Goods and Chattels whereupon the said Penalty, Costs, and Charges may be levied, such Justices shall and may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty, and all such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, shall be sooner paid; and all such Penalties when recovered, shall be paid, when the Complaint or Information shall be laid or brought by or by the Direction of the Commissioners, to the Secretary of the Commissioners, to be by him applied and accounted for as herein-before directed with respect to Monies received for Licences granted by the Commissioners, and when the Complaint or Information shall be laid or brought by the Direction of any Visitors to the Clerk of the Peace for the County or Borough, to be by him applied and accounted for as herein-before directed with respect to Monies received for Licences granted by the Justices of such County or Borough; and the Overplus (if any) arising from such Distress and Sale, after Payment of the Penalty and all Costs and Charges as aforesaid, shall be paid, upon demand, to the Owner of the Goods and Chattels so distrained. Upon Complaint made of any Offence against this Act, Justices to require the Attendance of the Person charged, and adjudicate thereon. Recovery of Penalties, and Application thereof.

CIII. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act for which a pecuniary Penalty is imposed may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form, or in any other Form to the same Effect, as the Case may require; and that no Conviction under this Act shall be void through Want of Form: Form of Conviction before Justices.

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord
' at in the County [or Borough] of A.B. was ' convicted before us of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County [or Borough],
' for that he the said did and we the said adjudge
' the said for his Offence to pay the Sum of .'

CIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any Order or Determination of any Justices under this Act may, within Four Calendar Months after such Order made or given, appeal to the Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, the Person appealing having first Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

first given at least Fourteen clear Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and the Nature and Matter thereof, to the Person appealed against, and forthwith after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order and Award of the said Court thereupon; and the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, upon the Proof of such Notice and Recognizance having been given and entered into, shall in a summary Way hear and determine such Appeal, or, if they think proper, adjourn the hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions, and, if they see Cause, may mitigate any Penalty to not less than One Fourth of the Amount imposed by this Act, and may order any Money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such Order or Determination, and shall and may also award such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured, or such Costs to either of the Parties, as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such Determinations of the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all Parties to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Actions to be commenced within Twelve Calendar Months.

Act may be given in Evidence.

CV. And be it enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act or of any of the Acts hereby repealed, the same shall be commenced within Twelve Calendar Months next after the Release of the Party bringing the Action, and shall be laid or brought in the County or Borough where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant in every such Action or Suit may, at his Election, plead specially or the General Issue Not Guilty, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to be so done, or that such Action or Suit shall be brought in any other County or Borough than as aforesaid, or shall not have been commenced within the Time before limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant; and upon a Verdict being so found, or if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action or Suit after the Defendant shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, then the Defendant shall recover Double Costs, and have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant hath or may have in any other Cases by Law.

Offenders to be prosecuted, and Penalties sued for by the Secretary of the Commissioners and the Clerk of any Visitors, and by no Person without the Authority of the Commissioners or Visitors.

CVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Commissioners, on their Order, to prosecute any Person for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, and to sue for and recover any Penalty to which any Person is made liable by this Act; and all Penalties sued for and recovered by such Secretary shall be paid to him, and be by him applied and accounted for as herein-before directed with respect to Monies received for Licences granted by the Commissioners; and that it shall be lawful for the Clerk of any Visitors, on their Order, to prosecute any Person for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act committed within the Jurisdiction of such Visitors, and to sue for and recover any Penalty to which any Person within the Jurisdiction of such Visitors is made liable by this Act; and all Penalties sued for and recovered by any such Clerk shall be paid to him, and be by him paid to the Clerk of the Peace for such County or Borough, and be by such Clerk of the Peace applied and accounted for as herein-before directed with respect to Monies received for Licences by such Clerk of the Peace; and it shall not be lawful for any one to prosecute any Person for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, or to sue for any Penalty to which any Person is made liable by this Act, except by Order of the Commissioners or of Visitors having Jurisdiction in the Place where the Cause of Prosecution has arisen or the Penalty been incurred, or with the Consent of Her Majesty's Attorney General or Solicitor General for England for the Time being.

Offenders against the Provisions of any of the repealed Acts may be prosecuted under this Act.

CVII. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding the repeal of the several Acts herein-before repealed, every Offence heretofore committed against any of the Provisions of any of the same Acts may be prosecuted, and every Penalty heretofore incurred by any Person for any Offence against the Provisions of any of the same Acts may be sued for and recovered, by the Secretary of the Commissioners, in the same Manner and with all the same Powers and Rights as if such Offence had been committed or such Penalty incurred for an Offence against the Provisions of this Act; and every Penalty so recovered shall be applied in the same Manner as a Penalty recovered for an Offence against the Provisions of this Act.

No Person to be punishable for omitting to send any Copy, &c., if proved to have been put in the Post, or left at the proper Office.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That when any Person shall be proceeded against, under the Provisions of this Act, for omitting to transmit or send any Copy, List, Notice, Statement, or other Document herein-before required to be transmitted or sent by such Person, and such Person shall prove by the Testimony of One Witness upon Oath that the Copy, List, Notice, Statement, or Document in respect of which such Proceeding is taken was put into the Post in due Time, or (in case of Documents required to be transmitted or sent to the Commissioners or a Clerk of the Peace) left at the Office of the Commissioners or of the Clerk of the Peace, and shall have been properly addressed, such Proof shall be a Bar to all further Proceeding in respect of such Omission.

Costs of Commissioners to be paid by their Secretary, and Costs of Visitors by Clerk of the Peace.

CIX. And be it enacted, That the Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred by or under the Authority or Order of the Commissioners in Proceedings under this Act shall be paid by the Secretary of the Commissioners, and included by him in the Account of Receipts and Payments herein-before directed to be kept by him; and that the Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred by or under the Order of any Visitors in Proceedings under this Act shall be paid by the Clerk of the Peace of their County or Borough, and included by him in the Account of Receipts and Payments herein-before directed to be kept by him.

Commissioners to visit Asylums and Gaols.

CX. And be it enacted, That Two or more of the Commissioners, One at least of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and One at least a Barrister, shall and may, once or oftener in each Year, on such Day or Days, and at such Hours of the Day, and for such Length of Time as they shall think fit, visit every Asylum for Lunatics, and every Gaol in which there shall be or alleged to be any Lunatic, and shall shall inquire whether the Provisions of the Law have been carried out as to the Construction of each Asylum visited, and as to its Visitation and Management, and also as to the Regularity of the Admissions and Discharges of Patients therein and therefrom; and whether Divine Service is performed therein; and whether any System of Coercion is in practice therein, and the Result thereof; and as to the Classification or Nonclassification of Patients therein, and the Number of Attendants on each Class; and as to the Occupations and Amusements of the Patients, and the Effects thereof; and as to the Condition, as well mental as bodily, of the Pauper Patients when first received; and also as to the Dietary of the Pauper Patients; and shall also make such other Inquiries as to every or any such Asylum, and all such Inquiries as to the Lunatics in any Gaol, as to such Visiting Commissioners shall seem meet.

Commissioners to visit Workhouses.

CXI. And be it enacted, That Two or more of the Commissioners, One at least of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon, and One at least a Barrister, shall and may, once or oftener in each Year, on such Day or Days, and such Hours in the Day, and for such Length of Time as they shall think fit, visit every Parish and Union Workhouse in which there shall be or alleged to be any Lunatic, and shall inquire whether the Provisions of the Law as to Lunatics have been carried out as to the Arrangements, Visitation, and Management of such Workhouse, and as to the Dietary, Accommodation, and Treatment of the Lunatics in such Workhouse, and shall report in Writing thereon to the Poor Law Commissioners for England and Wales.

Provision for the Visitation of Lunatics under the Care of Committees, and also of State and Criminal Lunatics, and other Lunatics not comprised in the preceding Provisions.

CXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, in the Case of any Lunatic under the Care of a Committee appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and for the Lord Chancellor, or Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in the Case of any Lunatic under the Care of any Person receiving or taking the Charge of such One Lunatic only, and deriving no Profit from the Charge, and in the Case of any Person confined as a State Lunatic, or as a Lunatic under the Order of any Criminal Court of Justice, and in the Case of every other Person detained or taken Charge of as a Lunatic, or represented to be a Lunatic, or to be under any Restraint as a Lunatic, at any Time, by an Order in Writing under the Hand of the Lord Chancellor or the said Secretary of State, as the Case may be, directed to the Commissioners or any of them, or to any other Person, to require the Persons or Person to whom such Order shall be directed, or any of them, to visit and examine such Lunatic or supposed Lunatic, and to make a Report to the Lord Chancellor, or to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, of such Matters as in such Order shall be directed to be inquired into.

Power for the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for the Home Department to authorize a special Visitation of any Place where a Lunatic is represented to be confined.

CXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor or Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department to employ any Commissioner appointed under this Act, or other Person, to inspect or inquire into the State of any Asylum, Hospital, Gaol, House, or Place wherein any Lunatic, or Person represented to be lunatic, shall be confined or alleged to be confined, and to report to him the Result of such Inspection and Inquiry; and every such Person so employed, and not being a Commissioner, may be paid such Sum of Money for his Attendance and Trouble as to the Lord Chancellor or Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall seem reasonable; and every such Person so employed, whether a Commissioner or not, shall be allowed his reasonable travelling or other Expences while so employed; and such Sum of Money for Attendance and Trouble, and such Expences, shall be charged on and shall be paid out of the Contingency Fund of the Home Office.

CAP. CIII.

An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and to amend, an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty, for permitting Wheat to be delivered from the Warehouse or the Vessel Duty-free, upon the previous Substitution of an equivalent Quantity of Flour or Biscuit in the Warehouse. [4th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of 'the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to permit, until the Thirty-first Day of 'August One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, Wheat to be delivered from the Warehouse or the 'Vessel Duty-free, upon the previous Substitution of an equivalent Quantity of Flour or Biscuit in the 'Warehouse: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued for the Term 'herein-after specified; but it is necessary that the same should be amended in certain respects:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, except so far as the same or any Part thereof is hereby altered or repealed, shall continue in force until the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and from thence until the End of the next Session of Parliament. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 92. Recited Act (except as altered or repealed by this Act) continued for Three Years.

II. 'And

Same Period allowed for entering Wheat from a Vessel as from the Warehouse.

II. 'And whereas it is enacted by the said Act that Persons having deposited in any Warehouse in the 'Manner required by the said Act any Quantity of Fine Wheat Flour or Biscuit, or being Holders of 'certain Certificates in the said Act mentioned, shall be entitled to enter Duty-free from any Vessel 'certain Quantities of Wheat: And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Period within which such 'Entry ought to be made; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the same 'Period should be allowed for entering Wheat Duty-free from any Vessel as is now allowed for entering 'Wheat from the Warehouse;' be it therefore enacted, That any Person, being entitled under the Provisions of the said Act to enter any Wheat Duty-free from any Vessel, may enter such Wheat Duty-free from such Vessel at any Time or Times, and at such Time or Times only, at which it would be lawful under the Provisions of the said Act for such Person to enter such Wheat if the same were in any Warehouse.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Standard Samples of Biscuit.

III. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs shall forthwith provide Samples of the several Kinds of Biscuit in the said Act mentioned, and such Samples shall be deemed Standard Samples, for the Purpose of comparing therewith any Biscuit tendered to be deposited as being Captains Biscuit, or Biscuit of the Standard supplied to Her Majesty's Navy, or common Ship's Biscuit; and the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time renew such Standard Samples as they may deem it expedient.

Repeal of certain Penalties imposed by the said Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as relates to the Forfeiture in certain Cases of Parcels or Packages tendered to be deposited under the Provisions thereof, and to the Imposition of Penalties upon Persons tendering the same for the Purpose of being deposited, shall be repealed.

Penalties for depositing Articles of inferior Quality.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Parcel or Package, being or containing any other Article than Flour, or any other Flour than fine Wheat Flour in sound Condition, is tendered to be deposited under the Provisions of the said Act as being or containing Flour, or if any Parcel or Package being or containing any other Article than Biscuit is tendered to be deposited under the Provisions of the said Act as being or containing Biscuit, or if any Parcel or Package being or containing Biscuit of an inferior Quality to the Standard Sample of any One of the several Kinds of Biscuits in the said Act mentioned, or being or containing Biscuit not in sound Condition, is tendered to be deposited under the Provisions of the said Act as being or containing Biscuit of that Kind, such Parcel or Package and the Contents thereof shall be forfeited; and any Person so tendering any such Parcel or Package to be deposited as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every Hundred Pounds Weight of the Wheat for which such Parcel or Package was tendered to be substituted; and such Forfeitures and Penalties, and any other Forfeitures imposed by the said Act, shall be recovered and dealt with in all respects as Forfeitures and Penalties under any Law relating to the Customs are recovered and dealt with.

Flour not to be taken out of Bond for Four Weeks.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Flour deposited in the Warehouse under the Provisions of the said Act shall be entered from the Warehouse for Home Consumption until Four Weeks after the Day on which it was deposited.

Alteration of Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CIV.

An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to appropriate to Building Purposes the Area of Darby Court, in the Parish of Saint James Westminster.

[4th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, in right of Her Crown, is seised to Her Majesty, 'Her Heirs and Successors, of a Plot of Ground, with the Messuages or Tenements standing 'thereon, situate in the Parish of Saint James Westminster in the County of Middlesex, abutting North-'ward on Piccadilly, and Southward on Jermyn Street, and including the open Area of a Court or 'Passage leading from Jermyn Street to Piccadilly aforesaid, subject nevertheless, as to the last-men-'tioned Area, to the Power and Superintendence of the paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the 'same, vested in the Commissioners for paving and improving the Parish of Saint James Westminster, 'and subject, as respects Two Messuages or Tenements, numbered respectively 6 and 7 in Darby Court 'aforesaid, to a certain Indenture of Lease whereby the said Two Messuages or Tenements were, together 'with other Property of the Crown, demised to Samuel Rickards, his Executors, Administrators, and 'Assigns, for a Term which will expire on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and 'eighty-four: And whereas all the Houses and Buildings now standing in or abutting upon Darby Court 'aforesaid (with the Exception of Numbers 6 and 7 aforesaid) are about to be pulled down with the 'view of a substantial public Building being erected on the Site thereof, and also on the Site of the said 'Court, or of some Part thereof respectively:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Ground and open Area of the said Court called Darby Court shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, freed and discharged from all Rights of Way and other Rights and Easements whatsoever, into, through, or over the same, and freed and discharged of and from the Power and Superintendence of the paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watering, and improving the said Court, and preventing Nuisances and Obstructions therein, now vested in the Commissioners for paving and improving improving the Parish of Saint James Westminster, all which said Rights of Way, and other Rights and Easements, Power and Superintendence, shall be and the same are hereby extinguished; and it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to take and use or demise the said Ground and Premises so freed and discharged as aforesaid for building or other Purposes, and either together with the adjoining Ground and Premises, the Property of Her Majesty, and as Part or Parcel thereof, or separately therefrom, in as full and ample Manner as they are by Law authorized and empowered to take, use, or demise any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown under their Care and Management.

The Area of Darby Court vested in Her Majesty, discharged of Rights of Way.

Saving the Rights of the Lessee.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice or affect the Term, Estate, and Interest of the said Samuel Rickards, his Executors, Administrators, Under-tenants, or Assigns, under the herein-before mentioned Indenture of Lease; and such Term, Estate, and Interest shall remain whole and unimpaired as if this Act had not been passed.

Saving the Jurisdiction of the Paving Commissioners as to rating.

III. And be it enacted, That the Exclusion herein-before contained of the Area of the said Court from the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners for paving and improving the Parish of Saint James Westminster, as to paving, cleansing, and lighting the same, shall not extend to exclude the same from the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners as to rating, but the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners as to rating all and every the Persons and Person who shall inhabit, use, or occupy all or any of the Houses or Buildings to be erected on the said Area, Ground, and Premises, shall remain whole and unimpaired as if this Act had not been passed.

Public Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

CAP. CV.

An Act for amending certain Acts of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, for facilitating the Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery; and for providing for the Discharge of the Duties of the Subpœna Office after the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present Patentee of that Office. [4th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for facilitating the Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery, whereby Power 3&4 Vict. c.94.
'was given to the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and the 'Vice Chancellor, or One of them, to make, from Time to Time, and at any Time within Five Years
'from the passing of the said Act, any Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Purposes in the said Act
'mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations should be laid 'before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament should be then sitting, immediately upon the making
'or issuing of the same, or if Parliament should not then be sitting, then within Five Days after the 'next Meeting thereof: And whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her 4&5 Vict. c.52.
'present Majesty, whereby it was enacted, that every such Rule, Order, or Regulation made in pursuance 'of the said recited Act should, from and after the Time in that Behalf to be appointed by the Lord
'Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as aforesaid, and if no Time should be so appointed, then
'from and after the making thereof, be binding and obligatory on the said Court, and be of like Force
'and Effect as if the Provisions therein contained had been expressly enacted by Parliament; and it was 'thereby provided, that if either of the Houses of Parliament should, by any Resolution passed at any 'Time before such House of Parliament should have actually sat Thirty-six Days after such Rules,
'Orders, and Regulations should have been laid before such House of Parliament, resolve that the whole
'or any Part of such Rules, Orders, or Regulations ought not to continue in force, in such Case the 'whole, or such Part thereof as should be so included in such Resolution, should from and after such 'Resolution cease to be binding and obligatory on the said Court; and it was thereby also provided,
'that no such Rule, Order, or Regulation as aforesaid should by virtue of the said Act be of the like
'Force and Effect as if the Provisions therein contained had been expressly made by Parliament, unless
'the same should be expressed to be made in pursuance of the said Act and of the now-reciting Act;
'and that every such Rule, Order, or Regulation so expressed to be made in pursuance of the said Act and
'of the now-reciting Act, which should not be laid before both Houses of Parliament within the Time by 'the said recited Act limited for that Purpose, should from and after the Expiration of such Time be 'absolutely void and of no Effect: And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign 'of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the Administration of Justice, 5 Vict. c.5.
'under the Authority of which Two additional Vice Chancellors have been appointed; and it was 'thereby enacted, that from and after the Appointment of the Vice Chancellors, under the said now-
'reciting Act, it should be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice or Consent of the Master 'of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors for the Time being, or any Two of them, and he was thereby 'authorized and empowered, to do all such Acts, and to make and issue all such Rules and Orders, as
'by any Act or Acts of Parliament then in force the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice or Consent of 'the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellor for the Time being, or One of them, was empowered
'to do, make, or issue: And whereas Rules, Orders, or Regulations have from Time to Time been made
'in pursuance of the said Two first-recited Acts, but it is expedient to extend the Time limited by the The Term of 'said first-recited Act for the making thereof in manner herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore Five Years, enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords within which Spiritual certain Rules,

Orders, &c. were directed by the first-recited Act to be made, extended to Ten Years.

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Term of Five Years, which under and by virtue of the said first-recited Act now stands limited as the Time within which any Rules, Orders, or Regulations thereby or by the said Two other Acts authorized and required to be made must be so made, shall be and the same is hereby extended to Ten Years from the passing of the said first-recited Act, as if such Term of Ten Years had been originally contained in that Act.

All Rules, &c. to be deemed general Rules, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That all Rules, Orders, and Regulations made and to be hereafter made under the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, shall for all Purposes be deemed and taken to be general Rules and Orders of the High Court of Chancery.

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 94.

III. 'And whereas by another Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Regulation of the Proceedings and Practice of certain 'Offices of the High Court of Chancery in England, it was enacted, that from and after the Death, 'Resignation, or Removal from his Office of the present Patentee of the Subpœna Office all the Duties 'of such Office should be performed by the Clerk of the Affidavits, who should thereupon receive and 'account for, in manner therein-after mentioned, all the Fees then receivable by the said Patentee: 'And whereas since the passing of the last-mentioned Act Four Clerks of Records and Writs have been 'appointed, by whom the Business of issuing Writs on the Equity Side of the Court of Chancery, other 'than such Writs as are issuable by the Patentee of the Subpœna Office, is now discharged: And 'whereas it is expedient that the Duties of the Patentee of the Subpœna Office should be performed and 'the Fees payable to him should be received by the said Clerks of Records and Writs;' be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as provides for the Execution of the Duties and the Receipt of the Fees of the Subpœna Office by the Clerk of the Affidavits shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that after the Death, Resignation, or Removal from his Office of the present Patentee of the Subpœna Office the said Clerks of Records and Writs, or any one of them, shall, in place and instead of the said Clerk of the Affidavits, perform all the Duties of the Subpœna Office, and shall receive all the Fees now receivable by the said Patentee of that Office, and shall pay such Parts thereof as the said Patentee is now by the said last-mentioned Act required to pay to the several Officers named in that Act for that Purpose, and shall pay the Residue of such Fees into the Bank of England, to be placed to the Account there standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," at such Times and under such Regulations as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors for the Time being, or any Two of them, shall by any Order direct: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as last aforesaid, by any Rule or Order to be made under the Provisions of the said Two first-recited Acts, to fix such earlier Time for transferring the Execution of the Duties of the Subpœna Office to the Clerks of Records and Writs as he shall think fit.

Recited Act in part repealed; and after Removal of Patentee of Subpœna Office Duties of that Office to be discharged and Fees received by Clerks of Records and Writs.

Application of the Fees.

Lord Chancellor may fix an earlier Time for transferring the Duties.

Alteration of Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CVI.

An Act to amend the Law of Real Property. [4th August 1845.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Repeal of so much of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 76. as abolishes contingent Remainders as from the Commencement;

I. That so much of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to simplify the Transfer of Property, as enacted that, after the Time at which that Act should come into operation, no Estate in Land should be created by way of contingent Remainder; but that every Estate which, before that Time, would have taken effect as a contingent Remainder should take effect (if in a Will or Codicil) as an executory Devise, and (if in a Deed) as an executory Estate of the same Nature, and having the same Properties, as an executory Devise; and that contingent Remainders existing under Deeds, Wills, or Instruments, executed or made before the Time when that Act should come into operation, should not fail, or be destroyed or barred, merely by reason of the Destruction or Merger of any preceding Estate, or its Determination by any other Means than the natural Effluxion of the Time of such preceding Estate, or some Event on which it was in its Creation limited to determine, shall be and is hereby repealed, as from the Time of the Commencement and taking effect thereof; and that the Residue of the said Act shall be and is hereby repealed, as from the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

Residue from 1st Oct. 1845.

Freehold of corporeal Tenements to lie in Grant, &c.

Stamp Duty on Grants thereof.

II. That, after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, all corporeal Tenements and Hereditaments shall, as regards the Conveyance of the immediate Freehold thereof, be deemed to lie in Grant as well as in Livery; and that every Deed which, by force only of this Enactment, shall be effectual as a Grant, shall be chargeable with the Stamp Duty with which the same Deed would have been chargeable in case the same had been a Release, founded on a Lease or Bargain and Sale for a Year, and also with the same Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty) with which such Lease or Bargain and Sale for a Year would have been chargeable.

Feoffments, Partitions, Exchanges, Leases, Assignments,

III. That a Feoffment, made after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, other than a Feoffment made under a Custom by an Infant, shall be void at Law, unless evidenced by Deed; and that a Partition, and an Exchange, of any Tenements or Hereditaments, not being being Copyhold, and a Lease, required by Law to be in Writing, of any Tenements or Hereditaments, and an Assignment of a Chattel Interest, not being Copyhold, in any Tenements or Hereditaments, and a Surrender in Writing of an Interest in any Tenements or Hereditaments, not being a Copyhold Interest, and not being an Interest which might by Law have been created without Writing, made after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, shall also be void at Law, unless made by Deed: Provided always, that the said Enactment so far as the same relates to a Release or a Surrender shall not extend to Ireland. and Surrenders required (subject to certain Exceptions) to be by Deed.

IV. That a Feoffment, made after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, shall not have any tortious Operation; and that an Exchange, or a Partition, of any Tenements or Hereditaments, made by Deed, executed after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, shall not imply any Condition in Law; and that the Word "give" or the Word "grant," in a Deed, executed after the same Day, shall not imply any Covenant in Law, in respect of any Tenements or Hereditaments, except so far as the Word "give" or the Word "grant" may, by force of any Act of Parliament, imply a Covenant. Feoffments not to operate by Wrong, nor Exchanges, &c. to imply any Condition, or "give" and "grant" any Covenant.

V. That, under an Indenture, executed after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, an immediate Estate or Interest, in any Tenements or Hereditaments, and the Benefit of a Condition or Covenant, respecting any Tenements or Hereditaments, may be taken, although the Taker thereof be not named a Party to the same Indenture; also, that a Deed, executed after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, purporting to be an Indenture, shall have the Effect of an Indenture although not actually indented. Strangers may take immediately under an Indenture, &c.

VI. That, after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, a contingent, an executory, and a future Interest, and a Possibility coupled with an Interest, in any Tenements or Hereditaments of any Tenure, whether the Object of the Gift or Limitation of such Interest or Possibility be or be not ascertained, also a Right of Entry, whether immediate or future, and whether vested or contingent, into or upon any Tenements or Hereditaments in England, of any Tenure, may be disposed of by Deed; but that no such Disposition shall, by force only of this Act, defeat or enlarge an Estate Tail; and that every such Disposition by a married Woman shall be made conformably to the Provisions, relative to Dispositions by married Women, of an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries, and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance, or in Ireland of an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries, and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance, in Ireland. Contingent and other like Interests, also Rights of Entry, made alienable by Deed, saving Estates in Tail; and as regards married Women enjoining Conformity to 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 74, 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 92.

VII. That, after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, an Estate or Interest in any Tenements or Hereditaments in England, of any Tenure, may be disclaimed by a married Woman by Deed; and that every such Disclaimer shall be made conformably to the said Provisions of the said Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries, and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance. Capacity of married Women to disclaim Estates by Deed extended to England.

VIII. That a contingent Remainder, existing at any Time after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, shall be, and, if created before the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to have been, capable of taking effect, notwithstanding the Determination, by Forfeiture, Surrender, or Merger, of any preceding Estate of Freehold, in the same Manner, in all respects, as if such Determination had not happened. Contingent Remainders protected as from 31st Dec. 1844, &c.

IX. That when the Reversion expectant on a Lease, made either before or after the passing of this Act, of any Tenements or Hereditaments, of any Tenure, shall, after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, be surrendered or merge, the Estate which shall for the Time being confer as against the Tenant under the same Lease the next vested Right to the same Tenements or Hereditaments, shall, to the Extent and for the Purpose of preserving such Incidents to, and Obligations on, the same Reversion, as, but for the Surrender or Merger thereof, would have subsisted, be deemed the Reversion expectant on the same Lease. When the Reversion on a Lease is gone the next Estate to be deemed the Reversion.

X. That this Act shall not extend to Scotland. Extent of Act.

CAP. CVII.

An Act for the Establishment of a Central Asylum for Insane Persons charged with Offences in Ireland; and to amend the Act relating to the Prevention of Offences by Insane Persons, and the Acts respecting Asylums for the Insane Poor, in Ireland; and for appropriating the Lunatic Asylum in the City of Cork to the Purposes of a District Lunatic Asylum.

[8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that One Central Asylum in or near the City of Dublin should be provided for the Custody and Care of Criminal Lunatics:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Time being shall be Trustees for the Purpose of purchasing or providing, as herein-after mentioned, any Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments that may be necessary for the said Central Asylum, and the Site thereof, and the Premises to be occupied therewith, and for erecting thereon suitable Buildings, and for repairing, enlarging, improving, upholding, and furnishing the same from Time to Time. Commissioners of Public Works to be Trustees for providing Buildings and Lands for a Central Asylum for Criminal Lunatics.

Commissioners of Public Works to be a Corporation for the Purposes of this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Time being, and their Successors, shall be a Corporation, by the Name or Style of "The Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland," and by that Name, for the Purposes of this Act, shall have perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, to be by them made and from Time to Time altered as they shall think fit, and shall and may sue and be sued, plead or be impleaded, in all Courts, and before all Justices and others, and in that Capacity shall be deemed Promoters of the Undertaking authorized to be executed by this Act.

Power to Commissioners of Public Works to purchase or rent Buildings, Lands, &c. which may be required for such Central Asylum.

III. And be it enacted, That in order to enable the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to purchase and provide the Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which may be required for the said Central Asylum and the Site thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Corporate, for the Purchase or renting of any Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments required for such Central Asylum, or the Site thereof, and the Premises to be occupied therewith, and also for the Purchase of any subsisting Leases, Terms, Estates, or Interests therein or Charges thereon; and the Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so contracted and agreed for shall be conveyed, assigned, or demised to or in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

Consolidation of this Act with Lands Clauses Consolidation Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That in order to enable the said Commissioners of Public Works to purchase and provide the said Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with this Act, except the Clauses with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement: Provided always, that all Things by the said Act required or authorized to be done by the Promoters of the Undertaking may be done by any Two of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, subject to the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in the Cases provided by this Act.

Commissioners of Public Works to obtain Surveys, Plans, and Specifications, and submit same to the Treasury.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, if they shall be so directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to employ any competent Surveyor or Architect to make a Survey and Estimate of the said proposed Work, and to prepare such Plan, Section, or Specification thereof as may be necessary, and send the same to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for their Approval; and if the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think fit to authorize the Work in any such Plan, Section, or Specification, or any Modification thereof which they may think proper, to be undertaken, they shall, by Warrant under their Hands, direct the said Commissioners of Public Works to execute such Work, at and for an Amount not exceeding a Sum to be specified in such Warrant; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall upon Receipt of such Warrant forthwith cause the Construction of the Work mentioned therein to be proceeded with.

Commissioners of Public Works to lay Accounts before the Commissioners of the Treasury.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause Accounts in Writing of the several Sums received by them as such Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, and the Sums expended by them for such Purposes, and the Mode of such Expenditure, to be made up to the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year, or to such Period as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct; and the said Commissioners shall, as often as they shall be required so to do by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, transmit to the said Commissioners of the Treasury the said Accounts; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to give such Directions as they shall think proper, defining the Duties of the said Commissioners of Public Works in the Execution of this Act; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall observe all such Directions as aforesaid which shall from Time to Time be signified to them by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Proceedings in Actions by and against the Commissioners of Public Works.

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 33.

VII. And be it enacted, That the several Enactments contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland, which affect or relate to any Action or Suit to be commenced against the Commissioners for the Execution of the last-recited Act, or their Secretary, or any Person or Persons, for any thing done by virtue of or in pursuance of the last-recited Act, or in any Proceedings in any such Action or Suit, or any Limitation of Time for the Commencement thereof, or any Costs thereof, or any Evidence to be given therein, or any Notice of Action or Suit, or Satisfaction, or Tender thereof, or any Action or Suit to be commenced by the said Commissioners, or any Proceedings therein, or the said Commissioners suing or being sued in the Name of their Secretary, or any Abatement or Discontinuance of any such Action or Suit, or to the Court in which, or to the Terms or Conditions on which, any such Action or Suit shall be brought against the said Commissioners, collectively or individually, or their Secretary, shall be held to apply to and extend to any Action or Suit to be commenced against the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, or their Secretary, or any Person or Persons, for any thing done by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, or to any Proceedings in any such Action or Suit, or to the Limitation of Time for the commencing thereof, or to any Costs thereof, or to any Notice of any such Action or Suit, or to any Evidence to be given therein, or to any Action or Suit to be commenced by the said Commissioners of Public Works in the Execution of this Act, or on account of or in pursuance of this Act, or to any Proceedings in any such Action or Suit, or to the said Commissioners suing or being sued in the Name of their Secretary for the Time being, or to any Abatement or Discontinuance of any such Action or Suit, or to the Court in which, or to the Terms or Conditions on which, any such Action or Suit shall be be brought against the said Commissioners of Public Works collectively or individually, or against their Secretary.

When Central Asylum established, the Lord Lieutenant empowered to order the Removal of Criminal Lunatics to such Asylum. 1 & 2 G.4. c. 33.

VIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second 'Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to make more 'effectual Provision for the Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor, and for the Custody of 'Insane Persons charged with Offences, in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that it should be 'lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being 'to give such Order for the safe Custody and Care of Criminals found insane as in the said Act 'mentioned, during the Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of 'Ireland for the Time being, in such Place and in such Manner as should seem fit; and it is by said 'Act further provided and enacted, that whenever and as soon as there should be a Lunatic Asylum 'built or maintained, either wholly or in part, in any County, County of a City or County of a Town, 'wherein such Prisoner as therein mentioned should be tried or found insane as therein mentioned, 'then and from thenceforth such Insane Person should without Delay be removed to such Asylum as 'therein mentioned, and should be kept therein so long as such Prisoner should be detained in Custody;' be it enacted, That whenever and as soon as the said Central Asylum shall be erected, and fit for the Reception of Criminal Lunatics, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to order and direct that all Criminal Lunatics then in Custody in any Lunatic Asylum or Gaol, or who shall thereafter be in Custody, shall be removed without Delay to such Central Asylum, and shall be kept therein so long as such Criminal Lunatics respectively shall be detained in Custody.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint the Officers and Servants of Central Asylum, and Lord Lieutenant and Council to make Rules, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being to nominate and appoint such Persons as he or they shall think fit and proper to be Governor, Physician, Surgeon, Apothecary, Matron, Keepers, Officers, and Servants of said Central Asylum, and also that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, from Time to Time to make, frame, and establish any Rules and Regulations which may be necessary or proper for the good Conduct and Management of the said Central Asylum, and from Time to Time to revoke, alter, or make new such Rules and Regulations.

Persons not to be committed as dangerous Lunatics, unless upon Information upon Oath. 1 Vict. c. 27.

X. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to make more effectual Provision for the Prevention of Offences by Insane Persons in Ireland, 'it is amongst other things enacted, that if any Person should be discovered and apprehended in Ireland 'under Circumstances denoting a Derangement of Mind, and a Purpose of committing some Crime for 'which, if committed, such Person would be liable to be indicted, it should be lawful for any Two 'Justices of the Peace of the County, County of a City, County of a Town, City, or Town and Liberties, 'before whom such Person might be brought, to call to their Assistance any legally qualified Physician, 'Surgeon, or Apothecary; and if upon View and Examination of the said Person so apprehended, or 'from other Proof, the said Justices should be satisfied that such Person was a dangerous Lunatic or a 'dangerous Idiot, it should be lawful for the said Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to 'commit such Person to the Gaol of such County, County of a Town, City, or Town and Liberties, 'there to be kept in strict Custody until or unless such Person should be discharged in manner by the 'said Act provided;' be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Justices to commit such Person to Gaol unless Information on the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses shall have been made before the said Justices, stating Facts from which it shall appear that such Person was discovered and apprehended under Circumstances denoting a Derangement of Mind, and a Purpose of committing some Crime for which, if committed, such Person would be liable to be indicted, and that such Person is a dangerous Lunatic or a dangerous Idiot; and such Justices shall, if they shall so think fit, bind the Person or Persons swearing such Information to appear at the next Commission or Assizes, or General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, whichever may first occur, which Information shall be returned to the Clerk of Crown or Peace; and the Judges presiding at such Commission, or the Judge of Assize, or Assistant Barrister or Recorder, as the Case may be, shall, if they shall consider it necessary so to do, examine into the Case, and report to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being whether such Person appears to him or them to be a dangerous Lunatic or dangerous Idiot.

Lord Lieutenant may discharge a Person committed as a dangerous Lunatic who is duly certified to him to have become of sound Mind, or to have ceased to be a dangerous Lunatic. 1 Vict. c. 27.

XI. 'And whereas by the said Act it is also amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for 'the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, if he or they 'should so think fit, to direct, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, that any Person who might 'be detained in Custody in any Gaol by virtue of any such Warrant as aforesaid should be removed to 'the Lunatic Asylum established either wholly or in part for the County, County of a City or County 'of a Town, in which such Person should be in Custody; and every such Person so removed should 'remain under Confinement in every Asylum to which such Person might be removed until it should be 'duly certified to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, by Two Physicians 'or Surgeons, or a Surgeon and Physician, that such Person had become of sound Mind, whereupon the 'said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors was thereby authorized to issue his or their 'Warrant to the Keeper or other Person having the Care of any such Asylum, directing that such 'Person should be discharged;' be it enacted, That whenever it shall be duly certified to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, in manner aforesaid, that any such Person has become of sound sound Mind, or has ceased to be or is not a dangerous Lunatic or a dangerous Idiot, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and he and they is and are hereby authorized to issue his or their Warrant to the Keeper or other Person having the Care of any such Asylum, directing that such Person shall be discharged.

Lord Lieutenant may direct Persons under Sentence of Imprisonment or Transportation, who become insane, to be removed to Central Asylum. 1 Vict. c. 27.

XII. And be it enacted, That whenever and as soon as the said Central Asylum shall be erected and fit for the Reception of Lunatics it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, if he or they shall so think fit, to direct, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, that any Person who may be under any Sentence of Imprisonment or Transportation in any Gaol or Place of Confinement, or in any District Asylum, and in respect of whom it shall be certified by Two Physicians or Surgeons, or a Surgeon and Physician, that such Person is or has become insane, shall be removed to the said Central Asylum; and every such Person so removed shall remain under Confinement in said Asylum so long as such Person shall remain subject to be continued in Custody, or until it shall be duly certified to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, by Two Physicians or Surgeons, or a Surgeon and Physician, that such Person has become of sound Mind, whereupon the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors is hereby authorized, if such Person shall remain subject to be continued in Custody, to issue his or their Warrant to the Keeper or other Person having the Care of any such Asylum, directing that such Person shall be remitted to the Prison or other Place of Confinement from which he or she shall have been taken, or, if such Person shall be entitled to his or her Discharge, to direct the Discharge accordingly.

The District Lunatic Asylums may receive as many Patients as they can accommodate, the Care and Maintenance of whom shall be provided for as heretofore. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 33. 7 G. 4. c. 14. 1 W. 4. c. 13.

XIII. 'And whereas by the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and 'Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it is amongst other things 'enacted, that at any Time after the passing of the said Act it should and might be lawful for the Lord 'Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of His 'Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, to direct and order that any Number of Asylums for the Lunatic 'Poor in Ireland should be erected and established in and for such Districts in Ireland as to the said 'Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council should seem expedient; and 'that every such District should and might consist either of the whole of Two or more Counties, or of 'One or more County or Counties and One or more County or Counties of Cities or Towns, or of One 'County or County of a City or County of a Town only, and no more, but should not in any Case include 'Part only of any County, County of a City or Town; and that all Lunatic Poor within every such 'District respectively should be maintained and taken care of in the Asylum belonging to such District; 'and that every such Asylum established or to be established for any District consisting of more than 'One County, or One County of a City or County of a Town, should be sufficient to contain such 'Number of Lunatic Poor, not being less than One hundred nor more than One hundred and fifty in 'any One Asylum, as should seem expedient to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or 'Governors and Privy Council; and that where any such District should consist of only One County 'or County of a City or County of a Town, and no more, every such Asylum should be sufficient to 'contain such Number of Lunatic Poor, not being less than Fifty, as should seem expedient to such 'Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council: And whereas the said Act 'was amended by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An 'Act for the further Amendment of an Act of the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for 'the Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland: And whereas several such Asylums 'have been erected and established, and the said Asylums are capable of affording Accommodation for a 'larger Number of Lunatic Poor than the Number limited by the said Two last-recited Acts as the 'Number which it is lawful under the Provisions of such Acts to maintain and take care of within any 'One Lunatic Asylum: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late 'Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of 'the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for appropriating the Rich-'mond Lunatic Asylum in Dublin for the Purposes of a District Lunatic Asylum,' the said Richmond 'Lunatic Asylum was empowered to receive, maintain, and take care of within the said Asylum any 'Number of Lunatic Poor for the Reception and Accommodation of whom the said Asylum should or 'might afford Space or Capacity: And whereas it is expedient to remove the Limitation as to the 'Number of Lunatic Poor which other District Lunatic Asylums now erected and established, or here-'after to be erected and established, may respectively receive, maintain, and take care of, and to extend 'the Provisions of the said last-recited Act to the said other District Lunatic Asylums;' be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act any Enactment or Provision contained in the said recited Act of the Session holden in the First and Second Years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or in any other Act or Acts, whereby the Number of Lunatic Poor to be maintained and taken care of in a District Lunatic Asylum is in any Manner limited or restricted, shall be and the same is accordingly hereby repealed; and that notwithstanding any thing in the said last-mentioned Act, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary, it shall and may be lawful to receive, maintain, and take care of, within every such District Lunatic Asylum, any Number of Lunatic Poor whatsoever, for the Reception and Accommodation of whom such Asylum shall or may afford Space and Capacity, and that the Care, Maintenance, Superintendence, and Expenditure which shall be or become requisite for or in respect of all such Lunatic Poor shall be defrayed, raised, and provided for in all respects as the Care, Maintenance, Superintendence, and Expenditure requisite for or in respect of such limited Number of Lunatic Poor as before the passing of this Act it was or might have been lawful to maintain and take care of in such Lunatic Asylum might might or ought to have been defrayed, raised, and provided for: Provided, nevertheless, that the maximum Number of Lunatics admissible into such Asylums respectively shall first be fixed and determined from Time to Time by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

Lord Lieutenant authorized to make Orders in Council for the Enlargement of District Lunatic Asylums.

XIV. ' And whereas by the said Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty ' King George the Fourth it was amongst other things enacted, that it should and might be lawful for ' the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and ' Consent of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, from Time to Time and at all Times, whenever and ' so often as should seem expedient to him or them so to do, to direct and order that any Asylum or ' Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland should be erected and established in any Place or in and for ' any District in Ireland, in lieu of or in addition to any Asylum or Asylums erected under the Authority ' of the therein and herein-before recited Act of the First and Second Years of King George the Fourth, ' and from Time to Time to alter or change the District or Places in or for which any such Asylum or ' Asylums shall have been or shall be erected under the Authority of the said recited Act or the Act ' now in recital: And whereas the said Act does not provide for the Enlargement or Extension of said ' District Asylums: And whereas the present Accommodation in District Asylums for Pauper Lunatics ' is insufficient, and it is expedient that further Accommodation should be provided, so as to enable ' Pauper Lunatics to be received into said Asylums as soon as may be after they are afflicted with ' Insanity, without which it is frequently found impossible to cure the Disorder;' be it enacted, That if it shall be deemed necessary, at any Time hereafter, to enlarge or extend the Buildings of any District Asylum for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland, or the Out-offices thereof, or to procure more Ground fit or necessary to be enjoyed therewith, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, from Time to Time, and whenever it shall seem expedient to him or them so to do, to direct and order that such Enlargement or Extension shall be made, or such additional Ground as may be required shall be obtained, or, where it shall be inconvenient or impracticable to erect or obtain additional Buildings adjoining to any such District Asylum or Asylums, then that additional Buildings, with the Ground fit or necessary to be enjoyed therewith, shall be erected, established, rented, or purchased within the same District, and as near as conveniently may be to such Asylums respectively; and such additional Buildings and Ground shall be held in connexion with and as Part of the Asylum for the District in which said additional Buildings or Ground shall be situate; and every Order in Council to be made for any such Purposes shall be published in the Dublin Gazette.

Asylums may be appropriated for the exclusive Reception of particular Classes as to Disease of Pauper Lunatics.

XV. And be it enacted, That in order to provide for the more effectual Treatment of Pauper Lunatics, by a better Classification of the same, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, from Time to Time and at all Times, whenever and so often as shall seem expedient to him or them so to do, to direct and order that any existing Asylum or additional Buildings which may be made to existing Asylums under the Provisions of this Act shall and may be exclusively appropriated for the sole and exclusive Reception, Custody, and Treatment of a particular Class of the said Pauper Lunatics distinguishable by the Nature and Character of the Disease, and whether recent in its Origin or chronic, or whether considered curable or incurable, or to direct and order that a Provincial Asylum for the Lunatic Poor shall be erected, established, and maintained in and for any or each of the Provinces of Ireland to be so appropriated to any particular Class or Classes of Lunatic Poor of such Province as aforesaid, such Provincial Asylums to be in addition to any District Asylum or Asylums erected or to be erected under said recited Acts or any of them, and from Time to Time to make Rules and Orders for the Government and Control thereof, and for the Admission of Lunatics thereto; and with the view to make Room in any such District Lunatic Asylum appropriated for the Treatment and Reception of recent and curable Cases for Patients deemed capable of Cure, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland from Time to Time to cause to be removed from such District Lunatic Asylum, to such other Asylum connected with such District, and appropriated specially for chronic Cases or Cases apprehended to be incurable, any Lunatics who shall be certified by the Committee of Management, the Manager, and by the Medical Officer of such first-mentioned District Asylum, as a proper Patient to be removed to an Asylum for chronic Lunatics for such District, or connected therewith.

Powers of recited Acts to apply to this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Enactments contained in the said Acts of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and in any Act or Acts amending the same or any of them, shall and may from Time to Time and as Occasion may require, so far as the same are applicable, and not repugnant to the Provisions hereof, be extended, applied, used, exercised, and enforced to and in respect of any Asylums, Buildings, or Ground which may be erected, purchased, or rented under the Provisions of this Act, save and except as to such Central Asylum first herein mentioned; and that the Expence of erecting, establishing, and maintaining every District Asylum for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland, and every Asylum which under the Provisions of this Act shall be so exclusively appropriated for the Reception of a particular Class or Description of Pauper Lunatics, together with the Ground so rented or purchased, or the Buildings so to be erected or obtained, adjoining to or in connexion therewith respectively, shall be raised in such Manner as is directed by said Acts or any of them; and that every such Asylum shall be subject to all such Rules and Regulations as are contained in the said recited Acts; and that the said Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act; and in any Case of a Provincial Asylum erected and established for any Province as aforesaid, such Province, and the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, situate therein, therein, shall be deemed and taken as a District attached to such Asylum: Provided always, that the Erection and Establishment of any such Provincial Asylum shall not be deemed in any respect to prejudice or interfere with any District Lunatic Asylum situate therein, or any District assigned or attached to the same, or any Provisions relating thereto.

Manner of proceeding where any County, &c. shall be taken out of any District and removed to any new District. 7 G. 4. c. 14.

XVII. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King George 'the Fourth it is amongst other things enacted, that if it shall at any Time happen that any Money 'shall have been raised off any County, County of a City or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, 'towards defraying the Expences of erecting, establishing, maintaining, or supporting of any Lunatic 'Asylum, and that by reason of any Change of the District or Place in or for which such Asylum shall 'have been established such County, County of a City or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, shall 'be taken out of the District liable to be assessed for such Expences, then and in such Case any Sum 'or Sums of Money which shall have been raised off such County, County of a City or County of a 'Town, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be raised off any and every County, County of a 'City or County of a Town, or any Part or Parts thereof, which shall remain within such District; and 'all and every Sum and Sums which shall be so raised shall be repaid to the Treasurer of the County, 'County of a City or County of a Town, which shall have been removed from such District; and that 'whenever any County, County of a City or County of a Town, or any Part or Parts thereof, which 'shall have been comprised in any former District, shall by reason of any such Change as aforesaid be 'comprised in or shall form Part of any new District, such County, County of a City or County of a 'Town, or such Part thereof, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable towards the 'defraying the Expences of any Asylum in or for such new District, in like Manner as is directed 'by the said recited Acts or either of them, and as if such County, County of a City or County of a 'Town, or such Part thereof, had been originally comprised in or formed Part of such new District: 'And whereas it is expedient that in case of any Change of any such District as aforesaid no Sum of 'Money should be repaid to the Treasurer of any such County, County of a City or County of a Town, 'which shall be removed from such District, save and except for defraying the Expence of erecting or 'establishing such Lunatic Asylum, but not for the Expence of maintaining or supporting the same;' be it enacted, That when any Change of the District of any District Asylum shall be made as aforesaid no Sum of Money for defraying the Expences of maintaining or supporting any such District Asylum (after the same shall have been erected and established) shall from and after the passing of this Act be raised off any County, County of a City or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, which shall remain (or be) within such District, or be repaid to the Treasurer of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, which shall have been removed from such District, or be raised off any County, County of a City or County of a Town, or Part thereof, which shall have been comprised in any former District, and shall by reason of any such Change be comprised in or form Part of any new District for any such Asylum, any thing in the said recited Enactment to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lunatic Wards, &c. connected with Houses of Industry. 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 116.

XVIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh 'Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the 'Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland, it is enacted, that 'when a Lunatic Asylum, or any Ward or Wards for the Reception and Support of Idiots and Insane 'Persons, is connected with or under the Direction of any House of Industry in any County, it shall 'and may be lawful for the Grand Jury at any Summer Assizes to present such Sum or Sums, not 'exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds, as shall appear to be necessary for the Support of such 'Asylum or Ward connected with such House of Industry, and such Sum shall be raised off the County 'at large, and levied and applied accordingly: And whereas it is expedient that such Places should not 'be used for the Support, Reception, or Custody of Insane Persons, when sufficient Accommodation for 'them shall be provided in District Asylums;' be it therefore enacted, That whenever and as soon as such Enlargement and Extension of any such District Lunatic Asylum shall have been made as aforesaid, or any such additional Asylum in connexion with any such District Lunatic Asylum for any such District shall have been erected, or whenever any existing District or Provincial Lunatic Asylum shall be sufficient for the Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland from Time to Time in any such Cases to order and direct that all such Idiots or insane poor Persons as shall be at the Time of such Order kept, supported, or detained in any such House of Industry, or in any Lunatic Asylum, or Ward or Wards for the Reception or Support of Idiots or Insane Persons connected with or under the Direction of any House of Industry, shall be forthwith removed to the District or Provincial Lunatic Asylum established for the District or Province within which such House of Industry shall be situate; and from and after the making of such Order, and the Publication of the same in the Dublin Gazette, such last-mentioned Idiots and Insane Persons shall be accordingly without Delay removed to such District or Provincial Lunatic Asylum; and after the making and Publication of such Order it shall not be lawful to receive into, or support, keep, or detain any Idiot or insane poor Person in any such House of Industry or Asylum, or Ward connected therewith; and from thenceforth no Presentment shall be made by any Grand Jury for the Support of such Asylum or Ward in or connected with such House of Industry.

Cork Lunatic Asylum shall become a District Lunatic Asylum for the County and the

XIX. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of September next the Cork Lunatic Asylum shall and may be and become a District Lunatic Asylum for the County of Cork and the County of the City of Cork, and for such other County or Counties, if any, as from Time to Time may, under the Provisions of the said Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or any Act amending same, be constituted, together with the said County of Cork and County of the City of Cork, a District for a Lunatic Asylum; and that all Rules, Orders, Regulations, Rights, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Liabilities, Provisoes, and Enactments contained in the said Act of the First and Second Years of King George the Fourth, and of any Act or Acts amending same, and of this Act, shall and may, from Time to Time as occasion may require, be extended, applied, used, exercised, and enforced to and in respect of the District so constituted, in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as in the Case of any District Lunatic Asylum created or established by or subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act, or any Act amending same, or this Act.

City of Cork, and of such other County, if any, as shall be added thereto.

XX. And be it enacted, That from and after the said Day it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Juries of the County of the City of Cork and of the County of Cork, and of each other County, if any, which may or shall from Time to Time constitute Part of or be included in the District belonging to the said Asylum, and such Grand Juries are hereby respectively required, to present, to be raised off the said City and each such County respectively, any Sum or Sums of Money requisite to pay the Expences of the said Asylum, as well those of any Building, Alteration, or Reparation thereof, or of the Purchase of any Ground or Property for the Purposes thereof, as those of the Maintenance, Clothing, and other Charges of the Patients therein, in like Manner, with the same Authorities, and under the same Regulations and Restrictions, as are provided in and by the said Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty's Reign with respect to any District Lunatic Asylum, or any Act or Acts amending same, or in and by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland.

Grand Juries of Cork, &c. shall make Presentments for Support of such Asylum.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 116.

XXI. And be it enacted, That from and after the said First Day of September the said Asylum, and the Ground and Soil where the same stands, and the several Materials and Appurtenances, shall be and become vested in such Commissioners as have been or shall, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act of the First and Second Years of His Majesty, be nominated and appointed for the District to which the said Asylum shall belong, or any Three of them, and to their Heirs and Successors, in trust for and to the Uses and Purposes of the said Asylum as such District Lunatic Asylum.

Asylum vested in Commissioners under 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 33.

XXII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, to make and found such Rules and Regulations for the holding of Lectures by the Medical Attendant or Attendants of the said Central Asylum, or said Provincial or District Asylums, or any of them, as to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, with the Advice of said Privy Council aforesaid, may seem fit.

Lord Lieutenant may make Rules and Regulations for the holding of Lectures.

XXIII. 'Whereas it is expedient that more adequate Provision be made for the Inspection of all 'Lunatic Asylums under this and the herein-before recited Acts;' now be it enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall be and he or they are hereby empowered, if they shall so think fit, to appoint One or Two duly qualified and experienced Persons to act as Inspectors of Lunatics in Ireland; and on such Appointments the Functions of the Inspectors General of Prisons in Ireland, so far as they relate to the Inspection of Lunatic Asylums or other Establishments for Lunatics, shall be transferred to such Inspectors of Lunatics so to be appointed under this Act, and such Inspectors of Lunatics shall thereon undertake and perform all the Duties in respect to Lunatic Asylums which heretofore have been undertaken and performed by the Inspector General of Prisons, under the Provisions of any previous Act and under this Act.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint Inspectors of Lunatics, and Functions of Inspectors General of Prisons vested in them.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That One of the said Inspectors shall once or oftener in each Year, on such Day or Days, and at such Hours of the Day and for such Length of Time as they shall think fit, visit every Asylum for Lunatics or House for the Reception of the same, and every Gaol, Union Workhouse, or House of Industry in which there shall be or alleged to be any Lunatic, and shall inquire whether the Provisions of the Law have been carried out in the Management of such Establishments respectively, and also as to the Regularity of the Admissions and Discharges of Patients therein and therefrom, and whether Divine Service is performed therein, and whether any System of Coercion is in practice therein, and the Result thereof, and as to the Classification or Non-classification of Patients therein, and the Number of Attendants on each Class, and as to the Occupations and Amusement of the Patients and the Effects thereof, and as to the Condition as well mental as bodily of the Patients when first received, and also as to the Dietary of the Patients, and shall also make such other Inquiries as to every or any such Asylum, and all such Inquiries as to the Lunatics as aforesaid, as to such Inspectors shall seem meet.

Inspectors to visit Asylums and inquire into the Management thereof.

XXV. And be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January next ensuing the passing of this Act there shall be kept in each District Asylum for the Lunatic Poor which is or may be hereafter established in Ireland a Registry of Admissions, a Registry of Discharges and Deaths, and a Medical Journal, in the Forms set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which Forms shall be adopted and used hereafter in the Place of the Forms for similar Purposes now in use in such Asylums respectively.

Registry of Admissions, of Discharges and Deaths, and Medical Journal, to be kept.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Term "Criminal Lunatic" in this Act shall be construed to mean any Person acquitted on the Ground of Insanity, or found to have been insane under the Provisions of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth; and the Term "Lunatic" shall be construed to mean any Insane Person.

Interpretation Clause.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to Ireland.

Extent of Act.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CVIII.

An Act for the further Amendment of an Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, for regulating the Irish Fisheries. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries: And whereas one other Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries;' and to empower the Constabulary Force to enforce certain Provisions respecting the Irish Fisheries: And whereas it is expedient, for the better Regulation and Improvement of the said Fisheries to give further Power and additional Means for the Purpose of more effectually carrying out the Provisions of the said Acts, and to amend the said recited Acts in the several Particulars herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 108.

Treasury may appoint an additional Commissioner for Fisheries; and allow him a Salary.

Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by Warrant under the Hands of any Three or more of them, if they shall so think fit, to appoint One Person to be a Commissioner of Fisheries, to be associated with the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Time being, and with them be a Commissioner for the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act during Pleasure, and to remove such Commissioner, and to appoint another in the Stead of the Person so removed or dying or resigning; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to pay to such Person to be so appointed such Sum by way of annual Salary as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think fit; and such Commissioner of Fisheries, when so appointed, shall and may for the Purposes of said recited Acts and this Act, have, use, and exercise all and every the like Powers and Authorities and have like Privileges as are by said recited Acts or any of them vested in or given to the said Commissioners of Public Works or any of them; and all and every the Powers and Authorities in and by the said recited Acts and this Act given to or vested in the said Commissioners of Public Works, or which under the Provisions of this Act may be used by or be vested in such new Commissioner, may be exercised by the said Commissioners of Public Works, or by such new Commissioner appointed under this Act, or by any One or more of them.

The Use of illegal Weirs and Nets to be subject to the same Penalties as for Erection.

II. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, after the Twentieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, fish with or use any Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or any Contrivance for placing or erecting any Net or Engines, which under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act are prohibited to be placed or erected in any Part of any Estuary or the Mouth or tidal Part of any River where the Breadth of the Channel at Low Water of Spring Tides is less than Three Quarters of a Mile Statute Measure, or which are prohibited to be placed or erected within the Space of One Statute Mile Seaward, Coastwards, or Inwards from or on either Side of the Mouth or Entrance of any River into the Sea, the inland Portion of which River is frequented by Salmon, and the Breadth of which Mouth, as now or hereafter to be defined by the said Commissioners is less than Half a Mile Statute Measure at Low Water of Spring Tides, any Person so offending shall be subject and liable to such and the same Penalty and Penalties as by said first-mentioned Act the Person or Persons erecting or placing such Weirs, Nets, or Contrivance for placing or erecting Nets, are subject and liable to; and upon Proof that any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance has been so used or fished it shall be lawful for the Justices at Petty Sessions, or other the Persons having Jurisdiction to enforce the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act, to direct the same to be forfeited and removed, and the Materials thereof to be disposed of and dealt with in such and the same Manner as by said first-recited Act is provided and directed in Cases of the Seizure of illegal Nets, or legal Nets when used contrary to Law.

Commissioners empowered to suspend the Use of and remove illegal Weirs and Nets in Places prohibited.

III. 'And whereas, notwithstanding the Provisions of the said first-recited Act with regard to the 'Erection and Use of Stake Weirs, Stake Nets, Bag Nets, fixed Nets, and Contrivances for fixing or 'placing Nets, the same or some Parts thereof are in many Instances erected and used in Places prohibited 'by the said recited Act by Parties who have no Title so to do; and it is expedient, for the Protection 'of public Rights, and to prevent Disputes, that the said Commissioners should have Power to suspend 'the Use of such Weirs, Nets, and Contrivances, and remove the same, in all Cases where it shall appear 'to them that the same or any Part thereof are illegally erected, placed, or used; and that the said 'Commissioners should for such Purposes have and use the same Powers and Authorities with respect 'to such Weirs, Nets, and Contrivances, or any Part thereof, as they are now authorized under the said 'first-recited Act to use and exercise in Cases of Weirs or Nets and Contrivances erected in such Manner 'as in their Judgment to be injurious and detrimental to Navigation;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon and after Complaint being made to them in Writing, signed by the Party making the same, and setting forth the Circumstances under which any such Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance, or any Part of the same, is or shall be so erected or used contrary to the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act, to summon before them the Party or Parties complained of to attend at some Place near or convenient to that in which any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance may be so erected and used; and the said Commissioners shall accordingly, at the Time and Place mentioned in any such Summons, upon Proof of the personal Service of such Summons, or upon Proof of such Summons having been left at or on board the Vessel, or at or posted on the known Residence of the Party or Parties complained of, proceed to hear all such pertinent Evidence as may be adduced before them by or on behalf of the Party making such Complaint, as well as the Party or Parties complained of; and if after hearing all such Evidence the said Commissioners shall so think fit and right it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to make an Order or Decision in Writing under their Hands and Seals, declaring that such Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, is a Nuisance, and shall be abated and removed; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to authorize any Person to abate and remove any such Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, at the Expence of the Party or Parties appearing to the said Commissioners to have erected or used the same; and, subject to the Appeal herein-after provided for, it shall be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to order and direct that the Materials of any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, be forfeited and sold, and the Produce arising from such Sale applied in such Manner as is by the said first-mentioned Act provided in Cases of illegal Nets used, or legal Nets illegally used, for fishing; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where the Party who erected or used such Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance acted under a fair and reasonable Supposition that he had a Right to do the Act complained of, and shall, if so required by the said Commissioners, give Security, in such Manner and in such Amount not exceeding One hundred Pounds as the said Commissioners shall think fit, conditioned to appeal to the Judges of Assize within such Time and in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as are herein-after provided in Cases of Appeals against any Order or Decision of the said Commissioners as last aforesaid, and upon such Appeal to establish or prove before such Judges that he had a Right or Title to erect or use such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, at the Time or in the Place where the same may have been so erected or used; and it shall be lawful for such Judges or one of them to hear and decide such Matter as aforesaid as if the same were an Appeal from an Order or Decision made by the said Commissioners for the Abatement as a Nuisance of such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, and thereupon to certify under their or his Hands or Hand their or his Decision whether such Party had or had not established or proved before them or him such Right or Title as aforesaid.

Appeal to Judge of Assize.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any such Order or Decision of the said Commissioners such Person may appeal to the next going Judges of Assize at the Assizes to be held for the County, County of the City or Town, in which or on the Shore or Boundary of which any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance shall have been so erected or used, provided such Assizes shall be held at any Time not less than Thirty-one Days after the Time the said Commissioners shall have made any such Order or Decision; and in case such Assizes shall be held within Thirty-one Days from the Time of such Order or Decision, such Appeal shall be made to the Assizes to be held in and for such County, County of a City or Town, next after such First Assizes; and that no such Appeal shall be allowed, received, heard, or determined, unless the Party appealing shall, within Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Order or Decision of the said Commissioners, give Notice in Writing to the said Commissioners of his Intention to try such Appeal; and it shall be lawful to and for the said Judges of Assize or one of them to try the Subject Matter of the said Appeal, and decide whether the Party appealing had a Right to erect or use such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, at the Time or in the Place where the same may have been so erected or used: Provided always, that in case of such Appeal being made, and Notice given as aforesaid, the Materials of such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, as the Case may be, shall be deposited in the Custody of such Officer or Men of the Coast Guard or Constabulary, or with such other Party or Person as the said Commissioners may direct or appoint for the Purpose, there to remain and be kept until the Matter of such Appeal shall be decided as aforesaid, or until the Time for prosecuting the same shall have expired, and if such Decision shall be in favour of the Appellant such Materials shall thereupon be returned to such Appellant.

No Persons other than those entitled under 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106. to use Nets, &c. on the Coast of Ireland.

Penalty.

V. 'And whereas under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act the Right to use Stake Weirs, Stake 'Nets, Bag Nets, and other fixed Nets in the Sea and Tide-ways along the Coast of Ireland is defined 'and declared, and certain Persons are therein mentioned and specified as the Persons entitled to exercise 'such Right as aforesaid;' be it therefore enacted, That if any Person or Persons, other than the Persons entitled to exercise such Right as aforesaid under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, shall erect, use, or fish with any Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance for placing or erecting Nets on any Parts of the Coast of Ireland, or in the Sea or Tide-ways adjoining the same, he or they shall for each Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and such Weir, Net, or Contrivance shall also be forfeited, and ordered by the Magistrate before whom such Person or Persons may be convicted to be removed, at the Expence of the Offender, and the Materials thereof disposed of in like Manner as by said first-recited Act is directed in Cases of illegal Nets used, or legal Nets used illegally, for fishing.

Persons re-erecting or using Weirs decided to be illegal subject to a Penalty for each Day the same may remain, 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106. s. 22.

VI. And be it enacted, That if, after any such Order or Decision of the said Commissioners as is in this Act herein-before authorized to be made, unless and until the same shall be reversed on Appeal, any Person shall again erect or use any such Stake Weir, Stake Net, Bag Net, fixed Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, in or adjoining or contiguous to any Place where it may have been ordered and decided by the said Commissioners that any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, should be abated and removed, or if, contrary to the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, any Person shall erect, re-erect, or use any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, after Conviction under the said Act of any Person for erecting, or under this Act for using or fishing with, any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, in the same Place, or in, adjoining, or contiguous to the same, every such Person shall, in addition to the Penalties in and by the said Act or this Act prescribed, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every Day such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof as aforesaid, shall remain so erected or used; and it shall be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, from Time to Time and as often as any such Weir, Net, or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, shall be so erected or used, to abate and remove the same.

Application to Presentment Sessions for Compensation for malicious Injury to legal Fishing Weirs. 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 116.

VII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of maliciously or wantonly injuring or destroying any Weir, Net, or other Contrivance legally erected or used for taking Fish, any Person injured by any such Offence, and intending to apply for Compensation for any Loss or Damage sustained thereby, on serving the like Notices, lodging the like Application, and taking like Proceedings (as nearly as the Nature of the Case will admit) as in and by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland, are respectively required required in Cases of Applications for Compensation for malicious Injuries under the said last-mentioned Act, shall be entitled to make Application at Presentment Sessions as in and by the said Act provided as to Cases of malicious Injuries; and such Application having been considered and dealt with at such Presentment Sessions in the Manner in the said Act directed with regard to Applications for Compensation for malicious Injuries, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, in or on the Shores or Boundary of which or adjacent whereto such Injury shall have been sustained, and such Grand Jury are hereby required, either to disallow such Application altogether, or present such Sum or Sums of Money as the Person or Persons so injured ought to receive for such Injury or Damage, to be levied off such County, or such Barony, Parish, District, Townland, or Sub-denomination thereof, as the Grand Jury shall direct: Provided always, that such Application and Presentment shall be subject and liable to the like Traverse and all other Proceedings, and be subject to the like Regulations and Provisions, as by the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth any Application or Presentment for Compensation for malicious Injuries is subject and liable to under the said Act, and as if such Regulations and Provisions were herein repeated.

Grand Jury to adjudicate.

Traverse.

In case of Injury done on the Verge of Two or more Counties, the Amount may be apportioned thereon.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in case such malicious Injury as aforesaid shall be committed on the Verge or within the Distance of One Mile of the Boundary of any Two or more Counties, the Person or Persons who shall sustain such Injury may apply for Compensation in the Manner herein-before directed in either or any one of such neighbouring Counties, and all Proceedings shall be taken thereupon as herein-before provided, and in and by the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth directed; and in case any Sum or Sums of Money shall be presented by the Grand Jury of the County where such Application shall be made, or shall be finally awarded by the Verdict of any Jury, as and for Compensation to the Person or Persons applying as aforesaid, the Judge at the Assizes of such County shall have Power and Authority to apportion the Amount of such Compensation amongst such neighbouring Counties, and to direct the Proportion of the same which shall be paid by such Counties respectively, and shall certify the same accordingly, and such Presentment shall thereupon be diminished or Presentment made according to the Proportion which the said Judge shall direct to be paid by such County; and the Grand Jury or Grand Juries of the said other neighbouring County or Counties respectively shall and they are hereby required, on the Production of the Certificate of such Judge declaring the Proportion to be paid by such County or Counties, to present such Proportion to be raised in the Manner mentioned in the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, and paid to the Person so applying: Provided always, that no such Presentment as aforesaid shall be considered as conferring or confirming any Title in or upon the Party making such Application as aforesaid.

Commissioners to define Distances from Mouths of Rivers.

IX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the said Commissioners, under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, have heretofore defined or may hereafter define the Mouth or Entrance into the Sea of any River, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in addition to such Definition and Determination as aforesaid, to define and determine the Points of Termination of the respective Distances prescribed by the said first-recited Act, and to illustrate and show by a Map or Plan, or otherwise as they may consider best, the said Points of Termination, and the Space or Spaces within which it is by the Provisions of the said first-recited Act prohibited to erect or use certain Fishing Weirs, Nets, or Engines, or to use or practise certain Modes of Fishing.

Additional Powers to enforce Observance of the weekly and other Close Times.

X. 'And whereas it is found expedient to give additional Powers to enforce the strict Observance of 'the weekly and other Close Times and Seasons in and by the said first-recited Act required to be 'observed and kept;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all Officers and Men of the Navy or Coast Guard Service, and of the Constabulary, and for any Person appointed by or acting under the Authority of the said Commissioners, when and as often as they or any of them shall, in any Fishing Weir, Net, or Contrivance, during the weekly or other Close Time or Season (as fixed under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act), find any Passage shut, closed, or obstructed, or during such Close Time in any Place find any Net or other Contrivance placed or used where the same are now by Law or may hereafter be prohibited by the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the Powers in them vested, or shall at any Time find any Obstruction in the Queen's Share or free Gap through or over any Fishing or other Weir, or in the Sluice Passages appurtenant to any Mill or Factory at any Time when the Sluice Gate of same shall be open, then and so often to open such Passages and remove all such Obstructions, doing no unnecessary Damage, and to seize and remove all Nets or Parts of Nets which may be found so as aforesaid placed or used contrary to the Provisions of the said first-recited Act or this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained or done in pursuance of the same shall exempt any Person from the Penalties and Forfeitures in and by the said first-recited Act prescribed in respect to any of the Matters aforesaid; and provided also, that none of the Parties or Persons hereby authorized to open such Passages or remove such Nets or Obstructions shall be liable for any Damage caused by the opening of such Passages, or Removal of such Nets or Obstructions, unless the same shall be unnecessarily, wantonly, or maliciously done.

Size of the Meshes of the Nets.

XI. 'And whereas it has been found that the Size of the Meshes of Nets (not made of Wood, Iron, 'or other rigid Materials,) for the taking of Salmon and Trout in the Sea and Tideways, and the Size of 'the Meshes of all Nets to be used in the inland and fresh-water Portions of Rivers, as fixed and 'prescribed by said first-recited Act, is too large, and permits the Escape of great Quantities of valuable 'Fish, as well as diminishes the Value of much of the Fish that may be taken;' be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said first-recited Act as fixes or prescribes the Size of the Meshes of any such Nets as aforesaid shall be and is hereby repealed, and that from and after the passing of this Act no Net, save save as herein-after provided, for the taking of Salmon or Trout in the Sea, Estuaries, or Tideways, or for the taking of any Fish in the inland and fresh-water Portions of Rivers and Lakes, shall be used with a Mesh of less Size than One and three-quarter Inches from Knot to Knot, to be measured along the Side of the Square, or Seven Inches, to be measured all round each such Mesh, such Measurements being taken in the clear, when the Net is wet; and that if any Person shall use any Net contrary to this Provision, such Person shall be liable and subject to the Penalties and Forfeitures by said first-recited Act mentioned and prescribed in Cases of any Person using Nets with Meshes of less Size than the Size in the said Act prescribed and limited.

Commissioners may alter the Size of the Meshes in certain Localities.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, by any Bye Law to be made in accordance with the Provisions of said first-recited Act, and for such Time as to them shall seem fit, to alter, in and for any particular District or Locality, the Size of the Meshes of the Nets as herein prescribed, and to permit the Use of Meshes of such other Size in the said District or Locality as the said Commissioners shall prescribe; and all Parties using Nets with Meshes of a less Size in such District or Locality than such as shall be so permitted and prescribed by the said Commissioners shall be subject and liable to like Penalties and Forfeitures as by said first-recited Act mentioned and prescribed in Cases of any Person using Nets with Meshes of a less Size than the Size prescribed by said first-recited Act.

Stamp Duty in Appointment of Water Bailiff.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Appointment of each Water Bailiff under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act or this Act shall be subject to a Stamp Duty of Five Shillings, and to no higher Duty; any thing in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power to prohibit the Use of Engines injurious to Fisheries.

XIV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, from Time to Time, by any Bye Law made in pursuance of the Provisions of said first-recited Act (subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures as by the said first-recited Act they are empowered to impose for the Breach of any Bye Law), to prohibit the Use, at any Time or Season, of any Engine or Device for the Capture of Fish which, upon Inquiry had, the said Commissioners shall deem to be injurious to the Fisheries.

Commissioners may permit the Use of Trammel or other Nets during the Daytime.

XV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners (any thing in the said first-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding) to make and ordain, in the Manner and under the Regulations in the said first-recited Act mentioned, any Bye Law authorizing the Use between Sunrise and Sunset of any Trammel or other Net on any Part of the Coasts of Ireland, or the Islands lying off the same, where such Trammel or other Nets may, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, be used during the Daytime without Injury to the Fisheries.

Oyster Beds below lowest Water of Spring Tide not to be deemed private Property, unless held by Charter or Prescription.

XVI. And be it enacted and declared, That nothing in the said first-recited Act shall be construed to protect, as an exclusive Right or private Property, any Oyster Bed or Oyster Fishery lying below the Level of the lowest Water of Spring Tides, or to subject any Person to be deemed guilty of or to be indicted for Larceny for taking Oysters from any such Oyster Bed or Fishery, unless such Oyster Bed or Fishery shall be legally possessed and enjoyed by some Person by virtue of Charter, Grant, Patent, or Act of Parliament, in and by which such Oyster Bed or Fishery is specially granted, and the Limits thereof accurately described, or unless the same has been held and enjoyed by Prescription as an exclusive Right and private Property, within Limits clearly defined.

Power to make Oyster Beds.

XVII. 'And whereas the Cultivation and Improvement of the Oyster Fisheries may be greatly promoted by the Formation and Protection of artificial Oyster Beds or Layings of Oysters on the Shore, above the Level of the lowest Water of Spring Tides, and for this Purpose it is expedient to permit the Formation and Cultivation of such Oyster Beds, and to provide for the Protection of the same in such and the same Manner as by the said first-recited Act is provided for the making and Protection of Bait Beds;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of any Land bordering on the Sea, or any Estuary, with the Permission in Writing of the said Commissioners, or for any Person or Persons, with the Consent of such Owner or Occupier, and with the Permission in Writing of the said Commissioners, to form or plant any Oyster Bed or Laying on the Shore adjacent to such Lands, and between high and lowest Water Mark of Spring Tides, and it shall be lawful for the several Persons forming or planting any such Oyster Bed or Laying to hold the same as private Property, and to exercise an exclusive Control over the same, and such Oyster Beds shall be entitled to the like Protection as by said Act is provided in case of any other Oyster Beds or Layings being the exclusive Property of any Person: Provided always, that the forming and planting of such Oyster Beds as aforesaid shall not give any exclusive Right or Title to the Occupancy of the said Shore, except for the Purpose aforesaid, or to the Appropriation of any public Banks or Beds at present resorted to for Oysters, but that the Rights herein-before granted and conferred are to be considered as exclusively applying to Places where no such public Oyster Beds at present exist; saving to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, and all the Subjects of this Realm, the free and full Exercise and Enjoyment of all other Rights of Fishing or other Rights whatsoever in or along the said Shore, subject to the Provisions herein and in said recited Acts or any of them contained.

Persons stealing from such Beds guilty of Larceny.

XVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if after the Formation and laying of such Oyster Beds as aforesaid any Person shall interfere with or take away any of the Oysters from such Bed, without the Consent of the Owners or Occupiers of such Bed, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of Larceny, and being convicted thereof shall be punished accordingly.

Power to dredge during Part of Close Time for Oysters to supply Beds.

XIX. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of replenishing and supplying such artificial Oyster Beds or Layings, or other Beds and Layings the exclusive Property of any Person or Persons, but for no other Purpose whatsoever, it shall and may be lawful for any Person to dredge for and take Oysters from from any natural public Bed lying below the Level of the lowest Water of Spring Tides, during such Part only of the Close Season as now fixed or hereafter to be fixed under the Provisions of said first-recited Act, as the said Commissioners shall upon Inquiry think fit to appoint for such Purpose, for or in any District or Place: Provided always, that if any Oysters dredged or taken during such Part of the Close Season shall be brought to Shore, or sold or offered for Sale, or be found in the Possession of any Person on Land, or be used for any other Purpose than the replenishing or supplying any such artificial or other Bed as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit all such Oysters, and be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as by said first-recited Act prescribed in Cases of Offences against the Provisions of the said first-recited Act for the Observance of the Close Season in respect to Oysters.

Commissioners to make Bye Laws for Improvement of Oyster Fisheries.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time to make and ordain, in the Manner and with and under the Powers and Regulations in the said first-recited Act mentioned, such Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations as to them the said Commissioners shall seem expedient, to prevent the Destruction or Removal from the natural Beds of small unsizable Oysters, and to fix by any such Bye Laws, Rules, or Regulations the Size or Dimensions of the smallest Oysters which may be removed from such Beds, and to appoint such Means to be adopted in the dredging and culling of the Oysters on the Fishing Grounds as will secure the Return to the Sea of all Oysters of less Dimensions than those to be so fixed, and during any Part of the Close Time, or in Places where in pursuance of said second-recited Act dredging for Oysters shall be prohibited for a certain Period, to prohibit, if they shall so think fit, that any Boat shall have on board a Dredge or other Implements for the taking of Oysters, and to make such other Rules and Regulations as to them shall seem fit for the Increase, Improvement, and Protection of the Oyster Fisheries.

Proprietors of Oyster Beds may appoint Water Bailiffs.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Proprietor or Tenant of any Oyster Bed or Laying, or for any associated Body of Persons interested in the Protection and Improvement of any Oyster Fishery, to appoint, in the same Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Provisions as in and by the said first-recited Act and this Act are provided for the Appointment of Water Bailiffs, any Person or Persons to be a Water Bailiff or Water Bailiffs for the Protection of any such Oyster Fishery, and for the due Enforcement of the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act in respect of the same, and of the Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations now or hereafter to be made by said Commissioners in relation thereto; and the Water Bailiffs so to be appointed shall have and may exercise and use all and every the same Powers and Authorities, and have the same Privileges as by the said recited Acts or this Act are vested in or given to the Water Bailiffs appointed or to be appointed thereunder, so far as the same may be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid.

Decisions and Judgments of Commissioners to be recorded, and Copies to be Evidence.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all Orders and Decisions, Judgments and Definitions, which shall be made, pronounced, or given by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act, shall be recorded in the Office of the said Commissioners, and a Copy of each such Order, Decision, Judgment, or Definition (as the Case may be) shall be deposited with the Clerk or Clerks of the Peace for the County or Counties to any Part of which, or the Sea bordering on which or any Part of which, the same shall relate or apply; and in all Cases where it shall hereafter become necessary to prove any such Order, Decision, Judgment, or Definition in any Court of Law or Justice, or elsewhere, a Copy obtained from the Office of any Clerk of the Peace with whom the same may be lodged, and certified by him to be a true Copy thereof, shall be received and taken as full and sufficient Evidence of the Existence of any such Order, Decision, Judgment, or Definition; and any such Order or Decision, Judgment or Definition, shall not be quashed, set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient for Want of Form only, and shall not be liable to be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, or any other of Her Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin.

Penalties and Forfeitures to be recovered and applied as directed by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the several Penalties, Forfeitures, and Expences directed or empowered to be imposed, levied, recovered, or enforced under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty or this Act, or by any Bye Law, Rule, or Regulation made or to be made by the said Commissioners in pursuance of the said recited Acts or this Act, may be recovered, levied, enforced, and applied in like Manner and by such Ways and Means as are provided by the said first-recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty as to the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Expences imposed or provided thereby.

Commissioners to have same Powers, &c. under this Act as under 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, as to all Matters and Things done or to be done under the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, or this Act, have, use, and exercise the like Powers and Authorities and have the like Privileges as are by the said first-recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty vested in or given to the Commissioners of Public Works, or any of them, under the said first-recited Act.

Interpretation of Words in this Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the said herein-recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign and of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty's Reign shall continue and be in full Force and Effect, save and except so far as the same are or either of them is altered by or inconsistent with any of the Provisions of this Act, and that the said Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act; and that in the Construction of this Act, except where the Nature of the Provisions or the Context of this Act shall exclude such Construction, the Words "Net," "Salmon," "Vessel," "River," "Person," "Proprietor," "County," and "Estuary," shall be construed to have the Meaning and extend and be applied as in the said first herein-recited Act is directed and provided; and the Words "said Commissioners," in the said recited Acts or this Act, shall be construed and mean and extend extend and be applied to the Commissioners of Public Works for the Time being and any Commissioner to be appointed under this Act, or any One or more of them; and the Expression "Judge of Assize" shall, as to Cases arising in the County of Dublin or County of the City of Dublin, mean and include a Judge of any of Her Majesty's Superior Law Courts of Record in Dublin at Nisi Prius at the Sittings next after the pronouncing of any Order or Decision appealed from, or if such Sittings shall commence within Twenty-one Days after the pronouncing of any such Order or Decision, then at the Sittings next but one from the pronouncing of such Order or Decision; and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing; and every Word importing the Plural Number shall extend and be applied to one Person or Thing as well as several Persons or Things; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male; and the Words "Close Time" or "Close Season" shall, when used in the said Acts or this Act, be construed to mean the Time or Season within which it is or may be prohibited to fish for, take, or destroy, by certain specified Means, or by any Means whatsoever, as the Case may be, any of the particular Kinds of Fish prohibited to be fished for or taken by such specified Means, or by any Means, as the Case may be, during such Time or Season.

"Salmon" to include Pollen or Fresh-water Herring.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Word "Salmon" in the said recited Acts and this Act shall also mean and be construed to extend to and include the Fish called Pollen or Fresh-water Herring, and the Fry and Spawn thereof; and all the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act for the Protection and Regulation of the Salmon Fisheries shall extend to and include such Pollen, save and except that the Close Season for said Pollen shall be the same as that fixed by said first-recited Act for Trout, unless such Close Season for Pollen shall be altered by the said Commissioners in pursuance of the Powers vested in them for altering the Close Time of any District, Lake, or River; and during the open fishing Time for such Pollen it shall be lawful that the same may be fished for or taken by such Nets or other Means as the said Commissioners shall authorize, sanction, or direct.

Alteration of Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. CIX.

An Act to amend the Law concerning Games and Wagers. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS the Laws heretofore made in restraint of unlawful Gaming have been found of no 'Avail to prevent the Mischiefs which may happen therefrom, and also apply to sundry Games 'of Skill from which the like Mischiefs cannot arise:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled The Bill for maintaining Artillery, and the debarring of unlawful Games, whereby any Game of mere Skill, such as Bowling, Coyting, Cloyshcayls, Half Bowl, Tennis, or the like, is declared an unlawful Game, or which enacts any Penalty for playing at any such Game of Skill as aforesaid, or which enacts any Penalty for lacking Bows or Arrows, or for not making and continuing Butts, or which regulates the making, selling, or using of Bows and Arrows, and also so much of the said Act as requires the Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and other head Officers within every City, Borough, and Town within this Realm, to make search weekly, or at the farthest Once a Month, in all Places where Houses, Alleys, Plays, or Places of Dicing, Carding, or Gaming shall be suspected to be had, kept, and maintained, shall be repealed, and also so much of the said Act as makes it lawful for every Master to license his or their Servants, and for every Nobleman and other having Manors, Lands, Tenements, or other yearly Profits for Term of Life, in his own Right or in his Wife's Right, to the yearly Value of an Hundred Pounds or above, to command, appoint, or license, by his or their Discretion, his or their Servants or Family of his or their House or Houses to play at Cards, Dice, or Tables, or any unlawful Game, as therein more fully set forth, shall be repealed; and that no such Commandment, Appointment, or Licence shall avail any Person to exempt him from the Danger or Penalty of playing at any unlawful Game or in any common Gaming House.

Repeal of Part of 33 H. 8. c. 9.

What shall be sufficient Evidence that a House is a common Gaming House.

II. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether certain Houses, alleged or reputed to be opened for 'the Use of the Subscribers only, or not open to all Persons desirous of using the same, are to be 'deemed common Gaming Houses;' be it declared and enacted, That, in default of other Evidence proving any House or Place to be a common Gaming House, it shall be sufficient, in support of the Allegation in any Indictment or Information that any House or Place is a common Gaming House, to prove that such House or Place is kept or used for playing therein at any unlawful Game, and that a Bank is kept there by One or more of the Players exclusively of the others, or that the Chances of any Game played therein are not alike favourable to all the Players, including among the Players the Banker or other Person by whom the Game is managed, or against whom the other Players stake, play, or bet; and every such House or Place shall be deemed a common Gaming House such as is contrary to Law and forbidden to be kept by the said Act of King Henry the Eighth, and by all other Acts containing any Provision against unlawful Games or Gaming Houses.

Power of Justices may be exercised under Warrant.

III. And be it enacted, That in every Case (except within the Metropolitan Police District) in which the Justices of Peace in every Shire, and Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and other head Officers within every City, Town, and Borough, within this Realm, now have by Law Authority to enter into any House, Room, Room, or Place where unlawful Games shall be suspected to be holden, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint made before him on Oath that there is Reason to suspect any House, Room, or Place to be kept or used as a common Gaming House, to give Authority, by special Warrant under his Hand, when in his Discretion he shall think fit, to any Constable, to enter, with such Assistance as may be found necessary, into such House, Room, or Place, in like Manner as might have been done by such Justices, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, or other head Officers, and, if necessary, to use Force for making such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to arrest, search, and bring before a Justice of Peace all such Persons found therein as might have been arrested therein by such Justice of Peace had he been personally present; and all such Persons shall be dealt with according to Law, as if they had been arrested in such House, Room, or Place by the Justice before whom they shall be so brought; and any such Warrant may be in the Form given in the First Schedule annexed to this Act.

Penalties on Gaming House Keepers, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Keeper of any common Gaming House, and every Person having the Care or Management thereof, and also every Banker, Croupier, and other Person who shall act in any Manner in conducting the Business of any common Gaming House, shall, on Conviction thereof, by his own Confession, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, before any Two Justices of the Peace, beside any Penalty or Punishment to which he may be liable under the Provisions of the said Act of King Henry the Eighth, be liable to forfeit and pay such Penalty, not more than One hundred Pounds, as shall be adjudged by the Justices before whom he shall be convicted, or, in the Discretion of the Justices before whom he shall be convicted, may be committed to the House of Correction, with or without hard Labour, for any Time not more than Six Calendar Months; and on Nonpayment of any Penalty so adjudged, and of the reasonable Costs and Charges attending the Conviction, the same shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of One of the convicting Justices: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Proceeding by Indictment against the Owner or Keeper or other Person having the Care or Management of a common Gaming House; but no Person who shall have been summarily convicted of any such Offence shall be liable to be proceeded against by Indictment for the same Offence.

Proof of Gaming for Money, &c. not necessary for Informations.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary, in support of any Information for Gaming in, or suffering any Games or Gaming in, or for keeping or using, or being concerned in the Management or Conduct of a common Gaming House, to prove that any Person found playing at any Game was playing for any Money, Wager, or Stake.

Commissioners of Police may authorize Superintendent, &c. to enter Gaming Houses and seize all Instruments of Gaming and take into Custody all Persons found therein.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Superintendent belonging to the Metropolitan Police Force shall report in Writing to the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis that there are good Grounds for believing, and that he does believe, that any House, Room, or Place within the Metropolitan Police District is kept or used as a common Gaming House, it shall be lawful for either of the said Commissioners, by Order in Writing, to authorize the Superintendent to enter any such House, Room, or Place, with such Constables as shall be directed by the Commissioner to accompany him, and, if necessary, to use Force for the Purpose of effecting such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to take into Custody all Persons who shall be found therein, and to seize all Tables and Instruments of Gaming found in such House or Premises, and also to seize all Monies and Securities for Money found therein.

Police Superintendent may search for Instruments of Gaming.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Police Superintendent making such Entry as aforesaid in obedience to any such Order of One of the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, with the Assistance of any Constable or Constables accompanying him, to search all Parts of the House, Room, or Place which he shall have so entered where he shall suspect that Tables or Instruments of Gaming are concealed, and all Persons whom he shall find therein, and to seize all Tables and Instruments of Gaming which he shall so find.

What shall be deemed Evidence of Gaming.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Cards, Dice, Balls, Counters, Tables, or other Instruments of Gaming used in playing any unlawful Game shall be found in any House, Room, or Place suspected to be used as a common Gaming House, and entered under a Warrant or Order issued under the Provisions of this Act, or about the Person of any of those who shall be found therein, it shall be Evidence, until the contrary be made to appear, that such House, Room, or Place is used as a common Gaming House, and that the Persons found in the Room or Place where such Tables or Instruments of Gaming shall have been found were playing therein, although no Play was actually going on in the Presence of the Superintendent or Constable entering the same, under a Warrant or Order issued under the Provisions of this Act, or in the Presence of those Persons by whom he shall be accompanied as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Police Magistrate or Justices before whom any Person shall be taken by virtue of the Warrant or Order to direct all such Tables and Instruments of Gaming to be forthwith destroyed.

Indemnity of Witnesses.

IX. And for the more effectual Prosecution of the Keepers of common Gaming Houses, be it enacted, That every Person who shall have been concerned in any unlawful Gaming, and who shall be examined as a Witness by or before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or on the Trial of any Indictment or Information against the Owner or Keeper or other Person having the Care or Management of any common Gaming House, touching such unlawful Gaming, and who upon such Examination shall make true and faithful Discovery to the best of his or her Knowledge of all Things as to which he or she shall be so examined, and shall thereupon receive from the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace or Judge of the Court by or before whom he or she shall be so examined a Certificate in Writing to that that Effect, shall be freed from all Criminal Prosecutions, and from all Forfeitures, Punishments, and Disabilities, to which he or she may have become liable for any thing done before that Time in respect of such unlawful Gaming.

Justices may grant Billiard Licences at Licensing Sessions.

X. And be it enacted, That the Justices in every Division, District, and Place in England for which a Special Session of the Justices of the Peace (called the General Annual Licensing Meeting) is holden annually for granting Licences to Persons keeping or being about to keep Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses to sell exciseable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises therein specified, shall have Authority at such General Annual Licensing Meeting, or at any Adjournment thereof, to grant Billiard Licences to such Persons as the said Justices shall in their Discretion deem fit and proper to keep public Billiard Tables and Bagatelle Boards, or Instruments used in any Game of the like Kind, and at the Special Sessions holden for transferring Licences to keep Inns shall have Authority to transfer such Billiard Licences to such other Persons as they in their Discretion shall deem fit and proper to continue to hold the same, and who in each Case shall be required to give the like Notice of their Intention to apply for such Billiard Licence, and entitled to receive the like Notice of the Licensing Days as is required in the Case of Persons intending to apply for a Licence or the Transfer of a Licence to sell exciseable Liquors by Retail to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, or as near thereto as the Case will allow; and every such Billiard Licence shall be in the Form given in the Third Schedule annexed to this Act, and shall continue in force in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey from the Fifth Day of April, and elsewhere from the Tenth Day of October, after the granting thereof, for One whole Year thence respectively next ensuing, and no longer; and the Clerk of the Justices shall be entitled to demand and receive from every Person licensed under this Act, for the Petty Constable or other Peace Officer, for serving Notices and other Services required of him, the Sum of One Shilling, and for the Clerk of the Justices, for the Licence, the Sum of Five Shillings; and every Clerk who shall demand or receive from any Person for such Fees more than the said Sums, being together Six Shillings, shall for every such Offence, on Conviction before One Justice, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds.

Places kept for public Billiard Tables to be licensed.

9 G. 4. c. 61.

Notice that such Places are licensed for Billiards to be put up.

XI. And be it enacted, That after the Fifth Day of April in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and elsewhere after the Tenth Day of October next after the passing of this Act, every House, Room, or Place kept for public Billiard Playing, or where a public Billiard Table or Bagatelle Board, or Instrument used in any Game of the like Kind, is kept, at which Persons are admitted to play, except in Houses or Premises specified in any Licence granted under an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the granting of Licences to Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in England, herein-after called a Victualler's Licence, shall be licensed under this Act; and after the said Fifth Day of April in Middlesex and Surrey, and elsewhere after the said Tenth Day of October, every Person keeping any such public Billiard Table or Bagatelle Board, or Instrument used in any Game of the like Kind for public Use, without being duly licensed so to do, and not holding a Victualler's Licence for the House or Premises where such Billiard Table, Bagatelle Board, or other Instrument as aforesaid is kept or used, and also every Person licensed under this Act who shall not during the Continuance of such Billiard Licence put and keep up the Words "Licensed for Billiards," legibly printed in some conspicuous Place near the Door and on the Outside of the House specified in the Licence, shall be liable to be proceeded against as the Keeper of a common Gaming House, and, beside any Penalty or Punishment to which he may be liable if convicted of keeping a common Gaming House, shall, on Conviction of keeping such unlicensed Billiard Table, Bagatelle Board, or other Instrument as aforesaid, by his own Confession, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses before any Police Magistrate or any Two Justices of the Peace, be liable to pay such Penalty, not more than Ten Pounds for every Day on which such Billiard Table, Bagatelle Board, or Instrument as aforesaid shall be used, as shall be adjudged by the Magistrate or Justices before whom he shall be convicted, or, in the Discretion of the Magistrate or Justices, may be committed to the House of Correction with or without hard Labour, for any Time not more than One Calendar Month; and on Nonpayment of any Penalty so adjudged, and of the reasonable Costs and Charges of the Conviction, the same shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Magistrate or One of the convicting Justices; but no Person who shall have been summarily convicted of any such Offence shall be liable to be further proceeded against by Indictment for the same Offence.

Penalties for Offences against Tenor of Licences.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Person licensed under this Act who shall be convicted before a Police Magistrate or Two Justices acting in and for the Division or Place in which shall be situated the House kept or theretofore kept by such Person of any Offence against the Tenor of the Licence to him granted, shall be liable to the same Penalties and Punishments in the Case of a First, Second, or Third Offence respectively to which Persons licensed under an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the granting of Licences to Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in England, are respectively liable on Conviction of a First, Second, or Third Offence against the Tenor of the Licence granted to them under the last-recited Act, or as near thereunto as the Nature of the Case will allow; and all the Provisions of the last-recited Act with respect to Convictions and Penalties for Offences against the last-recited Act, and the Proceedings for enforcing the same, and to the Expences of Prosecution and Penalties on Witnesses for not attending, and the Recovery and Application of Penalties, and the Proceedings on Appeals against Convictions, and the Award of Costs on Appeals, and in Actions against Justices, Constables, or other Persons for any thing done in execution of the last-recited Act, shall be deemed to apply, so far as they are applicable, to Convictions victions for Offences against the Tenor of the Licences granted under this Act, and to the Proceedings consequent thereupon or connected therewith, as if they were herein re-enacted.

When Billiard Playing shall not be allowed.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every Person keeping any public Billiard Table or Bagatelle Board, or Instrument used in any Game of the like Kind, whether he be the Holder of a Victualler's Licence or licensed under this Act, who shall allow any Person to play at such Table, Board, or Instrument after One and before Eight of the Clock in the Morning of any Day, or at any Time on Sundays, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, or any Day appointed to be kept as a Public Fast or Thanksgiving; and every Person holding a Victualler's Licence who shall allow any Person to play at such Table, Board, or Instrument kept on the Premises specified in such Victualler's Licence at any Time when such Premises are not by Law allowed to be open for the Sale of Wine, Spirits, or Beer, or other fermented or distilled Liquors, shall be liable to the Penalties herein provided in the Case of Persons keeping such public Billiard Table, Bagatelle Board, or Instrument as aforesaid for public Use without Licence; and during those Times when Play at such Table, Board, or Instrument is not allowed by this Act every House licensed under this Act, and every Billiard Room in every House specified in any Victualler's Licence, shall be closed, and the keeping of the same open, or allowing any Person to play therein or thereat, at any of the Times or on any of the Days during which such Play is not allowed by this Act shall be deemed in each Case an Offence against the Tenor of the Licence of the Person so offending.

Empowering Constables to visit licensed Houses.

XIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables and Officers of Police to enter into any House, Room, or Place where any public Table or Board is kept for playing at Billiards, Bagatelle, or any Game of the like Kind, when and so often as such Constables and Officers shall think proper; and every Person licensed under the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, or under this Act, who shall refuse to admit or who shall not admit any such Constable or Officer of Police into such House, Room, or Place shall, on Conviction thereof before a Police Magistrate or any Two Justices of the Peace, be deemed guilty of an Offence against the Tenor of his Licence, whether the same be a Billiard Licence or a Victualler's Licence, and in the Case of a First, Second, Third, or subsequent Offence shall be punished accordingly.

Repeal of 16 Car. 2. c. 7. 10 W. 3. (I.) 9 Anne, c. 14. 11 Anne, (I.) 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 41. and Part of 18 G. 2. c. 34.

XV. And be it enacted, That an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and an Act passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, each of such Acts being intituled An Act against deceitful, disorderly, and excessive Gaming, and so much of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and of an Act passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Eleventh Year of the same Reign, each of such Acts being intituled An Act for the better preventing of excessive and deceitful Gaming, as was not altered by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to Securities given for Considerations arising out of gaming, usurious, and certain other illegal Transactions, and so much of an Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act to explain, amend, and make more effectual the Laws in being to prevent excessive and deceitful Gaming, and to restrain and prevent the excessive Increase of Horse Races, as relates to the first-recited Act of Queen Anne, or as renders any Person liable to be indicted and punished for winning or losing, at Play or by Betting, at any One Time, the Sum or Value of Ten Pounds, or within the Space of Twenty-four Hours the Sum or Value of Twenty Pounds, shall be repealed, except as to any Penalties incurred on or before the Fifth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, for recovering which any Suit shall have been commenced before the said Fifth Day of March, and the Proceedings for Recovery and Application of the same.

Pending Actions and Informations to be discontinued.

XVI. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons against whom any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall have been sued out, commenced, or prosecuted, for the Recovery of any pecuniary Penalty or Penalties incurred on or before the Day of the passing of this Act, under the Provisions of any Act herein-before amended or repealed, to apply to the Court in which such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall have been sued out, commenced, or prosecuted, or to any Judge of any of the Superior Courts at Westminster, for an Order that such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall be discontinued, upon Payment of the Costs thereof which were incurred on or before the Fifth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, such Costs to be taxed according to the Form of such Court; and every such Court or Judge, upon such Application, shall make such Order as aforesaid; and upon the making such Order, and Payment or Tender of such Costs as aforesaid, such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall be forthwith discontinued.

Cheating at Play to be punished as obtaining Money by false Pretences.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall, by any Fraud, or unlawful Device or ill Practice in playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, or other Game, or in bearing a Part in the Stakes, Wagers, or Adventures, or in betting on the Sides or Hands of them that do play, or in wagering on the Event of any Game, Sport, Pastime, or Exercise, win from any other Person to himself, or any other or others, any Sum of Money or valuable Thing, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining such Money or valuable Thing from such other Person by a false Pretence, with Intent to cheat or defraud such Person of the same, and, being convicted thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

Wagers not recoverable at Law.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That all Contracts or Agreements, whether by Parole or in Writing, by way of gaming or wagering, shall be null and void; and that no Suit shall be brought or maintained in any Court of Law or Equity for recovering any Sum of Money or valuable Thing alleged to be won upon any Wager, or which shall have been deposited in the Hands of any Person to abide the Event on which any Wager shall have been made: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not be deemed to apply to any Subscription or Contribution, or Agreement to subscribe or contribute, for or toward any Plate, Plate, Prize, or Sum of Money to be awarded to the Winner or Winners of any lawful Game, Sport, Pastime, or Exercise.

Proceedings under feigned Issues abolished.

XIX. 'And whereas many important Questions are now tried in the Form of feigned Issues, by 'stating that a Wager was laid between Two Parties interested in respectively maintaining the Affirma- 'tive and the Negative of certain Propositions; but such Questions may be as satisfactorily tried without 'such Form;' be it therefore enacted, That in every Case where any Court of Law or Equity may desire to have any Question of Fact decided by a Jury it shall be lawful for such Court to direct a Writ of Summons to be sued out, by such Person or Persons as such Court shall think ought to be Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, against such Person or Persons as such Court shall think ought to be Defendant or Defendants therein, in the Form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed, with such Alterations or Additions as such Court may think proper; and thereupon all the Proceedings shall go on and be brought to a close in the same Manner as is now practised in Proceedings under a feigned Issue.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

XX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall be summarily convicted under this Act may appeal to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, provided that such Person at the Time of the Conviction, or within Forty-eight Hours thereafter, shall enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Securities, conditioned personally to appear at the said Session to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Court at such Session, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the last-mentioned Court awarded; and it shall be lawful for the Magistrate or Justices by whom such Conviction shall have been made to bind over the Witnesses who shall have been examined in sufficient Recognizances to attend and be examined at the hearing of such Appeal; and that every such Witness, on producing a Certificate of being so bound, under the Hand of the said Magistrate or Justices, shall be allowed Compensation for his or her Time, Trouble, and Expences in attending the Appeal, which Compensation shall be paid in the first instance by the Treasurer of the County or Place, in like Manner as in Cases of Misdemeanor, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in England, and in case the Appeal shall be dismissed, and the Order or Conviction affirmed, the reasonable Expences of all such Witnesses attending as aforesaid, to be ascertained by the Court, shall be repaid to the said Treasurer by the Appellant. 7 G. 4. c. 64.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

XXI. And be it enacted, That when any Distress shall be made for any Money to be levied by virtue of the Warrant of any Justice under this Act, the Distress shall not be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Warrant of Apprehension, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser from the Beginning on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

Plaintiff not to recover after Tender of Amends.

XXII. And be it enacted, That no Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding made or committed in the Execution of this Act, or in, under, or by virtue of any Authority hereby given, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made, by or on behalf of the Party who shall have committed such Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding, before such Action brought; and in case no Tender shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit; whereupon such Proceeding, Order, and Adjudication shall be had and made in and by such Court as in other Actions where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Limitation of Actions.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Action, Suit, or Information, or any other Proceeding, of what Nature soever, shall be brought against any Person for any thing done or omitted to be done in pursuance of this Act, or in the Execution of the Authorities under this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall be given by the Party intending to prosecute such Suit, Information, or other Proceeding to the intended Defendant, One Calendar Month at least before prosecuting the same, nor unless such Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding shall be brought or commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Act or Omission complained of, or in case there shall be a Continuation of Damage, then within Three Calendar Months next after the doing such Damage shall have ceased.

Construction of Terms.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in Ireland the Term "Metropolitan Police Force," and the Terms "Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis," and the Terms "Metropolitan Police District," shall mean and include respectively the Dublin Metropolitan Police Force, the Commissioners of Police of Dublin Metropolis, and the Police District of Dublin Metropolis.

Conviction, &c. not to be quashed for Informality, &c.

XXV. And be it enacted, That no Information, Conviction, or other Proceeding before or by any Justice or Justices under this Act shall be quashed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient, for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari into Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench.

Alteration of Act.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CX.

An Act for the better collecting Borough and Watch Rates in certain Places.

[8th August 1845.]

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, Authority was given to the Councils of Boroughs in certain Cases to levy Borough Rates, and also Watch Rates, for the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas the Powers and Directions given by the said Act, and certain other Acts relating thereto, for the levying, assessing, and collecting such Borough Rates and Watch Rates, are found to be insufficient for that Purpose:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Case in which any Parish or Place liable to support its own Poor, or any extra-parochial Place, shall lie partly within and

and partly without any such Borough, and the Council of such Borough hath appointed or hereafter shall appoint One or more Persons to act as Overseer or Overseers within that Part of such Parish or Place, or those Parts of such Parishes or Places, which is or are within the same Borough, for making, levying, and collecting Borough Rates or Watch Rates made or hereafter to be made therein, the Person or Persons so appointed shall be empowered to levy and raise, by an equal Rate or Assessment upon all the Property within each of the Parts of Parishes or Places respectively for which he or they shall be so appointed, which, if such Part were a Parish maintaining its own Poor, would be rateable to the Relief of the Poor, such Sums of Money as shall be required in order to raise the several Sums assessed upon such Parts of Parishes or Places respectively, or to reimburse such Person or Persons as aforesaid such Sums of Money as he or they shall have paid for any Borough Rate or Watch Rate made or hereafter to be made by the Council of the Borough wherein such Part of a Parish or Place, or Parts of Parishes and Places, respectively, shall be situated; such Rate or Assessment, or respective Rates or Assessments, to be paid by the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being of such rateable Property as aforesaid; and that the Person or Persons so appointed or to be appointed to act as such Overseer or Overseers for the Purposes aforesaid shall have and exercise, in and for the Purpose of making, levying, and collecting every such Rate or Assessment as aforesaid, all the Powers which by the Laws now or hereafter to be in force Overseers of the Poor have or may have for making, assessing, collecting, and recovering Rates for the Relief of the Poor within their several Parishes; and every such Rate or Assessment made or to be made by any Person or Persons appointed or to be appointed to act as Overseer or Overseers of the Part of any Parish or Place within any such Borough shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be called a District Rate.

within Boroughs to raise District Rates.

II. And be it enacted, That no such District Rate, nor any separate Rate made by Overseers of the Poor for raising a Watch Rate as herein-after is mentioned, shall be demanded, collected, or payable, until the same shall have been allowed by Two or more Justices of the Peace usually acting in and for such Borough, and shall also have been published in like Manner as Rates for Relief of the Poor are by Law required to be allowed and published.

District Rates to be allowed and published.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such District Rate as aforesaid, or by any separate Rate to be made by any Overseers of the Poor for raising a Watch Rate as herein-after is mentioned, may appeal to the Recorder of the Borough in which such Rate has been made, at the next Quarter Session for the same Borough, or, in case there shall be no Recorder in such Borough, to the Justices at the next Court of Quarter Sessions for the County within which such Borough is situated, or whereunto it is adjacent; and such Recorder or Justices respectively shall hear and determine the same, and shall award Relief in the Premises as in the Case of an Appeal against any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor.

Persons aggrieved may appeal.

IV. And be it enacted, That every such District Rate as aforesaid made for the Purpose of raising Money to pay or reimburse any Borough Rate or Watch Rate charged by the Council of the Borough upon such Part of a Parish or Place, and every separate Rate to be made by Overseers of the Poor for raising a Watch Rate as herein-after mentioned, may be at such Amount or Rate in the Pound as may be necessary for raising the Sum or respective Sums so charged by such Council, so that no such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, exceed Two-pence in the Pound of the annual Value of Property rateable thereunto, beyond the Rate in the Pound at which the Council of the same Borough shall have computed the General Borough Rate or Watch Rate so laid or charged by them; and that the Person or Persons collecting such District Rate shall be liable to account as an Officer appointed by the Council of the Borough in or for any Part of which he shall act, and shall be liable to the same Penalties, Remedies, and Proceedings in all respects, for refusing or neglecting to account and pay over the Monies from Time to Time remaining in his Hands, to which other Officers appointed by the Council are liable; and in case of there being a Surplus in the Hands of such Person or Persons arising from any District Rate, above the Amount for raising which such District Rate was made, then such Surplus shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Borough Fund, to the Credit of the Place within and for which such District Rate was made, and go in part of the next Rate of the like Denomination to be made and laid on such Place by the Council of such Borough; and in regard to separate Rates made by Overseers of the Poor for raising Watch Rates as is herein-after mentioned, such Overseers shall account for the Money collected under or by virtue of such separate Rates in like Manner as for Money collected under Rates made for the Relief of the Poor; and in case of there being a Surplus in the Hands of such Overseer, arising from any such separate Rate made for raising a Watch Rate, above the Amount to raise which such separate Rate was made, then such Surplus shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Borough Fund, to the Credit of the Place within and for which such separate Rate was made, and go in part of the next Watch Rate to be made and laid on such Place by the Council of such Borough.

District Rates to be sufficient to raise the Amount required.

Collectors to account.

Surplus of District Rate to be paid to the Treasurer.

Separate Rate made by Overseers to be accounted for, and Surplus paid to the Treasurer.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Council of the Borough in which any District Rate, or any separate Rate to be made by Overseers of the Poor for raising a Watch Rate as herein-after mentioned, shall be made, or for any Committee of the Council appointed for that Purpose, on Application by or on behalf of any Person rated in any such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, to be discharged therefrom, and on Proof of his or her Inability, through Poverty, to pay the Amount charged upon him or her by such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, to order that such Person shall be excused from the Payment of such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, and to strike out his or her Name therefrom; and the Sum at which such Person was so rated in such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, shall not thereafter be collected, nor shall any Person be charged therewith, Persons rated may be excused on account of Poverty.

with, or in any Manner called or liable to account for the same, or for omitting to collect or receive the same.

Watch Rates to be charged only upon Persons liable thereto.

VI. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which a Part only of any Parish or Place liable to maintain its own Poor, and situated within any Borough, shall be liable to Watch Rate, the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place shall not pay the Amount of any Watch Rate charged by the Council of such Borough upon such Parish or Place out of Money collected from any Rate or Rates for the Relief of the Poor, but shall make a separate Rate or Assessment upon the Part or Parts only of such Parish or Place liable to Watch Rates for raising and paying the same Watch Rate, which Rate shall be made in like Manner, and under like Regulations, and with like Means and Remedies for Recovery thereof, as are herein contained in relation to District Rates.

For Recovery of Rates.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons appointed or to be appointed to act as Overseer or Overseers for making, levying, and collecting Borough Rates and Watch Rates in the Parts of Parishes or Places situate within the Limits and Jurisdiction of any City or Borough as aforesaid, or any of them, and for the Overseers of the Poor making any separate Rate or Assessment for the Purpose of raising the Amount of any Watch Rate, by Warrant from any Two Justices of the Peace usually acting in and for the Borough wherein the Parishes, Parts of Parishes or Places, in or for which any District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, may be made, shall be situated, to levy upon every Person who shall refuse to pay the Amount assessed or charged upon him or her by any such District Rate, or Rate for raising a Watch Rate, according as they shall be assessed, the Amount so assessed or charged upon him, her, or them, together with the Costs and Charges of recovering and enforcing Payment of the same, to be ascertained by such Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, rendering to the Parties the Overplus; and in default of such Distress it shall be lawful for any Two such Justices of the Peace to commit him or them to the Common Gaol of or used for the same Borough, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until Payment of the said Amount and Arrearages.

Overseer may be appointed for Two or more Parts of Parishes.

VIII. And be it enacted, That whenever there shall be within any Borough Two or more Parishes or Places, each separately maintaining its own Poor, or Two or more extra-parochial Places, and each of them partly within and partly without the Limits and Jurisdiction of such Borough, it shall be lawful for the Council of such Borough to appoint some One Person or some Two Persons to act as Overseer or Overseers for making, levying, and assessing District Rates and Watch Rates within any Two or more of the Parts of Parishes or Places, or within all the Parts of Parishes or Places, lying within the Limits and Jurisdiction of such Borough, without regard to the Residence of the Person or Persons so to be appointed; and every Person appointed to act as an Overseer for the making, levying, and collecting District or Watch Rates under the Provisions of this Act, and the Acts herein recited, shall be allowed and paid out of the Borough Fund such Allowances or Remuneration for his Services as the Council shall direct.

Alteration of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXI.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the assessing of County Rates. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws in being relating to the assessing of County Rates:' be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of every County in England, assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, from Time to Time, as often as they may deem it necessary, to appoint any Number of Justices, not exceeding Eleven in Number nor less than Five, to be a Committee for the Purpose of preparing fair and equal County Rates, or of altering and amending such Rates from Time to Time as Circumstances may require.

Justices at Sessions to appoint Committees for assessing County Rates.

Meetings of Committee.

II. And be it enacted, That the Committee so appointed shall hold their First Meeting after their Appointment at such Time and Place as shall be fixed by the said Court of Quarter Sessions, and their subsequent Meetings at such Times and Places as they shall themselves appoint for carrying this Act into execution; and at every Meeting of the said Committee, if Three or more Members thereof are present, they shall be competent to act as fully and effectually as if all the Members of the said Committee were present.

Committee may appoint a Clerk.

III. And be it enacted, That such Committee may from Time to Time, as they may see fit, appoint a Clerk to assist them in the Execution of their Duties under the Provisions of this Act, and may at any Time remove such Clerk, and appoint another in his Stead.

Committee may require Returns of the annual Value of the Property in any Parish liable to be assessed, with the Date of the last Valuation.

IV. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of preparing such fair and equal County Rates the said Committee, by their Order in Writing, to be signed by their Clerk, may from Time to Time as often as they may deem it necessary, direct the Overseers of the Poor, Constables, Assessors, and Collectors of public Rates of or for any Parish, Township or Place within the County, and all other Persons having the Custody or Management of any public or parochial Rates or Valuations of any such Parish, Township, or Place, to make Returns in Writing to the said Committee, at such Times and Places as they may appoint, of the Amount of the full and fair annual Value of the whole or of any Part of the Property within the Parish, Township, or Place liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, together with the Date of the last Valuation for the Assessment of such Parish, and the Name of the Surveyor by whom the Valuation was made; and the Overseers of the Poor required to make any such Return in respect of any Such Returns to be laid before

Parish,

Parish, Township, or Place maintaining its own Poor, and the Constable or other Person required to make any such Return in respect of any Place not maintaining its own Poor, shall, before they present the same to the said Committee, lay the same before a Vestry Meeting of the Parish, Township, or Place for which they act, or where no Vestry Meeting is held before some other Meeting of the Inhabitants of such Place if any such there be, at which the public Business of such Place is commonly transacted. a Vestry Meeting previous to their being presented to the Committee.

V. And be it declared and enacted, That the Property liable to be assessed towards the County Rate shall be taken to be the Property which in any Parish or Place maintaining its own Poor is liable to be rated to the Relief of the Poor, or which in any Place not maintaining its Poor would be liable to be rated for the Relief of the Poor if such Place were a Parish. Declaration of the Property liable to the County Rate.

VI. And be it declared and enacted, That for the Purposes of assessing any County Rate the Words "full and fair annual Value" shall be taken to mean the net annual Value of any Property as the same is or may be required by Law to be estimated for the Purpose of assessing the Rates for the Relief of the Poor. Meaning of "full and fair annual Value."

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Committee may from Time to Time, as often as they may deem it necessary, by their Order in Writing, signed as aforesaid, require the said Overseers of the Poor, Constables, Assessors, Collectors, and any other Persons whomsoever, to appear before them when and where and as often as the said Committee may deem expedient, and to produce all parochial and other Rates, Assessments, Valuations, Apportionments, and other Documents in their Custody or Power relating to the Value of or Assessment on all or any of the Property within the several Parishes and Places aforesaid which may be liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, and to be examined on Oath, and answer such Questions as the said Committee may put to them respectively touching the said Rates, Assessments, Valuations, or Apportionments, or the Value of the Property aforesaid; and the said Committee shall be authorized and empowered to administer such Oath, and to examine the Parties upon Oath as aforesaid. Committees empowered to inspect Rates, Assessments, Valuations, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Overseer of the Poor, Constable, Assessor, Collector, or other Person so required to make Returns, or to appear as aforesaid, who shall, without any reasonable Excuse, neglect to make such Returns in Writing as aforesaid, or wilfully make any false Return, and every Person who shall neglect or refuse to appear when required so to do as aforesaid, or to be sworn or examined, or to produce such Documents as herein-before provided, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be prosecuted and recovered by Order of the said Committee before any Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace. Penalty on Overseers or others refusing to attend or produce Documents.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Committee may from Time to Time, and so often as they may think fit, by their Order in Writing, to be signed as aforesaid, direct that the whole or any Part of any Parish, Township, or Place within the County shall be valued, and may appoint One or more Person or Persons to make such Valuation; and the Person or Persons so appointed may at all reasonable Times, and with or without Assistants, enter upon, view, examine, survey, and measure all and any Lands, Houses, or other Property within such Parish, Township, or Place liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, in order to ascertain the Value at which the same ought respectively to be charged. Committees may cause new Valuations to be made.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Committee from Time to Time may make such Allowances and Compensations to their Clerk, and to the Overseers, Constables, Collectors, Surveyors, or other Persons employed in the Execution of this Act, as to them shall appear reasonable and proper, which, together with the Costs of Printing and other Expences necessarily incurred by the said Committee in or about the preparing or amending any Rate, shall be paid, by an Order of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, out of the County Stock. Allowances and Compensation to Persons employed in the Execution of this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That if any Overseers neglect to make any such Return in Writing as aforesaid, or wilfully make any false Return or Statement of the Amount of the full and fair annual Value of the Property within the Parish, Township, or Place liable to be assessed towards the County Rate, any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, upon the Report of the said Committee, may order that the whole of the Expences incurred by the said Committee in ascertaining the Amount of the full and fair annual Value of the same shall be charged upon the Parish, Township, or Place of which the Overseers have been guilty of such Neglect or Misconduct as aforesaid, in addition to the Proportion of the County Rate to be paid by such Parish, Township, or Place; and such Expences shall be raised, levied, and collected by such and the like Ways and Means as County Rate can or may be raised, levied, and collected, and shall be paid therewith, due Distinction being made, in the Case of every such additional Assessment, between the Sum or Sums charged for any such Expences and the Sum or Sums assessed for the County Rate. If Parish Officers neglect or make false Returns, Expences of Valuations to be paid by Parishes.

XII. And be it enacted, That when and so soon as the Committee appointed as aforesaid have prepared any County Rate in which the total Amount of the annual Value of the Property in any Parish or Place within the County is estimated at a greater or less Amount than in the last preceding County Rate, they shall cause such Rate to be printed in such Form as they may think proper, and shall forthwith cause to be sent by the General Post or otherwise One Copy of the same to every acting Justice of the Peace for the County, and to the Overseers of the Poor, Constables, or other Persons charged with the Collection or Levy of the County Rate in every Parish and Place within such County; and such Overseers of the Poor, Constables, or other Persons shall within Twenty-one Days after the Receipt of such Rate, call a Vestry Meeting of such Parish or Place, and shall submit the said Copy of the said Rate to such Vestry Meeting; and any Person rated to the Relief of the Poor or liable to contribute to the County Rate in such Parish or Place may at all reasonable Times inspect and examine the said Copy of When a County Rate differing from the preceding is prepared, it shall be printed and distributed. Overseers to submit the Rate to a Vestry Meeting.

the said Rate, whilst the same remains in the Custody of any such Overseer, Constable, or other Person, and take Extracts or Copies therefrom, without the Payment of any Fee for the same.

Notice of the Time within which Objections may be made to the proposed Rate to be sent to the Overseers.

XIII. And be it enacted, That, together with the Copy of such proposed Rate, there shall also be sent by the said Committee to the Overseers of the Poor or Constable of every such Parish or Place, or other Person as aforesaid, a Notification of a reasonable Time, not less than One Calendar Month, within which any Objections to the proposed Rate may be forwarded to the said Committee by such Overseers or Constable or other Person as aforesaid, or by any Person affected by such Rate; and the said Committee shall fix a Time and Place when and where such Objections will be taken into consideration by the said Committee, and for hearing the Parties making such Objections.

Notice to be given when Rate will be taken into consideration by Court of General or Quarter Sessions.

XIV. And be it enacted, That when any proposed Rate has been finally corrected and approved of by the said Committee they shall lay the same before the Court of General or Quarter Sessions holden next thereafter, and such Court shall thereupon order public Notice to be given in One or more of the Newspapers usually circulated within the County, that such Rate will be taken into consideration at the then next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be held for the said County; and at such General or Quarter Session of the Peace the Court shall proceed to take the same into consideration, and to alter and amend the same as to them may seem proper, and, if they think fit, to allow and confirm the said Rate, or, instead of making any Alteration in the said Rate, or allowing and confirming the same, to refer back the said Rate for Amendment to the said Committee, and to adjourn the Consideration thereof to some future General or Quarter Session of the Peace; and in such last-mentioned Case the said Committee shall have the same Powers and Authorities for requiring Returns and ascertaining the Value of Property liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, in order to the revising or amending of the said Rate, as are herein-before given to them for preparing the same; and all the Clauses and Provisions herein-before contained for preparing any Rate shall be applicable in every respect to the Revision or Amendment of the same; and any Amendment or Alteration of such Rate by the said Committee shall be reported and taken into consideration at the General or Quarter Session of the Peace to which the Consideration thereof was adjourned; but before any Alteration or Amendment of the said Rate made by the said Committee be allowed or confirmed by the Court of General or Quarter Session of the Peace the said Committee shall send at least Fourteen Days previous Notice thereof, by Post or otherwise, to every Parish and Place with respect to which such Alteration or Amendment is made.

Rate to be deemed valid after Confirmation by Court of General or Quarter Sessions.

XV. And be it enacted, That when the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace have so allowed and confirmed any Rate, the same shall be taken to be made, and shall be valid, legal, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, notwithstanding any Irregularity may have arisen in the making thereof, and notwithstanding the Officers of any Parish or Place may have omitted to make the Returns herein-before mentioned, subject nevertheless at all Times to Appeals against the same as herein-after provided; and the said Court shall cause Copies of the said Rate to be printed, and shall direct One of such Copies to be sent to every acting Justice of the Peace for the County, and One Copy to the Overseers of the Poor, Constable, or other Person charged with the Collection and Levy of the County Rate in every Parish and Place within the said County.

Appeal.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if at any Time after the said Rate has been made as aforesaid any Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, Constable, or other Person charged with the Collection and Levy of County Rate in any Parish or Place, or other Inhabitant or Inhabitants thereof, have reason to think that such Parish, Township, or Place is aggrieved by any such Rate, whether it be on account of some One or more of them being without sufficient Cause omitted altogether from the Rate, or on account of such Parish, Township, or Place being rated on a Sum beyond the full and fair annual Value of the Property therein liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, or on account of some other Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places, being rated on a Sum less than the full and fair annual Value of the Property therein liable to be assessed toward the County Rate, such Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, Constable, or other Person, or Inhabitant or Inhabitants may appeal to the Justices of the Peace for the County, at the General or Quarter Session to be holden next after the Session at which such Rate was allowed and confirmed, against such Part of the Rate only as may affect the Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places which appear to be over-rated or under-rated, or omitted altogether from the Rate as aforesaid (subject to the Provisions herein-after contained); and if in any Case where any Overseer or Overseers, Constable, or other Person as aforesaid, of one Parish or Place, appeals against the Rate on any other Parish or Place, on account of the same being altogether omitted from such Rate, or on account of the same being rated at less than the full and fair annual Value thereof as aforesaid, such Overseer or Overseers, Constable, or other Person shall give Twenty-one Days previous Notice in Writing of the Intention to appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, to the Overseers of the Poor, or where there are no such Overseers to the Constable or other Person charged with the Collection and Levy of County Rate in such other Parish or Place, and if in any Case where any such Overseer or Overseers, Constable, or other Person appeal against the Rate on the ground that any Parish, Township, or Place is rated on a Sum beyond the full and fair annual Value of the rateable Property therein, such Overseer or Overseers, Constable, or other Person shall give Twenty-one Days Notice thereof in Writing, with the Cause and Matter thereof, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, the said Justices shall be empowered to hear and determine such Appeal in manner by this Act directed, and either to confirm such Parts of the Rate as have been appealed against, or to correct such Inequalities or Omissions as shall be proved to exist therein, in such Manner as to them the said Justices may appear fair, just, and equitable; but no such Rate shall upon any Appeal be quashed or destroyed, in regard to any other Parish, Township, or Place, unless in Cases where the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Session assembled, or the major Part of them, deem it necessary to proceed to the making of an entire new Rate, and where they proceed therein according to the Provisions of this Act.

Hearing and determining Appeals.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court of General or Quarter Session of the Peace, upon any such Appeal, instead of hearing the said Appeal, to order, upon the Application of the Appellant or Respondent in such Appeal, a Survey and Valuation of their respective Parishes, Townships, or Places, and shall fix the next or some subsequent Session for receiving such Survey and Valuation, and for hearing and determining the said Appeal, and such Court shall also thereupon appoint a proper Person or Persons to make such Survey and Valuation; and the Person or Persons so appointed shall for that Purpose have full Power, with or without Assistants, to enter upon, view, and examine, survey, measure, and value, all and any Lands, Houses, and Property liable to be assessed toward the County Rate within the Parishes, Townships, and Places mentioned in such Order; and such Survey and Valuation shall be reported to the General or Quarter Session fixed as aforesaid for receiving the same; and the Court then and there assembled shall hear and determine the said Appeal in the Manner herein-before set forth.

Penalty on Persons obstructing Overseers, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who in any Manner wilfully resists or obstructs any Overseer, Collector, Surveyor, or other Person in the Execution of his or their Duty under this Act shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be prosecuted and recovered before any Two or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County wherein the Offence is committed.

Penalties and Forfeitures, Costs and Charges, may be levied by Distress and Sale of Offenders Goods.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act authorized to be imposed for any Offence against the same shall, upon Proof and Conviction of the Offences respectively before any Two Justices, as herein-before directed, either by the Confession of the Party offending, or by the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Justices are hereby authorized to administer), be levied, together with the Costs attending the Information, Summons, and Conviction, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hands of the Justices before whom the Party may have been convicted, or, on Proof of such Conviction, by a Warrant under the Hands of any Two Justices (which Warrant such Justices are hereby empowered and required to grant), and the Overplus (if any), after such Penalties and Forfeitures, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the Owner of such Goods and Chattels; and if upon the Return of such Warrant it appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon, then it shall be lawful for any such Justices as aforesaid, by Warrant under their Hands, to cause such Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County where the Offender may be or reside, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures, and all reasonable Charges attending the same, be sooner paid and satisfied; and the said Penalties and Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County in which such Offence may have been committed or Forfeiture incurred, to be applied in aid of the Rates of the said County.

Committal.

Application of Penalties.

Sessions to determine Costs of Appeal and of Valuation ordered by Sessions.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Charges and Expences of and attending any Survey and Valuation ordered to be made by any Court of Quarter Sessions in such Appeal as aforesaid shall be deemed Costs in such Appeal, and abide the Event thereof; and the Court before which any such Appeal is heard and determined may order the Costs in and about such Appeal to be paid by either Party, Appellant or Respondent, as they in their Discretion may think fit; but where any Appeal is made on the ground that any Parish, Township, or Place is rated on a Sum beyond the full and fair annual Value of the Property therein, if the Court before which such Appeal is heard determine in favour of the Appellants such Court shall ascertain the Costs and Charges incurred by such Appellants in and about such Appeal, and shall order the Treasurer of the County Rates to pay the same to such Appellants out of the public Stock of the County in his Hands.

Costs of Valuations directed by Committee.

XXI. And be it enacted, That in any Case where any Committee appointed as aforesaid have directed the whole or any Part of any Parish, Township, or Place to be valued, and where in the Rate afterwards allowed and confirmed by any Court of Quarter Session upon the Report of such Committee, such Parish, Township, or Place is rated on a Sum greater than the Sum set forth in the Returns made to such Committee by the Overseers of the Poor, Constable, or other Person required to make such Return in any Place not maintaining its own Poor, if there be no Appeal against the Rate on such Parish, Township, or Place at the General or Quarter Session holden next after such Confirmation or Allowance thereof, the Justices of the Peace at such Session shall order the Overseers, Constable, or other Person as aforesaid of such Parish, Township, or Place to pay the Amount of the Expences incurred in making such Valuation; and in any such Case as aforesaid, if there be an Appeal to the Justices of the Peace at any General or Quarter Session against the Rate, on the ground that such Parish, Township, or Place is rated on a Sum beyond the fair annual Value of the Property therein, and if on such Appeal such Rate is confirmed as to such Parish, Township, or Place, or if it be not reduced to or below the Sums set forth in the Returns made to such Committee as aforesaid, the Justices of the Peace at such Session shall order the Overseers, Constable, or other Person as aforesaid of such Parish, Township, or Place to pay the Amount of the Expences incurred in making the Valuation under the Direction of the Committee; and such Expences shall be raised, levied, and collected by such and the like Ways and Means as County Rate can or may be raised, levied, and collected, and shall be paid therewith, due Distinction being made, in the Case of every such additional Assessment, between the Sums charged for or on account of any such Expences and the Sum or Sums assessed as and for the County Rate.

Applying Provisions of former Acts to this Act.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Clauses, and Regulations contained in any former Act or Acts relating to the Assessment, Collection, and levying of County Rates (save and except such Parts thereof respectively as are hereby varied, altered, or repealed,) shall be good, valid, and effectual for the Purposes of assessing, levying, collecting, and enforcing the Payment of the Rate or Rates hereafter to be made in pursuance of this Act, and for carrying this Act into execution.

County Rate not to be assessed otherwise than as directed by 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.

XXIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth 'Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal 'Corporations in England and Wales, it is enacted, that after the Grant of a separate Court of Quarter 'Sessions of the Peace to any Borough it shall not be lawful to assess any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, 'or Hereditaments within such Borough to any County Rate thereafter to be made, but every Part of every 'such Borough shall thenceforward be wholly free and discharged from contributing otherwise than as 'therein-after provided to any Rate or Assessment of any Kind of and for the County in which any 'Part of such Borough is situated;' be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to render any such Borough, or any Property situated therein, liable to be assessed or to contribute to County Rate, save as in the said recited Act is mentioned and contained.

The Act extended to all Places having separate Commission of the Peace, and to all Rates of the Nature of County Rates.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Word "County" shall mean and include any Riding or Division having a separate Commission of the Peace, and any Liberty, Franchise, or other Place in which Rates in the Nature of County Rates may be levied, having a separate Commission of the Peace, and not subject to the Jurisdiction of the County or Counties at large in which such Liberty, Franchise, or Place may lie, nor contributing or paying to the County Rates made for such County or Counties at large; and that the Words "County Rate" shall mean and include every Rate or Tax assessed in any County for all or any of the Purposes to which County Rate or Stock is or may hereafter be made liable.

Alteration of Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXII.

An Act to render the Assignment of satisfied Terms unnecessary. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS the Assignment of satisfied Terms has been found to be attended with great Difficulty, Delay, and Expence, and to operate in many Cases to the Prejudice of the Persons justly entitled 'to the Lands to which they relate:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every satisfied Term of Years which, either by express Declaration or by Construction of Law, shall upon the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five be attendant upon the Inheritance or Reversion of any Lands, shall on that Day absolutely cease and determine as to the Land upon the Inheritance or Reversion whereof such Term shall be attendant as aforesaid, except that every such Term of Years which shall be so attendant as aforesaid by express Declaration, although hereby made to cease and determine, shall afford to every Person the same Protection against every Incumbrance, Charge, Estate, Right, Action, Suit, Claim, and Demand as it would have afforded to him if it had continued to subsist, but had not been assigned or dealt with, after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and shall for the Purpose of such Protection be considered in every Court of Law and of Equity to be a subsisting Term.

On 31st Dec. 1845 satisfied Terms of Years attendant on Inheritance, &c. of Land, to cease, except, &c.

Satisfied Terms now subsisting, &c. to cease on becoming attendant upon Inheritance, &c. of Lands.

II. And be it enacted, That every Term of Years now subsisting or hereafter to be created, becoming satisfied after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and which, either by express Declaration or by Construction of Law, shall after that Day become attendant upon the Inheritance or Reversion of any Lands, shall immediately upon the same becoming so attendant absolutely cease and determine as to the Land upon the Inheritance or Reversion whereof such Term shall become attendant as aforesaid.

Construction of Act.

III. And be it enacted, That in the Construction and for the Purposes of this Act, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, the Word "Lands" shall extend to all Freehold Tenements and Hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to all such Customary Land as will pass by Deed, or Deed and Admittance, and not by Surrender, or any undivided Part or Share thereof respectively; and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male.

Extent of Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Scotland.

CAP. CXIII.

An Act to facilitate the Admission in Evidence of certain official and other Documents.

[8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is provided by many Statutes that various Certificates, official and public Documents, Documents and Proceedings of Corporations and of Joint Stock and other Companies, and certified Copies of Documents, Bye Laws, Entries in Registers and other Books, shall be receivable in Evidence of certain Particulars in Courts of Justice, provided they be respectively authenticated in the Manner prescribed by such Statutes: And whereas the beneficial Effect of these Provisions has been found by Experience to be greatly diminished by the Difficulty of proving that the said Documents are genuine; and it is expedient to facilitate the Admission in Evidence of such and the like Documents:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever by any Act now in force or hereafter to be in force any Certificate, official or public Document, or Document or Proceeding of any Corporation or Joint Stock or other Company, or any certified Copy of any Document, Bye Law, Entry in any Register or other Book, or of any other Proceeding, shall be receivable in Evidence of any Particular in any Court of Justice, or before any legal Tribunal, or either House of Parliament, or any Committee of either House, or in any judicial Proceeding, the same shall respectively be admitted in Evidence, provided they respectively purport to be sealed or impressed with a Stamp, or sealed and signed, or signed alone, as required, or impressed with a Stamp and signed, as directed by the respective Acts made or to be hereafter made, without any Proof of the Seal or Stamp, where a Seal or Stamp is necessary, or of the Signature or of the official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same, and without any further Proof thereof in every Case in which the original Record could have been received in Evidence.

Certain Documents to be received in Evidence without Proof of Seal or Signature, &c. of Person signing the same.

II. And be it enacted, That all Courts, Judges, Justices, Masters in Chancery, Masters of Courts, Commissioners judicially acting, and other judicial Officers shall henceforth take judicial Notice of the Signature of any of the Equity or Common Law Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster, provided such Signature be attached or appended to any Decree, Order, Certificate, or other judicial or official Document.

Courts, &c. to take judicial Notice of Signature of Equity or Common Law Judges, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That all Copies of Private and Local and Personal Acts of Parliament not Public Acts, if purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printers, and all Copies of the Journals of either House of Parliament, and of Royal Proclamations, purporting to be printed by the Printers to the Crown or by the Printers to either House of Parliament, or by any or either of them, shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Courts, Judges, Justices, and others, without any Proof being given that such Copies were so printed.

Private Acts, printed by Queen's Printer, Journals of Parliament, &c. admissible as Evidence.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall forge the Seal, Stamp, or Signature of any such Certificate, official or public Document, or Document or Proceeding of any Corporation or Joint Stock or other Company, or of any certified Copy of any Document, Bye Law, Entry in any Register or other Book, or other Proceeding as aforesaid, or shall tender in Evidence any such Certificate, official or public Document, or Document or Proceeding of any Corporation or Joint Stock or other Company, or any certified Copy of any Document, Bye Law, Entry in any Register or other Book, or of any other Proceeding, with a false or counterfeit Seal, Stamp, or Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, whether such Seal, Stamp, or Signature be those of or relating to any Corporation or Company already established, or to any Corporation or Company to be hereafter established, or if any Person shall forge the Signature of any such Judge as aforesaid to any Order, Decree, Certificate, or other judicial or official Document, or shall tender in Evidence any Order, Decree, Certificate, or other judicial or official Document with a false or counterfeit Signature of any such Judge as aforesaid thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, or if any Person shall print any Copy of any Private Act or of the Journals of either House of Parliament, which Copy shall falsely purport to have been printed by the Printers to the Crown, or by the Printers to either House of Parliament, or by any or either of them, or if any Person shall tender in Evidence any such Copy, knowing that the same was not printed by the Person or Persons by whom it so purports to have been printed, every such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Transportation for Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not more than Three nor less than One Year, with hard Labour: Provided also, that whenever any such Document as before mentioned shall have been received in Evidence by virtue of this Act, the Court, Judge, Commissioner, or other Person officiating judicially who shall have admitted the same, shall, on the Request of any Party against whom the same is so received, be authorized, at its or at his own Discretion, to direct that the same shall be impounded, and be kept in the Custody of some Officer of the Court or other proper Person, until further Order touching the same shall be given, either by such Court, or the Court to which such Master or other Officer belonged, or by the Persons or Person who constituted such Court, or by some One of the Equity or Common Law Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster on Application being made for that Purpose.

Persons forging Seal, Stamp, or Signature of certain Documents, or printing any Private Act with false Purport, guilty of Felony.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Scotland.

Extent of Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be repealed, altered, or amended during this present Session of Parliament.

Alteration of Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the First Day of November next after the passing thereof.

Commencement of Act.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act for the Abolition of certain Fees in Criminal Proceedings. [8th August 1845.]

55 G. 3. c. 50.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, 'intituled An Act for the Abolition of Gaol and other Fees connected with the Gaols in England, 'and Doubts have been entertained as to the Extent and Meaning of the said Act, and it is expedient 'that the same be explained and amended:' Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Provisions of the said Act respecting the Discharge of certain Prisoners without Payment of any Fee do and shall extend to all Persons who now are or hereafter shall be charged with or indicted for any Felony, or as an Accessory thereto, or with or for any Misdemeanor, before any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction in England, against whom no Bill of Indictment shall be found by the Grand Jury, or who on his, her, or their Trial shall be acquitted, or who shall be discharged by Proclamation for Want of Prosecution; and that it is not and shall not be lawful to demand or take from any such Persons any Fee for their Appearance to the Indictment or Information, or for allowing them to plead thereto, or for recording their Appearance or Plea, or for discharging any Recognizance taken from any such Persons, or any Surety or Sureties for them.

Extending the Provisions of the recited Act respecting the Discharge of certain Prisoners without Payment of Fees.

II. 'And whereas by the said Act it was provided that the Clerks of Assize, Clerks of the Peace, or 'Clerks of the Court, and their Deputies, should receive the Amount of the Fees theretofore payable 'to them respectively, which were abolished by the said Act, out of the Rates of the County, District, 'Hundred, Riding, or Division, or out of the Public Stock of the City, Town Corporate, Cinque Port, 'Liberty, Franchise, or Place of which they were severally the Officers;' be it enacted, That no such Payment shall be made out of any such Rate or Stock, in satisfaction of any of the Fees abolished by the said Act, to any Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or Clerk of the Court appointed after the passing of this Act, or to their or any of their Deputies.

Certain Fees heretofore payable to Clerks of Assize, &c. out of the County Rates to cease.

CAP. CXV.

An Act for the Appointment of a Taxing Master for the High Court of Chancery in Ireland. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to appoint a new Officer for the Taxation of Costs in the High Court of 'Chancery in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-five the taxing of Costs in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland shall be conducted by an Officer to be denominated "The Taxing Master," who shall hold his Office during his good Behaviour, and shall discharge his Duties in Person, except where otherwise provided by this Act, and may be removed from his Office by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland for Misconduct; and the Business to be transacted by such Taxing Master shall be the taxing of Costs as aforesaid, and also such other Business (if any) connected with the Court of Chancery in Ireland as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Time being, shall from Time to Time by any Order direct; and the Places, Times, and Manner in which the same shall be conducted shall be such as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time by any Order direct; and from and after the Commencement of this Act no such Costs shall be taxed by any other Officer or Person whomsoever.

The Taxation of Costs in the Court of Chancery, Ireland, to be conducted by One Taxing Master, who shall discharge the Duties in Person.

II. And be it enacted, That the Lord Chancellor shall have Power to appoint some fit and competent Person to be the first Taxing Master under this Act, being a Barrister at Law of not less than Ten Years standing at the Bar, or being a Solicitor, who shall for not less than Ten Years have practised as a Solicitor of the said Court; and that as often as the said Taxing Master so to be appointed, or any of his Successors, shall die or resign or be removed from his Office, the Lord Chancellor shall have Power to appoint a Taxing Master, qualified as aforesaid, in the Room of the Taxing Master who shall so die, resign, or be removed.

Lord Chancellor to appoint the Taxing Master.

III. And be it enacted, That in case of Absence from Illness or other reasonable Cause it shall be lawful for any Taxing Master under this Act to appoint a Deputy, such Deputy, and also the Occasion for such Appointment, being first approved by the Lord Chancellor; and that in case any Taxing Master under this Act, being absent as aforesaid, shall neglect to appoint such Deputy, or to renew the Appointment of a Deputy, the Lord Chancellor may appoint a Deputy; and every Deputy to be appointed as aforesaid shall have all the Powers and Authorities of his Principal, and shall be paid such Sum out of the Salary of his Principal as the Lord Chancellor shall direct.

Appointment of Deputy in case of Absence.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Taxing Master under this Act to administer the Oaths and take the Affirmations and Attestations of Honour which he may from Time to Time be required to administer and take by any Order made by the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls for the Time being.

Taxing Master may administer Oaths and take Affirmations.

V. And be it enacted, That all Persons swearing, affirming, or attesting before any Taxing Master under this Act shall be liable to all such Penalties, Punishments, and Consequences for any wilful and corrupt false Swearing or Perjury as if the Matters sworn, affirmed, or attested had been sworn, affirmed, or attested before the High Court of Chancery, or any of the Masters in Ordinary thereof.

Persons swearing before Taxing Master subject to Penalties for Perjury.

VI. And

Salary of Taxing Master.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Taxing Master under this Act shall be entitled to receive such annual Salary, not exceeding One thousand Pounds, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct; and such Taxing Master may appoint, to assist him in his Business, Two Clerks, and as many more as the Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from Time to Time by any Order direct; and every such Taxing Master may from Time to Time remove such Clerk or Clerks, and fill up all Vacancies in the Office of such Clerks, whether occasioned by Death, Resignation, or Removal; and the said Clerks shall respectively receive such Salaries as may be directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury: Provided always, that no Clerk shall be appointed by a Taxing Master to fill up a Vacancy while he shall have a Clerk or Clerks, unless the Lord Chancellor shall by any Order declare such Appointment to be necessary.

Taxing Master may appoint and remove Clerks and fill up Vacancies.

Taxing Master and Clerks not to take Gratuities.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any such Taxing Master, or any Clerk of any Taxing Master, shall, for any thing done or pretended to be done relating to his Office or Employment under this Act, or under colour of doing any thing relating to his said Office or Employment, wilfully demand or accept, or appoint or allow any Person whatsoever to take for him or on his Account, or for or on account of any Person by him named, any Fee, Gift, Gratuity, or Emolument, or any thing of Value, other than what is allowed or directed to be taken by him under this Act, or any Order made under this Act, the Person so offending may, upon Complaint made to the Lord Chancellor, be removed by him from any Office or Employment he may hold under this Act.

Officers not to practise as Barristers, &c.

Solicitors, &c. accepting Office to be struck off the Rolls.

VIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the Thirtieth Day of November next after the passing of this Act no Person while he holds any Office or Employment under this Act shall practise as a Barrister or as a Solicitor or as an Attorney; and that from and after the said Thirtieth Day of November every Solicitor or Attorney who shall accept any Office or Employment under this Act shall be struck off the Roll of Solicitors of the High Court of Chancery, and off the Roll of Attornies of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin on which his Name may be.

Orders may be made for carrying Act into execution.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as aforesaid, to make and issue such Orders as he shall think fit for carrying the Provisions of this Act into execution, and also to make and issue such other Rules and Orders, not being inconsistent with the Enactments and Provisions of this Act, as he shall think fit, for establishing and settling the Practice of the Office hereby created, and the Hours of Attendance and Holidays.

Orders under this Act may be varied.

X. And be it enacted, That any Order or Orders for the Time being made under this Act may from Time to Time be annulled, altered, or varied by the like Authority by which any such Order or Orders shall have been made, and new Orders may from Time to Time be made for any of the Purposes of this Act by the respective Authorities by which Orders are hereby authorized to be made.

Act not to affect Powers of Lord Chancellor.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the general Powers vested in the Lord Chancellor, either solely or otherwise, under any former Act.

Offices to be procured for the Taxing Master in the King's Inns, or to be rented or hired.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to procure and provide a suitable Office or Offices for the Business of such Taxing Master in the Buildings of the Four Courts or King's Inns, Dublin, if the same can be conveniently procured therein; and if the same cannot be conveniently procured therein it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to cause suitable Offices to be rented or hired for carrying on the Business of such Taxing Master.

The Stamp Duties imposed by 4 G. 4. c. 78. in respect of Taxation of Costs in Chancery to be paid as heretofore.

XIII. ‘ And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King ‘ George the Fourth, intituled An Act to grant additional Stamp Duties on certain Proceedings in the ‘ Court of Chancery and in the Equity Side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, certain Stamp ‘ Duties were, amongst others, imposed and are payable for and in respect of several Proceedings in the ‘ Offices of the Masters in Ordinary of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and, among others, for and in ‘ respect of Certificates at the Foot of Bills of Costs upon the Taxation thereof, which said Stamp ‘ Duties are carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain ‘ and Ireland: And whereas it is expedient that the same Stamp Duties should be continued, and be ‘ payable and carried to the Consolidated Fund, in respect of the Taxation of Costs by the Taxing Master ‘ appointed under this Act, as were payable in respect of the Taxation of Costs in the said Court before ‘ the passing of this Act, and that the Salaries of such Taxing Master and his Clerks, and the Expences ‘ of his Office, should be paid out of the Consolidated Fund;’ be it therefore enacted, That the several and respective Duties of Stamps payable by virtue of the said recited Act for and in respect of every Certificate at the Foot of any Bill of Costs shall continue to be paid and payable for and in respect of and shall be applicable to every Certificate at the Foot of any Bill of Costs upon, for, or in respect of any Taxation of Costs by any Taxing Master to be appointed by virtue of this Act, and shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Provisions as the said Stamp Duties in the said recited Act mentioned, so far as the same shall be respectively applicable.

Salaries, &c., to grow due from Day to Day, but to be payable quarterly out of the Consolidated Fund.

XIV. And be it enacted, That all Salaries under this Act shall grow due from Day to Day, but shall be payable on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year, or on such other Days as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time by any Order direct, and shall be paid to the Parties entitled thereto, or their respective Executors or Administrators, by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Expence necessarily incurred for hiring suitable Offices for the Business of such Taxing Master shall likewise be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund.

XV. And

Interpretation of "Lord Chancellor."

XV. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Expression "the Lord Chancellor" shall mean and include the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, the Lord Keeper and Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Time being.

Alteration of Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act for the Protection of Seamen entering on board Merchant Ships. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS the Seamen of this Kingdom have been for several Years past subjected to grievous 'Impositions and great Injustice by certain Persons who undertake to procure Seamen to enter 'on board Merchant Ships who have no Interest in the said Ships: And whereas it is required that 'further Protection should be afforded to Seamen against the Arts of such Persons:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of September next the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations shall be and they are hereby empowered to license such Persons as they may deem to be requisite and fit, and who may be desirous to take out such Licences, to hire, engage, supply, or provide Seamen to be entered on board Merchant Ships; and every such Licence shall be granted for such Period, upon such Terms, and upon such Security being given, and shall be revocable upon such Conditions, as the Lords of the said Committee may at any Time or Times appoint.

The Board of Trade may license Persons to procure Seamen for Merchant Ships.

Manner of granting and revoking Licence.

II. And be it enacted, That every such Licence shall be granted, and every Revocation thereof shall be made, by Minute or Resolution of the Lords of the said Committee, and a Copy of any such Minute or Resolution, certified and signed by One of the Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries of the said Committee, shall be received as Evidence of such Licence or Revocation, without further Proof thereof.

No Person not duly licensed or interested in the Ship to be concerned in procuring Seamen to be entered.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person not licensed as aforesaid, or not being the Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Person in charge of a Merchant Ship, or the Ship's Husband, shall hire, engage, supply, or provide a Seaman to be entered on board any Merchant Ship; and no Person, whether licensed or not, other than the Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Person in charge of a Merchant Ship, or the Ship's Husband, shall demand or obtain the Register Ticket of any Seaman for the Purpose or under the Pretence of engaging him on board of any Merchant Ship.

Interested Persons not to receive Seamen hired contrary hereto.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Person in charge of any Merchant Ship, or Ship's Husband, shall knowingly receive or accept to be entered on board the said Ship any Seaman who has been hired, engaged, supplied, or provided to be entered on board thereof contrary to the Provisions of this Act.

Penalty on every Person guilty of any of the Offences above described.

V. And be it enacted, That every Person guilty of any of the Offences above described shall forfeit and pay for each and every Seaman hired, engaged, supplied, or provided to be entered on board, and for every Register Ticket demanded or obtained contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or for every Seaman knowingly received or accepted to be entered on board contrary to the Provisions of this Act, any Sum of Money not exceeding Twenty Pounds upon Conviction thereof for each Offence, although several Seamen may be included in the same Contract, or several Tickets may be obtained or several Seamen may be received or permitted to remain at the same Time.

Unlicensed Persons not to be employed for the Purpose of engaging Seamen.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any Person to employ any unlicensed Person or Persons for the Purpose of engaging or providing Seamen to be entered on board Merchant Ships; and that any licensed Person knowingly employing any unlicensed Person for the Purposes aforesaid shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and, in addition thereto, shall forfeit and lose his Licence.

No Advance Note or Wages to be given or paid to any Seaman until after the Ship's Articles have been duly signed.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Person in charge of any Merchant Ship, or Ship's Husband, shall not pay or advance, nor give any Note in Writing or otherwise in the Nature of and purporting to be an Advance Note for any Part of the Wages of any Seaman hired, engaged, supplied, or provided to be entered on board the said Ship, until Six Hours after the Ship's Articles have been duly signed by the said Seaman on board the said Ship, and by the Master or Owner of the said Ship, and then only to the said Seaman himself, unless such Wages or Advance of Wages be paid in Money, in which Case the Payment thereof may be made to the said Seaman himself at any Period most convenient after the signing of the said Ship's Articles as aforesaid; and all Payments of Wages contrary to the Provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be null and void, and the Amount thereof shall be recoverable by the said Seaman as if they had not been paid or advanced.

Penalty for receiving Remuneration for hiring Seamen from any but Owner, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall demand or receive from any Seaman, or from any Person other than the Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Person in charge of a Merchant Ship, or the Ship's Husband, requiring Seamen, any Remuneration whatever, either directly or indirectly, for and on account of the hiring, supplying, or providing any such Seaman, he shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Persons not to be admitted on board Merchant Vessels before their Arrival in

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person (other than any Officer or Person in Her Majesty's Service or Employment) to go and be on board any Merchant Vessel arriving or about to arrive at the Place of her Destination before or previous to her actual Arrival in Dock, or at the Quay or Place of her Discharge, without the Permission and Consent of the Master or Person in charge of the said Vessel; and if any Person (other than as aforesaid) shall go and be on board any such Vessel before or previous to her actual Arrival in Dock, or at the Quay or Place of her Discharge, without the Permission and Consent of the said Master or Person in charge of the said Vessel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum of Money not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and for the better securing the Person of such Offender the Master or Person in charge of the said Vessel is hereby authorized and empowered to take any Person so offending as aforesaid into Custody, and to deliver him up forthwith to any Constable or Peace Officer, to be by him taken before a Justice or Justices, to be dealt with according to the Provisions of this Act.

Dock or at the Place of Discharge without Permission.

X. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, on board any Merchant Ship, within Twenty-four Hours of her Arrival at any Port as aforesaid, solicit any Seaman to become a Lodger at the House of any Person not so licensed as aforesaid, and letting Lodgings for Hire, or shall take from and out of such Ship, any Chest, Bedding, or other Effects of any Seaman, except under the personal Direction of such Seaman, and without having the Permission of the Master or Person in charge of such Ship, he shall be liable to forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds.

Penalty for soliciting Sailors to become Lodgers in Houses of unlicensed Persons, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall demand and receive of and from any Seaman Payment in respect of his Board or Lodging in the House of such Person for a longer Period than such Seaman shall have actually resided and boarded therein, or shall receive or take into his Possession or under his Control any Monies, Documents, or Effects of any Seaman, and shall not return the same or pay the Value thereof when required so to do by such Seaman, after deducting therefrom what shall be justly due and owing in respect of the Board and Lodging of such Seaman, he shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, over and above the Amount or Value of such Monies, Documents, or Effects, after such Deductions as aforesaid, which shall be adjudged to be forthwith paid to such Seaman under the Conviction by the Justices before whom such Offence shall be heard and determined.

Penalty for receiving Remuneration for Board of Sailors for longer Period than is due, or for neglecting to return Monies, &c. belonging to Seamen.

XII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be recovered, with Costs, by summary Proceedings before any Two Justices of the Peace residing in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed or where the Offender shall be; and if the Sum imposed as a Penalty or adjudged to be paid as aforesaid by any such Justices shall not be paid either immediately after the Conviction or within such reasonable Time as such Justices shall at the Time of the Conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for the Justices to commit the Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, according to the Discretion of such Justices, for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, the Commitment to be determinable upon Payment of the Amount and Costs; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be paid and applied in manner following; (that is to say,) One Moiety of such Penalty shall be paid to the Informer or Person upon whose Discovery or Information the same shall be recovered, and the Residue thereof shall be paid to the Seaman's Hospital Society: Provided always, that in all Cases of Complaint made by or on the Behalf of any Seaman under this Act the Evidence of such Seaman shall be received and taken notwithstanding he may be interested in the Matter: Provided also, that such Seaman shall not in any such Case where he shall have been so examined receive any Part of any Penalty to be imposed, but only such Sum as the Magistrates before whom the Case shall be heard shall adjudge him to receive for any Monies or Effects which shall appear to have been deposited by him with any such Person as aforesaid.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be summarily convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord at in the County of [or Riding, Division, Liberty, 'City, &c., as the Case may be], A.O. is convicted before us [naming the Justices], Two of Her Majesty's 'Justices of the Peace for the said County, [or Riding, &c.,] for that he the said A.O. did [specify the 'Offence, and the Time and Place when and where the same was committed, as the Case may be]; and 'we the said Justices adjudge the said A.O. for his said Offence to forfeit and pay the Sum of [here 'state the Amount of the Fine imposed, and, when necessary, add the Words "over and above the Sum 'of £ , which we the said Justices do hereby adjudge to be forthwith paid to the said E.F. '[the Seaman], the same being the Value of Monies, Documents, or Effects of the said E.F. received 'by or taken into the Possession or under the Control of the said A.O."]; and we the said Justices do 'also adjudge the said A.O. to pay the Sum of for Costs, and in default of immediate 'Payment of the said Sums of to be imprisoned in the for the Space 'of unless the said Sums shall be sooner paid [or, and we order that the said Sums of 'shall be paid by the said A.O. on or before the Day of]; 'and we direct that the Sum of Part of the said Penalty, together with the said Sum 'of for Costs shall be paid to C.D. [the Party informing], and the Residue of the said 'Penalty shall be paid to the Seamen's Hospital Society. Given under our Hands, the Day and Year 'first above mentioned.'

Form of Conviction.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no such Conviction shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

No Certiorari, &c.

Explanatory Clause.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Words "Merchant Ships" inserted in this Act shall be understood to include every Description of Sea-going, Trading, or Passage Vessel lying and being within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Commencement of Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall come into operation at the following Times; (that is to say,) on the First Day of September, so far as respects the Power of licensing herein-before given to the Lords of the said Committee of Privy Council, and on the First Day of November, so far as respects all other Enactments of this Act.

Alteration of Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Removal of poor Persons born in Scotland, Ireland, the Islands of Man, Scilly, Jersey, or Guernsey, and chargeable in England. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws relating to the Removal of poor Persons born in Scotland or Ireland, or in the Islands of Man, Scilly, Jersey, or Guernsey, and not settled in England, but chargeable to Parishes in England, should be amended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the following Acts of Parliament, and of all Acts to amend or continue the same, as relates to the Removal of such poor Persons from the Parishes to which they are chargeable, except so far as any of the said Acts may repeal the Provisions of any former Act, and except as to all Orders made under the same or any of them, and not fully executed at the passing of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; (namely) an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, "to repeal the Provisions of certain Acts relating to the Removal of Vagrants and poor Persons born in the Isles of Jersey and Guernsey, and chargeable to Parishes in England, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof;" an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, "to repeal certain Acts relating to the Removal of poor Persons born in Scotland and Ireland, and chargeable to Parishes in England, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof, until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament."

Repeal of 11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 5. ss. 1, 2., 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 40., 7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 10., 3 & 4 Vict. c. 27., and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 42.

Provision for Removal of Natives of Scotland, Ireland, and the Isles of Man, Scilly, Jersey, and Guernsey.

II. And be it enacted, That if any Person born in Scotland or Ireland, or in the Isle of Man, or Scilly, or Jersey, or Guernsey, not settled in England, become chargeable to any Parish in England by reason of Relief given to himself or herself, or to his Wife, or to any legitimate or bastard Child, such Person, his Wife, and any Child so chargeable, shall be liable to be removed respectively to Scotland, Ireland, the Isle of Man, Scilly, Jersey, or Guernsey; and if the Guardians of such Parish, or of any Union in which the same may be comprised, or, where there are no such Guardians, if the Overseers of such Parish, complain thereof to any One Justice of the Peace, such Justice may, if such Person do not attend voluntarily, summon him to come before any Two Justices of the Peace, at any Time and Place to be named in the Summons; and at such Time and Place, or on the Attendance of such Person, any Two Justices may hear and examine into the Matter of such Complaint, and if it be made to appear to their Satisfaction that such Person is liable to be so removed as aforesaid, and if they see fit, they may make and issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals to remove such Person forthwith at the Expence of such Union or Parish.

Persons executing Warrants of Removal to have the Authority of Constables.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person to whom any Warrant made in pursuance of this Act shall be delivered for the Purpose of being carried into execution shall detain and hold in safe Custody every poor Person mentioned therein, until such poor Person have arrived at the Place to which he is ordered to be removed, and shall for that Purpose, in every County and Place through which he may pass in the due Execution of such Warrant, have and exercise the Powers with which a Constable is by Law invested, notwithstanding such Person may not otherwise be empowered to act as a Constable for such County or Place.

Justices of the Peace to make new Regulations for Removal of Scottish and Irish Poor, &c. to their respective Places of Birth or Residence.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of every County shall at some General or Quarter Session of the Peace or some Adjournment thereof, and the Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions of every Borough shall within Eight Months after the passing of this Act, make Regulations for the more effectually carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act for the Removal of such poor Persons, their Wives and Children, whether by Land or Sea, or Part of the way by Land and Part by Sea; and such Justices may from Time to Time thereafter, as they may see Occasion, make other Regulations for the same Purpose; and such Justices shall in such Regulations provide, so far as may be, for the removing of Persons born in Ireland, and their Families, to the Ports named in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act annexed which are nearest to the respective Places where such Persons were born or have resided, unless where any such Persons consent to be removed to any other Port or Place in Ireland, and as regards Persons born in Scotland, and their Families, to the Ports named in the Schedule marked (B.) to this Act annexed which are nearest the respective Places where such Persons were born or have resided, or to Places not being Ports, but being as near as such Ports to the respective Places where such Persons were born or have resided, unless where any such Persons consent to be removed to any other Port or Place in Scotland; and such Regulations, when approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall be observed and carried into effect by all Justices of the Peace,

Peace, Guardians, Overseers, Constables, and other Persons charged with or concerned in such Removal in such respective County or Borough; and until such Regulations for any County or Borough have been so approved, all Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Directions heretofore made for the Removal therefrom of Persons born in Scotland, Ireland, or the Isles of Man, Scilly, Jersey, or Guernsey, shall continue in force, but no longer.

Expences of certain Parishes to be repaid out of County Rates.

V. And be it enacted, That in the Case of any Parish not in Union, and not containing a Population exceeding Thirty thousand Persons according to the last Census published by the Authority of Parliament, if the Guardians or Overseers on whose Complaint such Warrant of Removal was made bring or send to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or to the Town Clerk of the Borough in which such Parish is situate such Warrant of Removal, accompanied with an Affidavit, sworn before some Justice of the Peace of such County or Borough, (who shall be authorized to administer the same,) of the Amount of the Expences bonâ fide incurred and paid by such Guardians or Overseers on account of such Removal under such Warrant as aforesaid, and also a Statement of the several Items comprised in such Amount, such Clerk of the Peace shall lay the same before the Justices of the Peace assembled at the Quarter Session or Adjournment thereof holden for such County next after he has received the same, and such Town Clerk shall lay the same before the Council of such Borough at their Quarterly Meeting held next after he has received the same; and the said Justices and Council of such Borough respectively shall, if the Regulations in force in regard to such Removal have been duly complied with, order the Amount of such Expences to be paid out of the County Rate raised in such County, or out of the Borough Fund of such Borough, as the Case may be.

Appeals against such Removals may be lodged at the Instance of Boards of Guardians in Ireland, and of Kirk Session, Heritors, or Borough Magistrates in Scotland.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Board of Guardians of any Union in Ireland, or the Heritors and Kirk Session or Borough Magistrates in Scotland, think themselves aggrieved by any Removal of any poor Person under the Provisions of this Act, and if they forward to the Poor Law Commissioners a Statement of the Case, and of any Grounds for concluding that such poor Person is settled in any Parish in England, or was not in Law liable to be removed to Ireland or Scotland, as the Case may be, and if they or any Persons on their Behalf give good Security in England to the said Commissioners for the Payment of all Costs which may be incurred in any Appeal against the Warrant for the Removal of such poor Person, such Commissioners, if satisfied that it will be expedient so to do, may appeal, on behalf of the Persons so aggrieved, to the Court of Quarter Sessions holden for the County or Borough from which such Removal was made, held at any Time within Six Months after such Removal was completed; and such Commissioners shall, at least Twenty-one Days before the holding of such Session, send by Post or otherwise, to the Guardians or Overseers on whose Application such Warrant was obtained, Notice in Writing, purporting to be signed by their Secretary or one of their Assistant Secretaries, of their Intention to appeal against such Warrant, containing a Statement in Writing of the Ground of such Appeal; and such Court of Quarter Sessions shall hear and determine such Appeal; and if the Warrant of Removal is reversed by such Court, the Guardians or Overseers on whose Application the same was obtained shall pay the Costs and the necessary Expences and Charges incurred by or on account of such Board of Guardians, or Heritors and Kirk Session or Borough Magistrates respectively, in conveying the poor Person removed under the same back to such Parish; and if they refuse or neglect to pay the same within Seven Days after demand thereof, the Persons on whose Behalf such Appeal was brought, or any Person authorized by them, may recover the same as Penalties and Forfeitures: Provided always, that the said Guardians or Overseers may at any Time after such Notice of Appeal give or send by Post Notice in Writing under the Hands of any Two or more of them to the said Commissioners, that they abandon such Warrant, and thereupon such Warrant shall be of no Effect; and such Guardians and Overseers shall pay to the Persons on whose Behalf such Notice of Appeal was given, or to some Person authorized by them, the Expences incurred by or on account of such Persons by reason of such Warrant, and in any Proceedings consequent thereon, and the necessary Expences and Charges of conveying the Person removed under the same back to such Parish; and if they do not pay the same within Seven Days after demand the same may be recovered as Penalties and Forfeitures.

The Poor Law Amendment Act and this Act to be construed as One Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, "for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in England and Wales," and all Acts to amend and extend the same, and the present Act, except so far as the Provisions of any former Act are altered, amended, or repealed by any subsequent Act, shall be construed as One Act; and that in this Act, or any of the said Acts, the Word "County" shall mean and include any County, Division of a County, Riding, or Liberty, having a separate Commission of the Peace; and that in this Act the Word "Borough" shall mean any Borough having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions.

Forms in the Schedule may be used.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in all Proceedings under this Act it shall be sufficient in the Law to use, with such Changes only as the Facts of each Case may require, the Forms contained in the Schedule marked (C.) to this Act annexed, for the Purposes in the Titles to such Forms respectively specified.

Alteration of Act.

An Act to facilitate the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and Lands held in common, the Exchange of Lands, and the Division of intermixed Lands; to provide Remedies for defective or incomplete Executions, and for the Non-execution of the Powers of general and local Inclosure Acts; and to provide for the Revival of such Powers in certain Cases.

[8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and other 'Lands now subject to Rights of Property which obstruct Cultivation and the productive Employ- 'ment of Labour, and to facilitate such Exchanges of Lands, and such Divisions of Lands intermixed or 'divided into inconvenient Parcels, as may be beneficial to the respective Owners; and it is also expedient 'to provide Remedies for the defective or incomplete Execution and for the Non-execution of Powers 'created by general and local Acts of Inclosure, and to authorize the Revival of such Powers in certain 'Cases:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by

by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to appoint any Two fit Persons to be Commissioners under this Act, and at pleasure to remove the Commissioners so appointed, or either of them; and upon every Vacancy in the Office of such Commissioner some other fit Person shall be appointed to such Office in like Manner; and the Commissioners so to be appointed shall, with the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, be the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution; and during any Vacancy in the Office of Commissioner under this Act it shall be lawful for the continuing Commissioners or Commissioner to act as if no such Vacancy had occurred. Appointment of Commissioners.

II. And be it enacted, That the said First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being shall be the Chairman of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act; and such Commissioners shall be styled "The Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales," and shall have their Office in London or Westminster, and they, or any Two of them, may sit from Time to Time, as they deem expedient, as a Board of Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution; and the Commissioners shall cause to be made a Seal of the said Board, and shall cause to be sealed therewith all Awards and Orders made or confirmed by the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act; and all such Awards and Orders and other Instruments proceeding from the said Board, or Copies thereof, purporting to be sealed with the Seal of the said Board, shall be received in Evidence, without any further Proof thereof; and no Award or Order of the Commissioners under the Authority of this Act shall be of any Force unless the same shall be sealed as aforesaid. Chairman of Commissioners. Style of Commissioners. To have a Common Seal.

III. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall from Time to Time give to any One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State such Information respecting their Proceedings as such Principal Secretary of State shall require, and shall in the Month of January in every Year send to One of the Principal Secretaries of State a general Report of their Proceedings, specifying the Applications which may have been made to them under the Provisions of this Act, and the several Cases in which they shall have authorized Inclosures, and the Grounds on which they may have withheld their Consent to such Application, and also the Cases in which they shall be of opinion that proposed Inclosures, which may not be made without the Direction of Parliament, would be expedient; and such Report shall separately distinguish all such proposed Inclosures as relate to Lands situate within Fifteen Miles of the City of London, and within such respective Distances of other Cities or Towns as herein-after mentioned, and shall state in each such Case the special Grounds on which they shall be of opinion that such Inclosure shall be expedient; and as well in the Cases in which they shall have authorized Inclosures as in the other Cases aforesaid such Report shall state the Extent of the Land authorized and proposed to be inclosed, with such other Particulars as herein-after directed; and such Report shall also specify the Progress which shall have been made in Inclosures which the Commissioners may have authorized, and in the Inclosures which Parliament may have directed to be proceeded with; and every such Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the Receipt of the same by such Principal Secretary of State, if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting then within Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament; and such Commissioners may from Time to Time send to One of the Principal Secretaries of State such special Reports in relation to all or any of the Matters aforesaid as they may think fit. Commissioners to make annual Reports; and also special Reports.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to appoint a sufficient Number of Persons to be Assistant Commissioners, and also a Secretary, and such Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as they shall deem necessary, and to remove such Assistant Commissioners, Secretary, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers, or any of them, and on any Vacancy in any of the said Offices to appoint some other Person to the vacant Office; and the Persons so appointed shall assist in carrying this Act into execution at such Places and in such Manner as the Commissioners may direct: Provided always, that no such Appointment shall be made by the Commissioners unless the Lord High Treasurer or any Three or more of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall in the Case of each such Appointment consent thereto. Power to appoint and remove Assistant Commissioners, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, or other Officer or Person so to be appointed, shall hold his Office for a longer Period than Five Years next after the Day of the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and after the Expiration of the said Period of Five Years and of the then next Session of Parliament so much of this Act as authorizes any such Appointment shall cease. Appointments under this Act limited to Five Years.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct a Salary, not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds by the Year, to be paid to One of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed under this Act; but, except as aforesaid, no Salaries shall be paid to the Commissioners in respect of their Appointments under this Act; and the Allowances to the Assistant Commissioners, and the Salaries of the Secretary, Clerks, Messengers, and other Officers to be appointed under this Act, shall be from Time to Time regulated by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury or any Three of them: Provided always, that the Allowance to an Assistant Commissioner shall not exceed the Sum of Three Pounds Three Shillings for every Day he shall be actually employed or travelling in the Performance of the Duties of his Office; provided also, that the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners may allow to any Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, Clerk, Messenger, or other Officer such reasonable travelling and other Expences as may be incurred by him in the Performance of his Duties under this Act, in addition to his Salary or Allowance (if any) respectively. Salaries and Allowances.

VII. And

Allowances and Salaries to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Allowances and Salaries of such Commissioner, Assistant Commissioners, Secretary, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers as aforesaid, and all other incidental Expences of carrying this Act into execution not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners to make a Declaration.

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Commissioner shall before he shall enter upon the Execution of his Office make the following Declaration before One of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; (that is to say,)

'I do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner under an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act].'

And every Assistant Commissioner shall, before he shall enter upon the Execution of his Office, make the like Declaration (substituting the Words "Assistant Commissioner" for the Word "Commissioner") before such Judge or Baron, or before any Two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, or Jurisdiction wherein such Assistant Commissioner shall be resident at the Time of his Appointment, or before a Master Extraordinary in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery; and the Appointment of every such Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, with the Time when and the Name or Names of the Judge, Baron, Justices, or Master Extraordinary before whom he shall have made the Declaration aforesaid, shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette.

Documents of the Tithe Commissioners may be used.

Power to summon Witnesses.

IX. And be it enacted, That all Awards, Apportionments, Agreements, Writings, and Maps in the Custody of the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales shall be open to the Use and Inspection of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, or any Person by them authorized; and such Copies of or Extracts from such Awards, Apportionments, Agreements, Writings, and Maps as the Commissioners shall require shall be furnished to them for the Purposes of this Act; and that the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner may, by Summons under the Seal of the Commission or under the Hands of such Assistant Commissioner, require the Attendance of all such Persons as they or he may think fit to examine upon any Matter relating to any Inclosure or proposed Inclosure, or other Proceeding under the Authority of this Act, and also make any Inquiries and call for any Answer or Return as to any such Matter, and also administer or receive Declarations and examine all such Persons upon Declaration, and cause to be produced before them or him, upon Declaration, all Court Rolls, and all Rate Books, Instruments of Tithe Apportionment, and other public Writings, Maps, Plans, and Surveys of or belonging to any Parish, or Copies thereof respectively, in anywise relating to any such Matter; and the Commissioners may, when they shall think fit, by Summons under the Seal of the Commission, require the Attendance before any Valuer acting in the Matter of an Inclosure under this Act of all such Persons as the Valuer may certify to the Commissioners as Persons whose Testimony may be necessary for the Matter of such Inclosure, and cause to be produced before such Valuer, upon Declaration, all such Court Rolls, Rate Books, public Writings, Maps, Plans, and Surveys, or Copies thereof, as aforesaid; and every Valuer acting in the Matter of an Inclosure under this Act may also administer or receive Declarations, and examine upon Declaration all such Persons as shall attend before him under such Summons of the Commissioners, and all such Persons as may voluntarily attend before him as Witnesses in such Matter: Provided always, that no such Person shall be required to attend in obedience to any such Summons unless the reasonable Charges of his Attendance shall have been paid or tendered to him; and no such Person shall be required in any Case, in obedience to any such Summons, to travel more than Ten Miles from the Place of his Abode.

Commissioners may delegate Powers to Assistant Commissioners.

X. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may delegate to the Assistant Commissioners, or to any One or more of them, such of the Powers hereby given to the Commissioners as the Commissioners shall think fit (except the Power to confirm Awards, or to do any Act herein required to be done under the Seal of the Commissioners), and the Power so delegated shall be exercised under such Regulations as the Commissioners shall direct; and the Commissioners may at any Time recall or alter all or any of the Powers delegated as aforesaid, and, notwithstanding the Delegation thereof, may act as if no such Delegation had been made; and all Acts done by any such Assistant Commissioner in pursuance of such delegated Power shall be obeyed by all Persons as if they had proceeded from the Commissioners, and the Non-observance thereof shall be punishable in like Manner.

Descriptions of Land subject to be inclosed under this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That all such Lands as are herein-after mentioned, (that is to say,) all Lands subject to any Rights of Common whatsoever, and whether such Rights may be exercised or enjoyed at all Times, or may be exercised or enjoyed only during limited Times, Seasons, or Periods, or be subject to any Suspension or Restriction whatsoever in respect of the Time of the Enjoyment thereof; all Gated and Stinted Pastures in which the Property of the Soil or of some Part thereof is in the Owners of the Cattle Gates or other Gates or Stints, or any of them; and also all Gated and Stinted Pastures in which no Part of the Property of the Soil is in the Owners of the Cattle Gates or other Gates or Stints, or any of them; all Land held, occupied, or used in common, either at all Times or during any Time or Season, or periodically, and either for all Purposes or for any limited Purpose, and whether the separate Parcels of the several Owners of the Soil shall or shall not be known by Metes or Bounds or otherwise distinguishable; all Land in which the Property or Right of or to the Vesture or Herbage, or any Part thereof, during the whole or any Part of the Year, or the Property or Right of or to the Wood or Underwood growing and to grow thereon, is separated from the Property of the Soil; and all Lot Meadows

Meadows and other Lands the Occupation or Enjoyment of the separate Lots or Parcels of which is subject to Interchange among the respective Owners in any known Course of Rotation or otherwise, shall be Land subject to be inclosed under this Act.

Wastes of Manors and Lands subject to indefinite Common Rights at all Times not to be inclosed without previous Direction of Parliament.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Waste Land of any Manor on which the Tenants of such Manor have Rights of Common, nor any Land whatsoever subject to Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of every Year for Cattle levant and couchant upon other Land, or to any Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of every Year, and which shall not be limited by Number or Stints, shall be inclosed under this Act without the previous Authority of Parliament in each particular Case as herein-after provided; provided also, that neither this Act, nor any thing which may be done under or by virtue thereof, shall authorize to be made any Embankment, Erection, or Encroachment without the Consent of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and where the Consent of any Grantee of the Office of Admiral or Vice Admiral might have been required by Law if this Act had not been passed the Consent also of such Grantee, in or upon the Shore of any Harbour, or the Bank of any navigable River so far as the Tide flows up the same, or shall give to or confer upon any Person any Right, Title, Estate, or Interest to or in any such Embankment, Erection, or Encroachment already made other than what he may legally have at the Time of the passing of this Act, or confer upon any Person whatsoever any Right, Title, Estate, or Interest whatsoever in any Lands, or Soil whereon the Tide of the Sea flows and re-flows.

New Forest and Forest of Dean excepted.

XIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Part of the New Forest in the County of Southampton, or of the Forest of Dean in the County of Gloucester, shall be Land subject to be inclosed under this Act.

Land within certain Distances of large Towns not to be inclosed without the previous Direction of Parliament.

XIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Lands situate within Fifteen Miles of the City of London, or within Two Miles of any City or Town of Ten thousand Inhabitants, or within Two Miles and a Half of any City or Town of Twenty thousand Inhabitants, or within Three Miles of any City or Town of Thirty thousand Inhabitants, or within Three Miles and a Half of any City or Town of Seventy thousand Inhabitants, or within Four Miles of any City or Town of One hundred thousand Inhabitants, shall be subject to be inclosed under the Provisions of this Act without the previous Authority of Parliament in each particular Case, as herein-after provided; and in all such Cases the Number of Inhabitants shall be ascertained by the then last Parliamentary Census thereof, and that the Distance shall be measured in a direct Line from the Town Hall, if there shall be any Town Hall, or if there shall be no Town Hall then from the Cathedral or Church, if there shall be only One Church, or if there shall be more Churches than One then from the principal Market Place of any such City or Town.

Village Greens not to be inclosed; but Provision may be made for preserving the Surface and fixing Boundaries.

XV. And be it enacted, That no Town Green or Village Green shall be subject to be inclosed under this Act; provided that in every Case in which an Inclosure of Lands in the Parish in which such Town Green or Village Green may be situate shall be made under the Authority of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to direct that such Town Green or Village Green, provided such Green be of equal or greater Extent, be allotted to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, in trust, to allow the same to be used for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, and the same shall be allotted and awarded accordingly, in like Manner, and with the like Provisions for making or maintaining the Fences thereof, and preserving the Surface thereof, and draining and levelling the same where Occasion shall require, as herein-after directed concerning the Allotments to be made for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation; and such Green may be so allotted in addition to other Land which may be allotted for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, or, if the Commissioners shall think it sufficient, may be allotted in substitution for other Land which might have been required to be allotted for such Purposes; and in every Case in which such Town Green or Village Green shall adjoin Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, and shall not be separated from such Land by Fences or known Bounds, the Commissioners shall, in the Provisional Order concerning such Inclosure, set out a Boundary Line between such Green and the adjoining Land, and shall in their annual general Report mention and describe such Boundary.

Persons interested in Lands for Purposes of Applications, &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the Persons interested in Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, or otherwise subject or to become subject to the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to be the Persons herein-after mentioned, and no others; (that is to say,) the Persons who shall be in the actual Possession or Enjoyment of any such Land or any Part thereof, or any Common or Common Right thereon, or any Manor of which such Land or any Part thereof shall be Waste, or who shall be in the actual Receipt of the Rents and Profits of such Land or Part thereof, Common, or Common Right, or Manor respectively, (except any Tenant for Life or Lives or for Years holding under a Lease or Agreement for a Lease on which a Rent of not less than Two Thirds of the clear yearly Value of the Premises comprised therein shall have been reserved, and except any Tenant for Years whatsoever holding under a Lease or Agreement for a Lease for a Term which shall not have exceeded Fourteen Years from the Commencement thereof, and except any Tenant from Year to Year at Will or Sufferance,) and that without Regard to the real Amount of Interest of such Persons; and in every Case in which any such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor, shall have been leased or agreed to be leased to any Person or Persons for Life or Lives or for Years by any Lease or Agreement for a Lease on which a Rent of not less than Two Thirds of the clear yearly Value of the Premises comprised therein shall have been reserved, and in every Case in which any such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor, shall be in the Possession of a Tenant from Year to Year at Will or Sufferance, or shall have been been leased or agreed to be leased for a Term which shall not have exceeded Fourteen Years from the Commencement thereof, the Person who shall for the Time being be entitled to the said Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor, in reversion immediately expectant on the Term created or agreed to be created by such Lease or Agreement for a Lease respectively, or subject to the Tenancy from Year to Year at Will or Sufferance, shall be deemed for the Purposes of this Act to be the Person interested as aforesaid in respect of such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor; and in every Case in which any such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor as aforesaid, shall have been leased or agreed to be leased to any Person for Life or Lives or for Years by any Lease or Agreement for a Lease in which a Rent less than Two Thirds of the clear yearly Value of the Premises comprised therein shall have been reserved and of which the Term shall have exceeded Fourteen Years from the Commencement thereof, the Person who shall for the Time being be in the actual Receipt of the Rent reserved upon such Lease or Agreement for a Lease shall, jointly with the Person who shall be liable to the Payment of such Rent of such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor, be deemed for the Purposes of this Act to be the Person interested in respect of such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor respectively; and in every Case in which any Person shall be in possession or enjoyment or receipt of the Rents or Profits of any such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor, under any Sequestration, Extent, Elegit, or other Writ of Execution, or as a Receiver under any Order of a Court of Equity, the Person who but for such Writ or Order would have been in possession, enjoyment, or receipt of the Rents and Profits, shall, jointly with the Person in possession, enjoyment, or receipt by virtue of such Writ or Order, be deemed for the Purposes of this Act to be the Person interested in respect of such Land, Common, or Common Right, or Manor respectively.

Where the Crown is interested, who shall be substituted.

XVII. And be it enacted, That whenever Her Majesty shall be interested in Land as aforesaid the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or in case Her Majesty shall be so interested in right of the Duchy of Lancaster the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, and to the Extent of such respective Interest, be substituted for the Person interested as aforesaid.

Where Duke of Cornwall is interested, who shall be substituted.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever the Duke of Cornwall shall be interested in Land as aforesaid the Lord Warden of the Stannaries shall for the Purposes of this Act, and to the Extent of such Interest, be substituted instead of the Person interested as aforesaid.

Provision for Persons jointly interested.

XIX. And be it enacted, That whenever an Interest in Land according to the Provisions of this Act shall be vested in several Persons as Co-Trustees or in Joint Tenancy, such Persons shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered as jointly interested, and entitled to One Vote only in respect of their joint Interest, but any One or more of such Persons may, unless the other or others of them shall dissent therefrom, act or vote under this Act; and the Majority in Number of any such Persons may notwithstanding any Dissent of the Minority, act or vote under this Act in the same Manner as if all such Persons had concurred; and whenever several Persons as Tenants in Coparcenary or in Common shall be so interested, each Coparcener or Tenant in Common shall for the Purposes of this Act, and to the Extent of the Value of his respective undivided Share, be deemed separately interested and entitled to vote as if he were Tenant in Severalty.

In case of Disability Commissioners to name Substitutes.

XX. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person interested in Land as aforesaid shall be an Infant, Lunatic, Idiot, Feme Covert, or under any other legal Disability, or beyond the Seas, the Guardian, Trustee, Committee of the Estate, Husband, or Attorney respectively, or in default thereof such Person as may be nominated for that Purpose by the Commissioners, and whom they are hereby empowered to nominate under their Hands and Seal, shall for the Purposes of this Act be substituted in the Place of such Person so interested.

Attornies may be appointed by Persons interested.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person interested in any Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, or otherwise subject or to become subject to the Provisions of this Act, by a Power of Attorney, given in Writing under his Hand, to appoint an Agent to act for him for the Purposes of this Act; and all Things which by this Act are directed to be done by or with relation to any such Person may be lawfully done by or with relation to the Agent so duly authorized of such Person; and every such Agent shall have full Power, in the Name and on behalf of his Principal, to sign, concur in, and execute any Application or Act, to signify Consent or Dissent, and to vote on any Question arising out of the Execution of this Act; and every Person shall be bound by the Acts of any such Agent, according to the Authority committed to him, as fully as if the Principal of such Agent had so acted; and the Power of Attorney under which the Agent shall have acted, or a Copy thereof, authenticated by the Signature of a Witness or Witnesses, shall be deposited in the Office of the Commissioners; and any such Power of Attorney may be in the Form following:

Form of Power of Attorney.

'I of do hereby appoint of
'to be my Attorney for all the Purposes of an Act passed in the Years of Her present
'Majesty, intituled '

Proportional Interests, how estimated.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the proportional Value of the respective Interests of the several Persons interested in any Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, or otherwise subject or to become subject to the Provisions of this Act, shall, so far as relates to the Power to sign any Application, or to give any Notice or Consent, or to vote at any Meeting under this Act, be estimated as herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) where their Interests shall be in respect of Land or other rateable Property, then according to the proportional Sums at which such Land or rateable Property shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor; and when their Interests shall be in respect of Rights of Common enjoyed or claimed claimed in respect of any Land, and not defined by Numbers or Stints, then according to the proportional Sum at which the Land in respect of which they enjoy or claim such Rights of Common shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor; and in case such Interests shall be in respect of Rights in a Gated or Stinted Pasture, or of other Rights defined by Numbers or Stints, then according to the proportional Amount of their respective Numbers or Stints; but in case such Interests shall be in respect of Rights of Common in gross, not rated to the Relief of the Poor, and not defined by Numbers or Stints, or in case, from any other Cause, it shall appear to the Commissioners, or to the Assistant Commissioner presiding at any Meeting held for the Purposes of this Act, impracticable to estimate such proportional Value in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or such Assistant Commissioner to direct in what Manner such proportional Value shall be estimated, regard being had to the Circumstances of each particular Case: Provided always, that in every Case in which such Assistant Commissioner shall have directed in what Manner such proportional Value shall be estimated under the Power herein-before contained he shall specially report to the Commissioners the Circumstances under which it shall have become necessary to exercise such Power, and the Directions he shall have given in the Exercise thereof.

Proportional Interests of Lords of Manors.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the proportional Value of the Interest of the Lord of a Manor interested as Lord in any Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, or, in case there shall be several Lords of a Manor or Lords of several Manors so interested in any Land subject to be inclosed under this Act, the proportional Value of the respective Interests of such Lords, shall for the Purposes aforesaid be estimated in such Manner as the Commissioners may direct.

Commissioners to frame Forms of Applications, &c.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall frame, and cause to be printed and circulated as they shall see Occasion, Forms indicating the Particulars of the Information to be furnished to the Commissioners by Persons proposing to inclose Land under the Provisions of this Act, with reference to the Extent and Nature of the Land to be inclosed, to the Mines, Minerals, or valuable Strata (if any) under the same, to the Questions of Boundary (if any) concerning such Land, or such Mines, Minerals, or Strata, to the Numbers and Occupations of the Inhabitants of the Parish or Place, to its Vicinity to or Distance from any City or Town or populous District, to the Parties interested in the proposed Inclosure, and the Numbers who have assented to or dissented from the Application, to the Nature of the Rights which require the Intervention of the Commissioners or the Interference of Parliament, to the supposed Advantages of the proposed Inclosure, to the Allotments (if any) proposed to be made for Exercise and Recreation and for the labouring Poor, and to the Allotment (if any) agreed on or proposed to be made to the Lord of the Manor, in case the Lord of the Manor shall be entitled to the Soil of the Land proposed to be inclosed, in respect of his Right and Interest therein, and such other Information as in the Judgment of the Commissioners may assist them in forming an Opinion on such Application, and also such other Forms as the Commissioners may deem requisite or expedient for facilitating Proceedings under this Act.

Upon Application to the Commissioners an Assistant Commissioner to inquire into the Expediency of proposed Inclosure.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any Persons interested in Land subject to be inclosed, and proposing to inclose the same under this Act, may make Application to the Commissioners according to the Form which may have been circulated as aforesaid by the Commissioners to sanction such Inclosure, or to certify in their annual general Report the Expediency of such Inclosure, as the Case may require; and in case the Commissioners shall, on the Statements contained in such Application, think that the Inclosure of such Land, or of some Part thereof, may be found to be expedient, they shall refer such Application to an Assistant Commissioner, who shall inspect the Land proposed to be inclosed, and inquire into the Correctness of the Statements in such Application, and otherwise into the Expediency of the proposed Inclosure; and such Assistant Commissioner shall hold a Meeting or Meetings, to hear any Objections which may be made to the proposed Inclosure, and any Information or Evidence which may be offered in relation thereto, and may adjourn such Meetings respectively, and shall cause Notice to be given on the Church Door of the Parish in which the Land proposed to be inclosed, or the greater Part thereof, shall be situate, and also a like Notice to be given by Advertisement of the Time and Place of every such Meeting, Fourteen Days at least before every such Meeting (Meetings by Adjournment only excepted): Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to refer such Application to the Assistant Commissioner, nor for the Assistant Commissioner to take any further Proceedings upon any such Application, unless it shall be made to appear to them or him respectively that the Persons making such Application represent at least One Third in Value of the Interests in the Lands therein proposed to be inclosed.

Assistant Commissioner to report on Application.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Assistant Commissioner to whom such Application shall be referred shall report in Writing to the Commissioners the Result of his Inquiries as to the Statements contained in the Application, and his Opinion as to the Expediency or Inexpediency of the proposed Inclosure, with the Reasons for such Opinion; and in case he shall think such Inclosure expedient he may specify any Terms or Conditions which may appear to him to be proper for the Protection of any public Interests, and of any Mineral Property or peculiar Rights in relation to the Land proposed to be inclosed, and shall annex to his Report a Map or Sketch of the Land proposed to be inclosed, and in case he shall be of opinion that Allotments for Exercise and Recreation or for the labouring Poor should be made in the proposed Inclosure, such Sketch shall show the Place in which it shall appear to him that such Allotments should be made.

Commissioners to embody the Conditions of proposed Inclo-

XXVII. And be it enacted, That if on the Report of the Assistant Commissioner, or after any further Inquiries they shall think necessary in relation thereto, the Commissioners shall be of opinion, having regard as well to the Health, Comfort, and Convenience of the Inhabitants of any Cities, Towns, Villages, sure in a Provisional Order, and to take Consents of Parties interested.

or populous Places in or near any Parish in which the Land proposed to be inclosed or any Part thereof shall be situate, as to the Advantage of the Proprietors of the Land to which such Application shall relate, that the proposed Inclosure would be expedient, the Commissioners, by Provisional Order under their Seal, shall set forth the Terms and Conditions on which they shall be of opinion that the Inclosure should be made, and especially the Quantity and Situation of the Allotments (if any) which under the Provisions of this Act should be appropriated for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation and for the labouring Poor, and, in case the Lord of the Manor shall be entitled to the Soil of the Land proposed to be inclosed, shall specify the Share or Proportion of the Residue of the Land which, after Provision made for the Payment of Expences, in case the Expences shall, under the Provisions herein-after contained, be so directed to be paid by Sale of Land, and after deducting the Allotments to be made for public Purposes, should be allotted to the Lord of the Manor in respect of his Right and Interest in the Soil, either exclusively or inclusively of his Right or Interest in all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under such Land, or inclusively or exclusively of any Right of Pasturage which may have been usually enjoyed by such Lord or his Tenants, or any other Right or Interest of such Lord in the Land to be inclosed, as the Case may appear to the Commissioners to require, or as the Parties interested, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, may have agreed, and in case there shall be any Mineral Property, or any Rights in relation thereto, not vested in the Lord of the Manor, or other Rights which shall appear to the Commissioners proper to be specially provided for upon such Inclosure, or to be excepted from the Operation thereof, shall specify the Provisions or Exceptions which should be made in that Behalf; and the Commissioners shall thereupon cause Notice to be given of their Intention to authorize the proposed Inclosure, or (as the Case may be) to certify in their annual general Report the Expediency of the proposed Inclosure, but upon the Terms and Conditions in such Order expressed, and in case the Consents required by this Act should be given within the Time in such Notice specified, or within any enlarged Time which the Commissioners may allow for that Purpose; and the Commissioners shall cause to be deposited for Inspection a Copy of such Provisional Order in the Parish or Place in which the Land proposed to be inclosed, or some Part thereof, shall be situate, and may, in case they shall think fit, cause Meetings to be holden by an Assistant Commissioner for the Purpose of taking Consents or Dissents, or of ascertaining the Interests of consenting or dissenting Parties, or give such Directions as to the Mode of taking and verifying Consents as they shall think fit; and in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, that Persons the aggregate Amount of whose Interests in the Land proposed to be inclosed shall not be less in Value than Two Thirds of the whole Interest in such Land, and the other Persons, if any, whose Consents may be necessary under the Provisions herein-after contained, shall have consented to such Inclosure, upon the Terms and Conditions in such Order expressed, then, if the Land proposed to be inclosed cannot be inclosed under this Act without the previous Direction of Parliament, the Commissioners shall in their next annual general Report certify their Opinion that the proposed Inclosure would be expedient, with such Particulars in relation thereto, or to the Terms and Conditions aforesaid, as they shall think necessary; and in case the Land proposed to be inclosed shall be Land to the Inclosure of which under this Act the previous Direction of Parliament is not hereby required, the Commissioners shall cause Notice to be given on the Church Door and by Advertisement of their Intention to proceed with such Inclosure under the Provisions herein contained: Provided always, that where the Freemen, Burgesses, or Inhabitant Householders of any City, Borough, or Town shall be entitled to Rights of Common or other Interests in the Land proposed to be inclosed, the Commissioners shall not certify the Expediency of the proposed Inclosure, or proceed further under this Act, unless it shall appear to the Commissioners that Two Thirds in Number of such of the Freemen and Burgesses so entitled as may be resident in such City, Borough, or Town, or within Seven Miles thereof, or of such Inhabitant Householders, as the Case may be, shall have consented to such Inclosure, on the Terms and Conditions in their Provisional Order specified; and in case Two Thirds in Number of such resident Freemen and Burgesses, or of such Inhabitant Householders, shall have so consented, such Consent shall be deemed the Consent of the Class of Freemen, Burgesses, or Inhabitant Householders, as the Case may be, so entitled.

Separate Applications for separate Tracts.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That when it shall appear to the Commissioners that Land proposed to be inclosed under this Act shall be in part a Tract of Open and Common Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Lands or Fields, and in part a Tract of Common or Waste Lands subject to Rights of Common, or shall otherwise consist of separate and distinct Tracts subject to separate and distinct Rights or Classes of Rights, and the Persons interested in one of such Tracts shall not be all interested in the other of them, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to ascertain whether Persons interested in each of such Tracts whose Interests shall not be less than Two Thirds in Value of the whole Interest therein shall consent to the proposed Inclosure, on the Terms and Conditions in their Provisional Order specified; and in case it shall thereupon appear that such Proportion in Value of the Persons interested in any such Tract as aforesaid shall not have consented, the said Commissioners shall not proceed further under this Act in respect of such Tract, or certify in their annual general Report the Expediency of the Inclosure thereof, unless or until Persons interested therein whose Interest shall not be less than Two Thirds shall have consented thereto.

Consent of the Lord of the Manor.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when the Land to which such Application shall relate shall be the Waste of any Manor or Land within any Manor to the Soil of which the Lord of such Manor shall be entitled in right of his Manor, then, unless there shall be more than One Person interested in such Manor, according to the Definition of this Act, the Commissioners shall not proceed to an Inclosure on such Application, or certify in their annual general Report the Expediency thereof, unless the Person interested in the Land subject to be inclosed as aforesaid in right of such Manor, or his Substitute under this Act, shall consent to such Inclosure; and where there shall be more than One Person interested in such Manor the Commissioners shall not proceed to an Inclosure, or certify as aforesaid the Expediency thereof, in case such Persons, or the Majority of such Persons in respect of Interest, shall signify their Dissent within the Time limited by the Commissioners.

to

Allotments for Exercise and Recreation may be required as Conditions of Inclosure.

XXX. And be it enacted, That in the Provisional Order of the Commissioners concerning the Inclosure under the Provisions of this Act of any Waste Land of any Manor on which the Tenants of such Manor have Rights of Common, or of any other Land subject to Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of the Year for Cattle levant and couchant or to any Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of the Year, and which shall not be limited by Number or Stints, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require, and in their Provisional Order to specify, as One of the Terms and Conditions of such Inclosure, the Appropriation of an Allotment for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation for the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood, not exceeding the Quantity herein-after mentioned applicable to each Case; that is to say, where the Land to be inclosed shall be situate in any Parish the Population of which according to the then last previous Parliamentary Census shall amount to or exceed Ten thousand Persons, Ten Acres; where the Land to be inclosed shall be situate in any Parish the Population of which according to such Census shall amount to or exceed Five thousand Persons and be less than Ten thousand Persons, Eight Acres; and where the Land to be inclosed shall be situate in any Parish the Population of which according to such Census shall amount to or exceed Two thousand Persons and be less than Five thousand Persons, Five Acres; and in every Case, except as aforesaid, not exceeding Four Acres; and if in the Provisional Order for such Inclosure the Commissioners shall not have required the Appropriation of an Allotment for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, the Commissioners shall in their annual general Report state the Grounds on which they shall have abstained from requiring such Appropriation.

Allotments for labouring Poor.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That in the Provisional Order of the Commissioners concerning the Inclosure under the Provisions of this Act of any Waste Land of any Manor on which the Tenants of such Manor have Rights of Common, or of any Land whatsoever subject to Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of the Year for Cattle levant and couchant as aforesaid, or to any Rights of Common which may be exercised at all Times of the Year, and which shall not be limited by Number or Stints, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require and specify as One of the Terms and Conditions of such Inclosure the Appropriation of such an Allotment for the labouring Poor as the Commissioners shall think necessary, with reference to the Circumstances of each particular Case, such Allotment, nevertheless, to be subject to a Rent-charge, to be payable thereout to any Person or Persons who may be entitled to Allotments under such Inclosure as herein-after provided; and if in the Provisional Order for such Inclosure the Commissioners shall not have required the Appropriation of an Allotment for the labouring Poor the Commissioners shall in their annual general Report state the Grounds on which they shall have abstained from requiring such Appropriation.

Acts for the Inclosure of Lands in pursuance of the Reports of the Commissioners deemed Public General Acts.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That in case by any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed it shall be enacted that the Inclosures the Expediency of which shall have been certified by the Commissioners in their annual general Report as aforesaid, or any of them, be proceeded with, the same shall in every Case be proceeded with and completed according to the Provisions of this Act, and on the Terms and Conditions in the Provisional Order of the Commissioners specified in that Behalf; and every such Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed containing such Enactment as aforesaid shall be deemed a Public General Act.

Meeting for appointing Valuer.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of any Act of Parliament by which any Inclosure shall be directed to be proceeded with under the Provisions of this Act, or (in the Case of Land subject to be inclosed under this Act without the previous Direction of Parliament) as soon as conveniently may be after the Expiration of Thirty Days from the Publication by the Commissioners of the Notice of their Intention to proceed with an Inclosure under this Act, the Commissioners shall call a Meeting of the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed, of which Twenty-one Days Notice shall be given by Advertisement, to be held for appointing a Valuer to divide, set out, and allot such Land, or so much thereof as shall not be directed to be set out for public Purposes, among the Persons interested therein, and to set out, divide, and improve, in such Manner as herein-after mentioned, so much thereof as shall be directed to be set out for public Purposes; and the Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, may appoint an Assistant Commissioner to be present and to preside at such Meeting, and to take the Votes of the Persons present thereat; and the Persons, or their Agents, present at the Meeting, or the Majority in Number, and the Majority in respect of Interest, may appoint a Valuer; and in case the Majority in Number and the Majority in respect of Interest shall not agree upon the Appointment, then the Commissioner shall appoint a Valuer: Provided always, that no Person shall in anywise act as an Assistant Commissioner in an Inclosure under this Act, or be appointed a Valuer in such Inclosure, who shall be interested in such Inclosure, or shall be the Agent ordinarily intrusted with the Care, Superintendence, or Management of the Estate of any Person so interested.

Instructions to Valuer.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That at the Meeting for appointing a Valuer, or at some other Meeting called by the Commissioners for the Purpose, the Persons present, by themselves or their Agents, at such Meeting, or the Majority in Number and in respect of Interest of such Persons, may resolve upon Instructions to the Valuer not inconsistent with the Terms and Conditions of the Provisional Order of the Commissioners, and of any Act hereafter to be passed by which the Inclosure may have been authorized, for the Appropriation of Parts of the Land proposed to be inclosed for such public Purposes as herein-after mentioned, or any of them; that is to say, for the Formation of public Roads and Ways; for widening or improving existing public Roads and Ways; for a Supply of Stone, Gravel, or other Materials for the Repairs of the Roads and Ways within the Parish in which such Land shall be situate; for the Formation of such public Drains, Watercourses, or Embankments as may appear conducive to the Health and Advantage of such Parish or the Neighbourhood; for the Formation or Improvement of public Ponds, Wells, and Watering Places; for a Place of Exercise and Recreation for the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood; for Allotments or Field Gardens for the labouring Poor; for a Supply of Fuel for the Poor or other Inhabitants of such Parish; for Land for any Burying Ground, or enlarging any Burying Ground; for the Site of any Church or Chapel, Parsonage House, School, Workhouse, or Garden to be attached thereto respectively; or for any other Purpose of public Utility or Convenience, or for the general Convenience or Accommodation of the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed; and also, upon Instructions to such Valuer, for the Formation, Alteration, or Improvement on the Land to be inclosed of private or occupation Roads and Ways, Common Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, Bridges, and Fences, or any of them, or any other Works for the Improvement of such Land, or for the Convenience of the Occupiers of the respective Allotments thereof; and also for the Adoption and Use, for the Purposes of the Inclosure, of a Copy of any Map or Plan which shall have been confirmed under the Hands and Seal of the Tithe Commissioners of the Land in question, or of any other Map or Plan of the Accuracy of which the Inclosure Commissioners shall be satisfied, or for making any new Survey, Map, or Plan; and as to all other Matters and Things which may be proper to be done in the Matter of the Inclosure; and also for the raising and Payment of all Expences incident to such Inclosure, either by Sale of Part of the Land proposed to be inclosed, or by such Rate as herein-after provided, as to the Persons present at such Meeting, or such Majority as aforesaid, shall seem fit; and the Majority in Number and Value as aforesaid may make any Agreement with the Valuer for the Payment of such Valuer for the Duties to be performed by him under this Act; and all such Instructions, and such Agreement (if any), shall be reduced into Writing, and shall be sent by the Assistant Commissioner (if any) present at the Meeting, or otherwise by the Chairman of the Meeting, to the Office of the Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, having regard to the Protection of the Rights of all Persons interested in the Inclosure, to allow or disallow such Instructions, in whole or in part, or to make such Alterations therein or Additions thereto, not inconsistent with the Terms and Conditions of such Provisional Order and Act as aforesaid, and to allow or disallow such Agreement, as they shall think proper; and in case no Instructions shall have been so resolved upon, and sent to the Commissioners, or in case they shall disallow the Instructions so resolved upon and sent, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to frame such Instructions as they shall think proper, not inconsistent with the Terms and Conditions of such Provisional Order and Act as aforesaid; and in case no such Agreement shall have been sent, or the Agreement sent shall have been disallowed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to make such Order for the Payment of the Valuer as they shall think proper; and a Copy, under the Seal of the Commissioners, of all such Instructions, as the same shall have been allowed, altered, or framed as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the Valuer, with a Copy of such Provisional Order and Act of Parliament (if any) as aforesaid; and the Valuer shall in his Proceedings in such Inclosure observe and obey the Directions and Declarations of such Provisional Order, Act, and Instructions respectively.

Valuer may be assisted by an Assistant Commissioner.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the said Valuer, upon the hearing and determining of any contested Claim or Objection, or upon awarding any Costs, as herein-after mentioned, shall, if he think proper, or if the Persons interested shall in their Instructions to the Valuer so direct, be assisted by an Assistant Commissioner, specially appointed as an Assessor, who shall be a practising Barrister-at-Law of Five Years standing at the least; and the Determinations of the said Valuer as to all such contested Claims and Objections, and Costs, shall be made pursuant to and in conformity with the Decisions of such Assessor: Provided nevertheless, that such Assessor shall not interfere further in the Execution of this Act than in settling what contested Claims shall be allowed or disallowed, and what Costs, if any, shall be allowed to or paid by any Parties making or objecting to such Claims.

Alterations in the Instructions to Valuer by Commissioners not to be acted upon unless sanctioned by a Majority of the Persons interested.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Commissioners shall alter or add to the Instructions to the Valuer which shall have been resolved upon at a Meeting of the Persons interested as aforesaid, or shall disallow any such Instructions and frame other Instructions in lieu thereof, the Commissioners shall cause to be deposited for Inspection, as herein-before directed with respect to the Provisional Order, a Copy of the Instructions so altered, or of the Instructions so added to with the Additions, or of the Instructions so framed by the Commissioners, as the Case may be, and shall call a Meeting, with Fourteen Days Notice, of the Persons interested as aforesaid, for the Consideration thereof; and if such altered Instructions, or such Additions to the Instructions, or the Instructions so framed by the Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall not be approved by the Majority in Number and the Majority in respect of Interests of the Persons present at such Meeting or at some Adjournment thereof, or at some other Meeting of the Persons interested as aforesaid, called with such Notice as aforesaid, such Inclosure shall not be proceeded with unless and until some Instructions to the Valuer, resolved upon or approved by the Majority in Number and the Majority in respect of Interests at some Meeting of the Persons interested as aforesaid, called with such Notice as aforesaid, or at some Adjournment thereof, shall be finally allowed by the Commissioners.

XXXVII. And

A Surveyor may be appointed where the Parties interested think fit.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That at the Meeting for appointing a Valuer, or at some other Meeting called by the Commissioners for this Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Persons, or their Agents, present at such Meeting, or the Majority in Number and the Majority in respect of Interest (if they shall so think fit), to appoint a Surveyor for the Purposes of such Inclosure, to assist or act under the Directions of the Valuer in the Admeasurement, mapping, and setting out of the Lands to be inclosed.

Form of Declaration by Valuer.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That no Valuer shall be capable of acting until he shall have made and subscribed, before the said Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, the following Declaration; (that is to say,)

'I do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, 'according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, perform all the Duties of a Valuer in the Inclosure 'of according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Year of the 'Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled '

Which Declaration it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, Justice, or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, to administer; and every such Declaration so made and subscribed shall be countersigned by the Person before whom the same shall have been made, and shall be sent by him to the Office of the Commissioners; and a Certificate, under the Seal of the Commissioners, that the Person named in such Certificate has been appointed a Valuer in the Matter of an Inclosure, and has made and subscribed the Declaration required by this Act, shall be conclusive Evidence of such Appointment, and of his having made and subscribed such Declaration.

Power to set out Boundaries of Parishes.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be represented to the Commissioners by the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, that the Boundaries of any Parish or Manor in which the Land proposed to be inclosed, or any Part thereof, shall be situate, and of any Parish or Manor adjoining thereto, are not then sufficiently ascertained and distinguished, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner by them appointed for that Purpose, after giving such Notices as they or he shall think necessary for the Protection of the Rights of all Persons interested in this Behalf, to ascertain and set out the same respectively in Writing under the Hand and Seal of such Assistant Commissioner, or under the Seal of such Commissioners; and after the said Boundaries shall be so ascertained and set out and fixed the same shall and are hereby declared to be the Boundaries of such Parishes and Manors respectively; and the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall, within One Calendar Month after ascertaining and setting out the Boundaries, publish the same, by causing a Description thereof in Writing to be delivered to or left at the Place of Abode of One of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of each of the Parishes of which the Boundary shall be so set out, and of the Lords of the several Manors of which the Boundary shall be so set out, or of the Stewards of the respective Manors, and shall give Notice that such Boundary has been so set out, and that such Description has been so left as aforesaid, by Advertisement: Provided always, that any Person interested in the Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner respecting the said Boundaries, who shall be dissatisfied with such Determination, may within One Calendar Month next after the Publication of the said Boundaries, by delivering or leaving such Description as aforesaid, give Notice in Writing of his Dissatisfaction to the Commissioners, specifying the Particulars in respect whereof he may be dissatisfied, and request that the Matter in dispute may be submitted to the Determination of a Jury; or any Person dissatisfied may, within One Calendar Month after such Publication of the said Boundaries, give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of such Dissatisfaction, and of such Particulars thereof, and of his Intention to apply to the Queen's Bench to remove the Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, by Certiorari, into the said Court; and in every Case in which any Person shall have requested that the Matter in dispute may be submitted to the Determination of a Jury as aforesaid, and no Notice shall have been given to the Commissioners by any Person, within the Time herein-before limited, of his Intention to apply to the Court of Queen's Bench to remove the Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners, by Certiorari, as aforesaid, or such Determination shall not have been removed within the Time herein-after limited, the Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seal to the Sheriff of the County in which the Parishes and Manors in question, or One of them, shall be situate, commanding such Sheriff to impannel, summon, and return, and such Sheriff is hereby accordingly empowered and required to impannel, summon, and return, a Jury of at least Eighteen sufficient and indifferent Men, qualified according to the Laws of the Realm to be returned for Trial of Issues in Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and the Persons so to be impannelled, summoned, and returned are hereby required to appear before any Assistant Commissioner specially appointed by the Commissioners for that Purpose at such Time and Place as in such Warrant shall be appointed, and to attend from Day to Day until duly discharged; and out of such Persons so to be impannelled, summoned, and returned a Jury of Twelve Men shall be drawn by the said Assistant Commissioner, or by some Person to be by him appointed, in such Manner as Juries for Trials of Issues joined in Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster are by Law directed to be drawn; and in case a sufficient Number of Jurymen shall not appear at the Time and Place so to be appointed as aforesaid such Sheriff shall return other honest and indifferent Men of the Standers-by, or of others that can speedily be procured to attend that Service, (being so qualified as aforesaid,) to make up the said Jury to the Number of Twelve; and all Parties concerned may have their lawful Challenges against any of the said Jurymen, but shall not challenge the Array; and the said Assistant Commissioner is hereby empowered and required to summon before him all Persons who shall be thought necessary to be examined as Witnesses touching the Matter in question, and may authorize or order the said Jury, or any Six or more of them, to view the Boundaries, or the Part thereof which is in controversy; and such Jury shall upon their Oaths, or being Quakers upon their Affirmations, (which Oaths and Affirmations, as well as the Oaths and Affirmations of all such Persons as shall be called upon to give Evidence, the said Assistant Commissioner is hereby empowered and required to administer,) inquire into and ascertain the said Boundaries, or such Part thereof as shall have been in controversy, and shall declare whether the said Boundaries, as described and set out and published as aforesaid, are or are not the true Boundaries of the respective Parishes and Manors respectively, and in case they shall declare that the same are not the true Boundaries, then shall declare in what Manner the Boundaries so described and set out and published as aforesaid ought to be amended, and shall give Verdict accordingly; and the Assistant Commissioner shall reduce such Verdict to Writing, and certify the same to the Commissioners, under his Hand and Seal; and in case such Jury shall have declared that the Boundaries so described and set out and published as aforesaid ought to be amended, the Commissioners shall amend the same in accordance with such Verdict, and such amended Boundaries shall thenceforth be conclusive on all Persons whomsoever.

Non-attendance of Jurymen.

XL. And be it enacted, That if any Person so summoned and returned upon any such Jury as aforesaid shall not appear, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn, or being a Quaker to make Affirmation, or shall refuse to give his Verdict, or shall in any other Manner wilfully neglect his Duty, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or if any Person so summoned to give Evidence as aforesaid shall not appear, on being paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his Costs and Expences, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn, or being a Quaker affirmed, or to give Evidence, every Person so offending, having no reasonable Excuse, to be judged of and determined by the said Assistant Commissioner, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; all which said Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be recovered as Penalties and Forfeitures are recoverable under this Act.

Juries subject to same Regulations as at Westminster.

XLI. And be it enacted, That every such Jury and Jurymen as aforesaid shall also be subject to the same Regulations, Pains, and Penalties as if such Jury and Jurymen had been returned for the Trial of any Issue joined in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Costs of Appeal.

XLII. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which the Verdict of a Jury shall be given in favour of the Person who shall have requested that such Jury be summoned, all the Costs of summoning such Jury and the Expences of Witnesses shall be defrayed by the Commissioners, and shall be Expences in the Inclosure in the Matter of which the Question shall have arisen, and such Costs and Expences shall be settled and determined by the said Assistant Commissioner as aforesaid; but if the Verdict of the Jury shall be given against such Person, the said Costs and Expences shall be defrayed by such Person; and in case such Costs and Expences shall not be paid to the Party entitled to receive the same within Ten Days after the same shall have been demanded, then the same shall and may, by Warrant of the Commissioners, directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, be levied by Distress; but in case such Person shall have requested such Jury to be summoned in pursuance of a Resolution of the Rate-payers of any Parish in Vestry assembled, the Costs and Expences so paid by him shall be repaid to him by the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, out of the Poor's Rate, and shall be allowed in account to such Overseers.

Security for Costs to be taken by the Commissioners.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be dissatisfied, and shall require a Jury to be summoned as aforesaid, shall at his own Costs, before the Commissioners shall be obliged to issue their Warrant for the summoning of such Jury, enter into a Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, to the Commissioners, in a sufficient Penalty, to prosecute the Complaint, and to bear and pay their Costs and Expences of summoning and returning such Jury, and taking such Verdict, and of the summoning and Attendance of Witnesses, in case the said Costs and Expences shall fall upon them.

Persons dissatisfied with Determination of Commissioners may appeal to Court of Queen's Bench.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That any Person interested in the Determination of the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner respecting the said Boundaries, who shall be dissatisfied with such Determination, and who shall, within the Time herein-before limited, have given to the Commissioners Notice in Writing of his Intention to apply to the Court of Queen's Bench, as herein-before mentioned, may within Six Calendar Months next after Publication of the said Boundaries, move the Court of Queen's Bench to remove the said Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner by Certiorari into the said Court, the Party making such Application giving (in addition to such Notice of his Intention as aforesaid) Eight Days Notice of such Application to the said Commissioners; and in case of Removal as aforesaid the Decision of the said Court therein shall be final and conclusive as to the Boundaries of such Parish or Manor; and after the Expiration of the said Term of Six Calendar Months the Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall not be removed or removeable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere; and no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove such Determination unless the Party prosecuting the Certiorari shall before Allowance thereof enter into a Recognizance before One of the Justices of the said Court in the Sum of Fifty Pounds, with Condition to prosecute the same without wilful Delay, and to pay to the said Commissioners their full Costs and Charges within One Calendar Month after the Determination shall have been confirmed, to be taxed according to the Custom of the Court; and no Determination of a Jury under the Provision herein-before contained shall be removed or removeable by Certiorari; and in every Case in which any Determination of the Commissioners or of any Assistant Commissioner, respecting the Boundary of any Parish or Manor, shall be removed into the Court of Queen's Bench, it shall be lawful for the Court to direct the Trial of One or more feigned Issues upon such Points as the Court shall think fit, and also to direct who shall be the Plaintiff

Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and who shall be the Defendant or Defendants, on such Trial, or to determine the same in a summary Manner, or otherwise dispose of the Question or Questions in dispute, and to make such other Rules and Orders therein, as to Costs and all other Matters, as may appear to be just and reasonable.

Power to straighten Boundaries.

XLV. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of shortening or rendering straight any Boundary Fences between the Land to be inclosed and any adjoining Lands it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, with the Consent in Writing of the Person interested in such adjoining Lands, to set out and determine the Boundaries between the Land to be inclosed and such adjoining Land, or to draw and define a new Line of Boundary, as he shall judge proper, for the Purposes aforesaid; and after such Boundaries shall have been so set out and determined as aforesaid, or such new Line of Boundary drawn and defined, the same shall be made, fenced, ditched, or mounded by such Person, in such Manner, and at such Times as the Valuer shall direct, and shall for ever thereafter be deemed the Boundaries and Limits of such respective Lands.

Valuer to hold Meetings.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall from Time to Time hold such Meetings for the Examination of Claims, and otherwise in the Matter of such Inclosure, as Occasion shall require, and shall cause Notice to be given on the Church Door, and also like Notice to be given by Advertisement, of the Time and Place of the Meeting in the Matter of such Inclosure, and of each subsequent Meeting, in the like Manner, Fourteen Days at least before such respective Meeting (Meetings by Adjournment only excepted); and if from any Cause the Valuer shall think fit to adjourn or postpone any such Meeting, it shall be lawful for him to adjourn or postpone such Meeting to any future Day.

Claims to be delivered in Writing.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That all Persons claiming any Common or other Right or Interest in any Land proposed to be inclosed as aforesaid shall deliver such Claims in Writing to the Valuer acting in the Matter of such Inclosure, at such Meeting as the Valuer shall appoint for the Purpose, stating the several Particulars in respect whereof such Claims are made, and distinguishing the Claims in respect of Freehold, Copyhold, Customary, and Leasehold Property from each other, and mentioning therein the Places of Abode of the respective Claimants, or their Agents, at which Notices in respect of such Claims may be delivered; and no such Claim shall be received by such Valuer after the last Meeting to be held for that Purpose (of which Notice shall be given), except for some special Cause, to be allowed by the Commissioners.

Statement of Claims to be deposited for Examination.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That a Statement of all Claims in the Matter of any Inclosure which shall have been delivered to the Valuer acting in the Matter of such Inclosure, as herein-before provided, shall be made, and deposited by him at some public Place within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed, or the greater Part thereof, shall be situate; and the Valuer shall give Notice on the Church Door of such Parish and by Advertisement of such Statement having been deposited, and shall in such Notice limit such Time for the Delivery of Objections to Claims as the Commissioners under the Circumstances of each Inclosure shall think reasonable, and by Order under their Seal direct, or in case no Direction shall have been given by the Commissioners in this Behalf, then such Time as the Valuer shall think reasonable, not being less in any Case than Twenty-one Days after such Notice shall have been given; and every Person who shall object to a Claim shall deliver his Objection in Writing to the Valuer, and also deliver a Copy of such Objection at the Place of Abode of the Claimant or his Agent within the Time limited for Delivery of Objections to Claims as aforesaid; and no Objection to any such Claim shall be received by the Valuer after the Time so limited for the Delivery of Objections to Claims, unless for some special Cause to be allowed by the Commissioners; and after the Time limited for the Delivery of Claims shall have expired the Valuer shall cause Fourteen Days Notice to be given of the Time and Place of the Meeting for the Examination of such Claims, and for the Attendance of all Parties concerned therein; and at such Meeting the Valuer shall proceed to examine into and determine such Claims, and shall and may allow or disallow the same, in whole or in part, and make such Order therein, as to him shall appear just; and in case any Doubts or Difficulties shall arise respecting such Claims, or any Differences shall happen between any of the Claimants touching their respective Claims, or the relative Proportions of their Rights and Interests, the Valuer shall determine the same, and shall make such Order therein as to him shall appear just, which Order shall be final, unless any Party shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the Valuer, and shall give Notice, as herein-after provided, of his Desire to have the Claim or Matter heard and determined by the Commissioners or an Assistant Commissioner, or in case the Commissioners shall think fit to revise such Determination, under the Power herein-after contained; and in case the Valuer, on the Determination of any Claim which shall have been objected to as aforesaid, or if any Objection which shall have been made to any Claim, shall see Cause to award any Costs, it shall be lawful for the Valuer, upon Application, to assess and award such Costs as he shall think reasonable to be paid to the Person in whose Favour any Determination shall have been made, and by the Person whose Claim or Objection shall have been disallowed; and in case any Person liable to pay such Costs shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, upon demand, or within Fourteen Days thereafter, the Valuer shall, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, cause such Costs to be levied by Distress; and if there shall be no Goods or Chattels whereon to levy such Costs it shall be lawful for the Person in whose Favour such Costs shall be awarded to recover the same by Action of Debt or on the Case, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Defendant is indebted to him in the Sum specified in the Order of Adjudication made by the Valuer, and in consequence of such Order, without setting forth any other Claims to be heard and determined by Valuer, subject to Appeal to Commissioners.

Proceedings

Proceedings under this Act: Provided always, that the Valuer may pay the Expences of any Witnesses, or of the Production of any Writings, Maps, Plans, and Surveys, or Copies thereof, where such Witnesses shall attend, or such Maps, Plans, Surveys, or Copies thereof shall be produced before such Valuer, only on the Request and for the Information or Guidance of the Valuer (and not on behalf of any Party in difference), such last-mentioned Expences to be considered as Part of the Expences of the Inclosure.

Titles not to be determined by Valuer, Commissioners, or Assistant Commissioners.

XLIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to enable the Valuer, or the Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner, to determine the Title of any Lands, or to determine any Right between any Parties contrary to the actual Possession of any such Party (except in Cases of Encroachment as herein-after mentioned), but in case the Valuer, or the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, shall be of opinion against the Rights of the Party in possession, they or he shall forbear to make any Determination thereupon until the Possession shall have been given up by such Party, or recovered from him in due Course of Law, or, where the Circumstances shall admit, such Valuer, or the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, may declare what Right is appendant or appurtenant to any Land or Hereditament, or otherwise declare by any sufficient Description the Rights of the Owner for the Time being of any Land or Hereditament, without declaring by Name who may be the actual Owner of such Land or Hereditament.

Encroachments within Twenty Years.

L. And be it enacted, That all Encroachments and Inclosures, other than Inclosures duly authorized by the Custom of any Manor of which such Land shall be Parcel, or otherwise according to Law, which shall have been made by any Person, from or upon any Part of the Land proposed to be inclosed, within Twenty Years next before the First Meeting for the Examination of Claims in the Matter of the Inclosure thereof, whether any Amerciament, Rent, or Money Payment or Acknowledgment shall or shall not have been paid or made in respect of the same, to or for the Use of the Lord of the Soil or any other Person, shall be deemed Parcel of the Land subject to be inclosed, and shall be divided, allotted, and inclosed accordingly: Provided always, that in case, under the Circumstances of any such Encroachments or Inclosures, it shall appear to the Commissioners just or reasonable that Rights or Interests in the Lands to be inclosed should be allowed to the Persons in possession of such Encroachments or Inclosures, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, either in the Instructions to the Valuer, or by any subsequent Order under their Seal, to direct what Rights and Interests, either absolute or for any limited Terms or Estates, should be allowed in respect of such Encroachments, and the Valuer shall allow and declare such Rights accordingly: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the several Persons who shall be in possession of any such Encroachments or Inclosures, or in the Receipt of the Rent thereof, at the Time of the Determination of Claims under this Act, to take down or remove all such Buildings, Fences, and other Erections as shall then be thereon, and to convert the Materials thereof to their own Use, within Two Calendar Months after Notice in Writing signed by the Valuer given to such respective Persons, or posted on the Church Door; and in case any Dispute or Difference shall arise touching any such Encroachments or Inclosures, or as to the Extent thereof, such Dispute or Difference shall be determined by the Valuer.

School-houses, &c. not to be deemed Encroachments.

LI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in case any such Land shall have been taken or used, at any Time before such First Meeting for the Examination of Claims, for the Erection of a School-house or the Appurtenances thereto, or for other such Purposes as in the Opinion of the Commissioners shall be charitable or parochial Purposes, such Land so taken or the Erections made thereon, shall not be taken or deemed to be of the Nature of an Encroachment within the Meaning of this Act; but where such Land shall have been so taken for the Purposes aforesaid within Twenty Years next before such First Meeting for the Examination of Claims, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where it shall appear just and desirable for the Purposes of Inclosure, to direct that such Land be deemed Parcel of the Land subject to be inclosed, and be divided, allotted, and inclosed accordingly, and that Compensation be made to the Persons in possession thereof, or to Trustees for the Purposes for which such Land shall have been so taken or used, by adequate Allotments of the Lands so to be inclosed.

Encroachments of Twenty Years standing to be deemed ancient Inclosures.

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Lands which shall have been inclosed from any Land subject to be inclosed under this Act for more than Twenty Years next preceding the Day of the First Meeting for the Examination of Claims in the Matter of such Inclosure, shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be ancient Inclosures, but not so as to carry any Right of Common, or Compensation or Allotment for or in respect of Right of Common, which might be claimed in respect of ancient Inclosures.

Rights in respect of Tofts to be allowed.

LIII. And be it enacted, That all Tofts, Foundations, or Sites of ancient Commonable Messuages or Cottages, shall, upon Proof being made to the Satisfaction of the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure that Commonable Messuages or Cottages formerly stood thereon, be deemed Commonable Messuages or Cottages, and the respective Proprietors thereof shall be entitled to the same Compensation for the Rights of Common originally belonging thereto as if such Messuages or Cottages were still standing.

Rights not sustainable in Law to be allowed upon Proof of Sixty Years Usage.

LIV. And be it enacted, That where any Claim shall be made to any Right of Common or other Right which in the Judgment of the Valuer, or of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, could not be sustained in Law, but Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Valuer, or of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, that there has been Enjoyment under the Right so claimed for the Space of Sixty Years or upwards next before the First Meeting for the Examination of Claims in the Matter of such Inclosure, it shall be lawful for the Valuer, or the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, to allow allow such Claims, in such and the same Manner as if the Right so claimed might have been legally sustained and established.

Schedule of Claims allowed by Valuer to be made and deposited for Inspection.

LV. And be it enacted, That after the Valuer shall have heard and determined all Claims and Objections which shall have been made in the Matter of an Inclosure he shall cause a Schedule of such Claims and Objections, and of his Determinations thereon, to be deposited, and to remain for Thirty Days at the least, for the Inspection of all Persons interested therein, at some public Place within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed, or the greater Part thereof, shall be situate, and shall cause Notice to be given on the Church Door of such Parish, and by Advertisement, of such Deposit, and shall also send a Copy of such Schedule to the Commissioners, and shall furnish any Explanations or Information in relation thereto to the Commissioners as they shall require; and in case any Party dissatisfied with any Determination of the Valuer as aforesaid shall, within Thirty Days next after Notice by the Valuer of such Deposit of the said Schedule, cause to be delivered to the Commissioners Notice in Writing of such Dissatisfaction, and of the Desire of such Party to have the Claim or Matter so determined by the Valuer heard and determined by the Commissioners or by an Assistant Commissioner, or in case the Commissioners shall, on the Representation of any Persons interested in such Inclosure, or on the Information given by the Valuer in relation to such Schedule, be of opinion that all or any of the Determinations of such Valuer shall have been made without due Consideration of the legal Rights of the Parties interested, or shall be erroneous, then and in any such Case the Commissioners shall forthwith give Notice in such Manner as they shall think fit, appointing some convenient Place and Time for holding a Meeting to hear and determine the Claim or Matter which shall be so desired to be reheard, or all or any of the Claims or Matters which shall be mentioned in the said Schedule, as the Commissioners shall think fit; and the Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner specially empowered for that Purpose, shall rehear and determine such Claim or Matter; and the Determination of the Commissioners or such Assistant Commissioner shall be final and conclusive, and shall be binding on the Valuer acting in the Matter of such Inclosure, unless any Party dissatisfied therewith shall try his Right by an Issue at Law, as herein-after provided.

Claims may be reheard by Commissioners or an Assistant Commissioner.

Appeal against Determination of the Commissioners.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person claiming to be interested in any Land proposed to be inclosed under this Act shall be dissatisfied with any Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner concerning any Claim or Interest in or to the Land proposed to be inclosed under the Powers herein-before contained, and shall cause Notice in Writing of such Dissatisfaction to be delivered to the Commissioners within Thirty Days next after Notice of such Determination shall have been given to the several Parties or Persons specially interested, if any such there be, it shall be lawful for such Person so dissatisfied, and giving such Notice as aforesaid, to bring an Action upon a feigned Issue against the Person in whose Favour such Determination shall have been made, or against the Commissioners, and to proceed to a Trial at Law at the then next Assizes, or at the Assizes immediately following such next Assizes, to be holden for the County wherein the Land relating to which such Dispute shall arise shall be situate; and the Defendant in such Action shall, upon being served with the usual Process therein, appear thereto, and accept One or more Issue or Issues, whereby such Claim, and the Right and Interest thereby insisted upon, may be tried and determined, such Issue to be settled by the proper Officer of the Court in which the said Action shall be commenced, in case the Parties shall differ about the same; and the Verdict given upon the Trial of such Action shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties thereto, unless the Court wherein such Action shall be brought shall set aside such Verdict, and order a new Trial to be had; and after such Verdict shall be given, and final Judgment obtained thereon, the Commissioners shall act in conformity thereto, and allow or disallow the Claim thereby determined according to the Event of such Trial; and the Costs attending any such Action shall abide the Event of the Trial.

Determination of Commissioners not appealed against conclusive.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if no such Notice of Dissatisfaction shall be given, or if no such Action at Law shall be commenced as aforesaid, or if any such Action shall be commenced, and the Plaintiff therein shall not proceed to Trial within the Time herein-before limited for that Purpose, unless the Court for sufficient Cause put off the Trial, then the Determination of the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall be final and conclusive.

Actions not to abate.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person, Plaintiff or Defendant in any Action to be brought as aforesaid, shall die pending the same, such Action shall not abate by reason thereof, but may be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened, the Heir or Devisee, or other Person entitled to the Interest of the deceased Party in the Matter in question, being served with Process in the Action; and if any Person in whose Favour such Determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any such Action might have been brought if living, shall die before any Action brought, it shall be lawful for the Person who might have brought such Action to bring the same, within the Time so limited as aforesaid, against such Person as if actually living, and to serve the Commissioners with Process for commencing such Action, in the same Manner as the deceased Person might have been served therewith if living, and it shall thereupon be incumbent on the Commissioners to serve with such Process the Heir or Devisee or personal Representative of the deceased Person, or other the Person who shall claim the Benefit of such Determination as aforesaid; and on such Process being served such Heir or Devisee or personal Representative, or other Person, shall appear and defend such Action in the Name of the Person so dead, and Proceedings shall be had therein in the same Manner as if such Person had been living, and the Rights, Interests, and Claims of all Parties shall be equally bound by the Event of any Action so brought or continued as aforesaid as if the Death of any of the Persons interested therein had not occurred.

Commissioners may award Costs.

LIX. And be it enacted, That in case the Commissioners, or any Assistant Commissioner appointed to hear and determine any Claim or Matter in pursuance of this Act, shall see Cause to award any Costs, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, upon Application, to assess and award such Costs as they or he shall think reasonable to be paid to the Person in whose Favour any Determination of the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have been made, and by the Person whose Claim or Objection shall have been disallowed; and in case any Person liable to pay such Costs shall neglect or refuse to pay the same upon Demand, or within Fourteen Days thereafter, the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall, by Warrant directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, cause such Costs to be levied by Distress; and if there shall be no Goods and Chattels whereon to levy such Costs it shall be lawful for the Person in whose Favour such Costs shall be awarded to recover the same by Action of Debt or on the Case, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Defendant is indebted to him in the Sum specified in the Order of Adjudication made by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, and in consequence of such Order, without setting forth any other Proceedings under this Act.

Differences may be submitted to Arbitration.

LX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Person herein-before authorized to bring an Action upon a feigned Issue, and the Person against whom such Action might be brought, shall be desirous of submitting the Matter in dispute or difference to the Arbitration of any Arbitrator, or of any Arbitrators and Umpire, it shall be lawful for such Persons to submit such Matter in dispute accordingly, and such Submission shall be irrevocable, and the Decision thereupon shall be binding on both Parties, and be obeyed accordingly, and the Costs of such Arbitration shall abide the Event; and the Commissioners may require each of the Persons in difference upon any such Submission to Arbitration to give such Security for the Payment of the Costs of such Arbitration as the Commissioners shall think fit.

Power to Valuer to make Watercourses, &c.

LXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure to set out and make such Common Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges, of such Extent and Form and in such Situations as he shall deem necessary, and as shall not be inconsistent with the Terms and Conditions and Instructions herein-before mentioned, in the Land to be inclosed, and also to enlarge, cleanse, or alter the Course of and improve any of the existing Ditches or Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, or Bridges, as well in and over the same Land as also in any ancient Inclosures or other Lands in the Parish or respective Parishes in which the Land to be inclosed may be situate, as the Valuer shall deem necessary, making such Satisfaction to the Proprietors of such ancient Inclosures or Lands, for the Damage done thereby, as the Valuer shall think just; and the Expence of making and enlarging, altering and cleansing such Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges, when the same shall be first done in pursuance of this Act, if not otherwise provided for, shall be raised and paid in the same Manner as the other Expences of the Inclosure; but all such Ponds, Ditches, Watercourses, Embankments, Tunnels, and Bridges shall at all Times afterwards be repaired, cleansed, and maintained by such Persons and in such Manner as the Valuer shall direct; provided that no Watercourse be diverted or turned without the Consent in Writing of the Person interested in the Land from which the same may be diverted, and of the Person interested in the Lands into which the same may be turned, or to the Prejudice of any Person interested in such Watercourse, except with his Consent in Writing; and that no Ditch or Watercourse, Embankment, Tunnel, or Bridge, be enlarged or altered on any Land other than the Land to be inclosed, without the Consent in Writing of the Person interested in such Land.

Power to alter Roads and Ways.

LXII. And be it enacted, That in the first place the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall and may, before he shall proceed to make any of the Divisions and Allotments of the Land to be inclosed in pursuance of or in any Manner not inconsistent with the Instructions given to such Valuer as aforesaid, set out and make public Roads and Ways, and widen public Roads and Ways, in or over the Land to be inclosed, and stop up, divert, or alter any of the Roads or Ways passing through the Land to be inclosed, or through any old Inclosures in the Parish or respective Parishes in which the Land to be inclosed shall be situate; and the Soil of such of the Roads and Ways so to be discontinued and stopped up as pass through the Lands to be inclosed shall be deemed Part of the Lands to be inclosed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the altering or diverting any Turnpike Road, unless the Consent of the Majority of the Trustees of such Turnpike Road, assembled at a public Meeting called for that Purpose, be first obtained: Provided also, that before any public Road or Way shall be discontinued, diverted, stopped up, or altered by the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, the Valuer shall cause to be affixed at each End of such Road or Way a Notice to the Effect that the same is intended to be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, as the Case may be, from and after a Day to be mentioned in such Notice; and the Valuer shall also cause the same Notice to be given by Advertisement for Four successive Weeks, and also on the Church Door on the Four Sundays of the said Four successive Weeks; and after the said several Notices shall have been so given such Road or Way shall, from and after the Day in such Notice mentioned, be deemed to be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, as the Case may be, subject, however, to such Appeal as is herein-after mentioned.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person, within Four Months after the First Sunday on which such Notice shall have been given on the Church Door of the Intention that such Road or Way should be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, as the Case may be, to make his Complaint thereof by Appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, Division, or other Jurisdiction in which such Road or Way, or the greater Part thereof, shall be situate, upon giving giving to the Valuer Fourteen Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, together with a Statement in Writing of the Grounds thereof; but it shall not be lawful for the Appellant to be heard in support of such Appeal unless such Notice and Statement shall have been given as aforesaid, nor on any Hearing of Appeal to go into Evidence of any other Grounds of Appeal than those set forth in such Statement as aforesaid.

Trial of Appeal.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That in case of such Appeal the Justices at such Quarter Sessions shall, for the Purpose of determining whether such public Road or Way shall be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, or whether the Party appealing would be thereby injured or aggrieved, impannel a Jury of Twelve disinterested Men out of the Persons returned to serve as Jurymen at such Quarter Sessions; and if after hearing the Evidence produced before them the said Jury shall return a Verdict that such Road or Way is unnecessary, or may beneficially to the Public be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, and that the Party appealing would not be injured or aggrieved thereby, then the said Court shall dismiss such Appeal, and shall award the Costs of resisting the said Appeal to be paid by the Appellant to the Valuer, and the same shall be recoverable in the same Manner as any Penalties and Forfeitures are recoverable under this Act; but if the said Jury shall return a Verdict that such Road or Way is not unnecessary, and that the same could not beneficially to the Public be so discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, or that the Party appealing would be injured or aggrieved thereby, the said Court shall allow such Appeal, and such public Road or Way shall not be discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, or in case the same shall have been discontinued, stopped up, diverted, or altered, the said Court shall make an Order restoring the same to its original State, and shall award to the Appellant the Costs of prosecuting such Appeal, and such Costs shall be paid by the said Valuer out of the Monies to be raised for the Expences of the Inclosure: Provided always, that in every Case in which any such Appeal as aforesaid shall be made by the Surveyor of the Highways of any Parish or Place, under the Direction of the Inhabitants of such Parish in Vestry assembled, or, where there shall be no Vestry Meeting in such Place, under the Direction of the Inhabitants contributing to Highway Rates assembled at any Meeting of which Fourteen Days Notice shall have been given by Advertisement and on the Church Door, then, although such Appeal shall be dismissed, the Costs of prosecuting such Appeal, and also such Costs as shall be awarded to be paid by the Appellant to the Valuer, shall be paid out of the Highway Rate of such Parish or Place.

Roads to be fenced.

LXV. And be it enacted, That such public Carriage Roads so to be set out as aforesaid shall be well and sufficiently fenced on both Sides, by such of the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed, and within such Time, as the Valuer, acting in the Matter of such Inclosure, shall direct; and the Valuer shall form and complete such Parts of the said public Roads and Ways as shall be newly made; and every such public Road and Way to be set out and made under this Act shall be of the Width required by the Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, for a Road or Way of the like Description, which may be dedicated to the Use of the Public.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50.

Expences of making and altering Roads.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That the Expences attending the purchasing of the Soil of all such public Roads and Ways as aforesaid, and the making, the stopping up, discontinuing, diverting, widening, and altering of such Roads and Ways, and the Money Compensation in respect thereof, upon any Inclosure, shall be paid in such Manner as the Expences of such Inclosure shall be directed to be paid.

Roads to be repaired by the Parish after Certificate by Two Justices of the Peace.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That when and so soon as Two or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Jurisdiction in which the Lands to be inclosed shall be situate shall certify any of the public Roads and Ways to be set out in pursuance of this Act on any Inclosure to be sufficiently formed and completed, such Roads shall thenceforth be kept in repair by such Persons and in such Manner as the public Roads within the said Parish are or ought by Law to be kept in repair; and every such Certificate shall, at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said County, Riding, Division, or Jurisdiction next after the Date thereof, be filed of Record by the Clerk of the Peace.

Private Roads.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall and may set out such private or occupation Roads and Ways through the Lands to be inclosed as he shall think requisite, for the Use of the Persons interested in such Lands or any of them; and any Expences which the Valuer may incur relative to the setting out or Formation or Completion of such private Roads and Ways, or any of them, shall, unless the Valuer shall otherwise direct, be paid in the same Manner as the other Expences of the Inclosure; and such Expences of the Formation and Completion of such private Roads and Ways as the Valuer shall direct shall be borne by, and after the Formation and Completion of such private Roads and Ways the same shall be maintained and kept in repair by and at the Expence of the Owners and Proprietors for the Time being of the Land inclosed, or such of them, and in such Shares and Proportions and in such Manner as the Valuer shall direct; and after such private Roads and Ways shall have been set out and made the Grass and Herbage arising thereon shall for ever belong to and be for the Use of such Persons interested in the Lands to be inclosed as the Valuer shall direct, and in the Absence of such Direction shall belong to the Proprietors of the Land to be inclosed which shall next adjoin the said Roads and Ways on either Side thereof as far as the Crown of the Road; and after such setting out as aforesaid all private or occupation Roads or Ways over, through, and upon the Lands to be inclosed which shall not be set out as aforesaid shall be for ever stopped up and extinguished.

Rights of Common may be suspended.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, before the making of the Award, when the Commissioners shall think necessary for the Purpose of the Inclosure, and by Order under their Seal authorize or direct, by Notice on the Church Door to order all or any Part of the Rights of Sheepwalk, Common or other Rights, in or over the Land to be inclosed or any Part thereof to be extinguished from such Time or the Exercise thereof to be suspended during such Time as shall be expressed in such Notice, and from the Time mentioned in such Notice such Rights shall be extinguished or suspended accordingly; and if during the Suspension or after the Extinguishment of any such Rights of Sheepwalk, Common or other Rights as aforesaid, any Person shall permit his Horses, Cattle, Sheep, or Swine to go or depasture upon any of the Lands over which such Rights shall be suspended or extinguished, it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of the Inclosure, or any other Person by his Order (testified in Writing under his Hand), or any of the Persons interested in such Lands, or in the Inclosure thereof, to distrain such Horses, Cattle, Sheep, or Swine being upon such Lands contrary to such Order, and to impound the same until the Person so offending shall pay to the Person so distraining such Sum of Money as the Valuer shall by Writing under his Hand have previously ordered, not exceeding Ten Shillings for each Horse or Head of Cattle, and Five Shillings for each Sheep or Swine so distrained; and in case the same shall not be paid within Seven Days after the same shall have been impounded the Valuer is hereby authorized to recover the same by way of Penalty, as herein-after mentioned.

Course of Husbandry may be directed.

LXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, at such Time as he shall think fit, by Notice on the Church Door to direct the Course of Husbandry and the Stint or Rule of Stocking that shall be observed upon the Land to be inclosed, until the Time when the Inclosure thereof shall be completed, as well with respect to the laying down, ploughing, sowing, fallowing, manuring, and tilling thereof, as to the stocking and feeding of the Commonable Lands and Fallows or Stubbles upon the same, and to direct such Recompence to be made as he shall think right to any Person injured by such Directions, all which Directions shall be binding upon all Parties interested, their Farmers and Tenants; and the Valuer shall impose such pecuniary Penalties on every Person not conforming to such Directions as he shall think necessary, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds per Acre in the Case of cross-cropping, or withholding from the Land its due Proportion of Manure, or Ten Pounds in any other Case, for any One Offence, and shall also determine, in all Cases where the Tenant is entitled by Agreement or Custom to the Manure arising from the Lands in his Occupation, by whom and in what Sum of Money such Tenant shall be compensated for any such Manure left or given up by him; and such Penalties and other Sums of Money shall be recovered in the same Manner as by this Act directed for the Recovery of Penalties.

Compensation for growing Crops.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall by Writing under his Hand order what Recompence in Money shall be made to the Owner of any Crops growing, according to his Agreement or Lease, or according to the customary Mode of Cultivation within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed shall be situate, upon such Land, at the Time of the Division, Allotment, and Inclosure, for the said Crops, by the Person to whom the Land on which such Crops are growing shall be allotted, and also what Recompence in Money shall be paid, and by whom, to any Tenant or Occupier of Land, as well for the ploughing, tilling, cultivating, manuring, or folding any Land to be inclosed for the Benefit accruing thereby to the Person to whom such Land shall be allotted, or for any Loss or Disadvantage which any Tenant or Occupier may sustain by the Loss of his following or way-going Crops upon the Land to be inclosed; and if in any of the said Cases the Money to be paid for such Recompence be not paid at the Time and in the Manner ordered by the Valuer, then the same may be recovered by the Person entitled thereto, from the Person liable to pay the same, in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are recoverable under this Act.

Allotment for Repair of Roads.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall allot to the Surveyor of the Highways for the Time being of the Parish in which the Land proposed to be inclosed, or any Part thereof, shall be situate, and to his Successors for ever, such Part of the Land proposed to be inclosed as by the Instructions given to such Valuer shall have been directed to be appropriated for supplying Stone, Gravel, or other Materials for the Repairs of Roads and Ways, as aforesaid, or in case no such Instructions shall have been given in this Behalf, and the Valuer shall think an Allotment necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, such Part as the Valuer shall think fit; and such Allotments shall be inclosed and fenced as the Valuer shall direct, and shall from the Confirmation of the Award be vested in the Surveyor of the Highways within the said Parish for the Time being, in trust for the Purposes aforesaid; and the Grass and Herbage of such Allotments shall belong to such Persons as by the Valuer shall be directed, and if he shall make no such Direction then such Surveyor shall from Time to Time let any such Allotment, reserving the Right to get and take away such Stone, Gravel, and other Materials when and as he shall think fit, for the most Money that can be obtained for the same, and shall apply the Rents and Profits towards the Repairs of the public Roads or Highways within the said Parish; and the said Surveyor shall account for such Rents and Profits in the same Manner as he is by Law accountable for other Monies that shall come to his Hands in the Capacity of Surveyor of the Highways, and shall be subject to the like Penalties for the Neglect thereof.

Allotments for public Purposes.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall and may, in pursuance of the Directions of or in any Manner not inconsistent with the Directions of the Provisional Order of the Commissioners, or any Act hereafter to be passed, or the Instructions given to such Valuer as aforesaid, set out and allot such Part of the Lands to be inclosed as by such Provisional Order or Act or Instructions respectively shall have been directed to be appropriated as a Place of Exercise and Recreation for the Inhabitants of the said Parish and Neighbourhood; and such Allotment shall, unless the same shall be otherwise awarded under the Provision herein-after contained, be made and awarded to the Churchwardens and Overseers for the Time being of the Parish in which the same shall be situated, and shall be held by the Churchwardens and Overseers for the Time being of the said Parish for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall be in the first instance fenced, and, where Occasion shall require, drained and levelled by the Valuer, the Expence in such Case to be considered Part of the Expences of the Inclosure, or shall be fenced by any Person to whom adjoining Land shall be allotted, as the Valuer may direct; and the Fences of such Allotment shall for ever afterwards be repaired and maintained, and the Surface thereof kept drained and level, by such Churchwardens and Overseers, or by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the several Parishes interested therein, in such Proportions and Manner as shall be directed by the Valuer, out of the Rents to be received for the Herbage of the said Allotment, or out of the Poor Rate of the said Parish or respective Parishes, or otherwise; and the Grass and Herbage growing upon such Allotment may be from Time to Time let by the Churchwardens and Overseers in whom the same shall be vested, and the Rents which shall be received by them for the same shall be by them from Time to Time applied, in the first place, in maintaining and repairing the Fences of the said Allotment, and keeping the Surface thereof drained and level, as aforesaid, and, subject thereto, in aid of the Rates for the Repair of the public Highways in the said Parish or respective Parishes; and the Valuer shall in like Manner set out and allot such Part of the Land to be inclosed as by such Provisional Order or Act or Instructions as aforesaid shall have been directed to be appropriated as an Allotment for the labouring Poor unto the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish in which such Allotment shall be situate, subject nevertheless to a Rent-charge to be payable thereout to any Person or Persons who may be entitled to Allotments under such Inclosure, as herein-after provided; and the said Valuer shall in like Manner, in pursuance of the Directions of or in any Manner not inconsistent with the Directions of such Provisional Order or Act or Instructions as aforesaid, set out and allot, for the other public Purposes mentioned in such Provisional Order or Act or Instructions as aforesaid, such Parts of the Land to be inclosed as shall have been thereby respectively directed to be set apart for such Purposes, and such Allotments shall be made to such Persons respectively, with such Regulations and Provisions as to the Fencing, Maintenance, Use, and Enjoyment thereof respectively, as the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, shall direct; and in every Case in which the Valuer, with such Approbation of the Commissioners, shall not think it necessary or proper to direct the same to be otherwise made, such Allotments shall be made to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the Time being of the Parish in which such Allotments shall be situate; and all Allotments which shall be made to the Churchwardens and Overseers under this Act shall be held by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the Time being in the same Manner and with the same legal Powers and Incidents as if the same Allotments were Lands belonging to the Parish, but in trust nevertheless for the Purposes for which the same shall be allotted, and subject, as to the said Allotment for the labouring Poor, to the Provisions in relation thereto herein-after contained, and as to all other such Allotments, subject to such Directions for the Maintenance, Fencing, Management, and Use thereof as the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, may think fit.

or

Provision for awarding Allotments for Exercise to Individuals subject to the Obligation of permitting it to be used.

LXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, to set out and allot such Land as shall be appropriated as a Place of Exercise and Recreation as aforesaid to any Person entitled to an Allotment under the Inclosure, and who shall consent to receive the same in full or in part of his Allotment; and the Person to whom the Land so to be appropriated shall be allotted, and all future Owners thereof, shall, unless it shall be otherwise directed by the Award, be subject to the Obligation of maintaining the Fences of such Land, and of preserving the Surface thereof in good Condition, and of permitting such Land to be at all Times used for Exercise and Recreation by the Inhabitants of the Parish and Neighbourhood, and, subject to such Obligations, the Herbage of such Land shall belong to the Person to whom such Land shall be so allotted.

Allotments for the labouring Poor may be made subject to a Corn Rent-charge, to vary and be recoverable as a Tithe Rent-charge. 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 71.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That every Allotment which shall be made and awarded for the labouring Poor may be so awarded subject to and chargeable with a clear Rent-charge or clear Rent-charges, not exceeding in the whole the net annual Value of the Allotment in its actual Condition at the Time of making the same; and every such Rent-charge shall be deemed at the Time of the Confirmation of the Award to be of the Value of such Number of Imperial Bushels and Decimal Parts of an Imperial Bushel of Wheat, Barley, and Oats as the same would have purchased at the Average Prices during the Seven Years ending on the Thursday next before Christmas Day One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, as the same were ascertained by the Advertisement inserted in the London Gazette under the Provisions of the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, in case One Third Part of such Rent-charge had been invested in the Purchase of Wheat, One Third Part thereof in the Purchase of Barley, and the remaining Third Part thereof in the Purchase of Oats, and the respective Quantities of Wheat, Barley, and Oats so ascertained shall be stated in the Award; and every such Rent-charge shall be paid by equal half-yearly Payments on the First Day of July and the First Day of January, the first of such half-yearly Payments to be made on the first of such half-yearly Days after the Expiration of Three Years from the Date of the Confirmation of such Award; and such Sum of Money shall be payable in respect of such yearly Rent-charge as according to the Prices ascertained by the then next preceding Advertisement for the Purposes of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth would have been payable in respect of a Rent-charge charge of like Amount charged on Lands under the Provisions of such Act; and the Sum of Money thenceforth payable in respect of such Rent-charge charged under the Provisions of this Act shall vary so as always to consist of the Price of such Number of Bushels and Decimal Parts of a Bushel of Wheat, Barley, and Oats respectively, according to the next preceding Advertisement for the Time being, in like Manner as if the same had been a Rent payable under the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth; and the Persons entitled to any Rent-charge charged under the Provisions of this Act shall have the same Powers and Remedies for enforcing Payment thereof in all respects as are by the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, or by any Act for amending the same, given to the Persons entitled to Rent-charges charged under the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth for recovering and enforcing Payment of such last-mentioned Rent-charges; and nothing herein or in such Award contained shall render any Person personally liable to the Payment of any Rent-charges to be charged under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that when such Allotment, or any Part thereof, shall be let and occupied as Gardens under the Provisions herein-after contained, the Person for the Time being entitled to the Rent-charge charged thereon shall not distrain for such Rent-charge on the Occupiers of such Gardens, but the Person so entitled may, in case such Rent-charge shall be in arrear, give Notice to the Occupiers of such Gardens, and to the Allotment Wardens, or any of them, and shall thenceforth, until the Arrears of such Rent-charge, with all Expences occasioned by the Nonpayment thereof, shall be fully paid, be entitled to receive all the Rent which after such Notice shall accrue in respect of such Gardens, and shall have the same Remedies for recovering such Rent, and the same Powers of determining the Tenancy of such Occupiers, and of letting and dealing with such Allotment, as such Allotment Wardens would have had in case such Rent-charge had not been in arrear; and in case the said Allotment Wardens, or any of them, after such Notice shall have been given to them as aforesaid, and before the Arrears of such Rent-charge, with all such Expences as aforesaid, shall have been fully paid, shall receive any Rent from the Occupiers of such Gardens, such of the Allotment Wardens as shall have received such Rent shall, on demand, pay to the Person then entitled thereto the Arrears of the said Rent-charge then remaining unpaid, and the Expences occasioned by the Nonpayment thereof; and in default of such Payment, on demand, such Arrears of Rent-charge and Expences may be recovered from the Allotment Wardens liable to pay the same as Penalties are recoverable under this Act.

Allotment to the Lord of the Manor.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That after the several Allotments herein-before directed shall have been set out and made, and after making Provision for the Payment of the Expences by Sale of Land, in case the Expences shall be so directed to be paid, the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall allot and award unto the Lord of the Manor so much and such Part of the Land proposed to be inclosed as shall in the Judgment of the Valuer be equal (Quantity and Value considered) to such a Part of the Residue of such Land as shall be proportioned to his Right or Interest therein, according to the Directions of the Provisional Order of the Commissioners, in lieu of his Right and Interest in the Soil of the said Land, exclusive of any other Allotments which may be made to such Lord in lieu of or in satisfaction for any other Rights or Interests in such Land to which he may be entitled, and which shall not have been included in the Estimate in such Provisional Order of his Right and Interest; and in case it shall have been declared by such Provisional Order that the Right or Interest of the Lord has been estimated exclusively of his Right or Interest in all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under the Land to be inclosed, then the Valuer shall and may, on the Request in Writing of the Lord, reserve or award to the Lord such Rights and Easements for searching for, working, and carrying away such Mines, Minerals, Stone, or other Substrata which shall not have been included in such Estimate of his Right and Interest, subject to such Provisions for Compensation for Damage to be done to the Surface in the Exercise of such Rights and Easements, as by the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, shall be thought reasonable, and as shall not be inconsistent as to the Terms of such Provisional Order.

Allotment of Residue.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That after the several Allotments herein-before directed shall have been set out and made, and after making Provision for all or any Part of the Expences of the Inclosure by Sale of Lands, in case all or any Part of the Expences shall be so directed to be paid, the Valuer acting in the Matter of the Inclosure shall divide, allot, and award all the Remainder of the Land to be inclosed unto and amongst the several Persons who shall be interested therein, in such Shares and Proportions as he shall adjudge and determine to be proportionate to the Value of their respective Rights and Interests which shall have been claimed and allowed under the Provisions herein-before contained.

The Rent-charges payable out of Allotments for the labouring Poor to be allotted to Persons entitled under the Inclosure.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That where any Allotments shall be made for the labouring Poor, under the Provisions herein-before contained, subject to any Rent-charge or Rent-charges, such Rent-charge or Rent-charges may be allotted to any Person or Persons who may elect to receive the same in full or in part of his or their Allotment or Allotments, and in case no Person shall so elect to receive the same, then to such Persons and in such Shares as the Valuer may think convenient, for the Purpose of equalizing Allotments or otherwise; and it shall be lawful for the Valuer, for the Purposes of Allotment under this Clause, to estimate the Value in Fee Simple of every such Rent-charge to be Four Fifths only of the Value of an Allotment of Land equal in net annual Value to such Rent-charge.

Separate Allotments to be made in respect of separate Titles.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That when any Person to whom any Allotment shall be made or Land assigned in exchange by virtue of this Act shall hold such Land, or the Land in respect of which such Allotment or Exchange is made, under different Titles or for different Estates, and as to Copyhold or Customary Customary Land, by separate Quit Rents, the Valuer in the Matter of the Inclosure shall ascertain and distinguish the Land held for each of such Estates and under each of such Titles respectively, and shall accordingly set out distinct and several Allotments for such respective Lands, and distinguish the several Estates holden by several and distinct Quit Rents.

Several Allotments may by Consent be laid together.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That in case any Number of the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed shall desire to have their Allotments thrown together, and distinguished by Metes and Bounds, but not fenced from each other, and of such their Desire shall give Notice in Writing to the Valuer acting in the Inclosure, such Valuer shall set out the several Allotments of such Persons so giving Notice as aforesaid by Metes and Bounds, but in One Parcel of Land, and without requiring them to make any subdivision Fences or other Fences, save such ring or outer Fences as may be necessary, or as the Valuer may direct to be made, for dividing the said Parcel of Land from the Residue of the Land so to be inclosed.

Cultivated Land and Buildings to be allotted to the Proprietor.

LXXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Valuer to allot to any other Person than the Proprietor thereof any Land (other than Encroachments and Inclosures not authorized by Law, made within Twenty Years next before the First Meeting for the Examination of Claims, as aforesaid,) which may be cultivated as Orchard or Garden, or on which any Building may have been erected, or which may have been inclosed by virtue of any Agreement between the Proprietor thereof and the Persons having Right of Common over the same, without the Consent in Writing of such Proprietor.

Regard to be had to the Situation of Homesteads.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That the Valuer, in making the several Allotments hereby directed, shall have due Regard as well to the Situation of the respective Houses or Homesteads of the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed as to the Quantity and Quality of the Land to be allotted to them respectively, so far as may be consistent with the general Convenience of such Persons, and that such Valuer in making the said Allotments shall have particular Regard to the Convenience of the Persons interested in respect of the smallest Estates in the Land subject to be inclosed under this Act.

Allotments to be fenced.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That the several Allotments to be made, except the Allotments to the Surveyor and Churchwardens and Overseers respectively, and the other Allotments for public Purposes, shall be inclosed, ditched, and fenced at the Expence of the respective Persons to whom the same shall be allotted, in such Manner and within such Times as the Valuer shall direct; and the Fences so to be made shall for ever afterwards be repaired and maintained by such Persons as the Valuer shall direct; and if from the Situation or from any other Circumstance it shall happen that any Person to whom any Allotment shall be made shall not have a fair Proportion of the Boundary Ditches or Fences assigned to him to make, it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure to ascertain and appoint what Sum of Money shall be contributed by such Person towards making the Boundary Ditches and Fences of the Allotments of such other Persons as shall have assigned to them to make too great a Proportion thereof; and such Money shall be paid to such Persons and in such Manner as by the Valuer shall be directed, and the same may be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties or Forfeitures are recoverable under this Act.

If Interest in Land is sold before Allotment is made the Valuer to make the Allotment to the Purchaser.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That if at any Time before an Allotment shall have been made by the Valuer any Person shall sell his Right or Interest in the Land to be inclosed, or any Part thereof, to any Person, the Valuer shall, upon such Sale being certified to him in Writing by the Vendor, make an Allotment of Land to the Purchaser, or to his Heirs or Assigns, in respect of the Right or Interest so sold; and every such Purchaser, or his Heirs or Assigns, shall from the Confirmation of the Award hold and enjoy the Land so to be allotted to him in such Manner as the Vendor might or ought to have done in case such Sale had not been made; and it shall be lawful for any Person who shall be entitled to any Allotment under this Act to devise, convey, surrender, or otherwise assure the same Allotment, or all or any Part of his Interest therein, at any Time before the Confirmation of the Award; and every such Devise, Conveyance, Surrender, and Assurance shall be of the same Validity as if the same had been made after the Confirmation of the said Award; and it shall be lawful for any Person entitled to any Allotment to sell, dispose of, or convey the Estate in right of which he may be entitled to such Allotment separate from and retaining to himself such Allotment, or the Right thereto; and the Valuer is hereby required to award such Allotment accordingly.

Allotments to be made to Representatives of Parties dying.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person interested in any Inclosure under this Act shall die before the same shall have been completed, the Powers and Authorities hereby vested in the Commissioners, Assistant Commissioner, and Valuer shall not be thereby determined or suspended, but they shall proceed in the Execution of such Powers and Authorities in such Manner as they might have done in case such Person had not died; and the Allotment which might have been made to the Person so dying shall be made to such Person as by the Law shall become entitled to the same, and shall be accepted and fenced by such Party according to the Directions contained in the Award, and he shall be liable to the Charges and Expences and other Conditions of the Inclosure.

Old Inclosures may be allotted, with Consent.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, with the Consent in Writing of the Person interested in any old inclosed Lands, or Lands holden in Severalty, or otherwise not subject to be inclosed under the general Provisions herein-before contained, but within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed, or some Part thereof, shall be situate, or within some Parish adjoining thereto, to order and direct such old inclosed Lands or other Lands as last aforesaid to be considered as allottable, and Parcel of the Land to be inclosed; and such Allowance shall be made to the Person interested in such Lands, on account of the Situation or other beneficial Circumstances Circumstances thereof, as the Valuer shall adjudge to be just and reasonable; and he shall allot and award unto the Person so interested in such old inclosed Lands or other Lands as aforesaid so much and such Part of the Land to be inclosed as he shall think reasonable and just.

Allotments to Freemen and other Classes of Persons entitled to Common Rights to be made to Trustees.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That where the Freemen or Burgesses of any City or Borough, or the Householders or Inhabitant Householders of any Town or Place, or any Class or Description of such Freemen, Burgesses, Householders or Inhabitant Householders, or any other Persons as a Class, shall be entitled to Rights of Common or other Rights over the Lands to be inclosed, it shall be lawful for the Valuer to award in respect of such Rights One or more Allotment or Allotments, for the Benefit of the Class so entitled, to any Two or more Trustees, who shall be nominated by the Majority at such Meeting as herein-after mentioned, or in case Two or more Trustees shall not be nominated at such Meeting, then to such Trustees as the Commissioners shall approve, with Provisions for the Appointment of new Trustees from Time to Time, or to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish in which each Allotment shall be situate, in trust for the Parties entitled to the Right in respect of which the Allotment shall be made; and it shall be also lawful for the Valuer, having regard to such Instructions, if any, as may have been resolved on at such Meeting as hereafter mentioned, or to such Instructions as shall be given by the Commissioners in this Behalf, to direct in what Manner and under what Regulations such Allotment shall be occupied or enjoyed by the Persons from Time to Time entitled to the Benefit thereof, and (in case the Valuer, having regard to such Instructions, shall think fit,) to give Directions and Powers for the letting of such Allotment from Year to Year, or for any Term of Years, subject to such Provisions and Restrictions as the said Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, shall think fit, and for the Receipt of the Money to arise from such letting, and for the Application of such Money for the Benefit of the Persons entitled to the Benefit of the Allotment, and to give all such Directions and Provisions for the fencing, draining, and Management of such Allotment, as the Valuer may think expedient.

Power to sell such Allotments.

LXXXVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners and of such Meeting as herein-after mentioned, to sell and dispose of the whole or any Part of any Allotment to which any such Class of Persons as aforesaid shall be entitled under this Act; and the Allotment or any Part thereof so sold shall be conveyed by the Commissioners as the Purchaser shall direct, and the Commissioners shall sign a Receipt for the Purchase Money, which shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same; and the Purchase Money arising from the Sale, or the Surplus thereof after Payment thereout of any Expences to which the same shall be liable, shall, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, be paid to any Trustee or Trustees, upon trust for the Investment thereof, with Provisions for the Appointment of new Trustees from Time to Time, and for the Application of the Interest and annual Produce of such Investment to such Purposes, for the Benefit of the Persons who would have been entitled to such Allotment, or the Part thereof so sold, in case the same had not been sold, as the Commissioners shall approve, and by the final Award in the Matter of such Inclosure direct.

Application of Purchase Money.

Meeting of Persons so entitled for giving Instructions to Valuer.

LXXXIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That when the Claim of any Class of Persons entitled as aforesaid shall be allowed the Valuer shall certify such Allowance to the Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall call a Meeting of such Persons by Advertisement, for the Purpose of appointing Trustees of the Allotment to be made for their Benefit, and for giving Instructions to the Valuer concerning the Enjoyment, Occupation, and Management of such Allotment, or for letting the same, and for the Application of the Money to arise from such letting, or in case such Meeting shall think fit that such Allotment or any Part thereof shall be sold, for directing the Sale thereof, and the Investment of the Money arising from such Sale, and the Application of the Income thereof; and the Commissioners, having reference to the total Number of such Class (so far as the Valuer or the Commissioners may have ascertained the same), shall by such Notice declare the Number of Persons who should be present at such Meeting to give Validity to the Proceedings; and the Decision of the Majority of such Meeting shall bind the Minority and all absent Parties: Provided always, that no Meeting shall be effectual for the Purpose aforesaid unless such a Number of the said Persons shall attend the same as shall be mentioned in that Behalf in the Advertisement calling such Meeting; and if no effectual Meeting shall be held for the Purpose aforesaid, or, being held, no Instructions shall be resolved on by the Majority present at such Meeting, or in case the Commissioners shall deem such Instructions unjust or unreasonable, the Commissioners may give such Instructions to the Valuer in respect of the Matters aforesaid as they shall think fit; provided that no Sale of any such Allotment or any Part thereof shall be made except in pursuance of a Resolution of a Meeting called as aforesaid; but a Recital in the Conveyance by the Commissioners upon any Sale that such Sale was duly authorized shall for all Purposes of Title be Evidence that such Sale was made in pursuance of the Resolution of a Meeting duly called as aforesaid.

Partitions may be made.

XC. And be it enacted, That where any Persons interested in Land to be inclosed under this Act shall be so interested in undivided Shares, or as Joint Tenants, Coparceners, or Tenants in Common, it shall be lawful for the Valuer, upon the Request in Writing of any of the Persons so interested in undivided Shares, or as Joint Tenants, Coparceners, or Tenants in Common, to make Partition of the Lands or Allotments coming to such Persons so interested, and to allot the same to such Persons in Severalty; and immediately after the said Allotments shall be so made and declared the same shall be holden and enjoyed by the Persons to whom the same shall be allotted in Severalty, subject to the same Uses as such undivided undivided Share would have been subject to in case such Partition had not been made; and every such Partition shall be specified in the Award, and shall be valid and effectual to all Purposes.

Costs of Partition.

XCI. And be it enacted, That all Costs and Expences attending any Partition to be made by virtue of this Act shall be borne and defrayed by the several Proprietors of or Persons interested in the Estates which shall be so parted in such Manner and Proportions as the Valuer shall order, and in case of Nonpayment thereof shall be recovered in the Manner directed with respect to the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures.

Exchanges.

XCII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer to allot and award any Land to be inclosed in exchange for any other Land within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed shall be situate, or any adjoining Parish; and it shall be lawful for the Valuer, in exercise of this present Power, to allot all or any Part of the Land which would have been subject to be allotted under this Act for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, or for the labouring Poor, or for any other public Purposes, to any Person, in exchange for other Land in the Parish or in any adjoining Parish which shall appear to the Valuer more suitable or convenient for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, or for the labouring Poor, or for such other public Purposes as aforesaid, and to allot such other Land for such Purposes accordingly; and all Lands taken and allotted as aforesaid under this Provision, although not situate in the Parish in which the Land given in exchange for the same shall be situate, shall for the Purposes of the Provisions herein contained be deemed to be within such Parish, and be managed and dealt with accordingly; provided that all Exchanges under which Land shall be taken and allotted for public Purposes as aforesaid shall be made with the Consent of the Person interested in the Land so taken, and that all other Exchanges be made with the Consent in Writing of the Persons interested in the Lands so exchanged; and every such Exchange so to be made shall be valid and effectual to all Purposes, and shall be specified and declared in the Award: Provided also, that no Exchange shall be made of any Land held in right of any Church or Chapel or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, without the Consent, testified in Writing, of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Patron of such Benefice: Provided also, that all Costs and Expences attending the making and completing of any such Exchanges, except Exchanges of Land taken for public Purposes, shall be borne by the several Parties making such Exchanges in such Manner and in such Proportions as the Valuer shall direct, and in case of Nonpayment thereof shall be recovered in the Manner directed with respect to the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures; and the Expences of the Exchanges of Land taken for public Purposes shall be considered Part of the Expences of the Inclosure.

Wills and Settlements not to be affected.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to revoke, make void, or alter any Will, Settlement, Uses, or Trusts, or to prejudice any Person having any Right or Claim of Dower, Jointure, Annuity, Portion, Debt, Charge, Rent, or Incumbrance upon or affecting any of the Land to be inclosed, or which shall be exchanged or given in partition, in pursuance of this Act, but the Land allotted, and the Land given in exchange or partition, shall immediately after such Allotment, Exchange, or Partition be and enure, and the several Persons to whom the same shall be allotted or given in exchange or partition as aforesaid shall thenceforth stand and be seised and possessed thereof respectively to and for such and the same Estates, Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the several Lands, Rights, or undivided Shares thereof, in respect whereof such Allotments, Exchanges, and Partitions shall have been made would have stood limited to and for or been subject to in case the same had not been allotted, exchanged, or given in partition as aforesaid, and as if this Act had not been made, save and except such Leases and Tenancies at Rack Rents as shall become void by virtue of this Act, and any Joint Tenancy which may have been severed by Partition as aforesaid, and such Rights of Common and other Rights as are intended to be extinguished by the Inclosure, and subject nevertheless to all such Mortgages and Sales as shall be made by Authority of this Act.

Tenure of the Allotments.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That all such Land as shall be taken in exchange or on partition or be allotted by virtue of this Act shall be held by the Person to whom it shall be given in exchange or on partition or allotted under the same Tenures, Rents, Customs, and Services as the Land in respect of which such Land shall have been given in exchange or on partition or allotted would have been held in case no such Exchange, Partition, or Inclosure had been made; and the Land taken in exchange or on partition or allotted in respect of Freehold shall be deemed Freehold; and the Land taken in exchange or on partition or allotted in respect of Copyhold or Customary Land shall be deemed Copyhold or Customary Land, and shall be held of the Lord of the same Manor under the same Rent and by the same Customs and Services as the Copyhold or Customary Land in respect of which it may have been taken in exchange or on partition or allotted was or ought to have been held, and shall pass in like Manner as the Copyhold or Customary Land in respect whereof such Exchanges, Partitions, or Allotments shall be made, and as to Copyhold or Customary Allotments without any new Admittance in respect of the Lands taken or allotted respectively; and the Land given in exchange or on partition or allotted in respect of Leasehold Land shall in like Manner be deemed Leasehold, and shall be held under the same Rents and Covenants as the Land in respect of which it may have been allotted was held, and the Remainder or Reversion thereof shall be vested in the same Lessor respectively as the Remainder or Reversion of such other Land was vested before the Exchange, Partition, or Allotment, except where otherwise particularly directed by this Act.

Leases at Rack Rent may be voided.

XCV. And be it enacted, That immediately after the Allotments herein directed to be made on any Inclosure shall have been marked and staked out the Valuer acting in the Matter of such Inclosure may direct direct the same to be entered upon by the Persons respectively for whom the same shall be intended; and immediately after the Valuer shall so direct them to be entered upon, all Leases, Agreements, and Tenancies at Rack Rent subsisting of any Part of the Land to be inclosed, or which shall be exchanged in pursuance of this Act, or any Common Right thereon, shall, so far only as respects the Land to be divided and allotted or exchanged, or Common Right, cease and be void at such Time or Times as the Valuer shall by Writing under his Hand direct or appoint, so as the respective Lessors or Landlords of such Land do, before or at the respective Times at which such Leases, Agreements, or Tenancies shall be directed to cease, make and pay such Satisfaction to the respective Lessees or Tenants, for the Loss which shall be sustained by the Determination of such Leases, Agreements, and Tenancies respectively, so far as regards the Land or Common Right the Leases, Agreements, and Tenancies whereof are hereby authorized to be determined, as shall be mutually settled and agreed between them, or as the Valuer, being required by either of the Parties, shall ascertain and direct; and the Valuer, being so required, is hereby empowered and directed, by Writing under his Hand, to apportion a reasonable and proportionable Part, having regard to the Season of the Year, of the Rent reserved on any such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy, for or in respect of the Time which shall have elapsed between the last Day on which any Payment of the Rent shall have become due and the Determination of any such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy, and such Part of the Rent shall be recoverable by such Ways and Means as may by Law be used for the Recovery of Rent in arrear; and the Valuer is hereby empowered and directed, in every Case where such Land or Common Right shall be held by virtue of any such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy, together with other Lands or Hereditaments, by One entire Rent, by Writing under his Hand to apportion and determine what Part of such Rent shall be deducted in respect of the Land or Common Right in such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy comprised as to which the same shall be determined as aforesaid, and from what Time such Deduction shall take place, and the rest of the Rent reserved on any such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy shall during the Remainder of the Term thereof be the Rent of and for the Residue of such Lands and Hereditaments, and shall be payable and recoverable in like Manner as the entire Rent reserved by such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy shall immediately before such Apportionment be payable and recoverable; and the Lessor or Reversioner shall in respect of such apportioned Rent, and in respect of the Residue of such Lands and Hereditaments, have the Benefit and Advantage of the Provisoes and Conditions which would have been applicable to the entire Rent, and to all the Lands and Hereditaments comprised in such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy, in case such Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy had not been determined as to any Part of such Land: Provided always, that no Lease, Agreement, or Tenancy shall be determined as aforesaid as to any House, Cottage, or other Building without Three Calendar Months previous Notice in Writing of such Determination, under the Hand of the Valuer, shall have been given to the Lessee or Tenant, or left at such House, Cottage, or Building.

Seigniories not affected, except with Consent.

XCVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Case all Seigniories, Royalties, Franchises, and Manorial Jurisdictions whatsoever in or upon the Land to be inclosed under this Act shall not be deemed to be compensated or extinguished, but shall be saved and excepted out of the Operation of this Act, unless in and by the Award it shall be declared, with the Consent of the Lord or respective Lords interested therein, that such Seigniories, Franchises, Royalties, and Jurisdictions shall be extinguished upon the proposed Inclosure.

Minerals under regulated Pastures may be reserved, while Minerals under Lands to be held in Severalty are relinquished.

XCVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Case in which, under the Provisions herein-after contained, Part of the Land subject to be inclosed under this Act shall be converted into and used as a regulated Pasture, and the Residue thereof shall be divided and allotted in Severalty, it shall be lawful for the Valuer, having regard to the Right of the Lord of the Manor, as the same shall have been ascertained and declared by the Provisional Order of the Commissioners, and with the Consent of the Lord of the Manor and a Majority in Value of the other Persons interested in the Lands proposed to be inclosed, to direct that the Rights of the Lord of the Manor in and to all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under such Part of the Land as shall be converted into and used as a regulated Pasture shall be reserved to the Lord, and that all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under the Residue to be divided and allotted in Severalty shall become the Property of the Owners of the respective Allotments, and that the Allotments be adjusted accordingly.

Right to Minerals under Land inclosed existing distinct from the Property in the Surface, and not compensated upon Inclosure, not to be affected.

XCVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in every Case in which the Right to all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata under any Land inclosed under this Act shall exist as Property distinct and separate from the Property in the Surface, and shall not be compensated upon the Inclosure, the Right and Property in such Mines, Minerals, Stone, or other Substrata, and all Rights and Easements auxiliary to or connected with the Exercise or Enjoyment of the Right and Property in such Mines, Minerals, Stone, or other Substrata, shall be in nowise affected by the Inclosure; and in case any Mines, Minerals, Stone, or other Substrata under any Land inclosed under this Act, or the Right of searching for or getting the same, shall have been leased or agreed to be leased to any Person as Property distinct and separate from the Property in the Surface, with or without Powers over the Surface of the Land auxiliary to the Purposes of such Lease, the Rights of the Lessee or Tenant under such Lease or Agreement shall be in nowise affected by the Inclosure.

Trees to be allotted with the Land.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That the Timber Trees and other Trees and Underwood standing and growing upon any Land to be inclosed shall be allotted and go along with the Land whereon they respectively stand, and shall be deemed the Property of the several Persons to whom the same Land shall be respectively allotted, such Person paying to the Owner of such Trees and Underwood such Sums of Money Money for the same, and at such Time or Times and Place or Places, as the Valuer shall by Writing under his Hand direct; but if the Parties who are to make such respective Payments shall neglect or refuse to make the same accordingly, then it shall be lawful to and for the respective Parties who shall be entitled to have and receive such Payments to enter on the said Lands, and cut down, take, and carry away to their own Use the said Trees and Underwood in respect of which the said Payments were respectively to be made to them, at any seasonable Time or Times within One Year next after such Neglect or Default, doing as little Damage on the Land as may be.

Cattle not to be depastured on Roads.

C. And be it enacted, That no Person shall graze or keep any Horse, Beast, Cattle, Sheep, or Swine upon any of the Roads or Ways which the Valuer shall order to be set out, and which shall be fenced on both Sides, for the Space of Seven Years next after the Execution of the Award; and every Owner of Land to be inclosed, his Servants and Labourers, and also every Peace Officer and Parish Officer of the Parish in which the Land shall be situate, for the Time being, is hereby empowered to take and impound any such Horse, Beast, Cattle, Sheep, or Swine which shall be found so grazing as aforesaid, as Cattle Damage feasant: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Proprietors of the Land which shall next adjoin the private Roads and Ways from depasturing their Cattle thereon so far as the Frontage of their respective Land extends.

Alteration may be made in Allotments.

CI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Valuer acting in any Inclosure, at any Time before the Confirmation of the Award, with the Approbation or by the Direction of the Commissioners, to make any Alterations which he may think right and expedient in the Allotments or in the Fences which he may have set out and ordered, or in the private Roads he may have set out, or in any of the Orders or Directions relating thereto which he may have made in the Matter of such Inclosure; and in case any Person shall be injured by any such Alteration, on account of any Expences he may have incurred or otherwise, the Valuer shall ascertain and determine what Recompence shall be made to him for such Injury, and shall either pay the Amount thereof out of the Monies raised for the Expence of the Inclosure, or shall direct by whom and in what Manner such Recompence shall be made; and in case of Nonpayment thereof the same shall be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are recoverable under this Act.

Valuer to draw up a Report and annex thereto a Map of the Claims.

CII. And be it enacted, That the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the Division and Allotment of the Land to be inclosed shall be completed, draw up a Report in Writing, with a Map thereunto annexed, which shall specify all the Claims allowed, and all the Allotments, Exchanges, and Partitions made in the Matter of such Inclosure, and all Roads, Ways, and Works set out or directed to be made by the said Valuer; and such Report shall contain all such Particulars in relation to such Allotments, Roads, Ways, and Works as are by this Act directed, and all such other Directions and Determinations authorized by this Act as the said Valuer shall think proper for the Purposes of the Inclosure; and the Map to be annexed to such Report shall comprise and show the Land to be inclosed and the Lands exchanged, and also the Lands in respect of which any Allotments of the Land inclosed shall have been made, and shall distinguish by proper References the Allotments made in respect of the several Lands respectively, and such other Particulars as the Commissioners shall by any general or special Instructions in relation to such Report direct the Valuer to set forth therein; and such Report shall be signed by the Valuer, and shall, together with the Map thereunto annexed, be sent to the Office of the Commissioners.

Report to be deposited for Inspection.

CIII. And be it enacted, That as soon as the Report of the Valuer shall have been sent to the Commissioners they shall cause a Copy of the same to be deposited at some convenient Place within the Parish in which the Land to be inclosed, or some Part thereof, shall be situate, for the Inspection of all Persons interested in such Land, and shall forthwith cause Notice to be given where the said Copy may be inspected, and shall also in such Notice appoint some convenient Place, and such Times as they shall think necessary (the first not earlier than Twenty-one Days from the first giving of such Notice), for holding a Meeting to hear Objections to any Allotment, Direction, Determination, or Matter in the Report; and the Commissioners or some Assistant Commissioner at such Meeting as aforesaid shall hear and determine any Objections which may be then and there made to any such Allotment, Direction, Determination, or Matter by any Person interested therein, or adjourn the further Hearing thereof, if they or he shall think proper, to a future Meeting, and may, if they or he shall see occasion, direct any further Valuation or Survey of the Land or any Part thereof, and take such other Measures for ascertaining the Justice and Propriety of the Determinations and Directions of the Valuer, as to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall seem proper, and from Time to Time, if they or he shall see occasion, fix further Meetings for the hearing and determining of Objections, of which further Meetings, when not holden by Adjournment, Notice shall be given in manner herein-before directed with regard to the original Meeting; and when the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall have heard and determined all such Objections, and made such Inquiries as the Commissioners shall think fit in relation thereto, the Commissioners shall approve such Report, or cause the Allotments, Directions, Determinations, and Matters therein mentioned, or any of them, to be amended, as they shall see occasion.

Award to be drawn up by the Valuer.

CIV. And be it enacted, That after such Proceedings as aforesaid shall have been had, and all such Objections to such Report (if any) shall have been finally disposed of, and such Amendments (if any) shall have been made in the Allotments, Directions, and Matters therein contained as aforesaid, the Valuer, under the Direction of the Commissioners, shall cause to be drawn up and engrossed on Parchment the Award in the Matter of such Inclosure, which shall be signed by the Valuer, and shall describe the Boundaries, if any, which shall have been ascertained and set out under the Provisions herein-before contained, tained, and shall contain or set forth the Report of the Valuer, or the Allotments, Exchanges, Partitions, Directions, and Matters contained in such Report, if so approved as aforesaid, or such Allotments, Exchanges, Directions, and Matters therein contained as the same shall have been amended as aforesaid, and shall contain a Declaration whether all or any and which of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata shall or shall not have been included in the Estimate of the Right and Interest of the Lord in the Soil (in respect of which any Allotment shall have been made to him), and the Valuer shall annex to such Engrossment the Map referred to by such Report; and the Commissioners shall confirm such Award, with the Date of such Confirmation thereunto annexed, under their Hands and Seal.

and confirmed by the Commissioners.

Confirmation of Award to be conclusive Evidence that the Directions of this Act have been obeyed.

CV. And be it enacted, That such Confirmation as aforesaid shall be conclusive Evidence that all the Directions of this Act in relation to such Award, and to every Allotment, Exchange, Partition, and Matter therein set forth and contained, which ought to have been obeyed and performed previously to such Confirmation, shall have been obeyed and performed; and no such Award shall be impeached by reason of any Mistake or Informality therein, or in any Proceeding relating thereunto, or on account of any Want of any Notices or Consents required by this Act, or on account of Defects or Omissions in any previous Proceeding whatever in the Matter of the Inclosure; and every Allotment, Exchange, Partition, Direction, Matter, and Thing specified and set forth in such Award as aforesaid shall be binding and conclusive on all Persons whomsoever.

Allotments to be in compensation of previous Rights.

CVI. And be it enacted, That the several Allotments which shall upon any Inclosure under this Act be allotted to the several Persons who shall be entitled to the same shall when so allotted be and be taken to be in full Bar of and Satisfaction and Compensation for their several and respective Lands, Rights of Common, and all other Rights and Properties whatsoever, not excepted or reserved by this Act or by the Award in the Matter of such Inclosure, which they respectively had or were entitled to in and over the said Lands immediately before such Inclosure; and that from and immediately after the Confirmation of the Award by the Commissioners, or at such earlier Time as the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, shall by Notice on the Church Door direct, all Rights of Common, and all Rights whatever by the Inclosure intended to be extinguished, belonging to or claimed by any Person whomsoever, in or upon such Lands shall cease, determine, and be for ever extinguished.

Allotments may be subdivided by supplemental Order.

CVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any Award, so confirmed as aforesaid, shall not have distinguished the several Tenures of any of the Lands therein mentioned, or the different Estates or Titles for or under which the same shall be held, or shall have set out and awarded an aggregate Allotment in any Case in which there should have been set out and awarded several and distinct Allotments, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, at any Time within Two Years after the Confirmation of the Award, upon Request in Writing to them made by any Person interested in any such aggregate Allotment, to do all such Acts as may be necessary for supplying such Omission, and for subdividing such aggregate Allotment, and for that Purpose to examine Witnesses, and proceed as if the said Award had not been confirmed, and by any Order or Instrument under their Hands and Seal to subdivide any aggregate Allotment into separate Allotments, and to distinguish and set out the Allotments and Lands held by different Tenures, and also the Allotments and Lands held by, for, or under different Estates or Titles respectively, in the same Manner as by this Act is authorized and required to be done in Cases where such Allotments and Lands are directed to be ascertained, distinguished, and set out by the Valuer; and every such separate Instrument shall have the same Power and Effect as if it were contained in the said Award; and such Instrument shall be ingrossed, and deposited with the Award, and shall thenceforth be deemed to be Part thereof to all Intents and Purposes; and all the Expences which shall be reasonably incurred in or about any such subsequent Inquiry or separate Instrument as aforesaid, and the Engrossment thereof, shall be paid by the Party who shall have requested the Commissioners to make and execute the same, or by his Executors or Administrators.

Allotment for the labouring Poor shall be managed by the Allotment Wardens.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That the Allotment which upon any Inclosure under this Act shall be made for the labouring Poor shall be under the Management of the Incumbent of the Parish or ecclesiastical District in which such Allotment shall be situate (or the officiating Minister for the Time being nominated by the Incumbent for that Purpose), the Churchwarden, if there be but One, or (if there be more than One) One of the Churchwardens for the Time being of such Parish, and Two other Persons who shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor in such Parish; and such Churchwarden, where there is more than One Churchwarden, shall be yearly named, and such Two other Persons shall be yearly chosen and appointed, at the same Time, and by the same Persons, and in the same Manner, as the Overseers of the Poor for such Parish shall be chosen and appointed, and shall continue in Office in like Manner until the next Appointment of Overseers, or until others are named and chosen and appointed in their Stead; and such Incumbent (or officiating Minister), Churchwarden, and Two other Persons for the Time being shall be styled "The Allotment Wardens" of the Parish, and shall manage and let the said Allotment as herein-after provided, and all things by this Act authorized to be done by such Allotment Wardens may be done by any Two of them, and in the event of the Death or Retirement from Office of any One or more of the said Allotment Wardens the surviving or continuing Wardens may act as if no such Vacancy had happened.

CIX. And be it enacted, That the Allotment Wardens shall from Time to Time let the Allotment under their Management in Gardens not exceeding a Quarter of an Acre each to such poor Inhabitants of the Parish for One Year, or from Year to Year, at such Rents, payable at such Times, and on such Terms and Conditions, not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, as they shall think fit: Provided always, that the Commissioners may frame such Regulations, not inconsistent with the Provisions of the Act,

Act, for the letting of such Allotments as aforesaid, as they may think advisable, and such Regulations shall be obligatory on the Allotment Wardens during Five Years from the Date thereof or during such shorter Period as the Commissioners shall direct: Provided also, that the Gardens so to be let shall be let free of all Tithe or Tithe Rent-charge (if any), Rates, Taxes, and Assessments whatsoever, and shall before the first letting thereof, and once at least in every Ten Years after such first letting, be valued by a competent Person to be appointed by the Allotment Wardens for that Purpose, who shall estimate the full Rent which the same would be worth to be let by the Year for Farming Purposes, all Tithes or Tithe Rent-charge, Rates, Taxes, and Assessments, being borne by the Landlord, and shall verify such Valuation by solemn Declaration under the Statute; and the Rent at which the same Gardens respectively shall be let shall be not below the full yearly Value of the Land according to the last of such Valuations; and the Allotment Wardens shall, for the Purposes of all Rates and Taxes, be deemed the Occupiers of such Allotment, and shall pay all Rates and Taxes, Tithes and Tithe Rent-charge (if any), in respect thereof: Provided always, that no Building whatsoever shall, under any such letting as aforesaid or otherwise, on any Pretence, be erected for or used as a Dwelling on any such Garden or on any Part of any such Allotment; and in case any such Building shall be erected or used as aforesaid contrary to this Provision, the Allotment Wardens shall forthwith pull down the same, and sell and dispose of the Materials thereof, and the Produce of such Sale shall be applicable in like Manner as the Rents of such Gardens.

Recovery of Gardens on Nonpayment of Rent, &c.

CX. And be it enacted, That if the Rent reserved upon the letting of any Garden by the Allotment Wardens shall at any Time be in arrear for Forty Days, or if at any Time during the Tenancy, being not less than Three Calendar Months after the Commencement thereof, it shall appear to the Allotment Wardens that the Occupier of such Garden shall not have duly observed the Terms and Conditions of his Tenancy, or shall have gone to reside more than One Mile out of the Parish, then and in every such Case the Allotment Wardens shall serve a Notice upon such Occupier, or in case he shall have gone to reside out of the Parish shall affix the same to the Door of the Church of the Parish, determining the Tenancy at the Expiration of One Month after such Notice shall have been so served or affixed, and thereupon such Tenancy shall be determined accordingly: Provided always, that in every such Case the Allotment Wardens or their incoming Tenant shall pay to the Occupier whose Tenancy shall have been so determined a fair Recompence in Money for any Crops (not being Crops prohibited by the Terms of such Tenancy) which may be growing on such Garden at the Time of such Determination, and for any Manure left on such Garden, or any Benefit accruing from the manuring of such Garden to the Wardens or their incoming Tenant; and the Justices to whom Application may be made for a Warrant to give Possession of such Garden shall settle the Amount of such Recompence, in case the Parties differ about the same, and stay the Execution of such Warrant until the same shall have been paid or tendered, or (in case such Occupier be absent) until the Payment thereof shall have been secured to the Satisfaction of such Justices.

1 & 2 Vict. c. 74.

CXI. And be it enacted, That in case upon the Determination of any such Tenancy as aforesaid the Occupier of any such Garden shall refuse to quit and deliver up Possession thereof, or if any other Person shall unlawfully enter upon, take, or hold Possession of any such Garden, or of any Part of such Allotment, the Allotment Wardens may recover Possession according to the Mode prescribed by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to facilitate the Recovery of Possession of Tenements after due Determination of the Tenancy, in such and the same Manner as if the said Wardens were Landlords or a Landlord, and as if such over-holding Occupier or other Person were a Tenant neglecting or refusing to quit and deliver up Possession, within the Meaning of the last-mentioned Act.

Rents of Allotment how to be applied.

CXII. And be it enacted, That all Rents payable in respect of the Allotment under the Management of the Allotment Wardens shall be payable to such Wardens, who shall have the same Remedies for Recovery thereof by Distress and otherwise as if the legal Estate of and in such Allotment were vested in them under this Act; and such Rents shall be applicable, in the first place, to the Payment of all Rates, Taxes, Tithes, Tithe Rent-charge, and of the Rent-charge charged on such Allotment under the Provisions of this Act, and of all Expences incurred by the Allotment Wardens in the Execution of their Trusts and Powers under this Act; and the Residue, if any, of such Rents, shall be paid to the Overseers of the Poor, in aid of the Poor Rates of the Parish, and be applicable in the same Manner as and subject to all the Provisions concerning the Monies assessed for the Relief of the Poor.

Regulated Pastures may be set out.

CXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, on the Application in Writing of Persons interested in any Land which shall be directed to be inclosed under this Act whose Interest shall exceed in Value One Half of the whole Interest in such Land (such Application to be made at any Time before the Instructions to the Valuer shall have been delivered to him under the Seal of the Commissioners, as herein-before provided), to direct such Land or any Part thereof to be converted into and used as a regulated Pasture, to be stocked and depastured in common by the Persons interested therein, in proportion to their respective Rights and Interests as the same shall be determined on the Examination of Claims; and in case Part of such Land only shall be so directed to be stocked and depastured in common, the Valuer shall, subject to the Instructions which shall be given to him under the Provisions of this Act, ascertain and set out the Part which shall be so used as a regulated Pasture, and shall direct how and at whose Expence the same shall be fenced and divided from the Residue of such Land; and the Valuer acting in the Matter of such Inclosure shall, in every Case where Land shall be so directed to be used as a regulated Pasture, ascertain and allot the respective Stints or Rights

Rights of Pasturage (specifying the respective Numbers of the respective Kinds of Stock or Animals to be admitted to the Pasture in respect of such respective Stints or Rights of Pasturage, with such Option as to equivalent Numbers of the respective Kinds of Stock and Animals as he shall think just, and, if he shall think fit, specifying the Time during which such Stock or Animals may be kept on the Pasture,) as he shall adjudge and determine to be proportionate to the Value of the respective Rights and Interests of the Persons interested as aforesaid; and the Commissioners may frame such Directions as they shall think fit for guiding the Valuer in the correct Specification of such Stints or Rights: Provided always, that in every Case in which Part only of the Land subject to be inclosed under this Act shall be so directed to be used as a regulated Pasture, and the Residue thereof to be divided and allotted in Severalty, it shall be lawful for such Valuer, having regard to the Convenience of the Persons interested in such Land, to award to any such Person either a Stint or Right of Pasture or an Allotment in Severalty only, or both a Stint or Right of Pasture and an Allotment in Severalty, so as such Stint or Right only, or such Allotment only, or (as the Case may be) such Stint or Right and Allotment together, be in the Judgment of the Valuer proportionate to the Right and Interest in respect of which the same shall be awarded: Provided also, that in any Case in which it shall appear to the Valuer that the proportionate Right or Interest of any Person is too small to be conveniently compensated by a Stint or Right of Pasture, or that it is not practicable wholly to compensate such Person by a Stint or Right of Pasture, and the Circumstances of the Inclosure will not admit, in the Judgment of the Valuer, of an Adjustment or Compensation by an Allotment in Severalty, it shall be lawful for such Valuer, for the Purpose of Compensation or Adjustment, to direct a Sum of Money to be paid to such Person in lieu of or (as the Case may require) in addition to the Award of a Right of Pasture or Stint; and such Sum of Money shall be paid out of the Monies applicable to the Payment of the Expences of the Inclosure.

Conversion into regulated Pasture to be deemed an Inclosure.

CXIV. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions and Powers herein-before contained in relation to public and private Roads, Ways, and Works, and all other the Powers, Provisions, and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, applicable to the Case of an Inclosure under this Act, and the Provisions and Directions concerning Examination of Claims, and the rehearing thereof, and the Report of the Valuer, and the Amendment of the Matter thereof, and the Award, and the Confirmation and Effect of the Award, shall be applicable to the Case where the Land subject to be inclosed shall be directed to be used as a regulated Pasture; and the Word "Inclosure" shall in every Case in this Act where the Context is not repugnant to such Construction include the Conversion of Land subject to be inclosed into such regulated Pasture, and the Proceedings in relation thereto.

Rule of rating to be established.

CXV. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which Land shall be directed to be converted into and used as regulated Pasture under this Act the Valuer acting in the Matter of the Inclosure shall determine and direct the proportionate Shares or aliquot Parts which the respective Owners for the Time being of the several Stints or Rights of Pasture shall be liable to pay of any Sum of Money which shall be raised by way of Rate on such Owners under the Provisions of this Act; and such Determination and Direction, in case the same shall be approved, or as the same may be amended by the Commissioners, shall be for ever after observed in every Rate to be made under the Provisions of this Act, and shall be the Rule also according to which the proportionate Values of the Stints shall be determined in taking the Votes of the Owners of Stints under the Provisions herein-after contained.

Property of Soil of regulated Pastures.

CXVI. And be it enacted, That the Right of Soil of and in all Land which shall be converted into regulated Pastures shall, subject to the Right of the Lord of the Manor to all or any of the Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata, where the same shall be reserved to him under this Act, and to the other Rights given or reserved by this Act and the Award in the Matter of such Inclosure, be vested in the Persons who under the Directions and Determinations of such Award shall be the Owners of the Stints or Rights of Pasture therein, in proportion to the Shares or aliquot Parts which such Stints shall be thereby declared liable to of any Rate under this Act, as Tenants in Common.

Election of Field Reeves.

CXVII. And be it enacted, That where any Land shall have been converted into a regulated Pasture under the Provisions of this Act a Meeting shall be called by the Commissioners of the Owners of the Stints or Rights of Pasture, at such Time after the Confirmation of the Award as the Commissioners shall by Notice on the Church Door appoint; and the major Part in Value of such Owners present by themselves, or their Agent authorized in this Behalf, at such Meeting, shall elect a fit Person or Persons to be Field Reeve or Reeves of such regulated Pasture; and every Field Reeve so to be elected as aforesaid, or to be elected or re-elected at any subsequent Meeting, shall continue in Office until the Expiration of Fifteen Days after the Day of the annual Meeting of such Owners then next following, and no longer, unless he shall be re-elected at such annual Meeting; and such Owners shall ever after such First Meeting meet for the Election of a Field Reeve or Field Reeves on the First Monday in February in every Year; and the Owners assembled at such Meetings shall from Time to Time fix, increase, or diminish the Salary or Payment to be made to every such Field Reeve, and may appoint or authorize any Field Reeve to appoint and employ Herds and Assistants, as such Owners may think fit; and any such Field Reeve may be removed by Four Fifths in Value of the Owners of Stints present by themselves or their Agents authorized in this Behalf at any Meeting called for the Purpose by Fourteen Days Notice on the Church Door under the Hands of any Two such Owners of Stints; and in case any such Field Reeve shall die while he shall hold such Office, or shall be removed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Majority in Value of Owners of Stints or Pastures present as aforesaid at any Meeting which upon such Vacancy any Two Owners may call by Fourteen Days Notice on the Church Door to appoint a Field Reeve

Reeve in his Place, who shall hold the Office until the Expiration of Fifteen Days after the then next annual Meeting; and a Certificate in Writing under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices of the Peace of the Election of any Field Reeve (which Certificate any Two Justices of the Peace are authorized, if they think fit, to give, on the Request and upon the Declaration of any Owner of such Stints as the Agent of any such Owner present at the Meeting at which the Election shall have taken place,) shall in all Matters and Proceedings whatsoever in which any Acts done by any Field Reeve in the Execution of his Office shall be in question be Evidence that he was duly appointed Field Reeve.

Duties of Field Reeves.

CXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Field Reeve or Reeves for the Time being of every such regulated Pasture shall, subject to such Orders and Instructions in Writing as may from Time to Time be agreed on by the Majority in Value of the Owners of such Stints as aforesaid, at their yearly Meetings, regulate the Times in each Year during which Stock or Animals shall be admitted to and excluded from such regulated Pasture, and shall maintain and keep in order the Fences, Gates, Ditches, Drains, Watercourses, Embankments, Jetties, and Weirs, or make any new Fences, Gates, Ditches, Drains, Watercourses, Embankments, Jetties, or Weirs, and do all Works necessary for the Maintenance and Improvement and good Order of such regulated Pasture, and shall and may distrain all Stock and Animals found thereon contrary to the Regulations of such Pasture, and do all other Acts for the Maintenance and Improvement of such regulated Pasture, and the convenient Use and Occupation thereof, as the Field Reeve or Reeves, subject to such Instructions as aforesaid, may think fit; and where there shall be any Buildings on such regulated Pasture, or where the Majority in Value of the Owners of Stints at any yearly Meeting shall direct that any Buildings for the Shelter or Stall-feeding of Stock or Animals be erected thereon, such Field Reeve or Reeves shall or may maintain and keep in repair such Buildings, or cause such Buildings to be erected, in pursuance of such Direction, and let the same from Year to Year, or, under such Instructions as aforesaid, for any Term of Years, and shall receive the Rents thereof; and such Rents shall be applicable, in the first place, to the same Purposes as the Rates hereinafter authorized to be raised on the Owners of Stints are made applicable, and the Residue (if any) shall be paid to the Owners of Stints in proportion to the respective Liability of their Stints to such Rates.

Provision for rateable Increase or Diminution of Rights.

CXIX. And be it enacted, That when it shall appear to the Majority in Value of the Owners of Stints present at any annual Meeting that the Condition of the Pasture would admit of an Increase of the respective Rights of Pasture thereon, or would require a Diminution of such respective Rights, it shall be lawful for such Majority of the Owners so present to direct that the respective Number of Stock or Animals to be admitted to the Pasture in respect of the several Rights be increased, or, as the Case may be, diminished, rateably, to such Extent as they shall think fit: Provided always, that in case it shall happen that the Right of any such Owner shall not be sufficient to admit of a rateable Increase or Diminution, such annual Money Payment shall be made to such Owner in lieu of Increase of his Right, or, as the Case may be, charged on such Owner in lieu of the Diminution of his Right, as such Majority shall award, or in case the Person to or on whom such Money Payment shall be awarded or charged shall think the Sum awarded insufficient, or the Sum charged excessive, then as any Two Justices of the Peace shall, upon the Complaint of such Person, and after Summons of the Field Reeve or One of the Field Reeves of such Pasture (which may be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act), and on hearing in a summary Way the Matter in difference, think reasonable and order to be paid; and such Order may be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act; and every such Money Payment payable in lieu of Increase of Right shall be paid annually by the Field Reeve out of the Monies raised by the Rate made for the Expences of such regulated Pasture; and the Money charged on any such Owner shall be recoverable as a Rate on Owners of Stints is hereby made recoverable; and all annual Payments payable as aforesaid shall be payable on the First Monday in February in every Year.

Expences to be raised by Rate.

CXX. And be it enacted, That all Salaries and Allowances to Field Reeves and other Persons, and all Expences in and about the Management of every such regulated Pasture, and the Repairs and Erection of Buildings thereon, under the Directions of such Meetings of Owners as aforesaid, and all other Expences of such regulated Pasture, shall be paid and defrayed by the Owners of the respective Stints therein; and for that Purpose it shall be lawful for the Field Reeve or One of the Field Reeves, under the Directions of any such Meeting of Owners, from Time to Time to make a Rate on the respective Owners for such Sum as the Majority of Owners present at such Meeting shall think requisite; and every such Rate shall be apportioned and paid by the Owners according to the Rule of Rating established for such regulated Pasture, and shall be paid to the Field Reeve, on demand thereof, and in case the same shall not be paid within Fourteen Days after demand thereof, shall be recoverable by Distress; and it shall be lawful for any Field Reeve to exclude from such regulated Pasture the Stock or Animals of any Owner or his Tenant whose Proportion of the Rate shall be in arrear and unpaid for Fourteen Days after demand thereof, until the Proportion of such Rate so in arrear shall be fully paid; and any such Demand or Distress may be made of or on the Occupier of any such Stint as if the Occupier were the Owner liable to the Payment of such Rate, and such Rate may be paid by any such Occupier on demand thereof, and the Money so paid by such Occupier shall be deemed a Payment on account of his Rent, and shall be allowed by his Landlord accordingly.

Power to apply the Act to Pastures already stinted.

CXXI. And be it enacted, That where any Land shall be already occupied as a Gated or Stinted Pasture, and any of the Persons interested in such Gated or Stinted Pasture whose Interests shall not be less in Value than Two Thirds of the whole Interest therein shall be desirous that such Gated or Stinted Pasture should be subject to the Provisions of this Act concerning regulated Pastures, without being subject to the other Provisions concerning Lands subject to be inclosed under this Act, and shall make Application

Application in Writing to the Commissioners to take Proceedings for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, after making such Inquiries as may appear to them necessary, to cause to be ascertained by any Valuer to be appointed or approved by the Commissioners for that Purpose the proportionate Rights and Interests of the several Persons interested in such Pasture, and also the respective Rights of Pasture to which, having reference to the Productiveness of such Gated or Stinted Pasture, the several Persons interested therein may, in the Judgment of such Valuer, be entitled; and such Valuer shall determine and direct, as herein-before mentioned, the proportionate Liability to Rates under this Act of the Occupiers of Stints or Rights of Pasture, and in like Manner as in case of the Conversion into regulated Pasture of Land subject to be inclosed upon an Inclosure under this Act; and the Commissioners shall hear, or cause to be heard by an Assistant Commissioner, any Objections to the Determinations of Claims by and to the Report of the Valuer respectively, and approve or amend such Determinations and such Report respectively as they shall think fit; and the Valuer, under the Direction or with the Approval of the Commissioners, shall frame and cause to be ingrossed an Award setting forth such Draft Award, and the Matter of such Report, and the Commissioners shall confirm the same, with the Date of the Confirmation, under their Hands and Seal; and from and after the Confirmation of such Award such Gated and Stinted Pasture shall be subject to all the Provisions herein contained concerning Land subject to be inclosed, converted into and used as regulated Pasture, and shall be rateable under such Provisions, according to the Rule of Rating as set forth in such Award; and such Award shall be as binding and conclusive as if the same had been made and confirmed on an Inclosure under this Act.

Expences of Application of Act to Pastures already stinted.

CXXII. And be it enacted, That all the Expences of or attending the Proceedings for subjecting Lands already used as Gated or Stinted Pasture to the Provisions of this Act, concerning Lands subject to be inclosed, converted into or used as regulated Pasture, shall be paid and borne by the Persons interested therein, in proportion to their respective Liabilities to Rates under this Act, according to the Rule of Rating established in respect of such Gated or Stinted Pasture under this Act, and shall be paid at such Time and Place and to such Persons as the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, signified by Writing under their Hands and Seal, shall direct, and shall be recoverable in such and the same Manner as the Expences of an Inclosure made in pursuance of this Act.

Power to enter Land for Surveys, &c.

CXXIII. And be it enacted, That for surveying and valuing any Land to be inclosed or otherwise dealt with under this Act, and for the other Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or an Assistant Commissioner or Valuer, or any Person or Persons to be appointed by such Commissioners, Assistant Commissioner, or Valuer, at any Time after Application has been made to the Commissioners to sanction an Inclosure, or to certify to the Expediency of an Inclosure, as the Case may be, to make any Survey, Admeasurement, Plan, or Valuation, with Assistants and Servants, and at any Time or Times whatsoever, until the Inclosure or other Proceedings under this Act shall be completed, to enter into, view, and examine, survey or admeasure, all and every Part of the Land to be inclosed or dealt with, and to do or cause to be done any Act or Thing necessary for putting this Act into execution.

Expences of Inclosures.

CXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Allowances and Payments to be made to and by the Valuer, which shall have been audited and approved by or under the Directions of the Commissioners, and all other the Expences of every Inclosure, except the Allowances and Salaries to the Commissioner who is to have a Salary, and to the Assistant Commissioners, Secretary, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers of the Commissioners, and the travelling and other Expences of the Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, and except any Expences which the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, or any Court under the Powers of this Act, shall order to be otherwise paid, shall be borne and defrayed by the several Persons interested in the Lands to be inclosed (except the Surveyors of Highways, Churchwardens and Overseers, and Persons to whom Lands shall be allotted for public Purposes, in respect of the Allotments herein-before authorized or directed to be made to them respectively) in such Shares and Proportions, and shall be paid at such Time and Place, or respective Times and Places, and to such Persons, as the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, signified by Writing under their Hands and Seal, shall direct; and such Valuer shall give Notice requiring Payment of the respective Shares and Proportions of such Expences on the Church Door, and shall give to all Persons so liable, who shall not reside in the Parish in which the Land inclosed or any Part thereof shall be situate, and whose respective Places of Abode shall be known to the Valuer, Notice by Letter sent by the Post of the Sums they respectively shall be liable to pay, at least Fourteen Days before the Time appointed for such Payment; and the Valuer shall from Time to Time make Estimates of all such Expences, and raise the Amount of such Estimates at such Times as he shall, with such Approbation of the Commissioners, deem proper, either before or after the Confirmation of the Award.

Estimates of Expences to be approved of at public Meeting.

CXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That before the Commissioners shall approve the Estimates of such Expences they shall submit the same to a Meeting of Persons interested, called after Seven Days Notice, and shall take into consideration any Representation with respect to such Estimates which may be made to them on the Part of the Majority of the Persons present at such Meeting.

Remedies in case of Non-payment of Expences.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall refuse or neglect to pay his Proportion of such Expences within such Time and to such Person as the Valuer shall appoint, it shall be lawful for the Valuer to recover the same, together with lawful Interest, to be computed from the Day on which the same ought to have been paid, by Action at Law in his own Name in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or it shall be lawful for him, by Warrant directed to any Person whomsoever, to cause the same, with such Interest thereon as aforesaid, to be levied by Distress, or it shall be lawful for the Valuer, or any Person authorized by him, immediately after such Neglect or Refusal, to enter into and upon the Premises so to be allotted to such Person, and demise the same, or to demise any Stint or Right of Pasture allotted to such Person, and receive the Rents and Profits thereof respectively, until thereby or otherwise such Share or Proportion, with lawful Interest as aforesaid, and also all the Costs and Expences attending such Entry upon and Demise, and Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the said Premises, shall be fully paid and satisfied: Provided always, that no such Action at Law as aforesaid shall be brought by the Valuer against any Person for his Proportion of such Expences as aforesaid, nor shall any Proceeding be taken to levy any such Proportion of Expences by Distress as aforesaid, before the Expiration of Thirty Days after Notice in Writing that such Proportion of Expences is in arrear, and requiring Payment thereof, shall have been given to the Person liable to pay the same, or left at the usual Place of Abode of such Person.

to

Power to make additional Rate.

CXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at any Time after the Allotments shall have been staked out it shall appear to the Valuer, either before or after the Confirmation of the Award, that the Money to arise by any previous Rates will not be sufficient to defray the Expences aforesaid, the Deficiency shall, with such Approbation of the Commissioners as aforesaid, be made up and raised from Time to Time by a Rate to be made and levied upon the several Persons interested in the Lands to be inclosed (except as aforesaid), in such Shares and Proportions, within such Time, and to be paid to such Persons as the Valuer shall from Time to Time direct; and in case any Persons herein-before made subject to the Payment of any Money towards such Expences shall neglect or refuse to pay his Share or Proportion of any such Rate within the Time appointed for that Purpose, or at any Time after such Demand, the same shall be levied and recovered in the Manner directed by this Act with respect to the previous Rate.

Commissioners may remove Valuers.

CXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Valuer or Surveyor chosen or appointed to act in the Matter of any Inclosure or other Matter under this Act shall, before his Duties shall be fully performed, refuse to attend to, or become by Sickness or otherwise incapable to act in such Matter, or by Writing under his Hand desire to be discharged from the Office of Valuer or Surveyor respectively, or shall in the Judgment of the Commissioners neglect his Duties, or misconduct himself in his Office, or become or be found incompetent or unfit to act as a Valuer or Surveyor under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Order under their Hands and Seal, to remove him from the Office of Valuer or Surveyor, as the Case may be; and if any Valuer or Surveyor shall be so removed, or shall die, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by Order under their Seal, to appoint a Valuer or Surveyor in his Stead, and every Valuer and Surveyor so appointed shall have the same Powers as if he had been chosen at a Meeting of the Persons interested in the Land in manner herein-before directed.

Valuer not to purchase Lands in the Parish for Seven Years after the Award.

CXXIX. And be it enacted, That no Valuer who shall have acted in the Matter of any Inclosure shall be capable of being a Purchaser of any Land within the Parish in which the Lands to be inclosed, or any Part thereof, shall be situate, until the Expiration of Seven Years after the Confirmation of the Award in such Inclosure.

Repayment to Consolidated Fund.

CXXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, having regard to the Time and Labour and Expences of the Assistant Commissioners and all other Persons, if any, specially employed and paid by the Commissioners in or about any Inclosure, Exchange, Division, Partition, or other Proceeding under this Act, by any Order under their Hands and Seal, to order and declare that a Sum, in such Order to be mentioned, be paid to the Commissioners in respect of the Salary, Allowance, and Expences of the Assistant Commissioners and other Persons, if any, so specially employed in or about such Inclosure, Exchange, Division, Partition, or other Proceeding; and the Commissioners shall by such Order declare such Sum to be charged on the Persons interested in the Land to be inclosed, or to which such Proceeding shall relate, in such Shares as they shall think just, and shall appoint a Time for Payment thereof; and the same shall be raised in the same Manner as the Expences of the Inclosure, or of subjecting the Land to the Provisions concerning regulated Pasture, are directed to be raised under this Act, and be deemed Part of the Expences of the Inclosure or Matter aforesaid, or, in the Case of an Exchange, Division, or Partition, in the same Manner as the Expences of such Exchange, Division, or Partition, and when raised shall be paid to the Commissioners, who shall forthwith pay the same into Her Majesty's Exchequer, to be carried to the Account of the Consolidated Fund.

Persons attending Meetings to pay their own Expences.

CXXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Persons interested in the Inclosure or other Proceeding under this Act, and their respective Agents, shall pay their own Expences whenever they shall attend any of the Meetings to be held in the Matter of any Inclosure.

Expences of Witnesses.

CXXXII. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner acting in the Matter of any Inclosure, or in any Inquiry into the Expediency or Inexpediency of any proposed Inclosure, where they or he may see fit, may order such Expences of Witnesses, and of the Production of any Books, Deeds, Court Rolls, and Writings, Maps, Plans, and Surveys, or Copies thereof, and all other Expences (except the Salary or Allowance to any Assistant Commissioner) incurred in the Settlement of any Suit or Difference, or in the hearing and determining any Objection or Matter whatever before the said Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, to be paid by such Parties interested in the Production thereof respectively, or in the event of such Suit, Difference, Objection, or Matter, or in any such Inquiry, by or in such Proportions as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner shall think fit and reasonable; and the Commissioners may, when they shall see occasion, require such Security to be given given by Persons making Application for any Inquiry under this Act, for the Payment by such Persons of the Expences of or occasioned by such Inquiry, as the Commissioners may think fit.

Power to mortgage Allotments.

CXXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the respective Persons interested in Allotments in Severalty or Allotments of Stints or Rights of Pasture respectively to be made under this Act, being Tenants for Life, or in Tail, or for any other Estate of Freehold or Inheritance, and also for the Husbands, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, or Attornies of any of the Proprietors, being under Coverture, Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, or under any other Disability or Incapacity, or beyond the Seas, or by the Persons acting as such Guardians, Trustees, Committees, or Attornies respectively, and for the Trustees or Feoffees for charitable, parochial, or other Uses, or the Majority in Number of them, in respect of any Lands held by them in trust for any charitable, parochial, or other Uses, (with the Consent of the Commissioners, testified in Writing under their Hands and Seal,) and for the Incumbent of any Ecclesiastical Benefice, with the Consent in Writing of the Bishop of the Diocese and of the Patron of such Benefice, from Time to Time to charge their respective Allotments with any Money not exceeding, as to any Allotment in Severalty, Five Pounds per Acre, towards their respective Proportions of the Inclosure Expences, and for securing the Repayment of such Money, with Interest, to mortgage or demise the said Allotments unto or in trust for any Person who shall advance any Money for any Term of Years, but so that every such Mortgage or Demise be made with a Condition to cease or upon trust to be surrendered or assigned when the Money thereby to be secured, with all Interest thereon, shall have been fully paid, and so that in every such Mortgage or Demise which shall be made by or on behalf of any Person entitled to any such Allotment for the Term of his natural Life there be contained a Covenant to pay and keep down the Interest of the Money to be secured during his Life, in such Manner that no Person afterwards becoming possessed of such Lands shall be subject or liable to pay any larger Arrear of Interest than for Six Months previous to the Time when the Title of such Person shall accrue or commence; and every Incumbent of a Benefice by whom such Mortgage or Demise shall be made shall keep down the Interest on the Money to be secured, or on so much thereof as shall remain owing, and shall repay, in reduction of the Principal, One Thirtieth Part of the Money originally secured, at the Expiration of the Term of One Year from the Time of making such Mortgage, and a like Sum at the Expiration of each succeeding Term of One Year, until the whole be repaid; and every such Mortgage or Demise shall be valid in the Law for the Purposes thereby intended; and every such Mortgagee and his Assigns shall have the like Remedies in case of Nonpayment of the Monies thereby secured as in the Case of other Mortgages of the like Nature.

Power to sell Parts of Allotments.

CXXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, on Application made to them in Writing by any of the Proprietors of Allotments to be made by virtue of this Act, or by any of the Husbands, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, or Attornies of or for any of such Proprietors, being under Coverture, Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, or under any other Disability or Incapacity, or beyond the Seas, or by the Persons acting as such Guardians, Trustees, Committees, or Attornies respectively, or by any of the said Proprietors, being Tenants in Tail or for Life, or by any Trustees or Feoffees for charitable, parochial, or other Uses, or by the Majority in Number of them, or by any Incumbent of an Ecclesiastical Benefice in right of which an Allotment may have been made, and the Bishop of the Diocese and the Patron of such Benefice, to direct a Sale of any Part of any such Allotment, for raising a Sum of Money sufficient to defray the proportionable Part of the Expences which shall in such Rates be charged upon such Parties, and of the Expences of making and completing such Sale: Provided always, that in all Cases in which the Monies so raised by any such Sale shall not be equal to the Money which might be borrowed or charged on such Allotment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Proprietor, or the Person herein-before authorized to direct a Sale on behalf of the Proprietor, Part of whose Allotment shall be sold as aforesaid, to charge his Allotment with any Sum not exceeding the Difference.

Sales of Parts of Allotments how to be made.

CXXXV. And be it enacted, That such Sales shall be made by the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, in the same Manner and subject to the same Regulations as are herein-after prescribed in respect of the Sale of Part of the Land subject to be inclosed towards defraying the Expences of the Inclosure; and every Part of an Allotment for which the full Purchase Money shall be paid shall be conveyed by the Commissioners, at the Expence of the Purchaser, as he shall appoint, and shall be inclosed and held by such Purchaser in Severalty: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall enable the Commissioners to convey any Allotments set out by them as Copyhold or Customary as Freehold, but such Copyhold or Customary Allotments shall be held by the Purchaser thereof by, under, and subject to the same Rents, Suits, and Services as such Allotment would have been held in case no such Sale had been made.

Commissioners to receive and apply Purchase Money.

CXXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Receipt of the Commissioners shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Purchaser for the said Purchase Money; and such Purchase Money shall be applied by the Commissioners in or towards defraying the Costs and Expences for raising which such Sale shall have been made; and the Surplus (if any) shall be paid to the Parties from whose Allotments such Sale shall have been so made respectively; and the Shares of such of them as shall be Tenants in Fee Simple shall be paid to them respectively, and the Shares of the other Proprietors of such surplus Money shall be applied and disposed of in manner herein-after directed.

Application of Compensation Money of Parties under Disabilities.

CXXXVII. And be it enacted, That when any Money is, under the Provisions of this Act, directed to be paid for the Purchase of any Timber or Wood growing on any Land which shall belong to any Tenant for Life or in Tail, or to any Feoffee in Trust, Executor, or Administrator, Husband, Guardian, Committee, or Trustee, for or on behalf of any Infant, Idiot, Lunatic, Feme Covert, or Cestuique Trust, or to any Person whose Lands are limited in strict or other Settlement, or to any Person under any other Disability or Incapacity whatsoever, or to any Corporation, not being legally and equitably entitled to sell and dispose of such Timber and Wood, it shall be lawful for the Valuer out of such Money to defray the Proportion (if any) of the Inclosure Expences which shall be charged upon the Land, or any Land held under the same Title, on which such Timber or Wood actually grew, and also, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, to defray the Expence of any permanent Improvement, such as building, subdividing, dividing, draining, or planting, and the like, which shall in the Judgment of the Valuer be proper to be made, and shall be made, under his Direction, upon any Land to be under the Powers of this Act allotted to such Parties.

Investment of Surplus when 200*l.* or upwards.

CXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if the Surplus of any such Monies, or the Surplus of any Monies to arise from the Sale of Part of an Allotment for raising Money for Expences, where the same shall not be paid to the Proprietors under the Directions herein-before contained, shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the same shall, with all convenient Speed, unless the Commissioners shall otherwise direct, under the Provisions herein-after contained, be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account there ex parte the Commissioners, pursuant to the Method prescribed by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled An Act for the better securing the Monies and Effects of the Suitors of the Court of Chancery, and to prevent the counterfeiting of East India Bonds, and the Endorsements thereon, as likewise the Endorsements on South Sea Bonds, and pursuant to the general Rules and Orders of the said Court, and without Fee or Reward, according to an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to lay out upon proper Securities any Monies, not exceeding a Sum therein limited, out of the common and general Cash in the Bank of England belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, for the Ease of the said Suitors, by applying the Interest arising therefrom for answering the Charges of the Office of the Accountant General of the said Court; and shall, when so paid in, there remain until the same shall, by Order of the said Court, made upon a Petition in a summary Way by the Parties who would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Land, be applied to the following Purposes or any of them; (that is to say,)

12 G. 1. c. 32.

12 G. 2. c. 24.

The Redemption or Discharge of the Land Tax or of any Debt or other Incumbrance affecting the same Land, or affecting other Lands standing settled therewith to the same or the like Uses or Trusts:

The Purchase of other Land, to be conveyed or settled upon the like Uses or Trusts, or such of them as shall be then existing undetermined or capable of taking effect.

Payment of Dividends in the meantime.

CXXXIX. And be it enacted, That in the meantime and until such Application shall be made the said Money may, by Order of the said Court, to be made upon the like Petition, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, or of Government Securities; and the Dividends or Interest of such Annuities or Securities shall from Time to Time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Parties who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands so to be purchased, conveyed, and settled.

CXL. And be it enacted, That in case the Surplus of any such Monies as aforesaid shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall exceed or amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, the same shall, at the Option of the Parties who for the Time being would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Land, or their Guardians or Committees, in case of Infancy, Idiotcy, Lunacy, or other Incapacity, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, to be signified in Writing under their Seal, be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, and be placed to his Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner herein-before directed; or otherwise the same may be paid, at the like Option and with the like Approbation, to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the said Parties, who for the Time being would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Land as aforesaid, such Nomination to be approved of by the Commissioners, and such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands (or Common Seal, as the Case may be,) of the nominating Parties, and under the Seal of the Commissioners; and in any Case in which such Monies shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the same, if the Commissioners shall so think fit and direct, shall in like Manner be paid to Trustees to be nominated and approved as aforesaid; and the Money so paid to such Trustees, and the Dividends and Produce arising therefrom, shall be by them applied in like Manner as is herein-before directed with respect to Money so to be paid into the Bank of England, but without obtaining or being required to obtain any Order of the said Court touching the Application thereof.

CXLI. And be it enacted, That in case the Surplus of any such Monies as aforesaid shall be less than Twenty Pounds the same shall be paid to the Parties for the Time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Land, for their own Use and Benefit; or in case of Infancy, Idiotcy, Lunacy, or other Incapacity, then such Money shall be paid to their Guardians, Committees, or Trustees, for the Use and Benefit of the Parties respectively entitled thereto.

Sale of Land by Valuer for Expences.

CXLII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure shall, under the Instructions herein-before required in this Behalf, proceed to raise all or any Part of the Expences of the Inclosure by Sale of Part of the Land proposed to be inclosed, such Valuer shall set out such Parts of the Land to be inclosed as he shall judge sufficient in Value to defray the Expences aforesaid, and shall, from Time to Time as he shall find expedient, sell and dispose of the same by public Auction or by private Contract, with the Approbation of the Commissioners; and the Purchase Monies to arise by such Sales shall be paid into the Hands of the Commissioners, or as they shall direct, and shall be by them applied in discharging the said Expences.

Conveyances to be made by Commissioners.

CXLIII. And be it enacted, That upon every Sale to be made by the Valuer under the Provisions of this Act the Commissioners shall sign and deliver to each Purchaser a Receipt for his Purchase Money, which shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same; and upon Receipt of the whole Purchase Money for any of the Lands which shall be sold as aforesaid the Commissioners shall convey such Lands, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof in possession, by Conveyance under their Hands and Seal, to such Uses and in such Manner as such Purchaser shall direct; and after such Conveyance the Premises conveyed shall be Freehold of Inheritance, and shall be held to the Uses and in manner expressed by such Conveyance; and any such Conveyance may be to the Effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act, and shall be Evidence of the Regularity of the Sale in pursuance of which such Conveyance shall be made.

Application of Purchase Monies.

CXLIV. And be it enacted, That all such Purchase Monies as shall be from Time to Time raised or received by the Commissioners by such respective Sales as aforesaid shall, after Payment of the Charges and Expences attending such respective Sales, be paid and applied by the Commissioners towards the Expences of the Inclosure; and the respective Purchasers or other Persons paying the same shall not in any Manner be liable to see to the Application, or be answerable for any Misapplication thereof.

Notice may be given to Reversioners.

CXLV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners, before authorizing or certifying the Expediency of any Inclosure, or determining any Claim or Matter, or approving any Report or Award, or in any other Stage of the Proceedings on any Inclosure, or of the Proceedings for subjecting any Gated or Stinted Pasture to the Provisions of this Act concerning regulated Pastures, if they shall see occasion, may require Notice to be given, in any such Manner as they shall direct, to the Person next in remainder, reversion, or expectancy of an Estate of Inheritance in any Lands, or to any other Person to whom they may think Notice ought to be given, and may by themselves or by some Assistant Commissioner hear and determine any Objection which may be made by the Person so next in remainder, reversion, or expectancy.

Copies of Award to be made and deposited.

CXLVI. And be it enacted, That Two Copies of every confirmed Award shall be made, and sealed with the Seal of the said Commissioners, and one such Copy shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the Lands inclosed shall be situate, who is hereby required to deposit and keep the same among the Records of the said County, so that recourse may be had thereto by any Person interested in the Premises, and the other Copy shall be deposited with the Church or Chapel Wardens for the Time being of the Parish in which the Lands or the greater Part thereof shall be situated, to be kept by them and their Successors in Office with the public Books, Writings, and Papers of the Parish, or shall be deposited with such other fit Persons as the Commissioners shall approve; and all Persons interested therein may have Access to and be furnished with Copies of or Extracts from any such Copy, on giving reasonable Notice to the Person having Custody of the same, and on Payment of Two Shillings and Sixpence for such Inspection, and after the Rate of Three-pence for every Seventy-two Words contained in such Copy or Extract; and all such Copies of and Extracts from any such Copy of any confirmed Award as shall be furnished by the Clerk of the Peace shall be signed by the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, purporting the same to be a true Copy; and every such Copy and Extract, so signed, shall be received in Evidence without further Proof thereof; and every Recital or Statement in such confirmed Award or any sealed Copy thereof shall be deemed satisfactory Evidence of the Matters therein recited or stated.

Exchanges may be made of Land not subject to be inclosed.

CXLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application in Writing of the Persons interested, according to the Definition herein-before contained, in Lands not subject to be inclosed under this Act, or in Lands subject to be inclosed under this Act, as to which no Proceedings for an Inclosure shall be pending, and who shall desire to effect an Exchange of Lands in which they respectively shall be so interested, to direct Inquiries whether such proposed Exchange would be beneficial to the Owners of such respective Lands; and in case the Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Exchange would be beneficial, and that the Terms of the proposed Exchange are just and reasonable, they shall, unless Notice of Dissent to the proposed Exchange shall be given, under the Provision herein-after contained, cause to be framed and confirmed under the Hands and Seal of the Commissioners, an Order of Exchange, with a Map or Plan thereunto annexed, in which Order shall be specified and shown the Lands given and taken in exchange by each Person so interested respectively; and a Copy of such Order, under the Seal of the Commissioners, shall be delivered to each of the Parties on whose Application the Exchange shall have been made; and such Order of Exchange shall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall be in nowise liable to be impeached by reason of any Infirmity of Estate or Defect of Title of the Persons on whose Application the same shall have been made; and the Land taken upon every such Exchange shall be and enure to, for, and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Lands given on such Exchange would have stood limited or been subject to in case such Order had not been made; and all Expences with reference to such Order and Exchange, or the Inquiries in relation thereto, or to any proposed Exchange, shall be borne by the Persons on whose Application such Order shall have been made or such Inquiries undertaken: Provided always, that no Exchange shall be made of any Land held held in right of any Church or Chapel or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, without the Consent, testified in Writing, of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Patron of such Benefice.

Division of intermixed Lands.

CXLVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application in Writing of any Number of Persons who shall be separately interested in Parcels of Land not subject to be inclosed under this Act, or of Land subject to be inclosed under this Act as to which no Proceedings for an Inclosure shall be pending, so intermixed or divided into Parcels of inconvenient Form or Quantity that the same cannot be cultivated or occupied to the best Advantage, but forming together a Tract which may be divided into convenient Parcels, and who shall desire to have the whole of such Tract divided into convenient Parcels, to be allotted in lieu of the old Parcels, to direct an Inquiry whether such proposed Division and Allotment would be beneficial to the Owners of such Lands; and in case the Commissioners shall be of opinion that the proposed Division and Allotment would be beneficial, they shall unless Notice of Dissent from the proposed Division and Allotment shall be given under the Provisions herein-after contained, cause to be framed an Order for the Division or Allotment thereof accordingly, with a Map or Plan thereunto annexed, in which shall be specified, as well the Parcels which the several Persons on whose Application such Order shall have been made were respectively interested in before such Division and Allotment, as the several Parcels allotted to them respectively by such Order, and such Order shall be confirmed under the Hands and Seal of the Commissioners; and a Copy of such Order, sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, shall be delivered to each of the Parties on whose Application the Division and Allotment shall have been made; and such Order of Division shall be good in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall in nowise be liable to be impeached by reason of any Infirmity of Estate or Defect of Title of the Persons on whose Application the same shall have been made; and the Parcels of Land taken by the Persons interested under such Division shall be and enure to, for, and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the several Lands which the Persons taking the same shall have relinquished or lost on such Division would have stood limited to, for, or upon, or been subject to, in case such Order had not been made; and all Expences with reference to any such Order, Division, and Allotment, or the Inquiries in relation thereto, or to any proposed Division or Allotment, shall be borne by the Persons on whose Application such Order shall have been made or such Inquiries undertaken.

Inconvenient Allotments for the Poor and public Purposes may be exchanged for Land more convenient.

CXLIX. And be it enacted, That where, under the Powers of any Inclosure Act, any Allotment shall have been made in trust for the poor Inhabitants of any Parish, or of any Class of such poor Inhabitants, or in trust to be leased, used, or enjoyed to or by or upon any other Trusts for the Benefit of such poor Inhabitants, or for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, or for any other public or parochial Purpose, and it shall appear to the Commissioners that such Allotment, by reason of its Distance from the Dwellings of such poor Inhabitants, or from the Nature or Quality of the Soil, or otherwise, shall not be convenient or suitable for the Purposes for which the same shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application in Writing of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish in which such Allotment shall be situate, or of the Trustees for the Time being of such Allotment, and of the Person interested in Land more convenient or suitable for the Purposes for which such Allotment shall have been made, and who may be willing to give such Land in exchange for such Allotment, in case the Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Exchange would be beneficial to the poor Inhabitants or other Persons for whose Benefit or more suitable to the Purposes for which such Allotment was made, to cause to be framed and to confirm an Order of Exchange of such Allotment for such other Land as aforesaid; and the Provisions herein contained concerning Exchanges shall apply to such Allotment as if such Churchwardens and Overseers or Trustees respectively were the Persons interested in such Allotment.

Notices of such Exchanges and Divisions to be given.

CL. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Order of Exchange or Order of Division and Allotment as aforesaid shall be confirmed by the Commissioners until Notice shall have been given by Advertisement in Three successive Weeks of such proposed Exchange or Division and Allotment, and Three Calendar Months shall have elapsed from the Publication of the last of such Advertisements; and in case before the Expiration of such Three Calendar Months any Person entitled to any Estate in or to any Charge upon any Land included in such proposed Exchange or Division and Allotment shall give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Dissent from such proposed Exchange or Division and Allotment, as the Case may be, the Commissioners shall not confirm an Order for such Exchange or such Division or Allotment, unless such Dissent shall be withdrawn, or it shall be shown to the Commissioners that the Estate or Charge of the Party so dissenting shall have ceased.

Expences of Exchanges and Divisions.

CLI. And be it enacted, That if any Difference shall arise touching the said Expences in relation to any Exchange, Division, Allotment, Orders, or Inquiries as aforesaid, or the Share thereof to be paid by any Person, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to certify under their Hands and Seal the Amount to be paid by such Person; and in case any Person shall neglect or refuse to pay his Share so certified to be payable by him, and upon the Production of such Certificate before any Two Justices of the Peace for the County or other Jurisdiction wherein the Land shall be situate, such Justices, upon the Nonpayment thereof, are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause the same to be levied by Distress.

Commissioners may remedy Defects and Omissions of Awards under local Acts of CLII. And be it enacted, That where any Award already made and executed, or hereafter to be made and executed, in pursuance of any local Act of Inclosure, or in pursuance of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for facilitating the Inclosure of Open and Arable Fields in England and Wales, shall not have duly distinguished the several Tenures of all the Lands thereby awarded or allotted, or of any other Lands of which the Tenure ought to have been distinguished in or by such Award, or the different Estates or Titles for or under which any Lands therein mentioned should be held, or shall not have duly distinguished the Lands which after such Award should remain subject to all or any Tithes, and the Lands which should be discharged from all or any Tithes, or where by any such Award an aggregate Allotment shall have been set out and awarded in any Case in which several and distinct Allotments ought to have been set out and awarded, in every such Case, and in every other Case in which it shall appear to the Commissioners that Inconvenience shall have arisen from Inaccuracy, Confusion, or Omission in any such Award, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application in Writing of any Person interested in the Lands to which such Award may relate, or of any Person prejudiced by the Inaccuracy, Confusion, or Omission in such Award, to make such Inquiries and take such Evidence, by themselves or by an Assistant Commissioner, as they shall think fit, and by an Order under their Hands and Seal to amend such Award, and to distinguish the several Tenures of the Lands thereby allotted and awarded, and the different Estates or Titles for or under which the same should be held, and to distinguish the Lands which should be discharged from all or any Tithes, and the Lands which should remain subject to all or any Tithes, and to subdivide aggregate Allotments into separate Allotments, and to distinguish the Tenures or Titles thereof, or the Lands or Rights in respect of which they were respectively made, and generally to make or give such Declarations or Directions as may appear necessary to supply any Omission and rectify any Inaccuracy or Confusion in such Award; and such Order of the Commissioners shall have the same Force and Effect as if the Allotments, Directions, and Declarations therein contained had been duly made and contained in the original Award, in addition, or, as the Case may require, in substitution for the Parts thereof to which such Amendments may relate; and all Expences with reference to such Order as last aforesaid, and of and consequent upon all Inquiries in relation thereto, or to any proposed Amendment of any such Award, shall be borne by the Persons on whose Application such Order shall be made or such Inquiries undertaken.

to

Commissioners may revive Powers under local Inclosure Acts lost by Lapse of Time, or otherwise.

CLIII. And be it enacted, That where under any local Act of Inclosure the Powers and Authorities originally vested in the Commissioner or Commissioners acting under any such local Act, or any such Power or Authority, shall not have been fully executed according to the Intent of such local Act, and shall have been lost or become incapable of being executed by reason of the Neglect or Omission to execute the same, or to take some Proceeding necessary to the due Execution thereof within the Time limited in that Behalf by such local Act, or from any other Cause whatsoever, it shall be lawful for the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, by any Order under their Hands and Seal, to authorize the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed by or acting under the Authority of such local Act to execute and to carry into effect the Powers and Authorities originally vested in such last-mentioned Commissioner or Commissioners, or in any previous Commissioner or Commissioners under such local Act, in the same Manner as if such Powers and Authorities had not been lost or become incapable of being executed, or as near thereto as Lapse of Time and other Circumstances may permit, and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as the Justice of the Case may appear to require, and in and by such Order to direct any Act or Proceeding to be done or taken in substitution for any Act or Proceeding which shall have been required or directed by such local Act, and which shall have become incapable of being done or taken by Lapse of Time or other Circumstances; and all Proceedings, Adjudications, Orders, Directions, and Acts taken, made, and done by the Commissioner or Commissioners under any local Act, in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, shall have the same Force and Effect as if the same had been duly authorized by such local Act; and the Expences of such Order, and of the Inquiries in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Commissioner or Commissioners acting under such local Act, and shall be deemed Expences under the Inclosure by such local Act authorized.

Commissioners may appoint Persons to complete Proceedings in an imperfect Inclosure.

CLIV. And be it enacted, That where the Powers and Authorities of any local Act of Inclosure shall not have been fully executed and performed, whether the same shall or shall not have been lost or have become incapable of being executed from Lapse of Time or otherwise, and there shall be no Commissioner acting under such local Inclosure Act, or in case from any other Cause any of the Persons interested in the Land to which such local Act shall relate shall be desirous that the Powers and Authorities of such Act should be executed, and the Proceedings thereunder completed under the Direction of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by Order under their Hands and Seal, upon the Application in Writing of the major Part in Value of the Persons interested in the Lands subject to be inclosed under such local Act, to appoint any Person to execute the Powers or Authorities of such local Act, in the Place of the Commissioner or Commissioners by such Act appointed or authorized to be appointed, and to complete the Proceedings under the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, by such Order as aforesaid, or by any supplemental or other Order, to authorize the Person so appointed to execute and to carry into effect any Powers or Authorities originally vested in any Commissioner or Commissioners under such local Act, and which may have been lost or become incapable of being executed, and to give such other Directions in relation thereto as under the Provision herein-before contained might have been given to the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed by or acting under a local Act; and the Person so appointed by the Commissioners shall and may complete the Proceedings under such local Act, and make an Award therein, and shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities in all respects as the Commissioner or Commissioners originally appointed by or acting under such local Act would have had if he or they had continued to act; and it shall be lawful for the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, by Order Order under their Hands and Seal, to remove any Person so appointed, and upon such Removal, or in case any Person so appointed shall die, or desire to be discharged from his Office, before the Proceedings in such Inclosure shall be completed, from Time to Time to appoint any other Person in his Stead, with all such Powers and Authorities as aforesaid; and the Expences of such Orders of the Commissioners, and of all Proceedings in relation thereto, shall be Expences in the Inclosure, and raised in the same Manner as other Expences may by such local Act be authorized to be raised.

Commissioners to give Notice before proceeding to amend Awards under local Act.

CLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall not in any Case proceed to amend any Award under any local Act of Inclosure, or under the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, or to authorize the Execution of any Power or Authority under any such local Act which shall have been lost or become incapable of being executed as aforesaid, or to authorize any Person to be by them appointed as aforesaid to execute the Powers or Authorities of any local Act in the Place of the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed under such local Act, until Notice of the Application to the Commissioners to amend such Award, or to authorize the Execution of such Powers or Authorities, or to authorize any Person to be by them appointed as aforesaid, shall have been given by Advertisement in Four successive Weeks; and in case within Two Calendar Months after the Publication of the last of such Advertisements One Fourth Part in Number or Value of the Persons interested, according to the Definitions herein-before contained, in the Land to which the Award so proposed to be amended, or the Part thereof proposed to be amended, shall relate, or in the Land to be affected by the Exercise of such Powers or Authorities, shall give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of their Dissent from such Application, the Commissioners shall not proceed further on such Application.

Proviso for Cases where Dealings have been had with Land on Faith of Inaccuracies, &c. proposed to be rectified.

CLVI. Provided also, That in every Case in which Dealing shall have been had with such Land, or some Part thereof, on the Faith of the Inaccuracy, Confusion, or Omission which it shall be proposed to rectify or supply, or on the Faith of such Powers or Authorities having been lost or become incapable of being executed, or on the Faith of the Powers or Authorities of such local Act not being executed under the Powers of such local Act, or the actual Possession of the Land, or the Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Land, to which the Award so proposed to be amended, or the Part thereof proposed to be amended, shall relate, or, as the Case may be, the Possession of the Land, or the Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Land, to be affected by the Exercise of such Powers or Authorities, would be altered by the proposed Amendment of the Award, or by the Exercise of such Powers or Authorities as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall not proceed on such Application, so far as respects the Land with which such Dealings may have been had, or of which the Possession or the Receipt of Rents and Profits would be altered as aforesaid, without the Consent of the Persons interested in such last-mentioned Land, nor shall the Commissioners proceed in any Case upon such Application, so far as respects such last-mentioned Land, in case within Two Calendar Months after the Publication of the last of such Advertisements as aforesaid any Person entitled to any Estate in or to any Charge upon such last-mentioned Land shall give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Dissent from such Application.

Commissioners may confirm Awards or Agreements made under supposed Authority of 6&7W.4.c.115.

CLVII. And be it enacted, That where by any Award or Agreement expressed to be made under the Authority of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for facilitating the Inclosure of Open and Arable Fields in England and Wales, any Moors, Commons, or Waste Lands, or other Lands not subject to be inclosed under the Provisions of such last-mentioned Act, shall have been inclosed or apportioned and allotted, and the Lands so inclosed or apportioned and allotted shall be within the Definition of Lands subject to be inclosed under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application of any Person interested in any Land so inclosed or apportioned and allotted, to make such Inquiries in relation to such Award or Agreement as the Commissioners shall think fit; and if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Rights and Interests of all Parties interested in the Lands expressed to be inclosed or apportioned and allotted by such Award or Agreement shall have been duly provided for and compensated thereby, or might be duly provided for and compensated thereby if such Award or Agreement were confirmed, or amended and confirmed, as herein-after mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by any Order under their Hands and Seal, to confirm such Award or Agreement, or to amend the same, as the Justice of the Case and the Rights and Interests of the Parties may appear to the Commissioners to require, and to confirm the same, with the Amendments specified in such Order, as the Commissioners shall think fit, and every Award and Agreement so confirmed shall, with the Amendments, if any, which shall have been made by such Order, have the same Force and Effect as a final Award under the Authority of this Act; and all Expences with reference to such Order as last aforesaid, and of all Inquiries in relation thereto, or to any proposed Confirmation of any such Award or Agreement, shall be borne by the Persons interested in the Lands by such Award or Agreement inclosed or apportioned and allotted, in such Proportions as the Commissioners shall direct: Provided always, that the Commissioners shall not confirm any such Award or Agreement, or proceed to make any Inquiries in relation thereto, unless it shall be made to appear to the Commissioners that the Persons making the Application for a Confirmation of such Award or Agreement represent at least One Third in Value of the Interests in such Lands.

Power to reduce the Number of Trustees under local Act where a sufficient Number of Persons qualified cannot be found.

CLVIII. And be it enacted, That where under any local Act of Inclosure, or under any Award made under the Authority of any local Act of Inclosure, Provision shall have been made for the Election, from among Persons having certain Qualifications in respect of Property or otherwise, of a Number of Trustees or other Functionaries for making or maintaining Works on the Lands inclosed, or for any other local Functions, and it shall appear to the Commissioners that by reason of Alterations in the State of Property or otherwise Persons cannot be found according to the Qualifications required by such local Act Act of Inclosure to fill up the Number of Trustees or other Functionaries required by such local Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, after such Inquiries as they shall think fit, upon the Request and at the Expence of any Persons interested in the Works to be made or maintained, or in the Functions to be performed by such Trustees or Functionaries, by Order under the Seal of the Commissioners to declare that any such lesser Number, in such Order to be mentioned of Trustees or other Functionaries, may be from Time to Time elected for the Purposes or be competent to exercise and perform the Powers and Functions in such local Act of Inclosure required or authorized to be exercised by the Number of Trustees or other Functionaries directed to be elected by such local Act, and such lesser Number shall be from Time to Time elected, and shall be competent to exercise and perform such Powers and Functions accordingly.

Penalties and Forfeitures how recoverable.

CLIX. And be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or which shall be imposed by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner acting in the Matter of any Inclosure or other Proceeding under or by virtue of the Authority of this Act, shall be levied and recovered before any Two Justices of the Peace for the County in which the Land subject to be inclosed, or to which such other Proceeding shall relate, shall be situate, and not interested in the Matter in question, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for any such Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint made to them, to summon the Party accused and the Witnesses on both Sides, and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party accused to examine such Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath such Justices are hereby empowered to administer), and upon such Evidence to give Judgment accordingly, and to condemn the Party accused (Proof of the Accusation being made by One or more Witness or Witnesses as aforesaid) in such Penalties and Forfeitures as the Offender shall have incurred, and to levy such Penalties and Forfeitures by Distress, together with reasonable Costs; all which Penalties and Forfeitures the Application whereof is not particularly directed by this Act shall, and so soon as the same shall be levied, be paid and applied to and for such Uses, Intents, or Purposes as the Commissioners in and by any Writing under their Hands and Seal shall order, direct, or appoint.

Distress, how to be made.

CLX. And be it enacted, That when in this Act any Sum of Money whether in the Nature of Penalty or otherwise, shall be directed to be levied by Distress, such Sum of Money shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party liable to pay the same; and the surplus Monies arising from such Sale, after satisfying such Sum of Money, and the Costs and Expences attending the Distress and Sale, shall, on demand, be rendered to the Party whose Goods and Chattels shall have been distrained.

Distress not unlawful for Informality.

CLXI. And be it enacted, That no Distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Warrant of Distress or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Notices, how to be given.

CLXII. And be it enacted, That all Notices by this Act directed to be given by Advertisement shall be given by an Advertisement to be inserted in some Newspaper or Newspapers printed or usually circulated in the County in which the Land subject to be inclosed, or other Land to which such Notice shall relate, shall be situate; and all Notices directed to be given on the Church Door shall be by Writing under the Hand of the Party giving such Notice, to be affixed on the principal outer Door of the Church of every Parish and Ecclesiastical District in which the Land subject to be inclosed, or other Land to which such Notice shall relate, or any Part thereof, shall be situate, on Sunday before Divine Service, or where in any such Parish or Ecclesiastical District there shall be no Church, then to be affixed in some conspicuous Place of such Parish or Ecclesiastical District on Sunday before Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon; and all Notices necessary to be given by the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner or Valuer acting in the Matter of any Inclosure (the Mode of giving which is not hereby particularly directed) shall be by either or both of the Methods aforesaid, as the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner or Valuer respectively shall think fit; and all Notices so given shall be deemed sufficient Notices to all Persons concerning all Matters and Things to which such respective Notices shall relate.

Advertisements, Awards, &c. free of Duty.

CLXIII. And be it enacted, That no Advertisement inserted by Direction of the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner acting in the Matter of any Inclosure in the London Gazette or in any Newspaper for the Purpose of carrying into effect any Provision of this Act, and no Agreement, Award, Bond, or Power of Attorney made or confirmed or used under this Act, shall be chargeable with any Stamp Duty.

Persons giving false Evidence, &c. to be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

CLXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person under the Provisions of this Act shall wilfully give false Evidence, or shall make or subscribe a false Declaration for the Purposes of this Act, or shall wilfully refuse to attend in obedience to any lawful Summons of the Commissioners or an Assistant Commissioner or Valuer, or to give Evidence, or shall wilfully alter, withhold, destroy, or refuse to produce any Book, Court Roll, or Writing, Map, Plan, or Survey, or any Copy of the same, which may be lawfully required to be produced before the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner or Valuer, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Limitation of Actions.

CLXV. And be it enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Commissioners, Assistant Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, Valuer, or other Person, for any thing done under the Authority of this Act, until Two Calendar Months Notice thereof shall have been given in Writing to the the Party against whom such Action or Suit is intended to be brought, or after sufficient Satisfaction or Tender of Amends shall have been made to any Party aggrieved, or after Twelve Calendar Months shall have expired from the Commission of the Act for which such Action or Suit shall be so brought, or in case there shall be a Continuance of Damages then within Twelve Calendar Months next after the doing or committing of such Damage shall have ceased; and every such Action shall be brought, laid, and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not in any other County or Place; and if it shall appear that such Notice of Action or Suit was brought before Two Calendar Months Notice thereof given as aforesaid, or that sufficient Amends were made or tendered as aforesaid, or if any such Action or Suit shall not be commenced within the Time before limited in that Behalf, or such Action shall be laid in any County or Place other than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant therein, or the Court, upon summary Application by Motion in any such Suit, may dismiss the same against such Defendant; and if a Verdict shall be found for such Defendant, or such Suit shall be dismissed upon Application as aforesaid, or if the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit shall become Nonsuit, or suffer a Discontinuance of such Action, or if upon any Demurrer in such Action or Suit Judgment shall be given for the Defendant therein, then such Defendant shall have Costs, Charges, and Expences as between Attorney and Client.

Proceedings not to be removed by Certiorari.

CLXVI. And be it enacted, That no Order, Adjudication, or Proceeding made or had by or before the Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner under the Authority of this Act, except as hereinbefore provided, or any Proceeding to be had touching any Offender against this Act, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed or removable by Certiorari or any other Writ or Process into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere.

CAP. CXIX.

An Act to facilitate the Conveyance of Real Property. [8th August 1845.]

Where the Words of Column I. of the Second Schedule are employed, the Deed to have the same Effect as if the Words in Column II. were inserted.

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the Sale and Conveyance of Real Property: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Party to any Deed made according to the Forms set forth in the First Schedule to this Act, or to any other Deed which shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, or referring thereto, shall employ in any such Deed respectively any of the Forms of Words contained in Column I. of the Second Schedule hereto annexed, and distinguished by any Number therein, such Deed shall be taken to have the same Effect and be construed as if such Party had inserted in such Deed the Form of Words contained in Column II. of the same Schedule, and distinguished by the same Number as is annexed to the Form of Words employed by such Party; but it shall not be necessary in any such Deed to insert any such Number.

Deed to include all Houses, &c., and the Reversion and all the Estate.

II. That every such Deed, unless any Exception be specially made therein, shall be held and construed to include all Houses, Outhouses, Edifices, Barns, Stables, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, Commons, Trees, Woods, Underwoods, Mounds, Fences, Hedges, Ditches, Ways, Waters, Watercourses, Lights, Liberties, Privileges, Easements, Profits, Commodities, Emoluments, Hereditaments, and Appurtenances whatsoever to the Lands therein comprised belonging or in anywise appertaining, or with the same demised, held, used, occupied, and enjoyed, or taken or known as Part or Parcel thereof, and also the Reversion or Reversions, Remainder and Remainders, yearly and other Rents, Issues, and Profits of the same Lands, and of every Part and Parcel thereof, and all the Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Inheritance, Use, Trust, Property, Profit, Possession, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, both at Law and in Equity, of the Grantor, in, to, out of, or upon the same Lands, and every Part and Parcel thereof, with their and every of their Appurtenances.

Stamp Duty on Deed to be same as on Lease, &c. for a Year.

III. That every such Deed under this Act shall be chargeable with the Stamp Duty with which the same would have been chargeable in case it had been a Release founded on a Lease or Bargain and Sale for a Year, and also with the same Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty) with which such Lease or Bargain and Sale for a Year would have been chargeable.

Remuneration for Deed under the Act not to be by Length only.

IV. That in taxing any Bill for preparing and executing any Deed under this Act it shall be lawful for the Taxing Officer and he is hereby required, in estimating the proper Sum to be charged for such Transaction, to consider not the Length of such Deed, but only the Skill and Labour employed and Responsibility incurred in the Preparation thereof.

Deed not taking effect by this Act to be valid as if Act not made.

V. That any Deed or Part of a Deed which shall fail to take effect by virtue of this Act shall nevertheless be as valid and effectual, and shall bind the Parties thereto, so far as the Rules of Law and Equity will permit, as if this Act had not been made.

Construction of Act.

VI. That in the Construction and for the Purposes of this Act and the Schedules hereto annexed, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, the Word "Lands" shall extend to all Freehold Tenements and Hereditaments, whether corporeal or incorporeal, and to such Customary Land as will pass by Deed, or Deed and Admittance, and not by Surrender, or any undivided Part or Share therein respectively; and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing, and the converse; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male; and the Word "Party" shall mean and include any Body Politic or Corporate or Collegiate as well as an Individual.

CAP. CXX.

An Act for facilitating Execution of the Treaties with France and the United States of America for the Apprehension of certain Offenders. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS Two Acts were passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, severally intituled An Act for giving Effect to a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French for the Apprehension of certain Offenders, and An Act for giving Effect to a Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America for the Apprehension of certain Offenders; and it is expedient to make Provision for giving more immediate Effect to the Warrant of any One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the better Execution of the said Convention and Treaty respectively:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Police Magistrate of the Metropolis to whom any One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall have signified, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, that Requisition has been made, pursuant to the said Convention or Treaty respectively, to deliver up to Justice, in Terms of the said Convention or Treaty, as the Case may be, any Person accused of any Crime rendering him liable to be so delivered up under either of the recited Acts, shall, upon such Evidence as according to the Laws of England would justify the Apprehension of the Person so accused if the Crime of which he is accused had been committed in England within the Jurisdiction of such Magistrate, issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Person, in the Form annexed to this Act, or to the like Effect; and such Warrant may be executed in any Part of England, and shall have the same Force and Effect throughout England as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having Jurisdiction in the Place where the same shall be executed, and may be lawfully executed anywhere within England by the Constable or Constables to whom the same shall be directed, or who shall be appointed to execute the same, who shall severally have all the Powers and Privileges for the Execution of such Warrant as any Constable duly appointed hath or may have within his Constablewick.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 75.
6 & 7 Vict. c. 76.

Any Metropolitan Police Magistrate to whom it shall have been signified that a Requisition has been made to deliver up any Person, may issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Person in any Part of England.

II. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be apprehended under any such Warrant shall be brought with all convenient Speed before the Magistrate by whom such Warrant shall have been issued, or some other Magistrate of the same Police Court, and that such Magistrate may cause the Warrant of Committal of such Person to be drawn up according to the Form given in the Schedule annexed to this Act, or to the like Effect, which shall be good and sufficient in Law to warrant the Persons to whom the same shall be directed to detain such Person in Custody, as directed in the said Warrant, until delivered pursuant to the Act under which he shall have been apprehended.

Such Person to be brought before a Police Magistrate, who may order his Committal.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be construed with each of the said Acts separately, and as if this Act had been enacted in each of the said Acts.

Act to be construed with recited Acts.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXI.

An Act to amend and explain certain Provisions of an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, for annexing certain Parts of certain Counties of Cities to adjoining Counties, for making further Provision for Compensation of Officers in Boroughs, for limiting the Borough Rate, and for continuing an Act to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in Ireland. [8th August 1845.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 108. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 109.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland; and another Act was passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to annex certain Parts of certain Counties of Cities to adjoining Counties, to make further Provision for Compensation of Officers in Boroughs, to limit the Borough Rate, and to continue for a limited Time an Act to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in Ireland: And whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Acts certain Parts or Portions of the old County of the Town of Drogheda and of the ancient Liberties thereof, and certain Parts of Parishes or other Denominations, are not included within the Boundaries of the County of the Town of Drogheda as defined under the said recited Acts, and have, for the Purpose of Grand Jury Presentments, and of Criminal Jurisdiction, and also of Civil Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin, become severally Part of the County of Louth: And whereas of the said Portion of the old County of the Town of Drogheda not included in the Boundaries of the present County of the Town of Drogheda as defined under the said recited Acts a certain Part or District is situate on the South Side of the River Boyne, and has under the said recited Acts become Part of the County of Louth, but lies wholly detached from the rest of the said County of Louth, from which it is separated by the River Boyne and by the present County of the Town of Drogheda, and such Part or District is immediately adjacent to the County of Meath; and it is therefore expedient that the said Part or District should be disannexed from the County of Louth, and should be annexed to the County of Meath;' be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Part or District of the old County of the Town of Drogheda not included within the Boundaries of the Borough and the County of the Town of Drogheda as defined under the said recited Acts as is situate on the South Side of the River Boyne shall for all Purposes of Grand Jury Presentments, and of Criminal Jurisdiction, and also of Civil Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin, and to all Intents and Purposes, be Part of the County of Meath, and shall be and be deemed and taken to be Part of and annexed to the Barony of Lower Duleek in the said County of Meath: Provided always,

All that Part of the old County of the Town of Drogheda on the South Side of the River Boyne, and not included within always, that nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the said County of the Town or Borough of Drogheda, or the Boundaries thereof, for any Purposes of Parliamentary Representation, or for any Purpose relating thereto; and where it is or shall be necessary for any Purpose of such Representation to describe any Residence or Premises or Place, in any Oath, Affidavit, or Document, or otherwise, as within the County of the Town of Drogheda, such Residence, Premises, or Place (if situate within such District hereby annexed to the County of Meath) may be described as within the Parliamentary Boundaries of the said County of the Town of Drogheda.

the Boundaries of the present Borough of Drogheda, shall be annexed to the County of Meath.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or affect, save as herein-after mentioned, the Liability, if any, of such Place or District hereby annexed to the said County of Meath, to contribute to the Payment of any Debt or Debts due by the County of the Town of Drogheda to Her Majesty's Exchequer, or any Instalments or Annuity in respect of the same, or any Instalments or Sums under any Presentment heretofore made by the Grand Jury of the County of the Town of Drogheda to which respectively, or to a Proportion of which, such Place or District may have been liable to contribute before the passing of this Act, or to alter or affect any Liability of such Place or District under any Award of any Barrister acting under the Provisions of an Act made in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws in force relating to Grand Jury Presentments in Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland, or under a certain other Act of the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to make further Provision in respect of Grand Jury Presentments in Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland, but that the Liability of such Place or District to contribute in respect of any of the foregoing Matters shall remain in all respects the same as before the passing of this Act, save as herein-after mentioned.

Such District to continue liable to its Proportion of the Debt due by the old County of the Town of Drogheda.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 32.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 71.

III. 'And whereas the Portion or Precinct of the old County of the Town of Drogheda not included 'in the Boundaries of the present County of the said Town is now liable, under the Provisions of the 'said Two last-recited Acts, to pay a Contribution to certain Debts of the old County of the said Town, 'as in the said Acts mentioned, and the same consists of Two Parts or Districts, one whereof is and 'will continue to be situated in the County of Louth, and the other Part or District is by virtue of this 'Act annexed to the County of Meath, and it will be necessary to ascertain the Proportions in which 'the said Two Districts shall be liable to their joint Contribution to the Payment of any such Debt or 'Debts as aforesaid due by the old County of the Town of Drogheda;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to direct and order the Commissioner of Valuation appointed under the Acts for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in Ireland to ascertain and report, and such Commissioner of Valuation shall thereupon ascertain and report, the respective Proportion in which the said Two Districts so severed from the old County of the Town of Drogheda shall pay their respective Share of the Contribution to be made by such Two Districts to the Payments of such Debts as aforesaid due by the old County of the Town of Drogheda, and of such Instalments, Annuity, or Sums payable in respect of the same by such Two Districts before the passing of this Act, and the said Commissioner shall transmit such his Report to the respective Treasurers of the Counties of Louth and Meath, specifying such Proportions, which thenceforth shall be deemed and taken to be the Proportions in which the said District situate in the County of Louth and the said District hereby annexed to the County of Meath shall pay their respective Shares of such Contribution to such Sums and Payments as aforesaid; and such respective Proportion of such Contribution, and of such Debts, Instalments, Annuity, Sums, or Interest as aforesaid, shall be presented from Time to Time by the respective Grand Jury of the County of Louth or Meath, as the Case may be, to which such District shall be annexed, or, as the Case may be, shall be applotted, raised, and levied on and off such respective District as if the same had been duly presented by Warrant of the respective Treasurer of the County whereunto each such District is or shall be annexed, and paid over and disposed of in such and the like Manner respectively, and subject to the like Provisions, as in the said Two last-recited Acts respectively contained and provided in relation to any such Payments or Contribution as aforesaid, as far as the same are applicable, and not inconsistent with this Enactment.

The Contribution payable by the whole Precinct severed from Drogheda towards the old Debts of Drogheda to be apportioned on the Two Districts of which the said Precinct consists in the Counties of Louth and Meath.

The Proportions to be levied and paid over, &c. in like Manner as the whole Contribution was levied and paid.

IV. 'And whereas certain Arrears may be due and unpaid by some Persons in the said District 'hereby annexed to the County of Meath in respect to such Sums heretofore respectively payable under 'the Provisions of the said Two last-recited Acts or other Acts relating to Grand Jury Rates or Cesses: 'And whereas also certain Persons in the said District are entitled, under the Provisions of the last-'recited Act, to certain Credits in respect to Sums heretofore paid by them;' be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the County of Louth shall furnish to the Treasurer of the County of Meath a written Statement under his Hand of all such Arrears due as aforesaid by or Credits as aforesaid which may be justly claimed by any Person or Persons, in respect of any Lands or Tenements situate in such District hereby annexed to the County of Meath; and it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the County of Meath from Time to Time to allow such Credits to the Parties entitled thereto, and also by his Warrant to collect such Arrears as aforesaid, and to pay over and dispose of the same in like Manner as the same, if duly levied when due, should have been paid over and disposed of.

The Treasurer of the County of Louth shall furnish to the Treasurer of the County of Meath a Statement of certain Arrears and Credits.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said Place or District hereby annexed to the said Barony of Lower Duleek shall not be liable to or bound to contribute to the Payment of any Debt due or Instalment payable by the County of Meath or said Barony of Lower Duleek under any Presentment of the Grand Jury of the County of Meath made before the passing of this Act, or made for the Repayment of any Advances of Public Money made to such County or Barony before the passing of Such District not to be liable for preceding Debts or Instalments due by the County of Meath.

of this Act, but any such Presentments heretofore made shall be levied as if this Act had not been passed.

Provision for fixing the Proportion in which the Barony to which such Addition shall be made is to be assessed to Grand Jury Cess.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County of Meath, or for Twenty or more Cess-payers of such Place or District hereby annexed to the said County of Meath, to apply by Memorial to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland and Council, that Proceedings may be taken to ascertain in what Proportion and according to what Valuation the Barony to which such Addition shall be so made shall be assessed and applotted to Grand Jury Cess; and thereupon the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland and Council shall from Time to Time make such Order or Orders as to them shall appear just touching the Subject Matter of such Petition, and in so doing shall settle and define the Boundaries of the Barony to which such Addition shall be made; and the Grand Jury of such County of Meath, and also the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland and Council, are thereby empowered, if they shall respectively deem fit, to employ a Surveyor or Surveyors to examine and report upon the Circumstances and Value of such Barony or Baronies, and such Part or District as aforesaid, and to order the Expences of such Examination and Report to be paid; and the Grand Jury of such County which shall assemble next after such Order shall and they are hereby required to present the Amount of such Expences to be raised off such County, and paid out of the Grand Jury Cess thereof, and the Grand Jury of such County are hereby empowered to present to be so raised and paid all such further Expences as shall be incurred by them, or by any former Grand Jury, or their Officers, in and about the procuring of such Annexation as aforesaid.

Grand Jury, with the Approval of Judge, to adjust the Proportions of Grand Jury Cess.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Juries of the Counties of Meath and Louth respectively, for their respective Counties, from Time to Time, with the Approbation of the Judge or Judges of Assize for the Time being, to adjust or alter the Proportions in which and the Valuations according to which the Place or District so added to such County of Meath, and every Townland or other Denomination or Sub-denomination thereof, shall contribute to the Grand Jury Cess of such County of Meath, and the Proportions in which the Barony or Half Barony or other District from which such Place or District shall be so taken away shall so contribute to the Grand Jury Cess of the County of Louth, or in which any Barony, Half Barony, or District which shall not sustain any Increase or Diminution by such Change ought to contribute by reason of such Change: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Grand Juries of such Counties respectively, for their respective Counties, to direct that such Proportions and Valuations as aforesaid shall be entered in the County Books of such Counties respectively, and thereupon the same shall be so entered accordingly, and shall, until further altered or adjusted by Law, be the Proportions and Valuations according to which the Warrant of the Treasurers of such Counties respectively shall be made with respect to those Places to which such Valuations or Proportions shall relate: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Valuation made or to be made by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the several Acts for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in Ireland, and to incorporate certain detached Portions of Counties and Baronies with those Counties and Baronies respectively whereto the same may adjoin, or wherein the same are locally situate, or by virtue of any other Act or Acts, shall, under the Provisions of such Act or Acts, be or have been in force and applicable to any such Barony, Place, or District, or, if this Act had not been passed, would be so in force and applicable, regard shall be had to such Act or Acts, and to any Valuation made or to be made in pursuance thereof, in the Warrant of the Treasurers of such Counties respectively, and in the Levy of Grand Jury Cess of such Counties respectively, or such Barony and Place or District as aforesaid.

Proportions and Valuations to be entered in County Books.

Provision for Valuation under the 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 84.

A District taken from the County of Louth, and annexed to Drogheda, under the Corporation Acts, shall be exempted and exonerated from the former Debts due by Drogheda.

VIII. 'And whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Session held in the Third 'and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty a certain Place or District, being before the 'passing of the said Act Part of the County of Louth, is locally situate and included within the Boun- 'daries of the Borough of Drogheda as defined under the said recited Acts, and by reason thereof the 'said Place or District became and is deemed and taken to be Part of the County of the Town of 'Drogheda, and of no other County, and by reason thereof became and is liable to contribute to the 'Payment of a Proportion of Debts due and Instalments or Annuity payable by the said County of the 'Town of Drogheda to Her Majesty's Exchequer, for Advances of Money theretofore made to the said 'County of the Town of Drogheda, and to the Payment of a Proportion of Sums to be assessed by the 'Award of a Barrister on the said County of the Town of Drogheda, and on the Precincts of the same, 'under the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her 'present Majesty: And whereas it is just that the said Place or District so taken from the County of 'Louth, and annexed to the Borough of Drogheda, should be exonerated from the Payment of such 'Debts and Instalments, Annuity, or Sums of Money so due and payable for Sums advanced before 'such Annexation as aforesaid;' be it therefore enacted, That the said Place or District so taken from the County of Louth, and annexed to the said Borough of Drogheda, shall be exempt and exonerated from the Payment of any Proportion of such last-mentioned Debts, Instalments, Annuity, or Sums of Money, and that the Amount of the Assessments for the same from Time to Time to be made, from which the said Place or District is hereby exempted and exonerated, shall be from Time to Time assessed upon and levied from the remaining Portion of the Borough of Drogheda.

Court of Conscience, Drogheda, to have

IX. 'And whereas the Court of Conscience held before the Mayor of the Town and County of the 'Town of Drogheda, for determining Causes in all Small Debts between Party and Party under the 'Value

'Value of Ten Shillings, has been of great Use, and will be of still greater Advantage to the Inhabitants 'if the Jurisdiction of said Court be extended to the Determination of Causes in all Small Debts 'between Party and Party under the Value of Forty Shillings;' be it therefore enacted, That the Mayor of the said Town and County of the Town of Drogheda for the Time shall have full Power and Authority to hear and finally determine Causes in all Small Debts between Party and Party under the Value of Forty Shillings, and shall have and exercise in relation thereto all the Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdictions which the Mayor of said Town and County of the Town hath heretofore had and exercised in the said Court of Conscience. Jurisdiction to Extent of Forty Shillings.

X. 'And whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Acts certain Parts or Portions of the old 'County of the City of Waterford and of the ancient Liberties thereof, and certain Parts of Parishes or 'other Denominations, are not included within the Boundaries of the County of the City of Waterford as 'defined under the said recited Acts of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, 'and have for the Purpose of Grand Jury Presentments, and of Criminal Jurisdiction, and also of Civil 'Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin, become severally Part of the adjoining 'County of Waterford: And whereas a certain District of such old County of the City of Waterford 'not included within the Boundaries of the present County of the City of Waterford as defined under 'the said last-mentioned Acts is situate on the North Side of the River Suir, and has, as aforesaid, 'become Part of the County of Waterford; but Doubts having existed as to the true Construction of 'the said last-mentioned Acts in respect thereto, the said last-mentioned Portion or District situate on 'the North Side of the said River has been, since the passing of the said recited Acts of the Third and 'Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, erroneously deemed to be treated as Part of the County of 'Kilkenny, and the Justices of the Peace of the County of Kilkenny have under such erroneous Impres'sion exercised Jurisdiction therein as if the same were Part of the said County: And whereas it is just 'and expedient that the Acts of such Justices done under such erroneous Impression should be validated, 'and such Justices, and those acting under their Authority in that Behalf, should be indemnified;' be it therefore enacted, That all and every Act or Acts of any Justice or Justices of the Peace or of the Assistant Barrister of the County of Kilkenny, heretofore done in any Matter or Thing concerning or in anywise relating to or within the said District, from the Time when the same was by Law severed from the County of the City of Waterford, and the Act or Acts of any Constable or other Officer in obedience thereto, shall be and shall be deemed to have been as valid, good, and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if said Place or District had been at the Time of such Act or Acts lawfully a Part of the County of Kilkenny. The Acts of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Kilkenny heretofore done relating to the District herein mentioned shall be as valid as if the same had been Part of the County of Kilkenny.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Alteration of Act.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act to amend an Act, intituled An Act to carry into execution a Convention between His Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil, for the Regulation and final Abolition of the African Slave Trade.

[8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS a Convention was concluded between His late Majesty King George the Fourth and 'the Emperor of Brazil, for the Regulation and final Abolition of the African Slave Trade, and 'signed at Rio de Janeiro on the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred 'and twenty-six: And whereas by the said Convention it was agreed between the High Contracting 'Parties to adopt, for the Purpose and Period therein referred to, the several Articles and Provisions of 'the Treaties concluded between His said late Majesty and the King of Portugal on this Subject on the 'Twenty-second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen and on the Twenty-eighth 'Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and the several explanatory Articles which 'had been added thereto, with the Instructions, Regulations, and Forms of Instruments annexed to the 'Treaty of the said Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and to 'appoint forthwith Mixed Commissions for adjudicating the Cases of Vessels detained under the Provi'sions of the aforesaid Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred 'and twenty-six: And whereas such Mixed Commissions were accordingly appointed: And whereas an 'Act was passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to carry that Convention 'into execution, intituled An Act to carry into execution a Convention between His Majesty and the 7&8 G.4. c.74. 'Emperor of Brazil, for the Regulation and final Abolition of the Slave Trade: And whereas on the 'Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-five it was notified by the Imperial 'Government of Brazil to Her Majesty's Government, that the British and Brazilian Mixed Commis'sions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone would cease on the Thirteenth Day of the said 'Month of March; but that the Imperial Government would agree that the said Mixed Commissions 'should continue for Six Months longer, for the sole Purpose of adjudicating the Cases pending, and 'those which might have occurred before the said Thirteenth Day of March: And whereas it has 'become necessary to provide for the Adjudication of the Cases of such Vessels detained under the Pro'visions of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and 'twenty-six as were pending before the said Commissions or either of them and remained undecided on 'the said Thirteenth Day of March, and of the Cases of such other Vessels as may have been detained 'under the said Convention previously to the said Thirteenth Day of March, but had not then been 'brought in for Adjudication:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Mixed Commissions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone to proceed up to the Thirteenth Day of September in the current Year in the Adjudication of the Cases of such Vessels detained under the Provisions of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six as were pending before them or either of them and remained undecided on the said Thirteenth Day of March, and of the Cases of such other Vessels as may have been detained under the said Convention previously to the said Thirteenth Day of March, but had not then been brought in for Adjudication, in the same Manner and with the like Powers and Authorities in all respects as they possessed and exercised under the said Convention and under the said Act of Parliament.

Mixed Commissions to proceed up to the 13th Sept. 1845 in Adjudication of Vessels taken before the 13th of March 1845.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That any Decree or Sentence which may have been or shall be made or passed by either of the said Mixed British and Brazilian Commissions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone, on any Vessel or Vessels captured and brought in before either of the said Commissions from the said Thirteenth Day of March last to the said Thirteenth Day of September ensuing inclusive by any Person or Persons in Her Majesty's Service acting under any such Order or Authority as aforesaid, is and shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes.

Certain Decrees and Sentences of Mixed Commissions to be valid.

III. 'And whereas by the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight 'hundred and twenty-six it was agreed and concluded by and between the High Contracting Parties, 'that at the Expiration of Three Years, to be reckoned from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the 'said Convention, it should not be lawful for the Subjects of the Emperor of Brazil to be concerned in 'the carrying on of the African Slave Trade under any Pretext or in any Manner whatever, and that 'the carrying on such Trade after that Period by any Person, Subject of His Imperial Majesty, should 'be deemed and treated as Piracy: And whereas it has become necessary, for the Purpose of carrying 'into effect the said Convention, that so much of the said Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of His 'late Majesty King George the Fourth as prohibits the High Court of Admiralty and the Courts of Vice 'Admiralty from exercising Jurisdiction over Vessels captured in virtue of the said Convention shall be 'repealed, and that further Provisions be made for the due Execution of the same;' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as prohibits the High Court of Admiralty or any Court of Vice Admiralty in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions from adjudicating on any Claim, Action, or Suit arising out of the said Convention, or as makes any Provision for barring any such Claim, Action, Suit, or Proceeding in the High Court of Admiralty or any of the said Courts of Vice Admiralty, shall be repealed.

Part of 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 74. repealed.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's High Court of Admiralty and any Court of Vice Admiralty within Her Majesty's Dominions to take cognizance of and adjudicate any Vessel carrying on the African Slave Trade in contravention of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and detained and seized on that Account subsequently to the said Thirteenth Day of March, by any Person or Persons in the Service of Her Majesty, under any Order or Authority of the Lord High Admiral or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or of One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, and the Slaves and Cargo found therein, in like Manner and under the like Rules and Regulations as are contained in any Act of Parliament now in force in relation to the Suppression of the Slave Trade by British-owned Ships, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if such Acts were re-enacted in this Act as to such Vessels and to such High Court of Admiralty or Courts of Vice Admiralty.

Vessels engaged in the Slave Trade contrary to the said Convention to be tried by Courts of Admiralty.

V. And be it enacted, That all Persons acting under any such Order or Authority of the Lord High Admiral or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or of One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, shall be freed and indemnified from and against all Writs, Actions, Suits, and Proceedings whatever, and all Prosecutions and Penalties, for being concerned in any Search, Detention, Capture, or Condemnation of any Vessel which shall have been found carrying on the African Slave Trade in contravention of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, or in the Arrest or Detention of any Person found on board such Vessel, or on account of the Cargo thereof, or any thing done in relation thereto, and that no Action, Suit, Writ, or Proceeding whatever shall be maintained or maintainable in any Court in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions against any Person for any Act done under any such Order or Authority as aforesaid.

Indemnity to Persons acting in execution of this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That any Ship or Vessel which shall be detained under any such Order or Authority as aforesaid, and shall have been condemned by Her Majesty's High Court of Admiralty or by any Court of Vice Admiralty, may be taken into Her Majesty's Service, upon Payment of such Sum as the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral shall deem a proper Price for the same, or, if not so taken, shall be broken up and entirely demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts.

Vessels condemned to be sold for Her Majesty's Service, or broken up.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Court of Vice Admiralty shall from Time to Time as shall be required by the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, certify to the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners the Name of every Ship or Vessel condemned in such Court of Vice Admiralty under this Act, and the Date of the Condemnation thereof; and the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners shall once in every Year report to Her Majesty which of the Ships or Vessels condemned in the said High Court of Admiralty or in any Court of Vice Admiralty under this Act have been taken into Her Majesty's Service, and which have been broken up, and in each Case the Amount of the Price paid for the same or Sum for which the Materials were sold; and a Copy of of every such Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the same shall be received, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not then within Six Weeks next after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Extending Provisions of 5 G. 4. c. 113., 11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 55., 1 & 2 Vict. c. 47., and 5 & 6 Vict. c. 91. to Vessels seized under this Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That so much of the several Enactments set forth in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade, and in an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to reduce the Rate of Bounties payable upon the Seizure of Slaves, and in an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better and more effectually carrying into effect the Treaties and Conventions made with Foreign Powers for suppressing the Slave Trade, as relates to Persons giving false Evidence being guilty of Perjury; to maintaining and providing for captured Slaves pending Adjudication; to condemning Slaves as Forfeitures to the Crown; to rewarding the Captors with a Bounty on the Vessel as well as on the Slaves; to authorizing the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to order Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty where Slaves may not have been condemned or delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance; to the Mode of obtaining such Bounties; to authorizing the High Court of Admiralty to determine as to doubtful Claims of Bounty, and also on any Question of joint Capture; and to enforcing any Decree or Sentence of any Vice Admiralty Court; and also the whole of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, for the Suppression of the Slave Trade, shall be applied mutatis mutandis, to all Cases of Vessels detained and seized for carrying on the African Slave Trade in contravention of the said Convention.

Alteration of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act to authorize until the End of the next Session of Parliament an Alteration of the Annuities and Premiums of the Naval Medical Supplemental Fund Society. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS under an Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, the Naval Medical Supplemental Fund Society was established for the Relief of Widows of Medical Officers in the Royal Navy, and certain Rules and Regulations were thereby made and prescribed for the Government, Regulation, and Management of the said Society and the Funds thereof: And whereas certain Pensions and Annuities have been and are paid and payable by, and Premiums have been and are paid and payable to, the said Society, and it is expedient to reduce or vary the Amount and Rate thereof, in order to prevent any Encroachment on the Funds of the said Society:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Admiral or the First Lord Commissioner of the Admiralty Board for the Time being, as Patron of the said Society, and for the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being as President of the said Society, to vary and reduce at any Time, and from Time to Time, by Writing under their respective Hands, as the Exigencies of the Case may seem to them requisite, the Amount of the Annuity now or hereafter payable by the said Society to Widows or other Claimants, provided that the Amount of the Annuities be not thereby rendered less than Two Thirds of the Amount which is now paid, and also to vary and increase the Rate of Premium which now is or shall be paid to the said Society for or in respect of any Annuity, so that the Amount of the Premium shall not exceed the Rate established by the said Order in Council: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall render it obligatory on any Person to commence or continue the Payment of the full or reduced Amount of any such Premiums of Insurance as aforesaid.

Amount of Annuities payable by the Society to Widows or other Claimants may be varied.

Duration of Act.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from the passing thereof, and shall continue in force to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Act to be a Public Act.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

Alteration of Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to facilitate the granting of certain Leases. [8th August 1845.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the leasing of Lands and Tenements: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Party to any Deed made according to the Forms set forth in the First Schedule to this Act, or to any other Deed which shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall employ in such Deed respectively any of the Forms of Words contained in Column I. of the Second Schedule hereto annexed, and distinguished by any Number therein, such Deed shall be taken to have the same Effect and be construed as if such Party had inserted in such Deed the Form of Words contained in Column II. of the same Schedule, and distinguished by the same Number as is annexed to the Form of Words

Where the Words of Column I. of the Second Schedule employed, the Deed to have the same Effect as if Words of Column II. were inserted.

Words employed by such Party; but it shall not be necessary in any such Deed to insert any such Number.

Deed to include all Houses, &c.

II. That every such Deed, unless any Exception be specially made therein, shall be held and construed to include all Outhouses, Buildings, Barns, Stables, Yards, Gardens, Cellars, ancient and other Lights, Paths, Passages, Ways, Waters, Watercourses, Liberties, Privileges, Easements, Profits, Commodities, Emoluments, Hereditaments, and Appurtenances whatsoever, to the Lands and Tenements therein comprised belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Remuneration for Deed under the Act not to be by Length only.

III. That in taxing any Bill for preparing and executing any Deed under this Act it shall be lawful for the Taxing Officer and he is hereby required, in estimating the proper Sum to be charged for such Transaction, to consider, not the Length of such Deed, but only the Skill and Labour employed, and Responsibility incurred, in the Preparation thereof.

Deed not taking effect by this Act to be valid.

IV. That any Deed or Part of a Deed which shall fail to take effect by virtue of this Act shall nevertheless be as valid and effectual, and shall bind the Parties thereto, so far as the Rules of Law and Equity will permit, as if this Act had not been made.

Construction Clause.

V. That in the Construction and for the Purposes of this Act, and the Schedules hereto annexed, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, the Word "Lands" shall extend to all Tenements and Hereditaments of Freehold Tenure, and to such Customary Lands as will pass by Deed, or Deed and Surrender, and not by Surrender alone, or any undivided Part or Share therein respectively; and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing, and the converse; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male; and the Word "Party" shall mean and include any Body Politic or Corporate or Collegiate, as well as an Individual.

Schedules, &c. Part of Act.

VI. That the Schedules, and the Directions and Forms therein contained, shall be deemed and taken to be Parts of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

VII. That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of October.

Extent of Act.

VIII. That this Act shall not extend to Scotland.

Provided always, and it is expressly agreed, that if the Rent hereby reserved, or any Part thereof, shall be unpaid for Fifteen Days after any of the Days on which the same ought to have been paid (although no formal Demand shall have been made thereof), or in case of the Breach or Nonperformance of any of the Covenants and Agreements herein contained on the Part of the said Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, then and in either of such Cases it shall be lawful for the said Lessor, at any Time thereafter, into and upon the said demised Premises, or any Part thereof in the Name of the whole, to re-enter, and the same to have again, re-possess, and enjoy as of his or their former Estate, any thing herein-after contained to the contrary notwithstanding.
12. The said [Lessor] covenants with the said [Lessee] for quiet Enjoyment.	12. And the Lessor doth hereby, for himself, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, covenant with the said Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, that he and they, paying the Rent hereby reserved, and performing the Covenants herein-before on his and their Part contained, shall and may peaceably possess and enjoy the said demised Premises for the Term hereby granted, without any Interruption or Disturbance from the said Lessor, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any other Person or Persons lawfully claiming by, from, or under him, them, or any of them.

CAP. CXXV.

An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and to the End of the then Session of Parliament, certain Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in Ireland. [8th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS certain Acts for making, amending, and repairing the Turnpike Roads in Ireland were by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, amended and continued for a Time therein limited: And whereas, under the Provisions of Three Acts passed respectively in the Sessions of Parliament holden in the Fifth, and in the Fifth and Sixth, and in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty's Reign, the said Acts were further continued for a Time therein limited: And whereas, under the Provisions of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, the said Acts, except as therein mentioned, are further continued and will remain in force until the Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the several Acts for making, amending, or repairing Turnpike Roads in Ireland should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Act for making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road or Roads in Ireland which will expire on the said Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or at or before the End of the present or next ensuing Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby continued, as amended by the said recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXXVI.

An Act to amend the Laws for the Provision and Regulation of Lunatic Asylums for Counties and Boroughs, and for the Maintenance and Care of Pauper Lunatics, in England.

[8th August 1845.]

Repeal of 9 G. 4. c. 40.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws for the Erection and Regulation of County Lunatic Asylums, and more effectually to provide for the Care and Maintenance of Pauper and Criminal Lunatics, in England, shall be repealed, except so far as the said Act repealed any previous Act or Acts, and except as to any Matters committed or done, or contracted to be committed or done, before the passing of this Act, which shall be as if this Act had not passed: Provided always, nevertheless, that all Asylums which have been commenced under the said repealed Act shall be completed under the said repealed Act or this Act, and that all Asylums which have been or shall be erected, completed, or established under the said repealed Act, or any Act thereby repealed, shall, after the passing of this Act, be regulated under and be subject to the Provisions and Directions of this Act.

Proviso for Asylums commenced under the repealed Act.

Justices of the Peace of every County and Borough not having a Lunatic Asylum to provide one.

II. And be it enacted, That the Justices of every County and Borough which has no Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof shall, after the passing of this Act, either erect or provide an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough alone, or shall unite with some County or Borough (whether such last-named County or Borough shall or shall not have a Lunatic Asylum), or with the Subscribers to some Lunatic Asylum theretofore established by voluntary Subscription, in erecting or providing an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough; and that if the Justices of any County or Borough having no Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof shall not, within the Period of Three Years from the passing of this Act, have erected or provided, or united in or commenced erecting or providing, an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to require the Justices of such County or Borough to erect or provide, or unite in erecting or providing, such an Asylum for the Purpose aforesaid as Her Majesty's said Principal Secretary of State shall think fit, and such Justices shall thereupon erect or provide, or unite in erecting or providing, such Asylum accordingly.

Justices of every County and Recorder of every Borough not having a Lunatic Asylum to give Notice of their Intention to appoint a Committee to superintend the providing of an Asylum.

III. And be it enacted, That the Justices of every County and the Recorder of every Borough which has no Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof shall, on or before the General or Quarter Sessions for each County or Borough next after the Twentieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, direct public Notice to be given by the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough, and such Clerk of the Peace of the County shall, within Ten Days thereafter, give Notice in some Newspaper or Newspapers commonly circulated in such County, of the Intention of the Justices of the County to appoint at the then next succeeding General or Quarter Sessions, and such Clerk of the Peace of the Borough shall in like Manner give Notice of the Intention of the Justices of the Borough to appoint, at a Special Meeting to be fixed in such Notice, within Three Months from the Date thereof, a Committee of Justices either to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough alone, or to treat and enter into an Agreement with the Justices of some other County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, or with the Subscribers to some Lunatic Asylum theretofore established by voluntary Subscription, for the erecting or providing an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough.

Justices of every County and Borough not having a Lunatic Asylum, to appoint a Committee to superintend the providing one.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Justices of every County which has no Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof shall, at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, after such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, and the Justices of every Borough which has no Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof, at the Special Meeting to be named as aforesaid, shall elect some Justices to be a Committee either to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough alone, or to treat and enter into an Agreement with the Committee or Committees of Justices of any other County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, or with the Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum theretofore established by voluntary Subscription, for the erecting or providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough: Provided always, that the Committee of Justices to be so appointed for erecting or providing an Asylum for the sole Use of any One County or Borough shall not consist of less than Seven Justices, and that the Committee of Justices to be so appointed to treat with any other Committee or Committees or Subscribers as aforesaid for erecting or providing an Asylum as aforesaid shall not consist of more than Fifteen nor of less than Three Justices: Provided also, that every Borough in which, at the passing of this Act, there shall not be Six Justices, besides a Recorder, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be annexed to and be Part of the County in which it is wholly situated, or in case it be not wholly situated in any One County shall be annexed to and be Part of such One of the Counties in which it is situate, as Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, direct; and the Recorder of every such last-mentioned Borough shall, at the General or Quarter Sessions next after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, nominate and appoint Two of the Justices of such Borough to be Members of the Committee of Justices of the County to which such Borough is hereby or shall be annexed, in addition to the Members of the Committee for such County; and the Committee of Justices of every County to which any Borough is hereby or shall be annexed as aforesaid shall from Time to Time fix the Sum Every Borough not having Six Justices, besides the Recorder, to be annexed to the County or one of the Counties in which it is situate, for the Purposes of this Act.

to

to be contributed by such Borough towards the Expences of and incident to the erecting, providing, and maintaining the Asylum of such County according to the comparative Population of such Borough and County as stated in the then last Returns made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, and give Notice thereof in Writing to the Treasurer of such Borough; and such Sum shall be raised by a Borough Rate to be made by the Council of the Borough, in like Manner as is directed by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, or out of the Borough Fund if the Council shall think fit, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Borough to the Treasurer of the Asylum: Provided also, that where the Subscribers to any Asylum established by voluntary Subscriptions enter into any Agreement with the Justices of any County or Borough under this Act, nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the Reception into the Asylum provided by such Subscribers and such Justices under such Agreement, or the Discharge therefrom, of so many of any Lunatics, other than Pauper Lunatics, as might have been received into the Asylum so established by voluntary Subscription if this Act had not been passed.

5&6W.4. c.76.

Proviso for Asylums established by voluntary Contributions.

Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum authorized to appoint a Committee to treat with Committee of Justices for uniting such Asylum, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum supported by voluntary Subscriptions already established, present at any Meeting of Subscribers to the same, which shall be called together by Advertisement in a Newspaper commonly circulated in the Place where such Asylum is situate, for the express Purpose of making such Election and Appointment, to elect and appoint any Number of Subscribers, not exceeding Five, to form a Committee to treat and enter into an Agreement with the Committee or Committees of Justices of any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, elected or appointed as aforesaid, to unite such Asylum supported by voluntary Subscriptions with an Asylum for such County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, under the Provisions and for the Purposes of this Act.

Committees of Justices and Subscribers, if they unite, to enter into an Agreement in the Form in Schedule (A.)

VI. And be it enacted, That when Two or more Committees of Justices, so elected or appointed as aforesaid, shall agree to unite, either together or together and with any Committee of such Subscribers as aforesaid, for the Purposes of this Act, and where any One Committee of Justices so elected or appointed as aforesaid, shall agree to unite with any Committee of such Subscribers as aforesaid for the Purposes of this Act, an Agreement shall be entered into and signed by the said several Committees, or the major Part of such Committees respectively, in the Form or to the Effect set forth in Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed; and such Agreement, when signed by the major Part of each or every such Committee (and not before), shall be binding upon the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers, for or on behalf of which or whom the Committees so signing such Agreement shall have been respectively elected or appointed; and every such Agreement shall specify the Proportion in which the Expences necessary for carrying into execution the Powers and Purposes of this Act shall be charged and assessed upon the several Counties and Boroughs and Subscribers so uniting, such Proportions, as regards the several Counties and Boroughs, to be calculated by the said Committees of Justices in proportion to the Population of the said several Counties and Boroughs as stated in the then last Returns made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, and, as regards the Subscribers, to be calculated by the Committee of Subscribers; and every such Agreement shall also specify the Numbers of every Committee of the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, or Subscribers, so uniting.

Committee of Justices to report and deliver a Copy of the Agreement.

VII. And be it enacted, That whensoever any Agreement shall have been so entered into and signed as aforesaid, the Committee for each County and Borough so uniting shall report the same to the Justices of such County or the Recorder of such Borough at the then next General or Quarter Sessions, and shall then and there deliver into Court a Duplicate of the said Agreement, to be by the Clerk of the Peace of the same County or Borough entered among the Records thereof.

Justices of every County and Borough having a Lunatic Asylum, but of insufficient Accommodation, to provide an additional Asylum or Accommodation.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Justices of every County and Borough which has or shall have an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof, but which has or shall have more Pauper Lunatics than such Asylum will properly accommodate, and the Justices of every County or Borough which has or shall have an Asylum which any One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, declare to be inadequate or unfit for the proper Accommodation of the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough, shall erect or provide additional Buildings or an additional Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough as the said Secretary of State shall direct: Provided always, that in case the Asylum so declared inadequate or unfit as aforesaid shall be a Workhouse, it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, if he shall think fit, upon the Application in Writing of the Guardians or Overseers of the Union or Parish to whom such Workhouse shall belong, or of the major Part of them, to direct such additional Buildings or such additional Asylum as aforesaid to be erected or provided by the said Guardians or Overseers; and every such Workhouse which shall be so added to, and every such additional Asylum which shall be erected or provided as last aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be a Lunatic Asylum for such County or Borough, and shall be included in and shall be subject to the Provisions of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Guardians or Overseers to whom such Direction shall be given, and they are hereby authorized, to apply, or to assess, raise, and levy such Sum or Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid from such Funds, or by such Powers, Ways, and Means, as are now by Law belonging or given to or vested in such Guardians or Overseers specially, or in Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor generally, in relation to the Purchase or Hiring of Lands, or the Purchase, building, hiring, enlarging, or maintaining of Workhouses: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of any such County, in General or Quarter Sessions, or of any Borough, with the Consent of the Poor Law Commissioners for England and and Wales, and of the Guardians and Overseers of the Union or Parish, to take and use a Workhouse for the Reception of all or any of the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough who may be chronic Lunatics; and every Workhouse so taken and used shall thereafter cease to be a Workhouse for other Purposes whilst so used, and shall be and be deemed for all the Purposes of this Act to be a Lunatic Asylum of such County or Borough, and to be included in the Provisions of this Act.

Power for the Visitors of existing County and Borough Asylums to unite, under the Powers of this Act, with the Visitors of any other County or Borough.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Committee of Visitors for the Time being of any Asylum already erected for any County or Borough or united Counties or Boroughs, and also for the Committee of Visitors for the Time being of any Asylum already erected for any County or Borough or united Counties or Boroughs, jointly with any voluntary Subscribers, to unite, under the Powers of this Act, and in manner herein-after directed, and either by way of Purchase or by Payment of any Sum in the Nature of Rent, or otherwise, with any other County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, or any voluntary Subscribers, for the joint Use of any Asylum already erected, or for the erecting or providing of additional Buildings or an additional Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs; and in every such Case if the said existing Asylum shall not afterwards be used by the united County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs jointly, the Expences of and incident to the erecting, providing, and maintaining the said additional Buildings or additional Asylum shall be charged and assessed upon the several Counties, Boroughs, and Subscribers so uniting as herein-before provided in the Case of Counties and Boroughs none of which have an Asylum; but if the said existing Asylum shall afterwards be used by the united County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs jointly, the Committees of Visitors of the several Counties, Boroughs, or Subscribers, as the Case may be, which shall be so united shall fix the Sum to be paid by the County or Borough, or each of the Counties and Boroughs, not then having any Asylum, towards the Expences then already incurred in erecting or providing such Asylum as aforesaid, and the same shall be paid by every such County or Borough to the Treasurer of such Asylum, and shall be raised by such County or Borough in the same Manner as other Monies are hereby directed to be raised by Counties and Boroughs respectively for the Purposes of this Act, and shall be applied by the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum in such Manner as such Committee shall think fit, according to the Provisions and for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act; and in every Case of any such Union as last aforesaid an Agreement shall be entered into according to the Form or to the Effect set forth in the said Schedule (A.) and shall contain the same Specifications as herein-before required in the Case of an Agreement for an Union by Counties and Boroughs none of which has an Asylum.

Boroughs now contributing to a County Asylum deemed to have an Asylum.

Any Borough, upon Notice, may separate itself from a County Asylum.

X. And be it enacted, That every Borough which is situate within a County having an Asylum for Pauper Lunatics, and which under any previous Act now contributes to such Asylum, shall, for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, be considered as having an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of the said Borough: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any such Borough at any Time hereafter, upon giving Six Calendar Months Notice in Writing, under the Hand of the Town Clerk, in pursuance of a Resolution of the Council of such Borough, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, to separate itself, so far as it relates to the Establishment of a Lunatic Asylum for such County and the Maintenance of Lunatics therein, from the County in which such Borough may be situated, and from and after the Expiration of such Notice such Borough shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed a Borough not having an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof: Provided also, that from and after the Expiration of such Notice, and until the Withdrawal from such County Asylum of all the Lunatics from or belonging to any such Borough, such Borough shall be liable to contribute towards the Expences of such Asylum, in the same Manner and to the same Extent as such Borough would have been liable to contribute if Notice of Separation had not been given; and from and after the Expiration of such Notice, and the Withdrawal from such County Asylum of all Lunatics from or belonging to such Borough, then and in such Case such Borough shall not be liable to pay or contribute towards the Expence of the Establishment of such Asylum, or the Maintenance of Lunatics therein, save only such Proportion of the Expences of maintaining Lunatics chargeable to the County in which such Borough is situate which would have been chargeable upon such Borough in case it had not so separated from the County.

Present Visitors to remain in Office till Sessions next after 20th Dec. 1845.

XI. And be it enacted, That in every County and Borough for which an Asylum has been already provided the present Committee of Visiting Justices, or of Visiting Justices and Subscribers, or of Visitors thereof, shall continue to be the Committee of Visiting Justices or Visitors thereof until the General or Quarter Sessions which shall be held next after the Twentieth Day of December in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

For the Appointment of future Visitors.

XII. And be it enacted, That at the General or Quarter Sessions to be held next after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year the Justices of every County, and at a Special Meeting to be held within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year the Justices of every Borough, having for the Time being an Asylum (whether already erected or provided, or in course of Erection, or hereafter to be erected or provided, or in course of being erected or provided) either for the sole Use of such County or Borough, or otherwise as aforesaid, shall elect some Justices of such County or Borough to be a Committee on behalf of such County or Borough for the Purposes of the said Asylum, during the Year then next ensuing the Election; and in case of the Incapacity, Resignation, or Death of any Member of the said Committee, the said Justices of every County at any General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or the Justices of every Borough at a Special Meeting, may elect a Justice to be a Member of such Committee for the then Remainder of the current Year in the Place of the Member who shall have so become incapable, resigned, or died; and in the Month of January in every Year the Subscribers to every Lunatic Asylum already erected by voluntary Subscription, and which shall have been then united or be intended to unite with any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, as aforesaid, under the Provisions of any former or of this present Act, or the Majority of such Subscribers present at a Meeting of which Notice shall have been given by public Advertisement in some Newspaper circulated within the Place in which such Lunatic Asylum shall be situated, shall elect some of such Subscribers to be a Committee on behalf of such Subscribers, for the Purposes of such Asylum, during the Year then next ensuing; and in case of the Incapacity, Resignation, or Death of any Member of the said Committee, a Majority of the said Subscribers present at any Meeting called as aforesaid may elect a Subscriber to be a Member of such Committee for the then Remainder of the current Year in the Place of the Member who shall have so become incapable, resigned, or died; and in every Case in which there shall be or be intended to be an Asylum for the sole Use of any One County or Borough, the Committee of Justices elected for such One County or Borough as aforesaid shall be the Committee of Justices for the Visitation, Management, providing, and erecting of such Asylum, House, or Place, and shall be called the "Committee of Visitors;" and in every Case in which any One or more County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, shall be united together, or with any Subscribers as aforesaid, or together and also with any Subscribers as aforesaid, the said Committees of such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers, as the Case may be, shall form and be One Committee for the Visitation, Management, providing, and erecting of the Asylum for such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers, as the Case may be, and shall be called the "Committee of Visitors:" Provided always, that the Number of Justices to be elected to be the Committee of Visitors of any County or Borough having an Asylum, House, or Place for its sole Use shall not be less than Seven, and that the Number of the Justices of every County and Borough, and of every Body of Subscribers, heretofore united as aforesaid, to be elected to be the Committee of Visitors, shall be the Number specified in the Agreement entered into for effecting or regulating such Union as aforesaid; and that the Number of the Justices of every County and Borough, and of every Body of Subscribers, which shall be hereafter united as aforesaid, to be elected to be the Committee of Visitors, shall be the Number specified in the Agreement entered into for effecting such Union, but so that the Number of Justices for any County to be hereafter united shall not be more than Fifteen nor less than Seven, or for any Borough more than Seven nor less than Three.

Former Visitors to remain in Office in case of the Omission of an Election, or of filling up a Vacancy.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if any such Justices or Subscribers as aforesaid shall in any Year neglect or omit to make such Election, or to fill up any Vacancy which may have occurred as aforesaid, or there shall be any Delay in making or filling up the same, then the Committee of Visiting Justices, or Visitors lastly before appointed, or such of them as shall continue to act, shall be deemed and taken to be the Committee of Visiting Justices or Visitors for the Purposes aforesaid until such Election as aforesaid shall have been made or such Vacancy shall have been filled up.

Meetings of Visitors.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the several Persons who shall at first and at each general annual Election be elected Members of any Committee of Visitors shall, within One Calendar Month after their Election, assemble at some convenient Place, to be named in a Notice previously given by Two or more of such Visitors or their Clerk to the several Members of such Committee, and that the said Visitors may adjourn the said Meeting from Time to Time or from Place to Place, and meet where and as often as they shall think necessary; and the said Visitors shall at their first Meeting after their Election elect One of their Members to be Chairman for the Year, who shall preside at all Meetings at which he shall be present; and in case of the Absence of the Chairman from any Meeting the Members of the Committee then present shall elect One of such Members to be Chairman for the Meeting, who shall preside at the Meeting; and to constitute a Meeting of a Committee there shall be present not less than Three Members thereof, except for Adjournment, which may be made by less than Three; and every Question shall be decided by a Majority of Votes (the Chairman, whether permanent or temporary, having a Vote), and in the event of an Equality of Votes on any Question the Chairman for the Time being shall have an additional or casting Vote; and every such Committee of Visitors shall appoint a Clerk to such Visitors for the Purposes of this Act, at such Salary or Remuneration as such Visitors shall think fit, and from Time to Time, if and when they shall think fit, remove such Clerk or any future Clerk, and in any such Case, and in case of the Death or Resignation of any such Clerk, and as often as the same shall occur, appoint a new Clerk.

Every Committee to elect a Chairman.

Meetings of Committee.

Questions how to be decided.

Visitors to appoint a Clerk.

The Chairman, or Two Visitors, or the Clerk, may convene Meetings of Visitors in certain Cases.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Committee of Visitors shall neglect to adjourn any Meeting of such Visitors, and whenever any Circumstance shall render the Meeting of such Committee necessary or convenient before the Time to which their Meeting may have been last adjourned, and in any other Case in which a Meeting of such Committee shall be desirable, it shall be lawful for the Chairman of the Committee, or any Two of the Visitors, or the Clerk of such Visitors, to convene a new Meeting by a Circular Letter to each Visitor, informing him of the Time and Place of such Meeting, Ten Days at least before the same shall be held.

Visitors may sue and be sued in the Name of their Clerk, &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every Committee of Visitors may sue and be sued in the Name of their Clerk; and that no Action which may be brought or commenced by or against any such Committee of Visitors in the Name of their Clerk shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Clerk, but the Clerk for the Time being to the Visitors shall always be deemed Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action as the Case shall be.

XVII. And

When an Asylum, &c. is required, the Visitors to procure and determine on Plans and Estimates, and to contract for the Purchase of Lands and Buildings, and for erecting, &c. the necessary Buildings.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Committee of Visitors for any County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, for which an Asylum or an additional Asylum, or additional Accommodation for Pauper Lunatics shall for the Time being be required, shall, subject as herein-after mentioned, procure, examine, and determine on Plans and Estimates of and contract for the Purchase of Lands and Buildings (and in the Case of Buildings either with or without any Fittings-up and Furniture belonging thereto), and for building, erecting, altering, improving, restoring, furnishing, and completing an Asylum or additional Asylum or additional Accommodation for the Pauper Lunatics of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, for which such Visitors, or such of them as shall not be elected by Subscribers as aforesaid, shall be appointed, or for those of the same Pauper Lunatics for whom there shall not be proper Acccommodation in any existing Asylum, or, with the Consent of the said Poor Law Commissioners, and of the Guardians or Overseers of the Parish or Union, for adapting any Workhouse for all or any of the same Lunatics who may be chronic Lunatics; and, subject as aforesaid, shall also contract for making, laying out, and completing the Yards, Courts, Outlets, Grounds, Lands, and Appurtenances to such Asylum or additional Asylum or Workhouse, and also from Time to Time to purchase any Land or Buildings for the Purpose of enlarging or improving any such Asylum, Workhouse, or the Yards, Courts, Outlets, Grounds, Land, and Appurtenances thereto; and every Contractor shall give to the Clerk to such Visitors sufficient Security for the due Performance of the Contract; and every such Contract, and all Orders relating thereto, shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the Clerk to such Visitors; and when such Asylum or Workhouse and Appurtenances, or (as the Case may be) the Additions to or Alterations thereof, shall be declared to be completed, then such Book shall be deposited and kept among the Records of the County or Borough, or, in the Case of Two or more Counties or Boroughs having united for the Purposes of such Contract, among the Records of such One of the united Counties or Boroughs as shall have paid the largest Proportion of the Expences of such Contract; and every such Book may be inspected at all reasonable Times by any Person contributing to the Rates of such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs respectively, and also if any Part of such Expences has been paid by voluntary Subscriptions, by any of such voluntary Subscribers; and a Copy of every such Book shall be kept at the Asylum or additional Asylum which shall have been erected or provided; and all Lands and Buildings so to be purchased as aforesaid shall be conveyed to such Person or Persons as the Visitors by whom the same shall be purchased shall think fit, in trust for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that the said Visitors shall from Time to Time make their Report to the General or Quarter Sessions of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, for which they, or such of them as shall not have been elected by Subscribers as aforesaid, shall be elected, of the several Plans, Estimates, Contracts, and Purchases which shall have been agreed upon, and of the Sum or Sums of Money necessary to be raised and levied for defraying the Purchase Monies and Expences thereof on the County or Borough, or in the Case of Two or more Counties or Boroughs having united for such Purposes, on each or every of such Counties or Boroughs, which Plans, Estimates, Contracts, and Purchases shall be subject to the Approbation of the Court or Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of such County or Counties, and of the Justices of such Borough or Boroughs, before the same shall be completed or carried into execution.

Contractors to give Security.

Contracts and Orders to be entered in a Book to be deposited, and to be open to Inspection.

Lands purchased to be conveyed in trust for the Purposes of this Act, and Visitors to report.

Power to Visitors to purchase in consideration of a Rent reserved.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Committee of Visitors to purchase and take a Conveyance for the Purposes of this Act from any Person having absolute Power to sell and convey, independently of this Act, any Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments, in consideration of a yearly Rentcharge or annual Sum to be limited to such Person, his Heirs and Assigns, or as he or they shall direct, out of the Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments to be purchased, and which shall be conveyed to such Committee of Visitors, subject thereto, and to the usual Powers of Distress and Entry for securing the same.

Power for Visitors to take a Lease at a Rent.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Committee of Visitors, instead of purchasing any Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments which they are hereby authorized to purchase, to take a Lease thereof for any absolute Term of not less than Sixty Years at such annual Rent and under such Covenants as the said Committee of Visitors shall think fit.

Power for incapacitated Persons to convey and exchange.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and with the Consent in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and for Her Majesty, by Grant signed by the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and for the Council of the Duchy of Cornwall, by the Lord Warden of the Stannaries, in manner required by Law, and for the Guardians and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Union of Parishes under the Direction and with the Approbation of the Poor Law Commissioners for England and Wales, and for the Visitors or Trustees of any Building now used or hereafter to be used as an Asylum for Pauper Lunatics, or of any Land held therewith, and for any Lay or Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole, and for any Feoffees or Trustees to charitable or other Uses, and for any Person beneficially seised or entitled in possession as Tenant in Fee Simple, or in Fee Tail, general or special, or for his own Life, or for Years determinable on his own Life (such Estate for Life or Years not being subject to any Rent), or for any Term of Years in gross, whereof not less than Four hundred shall be unexpired, and subject to no Equity of Redemption or Rent, except a nominal Rent, and for any married Woman entitled or interested as aforesaid to her separate Use, whether with or without any Restriction as to Anticipation, and for the Guardian, Trustee, Husband, or Committee of any Person so seised or entitled, who shall be an Infant, married Woman not separately entitled, Lunatic, or under any other Disability, to dispose of, by way of absolute Sale, or in exchange for any Buildings, Lands, or other Hereditaments, any Lands, Buildings, or other Hereditaments for the Purpose of the same being used or converted into an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics or any of the Pauper Lunatics of any County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, either alone or together with any other Lunatics, or being used as the Site of any such Asylum, or of being occupied therewith, or for any other Purpose relating to the Custody, Accommodation, or Employment of Pauper Lunatics to be received into such Asylum, which the Visitors thereof may approve of, with the Rights, Easements, and Appurtenances, and to convey the same and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof unto such Person or Persons as shall be named by the said Committee of Visitors, and in such Manner as the said Committee of Visitors may direct, and to accept or give any Monies by way of Equality of Exchange.

Application of Money on a Sale by or an Exchange with any incapacitated Person.

XXI. And be it enacted, That all Money which shall be agreed to be paid to any Corporation, or to any Trustee, Guardian, or Committee for or on behalf of any Infant, Ward, Lunatic, married Woman, or other Person under Disability, or to any Person not having Power to sell except under the Provisions herein-before contained, for the Purchase or Equality of Exchange of Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall, in case the same shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and there shall be no Person capable of giving a sufficient Discharge for the same, be paid by the said Committee of Visitors into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account to the Credit of the Parties who shall be so interested in the said Hereditaments, describing them, subject to the Order of the said Court of Chancery, which said Court, on the Petition of or Motion on behalf of any Corporation or Person making claim to any such Money, is hereby empowered summarily to order the Investment of such Money in the Purchase of Real Estates to be settled to the same Uses and upon the same Trusts as the Lands so sold were previously subject to, or in the Public Funds, and the Distribution of the Rents and Dividends thereof respectively, according to the respective Interests of the Claimants thereof, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the Court shall seem reasonable; and the Cashier of the Bank of England who shall receive such Money shall give a Receipt to the Party paying the same, specifying for what the same is received, which Receipt shall be to all Intents and Purposes a sufficient Discharge; but such Money, in case the same shall not exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall be paid to the Party or Parties by whom the Sale or Exchange shall be made, for his and their own absolute Benefit.

Persons in possession to be deemed entitled till the contrary be shown.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in case of any Doubt or Question of Title to any Money paid into the Bank of England by virtue of this Act, or the Securities on which the same may be invested, or the Dividends or Interest thereof, the Corporation or Person who shall have been in the Possession of such Hereditaments, Interests, or Incumbrances at the Time of such Purchase or Exchange, and Persons claiming under them, shall be deemed and taken to be lawfully entitled to such Hereditaments, Interests, or Incumbrances until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery, and the Securities and Principal and Interest Monies shall be applied and disposed of accordingly.

Court of Chancery may order Expences to be paid by Visitors.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That in case of such Purchase or Exchange, Payment into the Bank of England, and Application to the Court of Chancery as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expences attending such Purchase or Exchange, Payment, and Application, or any Part thereof, to be paid by the said Visitors, who shall accordingly pay the same when and as the said Court shall direct, and the Money so paid shall be deemed Part of the Expences of such Purchase or Exchange, and be paid accordingly as herein-before is provided.

Provisions for the Enfranchisement of Copyhold and Customary Hereditaments.

XXIV. And be it enacted and declared, That the Provisions herein-before contained shall apply to Lands, Buildings, and other Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure, and that whenever any Contract shall be entered into by any Visitors respecting any Lands, Buildings, or other Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure, it shall be lawful for such Visitors to direct that the actual Value of such Lands, Buildings, or other Hereditaments (allowing in such Valuation for any Fine, Heriot, or Customary Due, Payment, or Rent, or any Service capable of being valued in respect of such Lands or Buildings or other Hereditaments), and also the Value of such Lands, Buildings, or other Hereditaments, considered as Lands, Buildings, or Hereditaments held in Fee Simple, free from Incumbrances, shall be ascertained by such Means as they shall think fit, and that the Difference in such Values, when so ascertained, shall be paid to or invested for the Use and Benefit of the Lord of the Manor of which such Lands or Buildings or other Hereditaments shall be Parcel, or such other Person as would be entitled to the Fines payable upon Death or Alienation of the same, or to such Heriot, Dues, Payments, Rent, or Service respectively; and upon and from the making of such Payment or Investment such Lands or Buildings or other Hereditaments shall thenceforth be deemed enfranchised, and for ever discharged from every Fine, Heriot, Due, Payment, Rent, Suit, or Service, and shall thenceforth be and remain of the Tenure of Free and Common Soccage: Provided always, that if any such Lord of the Manor or other Person be under any legal Disability, the Powers and Provisions herein-before contained enabling Persons under Disability to convey or otherwise dispose of and deal with Property, and for the Payment and Application of the Purchase Money, shall apply to such Lord of the Manor or other Person, and the said Difference in Value herein-before directed to be paid to him or invested for his Use and Benefit: Provided also, that if such Lord of the Manor or other Person be dissatisfied with the Result of such Valuations, and shall, within Seven Days after Tender made to him of the Amount of the said Difference in Value, or after Notice left at his Place or last known Place of Residence, or with his known Agent, of such Amount being ready to be paid to him or invested as aforesaid, send Notice by the Post to the said Visitors of such Dissatisfaction, it shall be lawful for the Visitors to direct further Valuations to be made, at or within such Period as they may see fit, by Two Valuers, one to be named by the Visitors and the other by such Lord of the Manor or other Person, which Two Persons so named shall, shall, previously to their entering on their Valuations, name a Third Valuer or Umpire to be referred to in case they disagree, and the Award of such Two first-named Valuers, or, if they disagree, of their Umpire, shall be binding on all Parties; and on Payment or Investment, under the Provisions of this Act, of the Difference of such last-mentioned Valuations, such Lands, Buildings, and other Hereditaments shall thenceforth be deemed enfranchised and discharged in manner aforesaid, and be and remain of the Tenure of Free and Common Soccage; and when and so soon as any such Enfranchisement as aforesaid shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Steward of the Manor whereof such Lands, Buildings, or Hereditaments were Parcel, and he is hereby required, on the Receipt of a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Clerk of the said Visitors of such Enfranchisement having been effected, to enter such Certificate on the Rolls or Books of the said Manor, and to furnish a Copy of such Entry, written on Parchment, to the said Visitors or their Clerk, or to such Person or Persons as they or he may direct, and to certify the same to be a true Copy under his Hand; and such Certificate, or a Copy thereof, under the Hand and Seal of the Clerk of the Visitors, shall thenceforth be Evidence of such Enfranchisement.

Assessment to Rates and Taxes not to be increased after Purchases for the Purposes of this or any former Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in all future Rates, Taxes, and Levies to be made for any Parish or Place in which any Lands, Buildings, or Hereditaments already purchased or to be purchased, under the Provisions of this or any former Act, for the Purposes of any Asylum, shall be situate, such Land, Buildings, or Hereditaments, with or without any Buildings or additional Building to be erected thereon, shall not be assessed to any such Rates, Taxes, or Levies at a higher Value and more improved Rent than the Value or Rent at which the same were assessed at the Time of such Purchase, nor shall any Building which under this or any former Act has been or shall be erected or purchased for the Purposes of an Asylum be assessed to any Window Tax.

Visitors to order all ordinary Repairs of Asylums.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Committee of Visitors of every Asylum may, of their own Authority, from Time to Time order all such ordinary Repairs as may be necessary for such Asylum, and if such Asylum shall belong to One County or Borough only they shall cause the Expence of such Repairs to be paid by making an Order upon the Treasurer of such County or Borough for the Payment thereof, but if such Asylum shall belong to One County or Borough or to Two or more Counties or Boroughs united together with or separate from any voluntary Subscribers, they shall apportion the Expence of such Repairs, or so much thereof as shall not be raised by voluntary Subscription, between or among such Counties or Boroughs respectively, in respect to any Asylum already erected in the Proportion in which each County and Borough has contributed to the Erection thereof, and in respect to any Asylum to be hereafter erected in the same Proportions as herein-before directed with regard to erecting or providing such Asylum, and shall cause the Proportion of each County or Borough to be paid by making an Order upon the Treasurer thereof for the Payment of the Proportion to be paid by such County or Borough, and every such Treasurer shall immediately discharge the same out of any Money of such County or Borough then in his Hands, or which may thereafter come to his Hands, not specifically appropriated to any other Purpose, and the same may be recovered from him for the Benefit of such Asylum by the Treasurer or Clerk thereof, together with all Costs and Expences, by an Action in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster: Provided always, nevertheless, that no Order for any Repairs, or for the Payment of any Money which shall exceed the Sum of Four hundred Pounds, shall be made, unless due Notice of the Meeting at which the same shall be ordered shall have been previously given according to the Rules and Regulations made by the Visitors for the Time being, nor unless Three Visitors shall concur in and sign such Order.

No Order for Money exceeding 400*l.* to be made unless previous Notice of Meeting.

To prevent Exclusion from Asylums of curable Lunatics, separate Provision to be made for chronic Lunatics.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in the erecting and providing of every Asylum hereafter to be erected or provided for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics, and also in enlarging the same or any Asylum already erected, regard shall be had to the Number of Lunatics to be provided for therein who shall be or be deemed curable or dangerous; and in order to prevent such Lunatics being excluded from Admission into such Asylum by reason of the Admission or Accumulation therein of chronic or incurable Lunatics, some separate or additional Building shall be provided for chronic or incurable Lunatics whenever by reason of the Increase in Numbers of Lunatics the Asylum shall be insufficient for the Accommodation of all Lunatics entitled to be received therein; and in order to secure the immediate Admission into every such Asylum of all Lunatics deemed curable or dangerous a sufficient Number of such chronic or incurable Lunatics shall from Time to Time be transferred from such Asylum to such separate or additional Building to be provided as aforesaid.

All Proposals, Agreements, and Plans to be submitted to the Commissioners in Lunacy, and all Contracts and Estimates to be approved of by the Secretary of State.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Committee of Visitors shall submit all Proposals and Agreements for uniting Counties and Boroughs and other Asylums for the Purposes of this Act, and all Proposals for building or providing Asylums, or the Buildings, Yards, Outlets, or Appurtenances thereto, or additional Accommodation for Pauper Lunatics, and all Contracts and all Plans which may be intended to be adopted for such Asylums, Accommodation, and Premises, to the Commissioners in Lunacy, who shall make such Inquiries in reference thereto, and to the Lunatics to be provided for, as they shall deem proper, and shall report thereon in Writing to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and the Estimates of the Costs and Expences of carrying into execution such Contracts for any of the Purposes of this Act, in reference to the Purchase of Land, or the building or providing any Asylum or additional Asylum or Accommodation for Pauper Lunatics, shall be submitted to Her Majesty's said Secretary of State; and no such Proposals, Agreements, Contracts, Estimates, or Plans shall be accepted, executed, or carried into effect until the same shall be approved of by the said Secretary of State by Writing under his Hand and Seal.

XXIX. And

Visitors empowered to contract with the Owners of licensed Houses for the Care and Maintenance of Pauper Lunatics, subject to the Approval of the Secretary of State.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Committee of Visitors to contract with the Proprietor of any House for the Time being licensed for the Reception of Lunatics for the Care and Maintenance of the whole or of a Portion of the Pauper Lunatics of the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, or any of them respectively, for which such Committee shall be acting, or for the Use and Occupation of all or any Part of the licensed House and Premises of such Proprietor, at such Sum, either in gross or by way of annual or other periodical Payment or Rent, and under and subject to such Terms, Stipulations, and Conditions, as such Visitors shall think fit; and every such Sum shall be paid out of the same Monies or Funds, and in the same Manner, as the Monies which would be paid for the Maintenance of such Lunatics if they were maintained in an Asylum provided by such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, under the Provisions of this or some former Act of Parliament: Provided always, that every such last-mentioned Contract shall be submitted to the Commissioners in Lunacy, and shall be approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by Writing under his Hand and Seal, and that no such Contract shall be made for any longer Period than for the Term of Five Years, and that every such Contract shall be made to determine on such House ceasing to be duly licensed for the Reception of Lunatics: Provided also, that no such Contract shall, during the Term for which it shall be made, exempt any County or Borough from the Duty and Obligation of erecting or providing, or uniting in erecting or providing, an Asylum or additional Asylum as required by this Act: Provided also, that every licensed House with the Proprietor of which any Committee shall so contract as last aforesaid shall be subject to the Visitation required by this Act, and to all Rules and Regulations which shall from Time to Time be made for the Management thereof by the Committee of Visitors with whom any such Contract shall be made, and also subject to such Visitations, Rules, and Regulations as the same licensed House would have been subject to if no such Contract had been made.

Such Contract not to exempt any County or Borough from the Obligation of providing an Asylum.

Power for Visitors to dissolve Unions.

XXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Committee of Visitors, with the Consent of the Majority of the Visitors of each County and Borough which is united, and with the previous Consent of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under his Hand and Seal, to determine and dissolve any Union of any Counties or Boroughs, either together, or together and with any Subscribers, whether such Union shall have been formed under this Act, or under the Act hereby repealed, or under any former Act, and upon such Dissolution, to divide and allot the Lands, Buildings, Hereditaments, Chattels, Monies, and Effects of or belonging to such Union between or among the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers, if any, between which or whom such Union shall have existed, in the Proportions in which they shall respectively have contributed thereto or shall be interested therein, or in such other Proportions and Manner as the said Visitors, with the Approbation of the said Secretary of State, shall think fit; and if on any such Division or Allotment there cannot be conveniently allotted to any County or Borough or Subscribers the proper Proportion of such County, Borough, or Subscribers in the Lands, Buildings, Hereditaments, Chattels, Monies, and Effects of such Union, there shall be paid to such County, Borough, or Subscribers such Sum of Money as the said Visitors, with the Approbation of the said Secretary of State, may direct, in full or in part Satisfaction, as the Case may require, of the aforesaid Proportion of such County, Borough, or Subscribers; and every such Sum of Money shall be raised by the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, to or between or among which the Lands, Buildings, Hereditaments, Monies, Chattels, and Effects of the said Union shall be allotted (if more than One, in such Shares as the said Visitors, with the Approbation of the said Secretary of State, shall think fit), in the same Manner and by the same Means as other Monies are appointed to be raised by Counties or Boroughs for the Purposes of this Act.

Power for Visitors, with Consent of the Secretary of State, to sell Lands and Buildings.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Committee of Visitors, with the previous Consent of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under his Hand and Seal, to sell, either by public Auction or private Contract, and subject to any Conditions, any Houses, Buildings, and Lands, or Parts of Houses, Buildings, or Lands, which shall have belonged to and been used as or together with an Asylum by the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers (if any), by whom respectively such Committee shall have been elected as aforesaid, or any of the same Counties, Boroughs, or Subscribers respectively; and every Conveyance of such Houses, Buildings, and Lands which shall be executed by the Persons in whom the same shall then be vested as Trustees, or by any Three of the Members of the Committee of Visitors who shall sell the same, shall be effectual to convey the same, for all the Estate or Interest then vested in such Trustees, to the Purchasers thereof respectively; and the Receipt of any Three of the Committee of Visitors who shall sell the same for the Purchase Monies shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same; and the Monies which shall be received from any such Sale, in case the same shall be made by a Committee of Visitors of any One County or Borough alone, shall be paid to the said Committee of Visitors, and be applied in carrying into execution the Powers and Purposes of this Act, or to the Treasurer of such County or Borough, and be applied for the general Purposes thereof, or otherwise as the Justices of such County or Borough shall, at some General or Quarter Sessions after the Payment thereof, direct; but in case the said Sale shall be made by a Committee of Visitors of any County or Borough united with any other County or Borough or Counties or Boroughs, or with any Subscribers, the Monies which shall be so received shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County, Borough, or Subscribers to which or to whom the Property sold shall have belonged, in case it shall have belonged to any one of them, or if the same shall have been the joint Property of more than One County or Borough, or of any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, together with any Subscribers, then to the respective Treasurers of such County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, and Subscribers,

Application of Purchase Monies.

Subscribers, in the Proportions in which they shall have been respectively interested in the Property sold; and such Monies shall be held and applied by every such Treasurer, in the Case of a County or Borough, as Part of the general Rates or Funds of such County or Borough, and in the Case of any Subscribers, as the Majority of such Subscribers present at any Meeting convened for that Purpose shall direct.

No Visitor to have any Interest in any Contract or Agreement.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That no Visitor shall have or take or be capable of having or taking any Interest or Concern whatsoever, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, in any Contract or Agreement to be made under the Authority of this Act, or in relation to the Premises, or shall, for any Design or Plan he may deliver or produce, receive any Benefit or Emolument whatever.

Provisions for raising Monies required for the Purposes of this Act by County and Borough Rates.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That in order to pay and defray the Monies, Costs, and Expences which shall be or shall become payable by any County or Borough for any of the Purposes of this Act, or the said Act hereby repealed, the Justices of every such County, at any General or Quarter Sessions for the same, may and shall assess and tax a general County Rate or Rates upon such County, and may and shall fix a Sum or Rate to be contributed by all Places whatsoever within such County, (other than any Borough being within such County, or by this Act for the Purposes thereof annexed thereto,) and whether such Places shall or shall not be liable to contribute to an ordinary County Rate; and the Council of every Borough may and shall assess a general Borough Rate in the Nature of a County Rate upon such Borough; and the said Rates shall be collected, levied, and recovered in the same Manner, and by the same Powers, Authorities, Ways, and Means, and under the same Penalties, as any ordinary Rate for such County or Borough respectively may by Law be collected, levied, and recovered; and the Monies, Costs, and Expences to be paid or contributed by any County or Borough for the Purposes of this Act shall be paid by the Treasurer of such County or Borough, out of the Rates aforesaid, to the Treasurer of the Asylum to which such County or Borough shall, either alone or jointly, pay or contribute: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Town Council of any Borough, if they shall think fit, to direct that any Monies which shall become payable for the Purposes of this Act, or any Part thereof, shall be paid out of the Borough Fund of such Borough, and such Monies shall be paid by the Treasurer of such Borough out of such Fund accordingly.

Power for Justices of Counties and Councils or Boroughs to raise Money by Mortgage of the Rates.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That when it shall appear by the Report in Writing under the Hands of any Two Members of the Committee of Visitors, elected and appointed under this Act or the said Act hereby repealed, that the Monies, Costs, or Expences incurred or to be incurred or paid by any County or Borough for carrying into effect any of the Purposes of this Act or the said Act hereby repealed, and whether the same shall be wholly or only in part incurred, will exceed the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, and in the Case of any City, Town, Parish, Place, or District by this Act annexed to a County for the Purposes hereof will exceed the Sum of Two thousand Pounds, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Justices of every such County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than Five, and for the Council of every such Borough, as the Case may be, from Time to Time to borrow and take up on Mortgage of all or any of the Rates to be made under the Authority of this Act for such County or Borough, or on Mortgage of all or any such Rates, together with all other Rates or Funds, or any of them, of the same County or Borough, all or any of the Money required for paying and defraying the Monies, Costs, and Expences which it shall appear by the said Report have been or are to be incurred or paid by such County or Borough as aforesaid; and such Money may be so raised in any Sum or Sums, of not less than Five hundred Pounds each, at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and every such Mortgage may be made by an Instrument in the Form contained in the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, or to that or the like Effect, and shall be executed in the Case of a County by the Chairman and Two or more other Justices present at the Time of making such Mortgage, and in the Case of a Borough by affixing the Common Seal of the Borough thereto; and every such Mortgage is hereby declared to be Evidence that such Report has been made as is herein-before required, and shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum of Money in such Mortgage expressed to be advanced, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Repayment of such Sum of Money, with Interest for the same after such Rate, and at such Time, and in such Manner as in such Mortgage shall be provided; and the said Mortgages shall be numbered in the Order of Succession in which they shall be granted; and Copies or Extracts of all such Mortgages shall be kept by the Clerk of the Peace or other proper Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Quarter Sessions of such County, or of the Records of such Borough, as the Case may be; and every Person to whom any such Mortgage shall be made, his Executors or Administrators, is hereby empowered, by endorsing his or their Name or Names on such Mortgage, to transfer the same, and his and their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any Person; and every such Assignee, his Executors or Administrators, may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the Person to whom such Mortgage or any such Transfer thereof shall be made, his Executors and Administrators, shall be a Creditor or Creditors upon the Rates and Funds thereby expressed to be mortgaged in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference or Priority other than is provided under the Powers of this Act.

Justices and Council may apply to the Commissioners of Consolidated Fund for Public Works,

XXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices and Council of any County and Borough respectively to make Application for an Advance of any Sum necessary for the Purposes of this Act, or the said Act hereby repealed, to the Commissioners acting in the Execution of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount for carrying on Public under Act 5 & 6 Vict. c. 9., for Advance of Money.

Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor; and to amend the Acts authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills for the like Purposes, and of any of the Acts in the above-mentioned Act recited or referred to, and of any Act or Acts passed for amending or continuing the same Acts; and the said Commissioners, and also the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are hereby empowered, if they shall think fit, to make such Advances, upon any such Application as aforesaid, upon the Security of the County or Borough Rates or Fund by this Act directed to be assessed and raised, or any of them, and without requiring any further or other Security than a Mortgage of such Rates.

Provisions for the Payment of the Interest on the Mortgages, and of a Portion of the Principal in each Year.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the said Justices or Council, as the Case may be, shall in every Year charge the Rates or Funds of such County or Borough with the Sum for the Time being required to pay the Interest of the Money so borrowed on such Mortgages, or such of them as shall for the Time being remain unpaid, and also with the Payment of a further Sum not less than One Thirtieth Part of the whole of such Mortgages at the Time of the same being first made; and such Sums shall be applied, under the Direction of the said Justices or Council, in discharge of the Interest on the said Mortgages, or such of them as shall for the Time being remain unpaid, and of so many of the Principal Sums owing on the said Mortgages for the Time being remaining unpaid as such Sums, after Payment of the Interest as aforesaid, will extend to discharge until the whole of the Principal Monies for which such Mortgages shall have been made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices and Council, as the Case may be, are and is hereby required to fix One or more Days in each Year on which such Payments shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for such Payments being regularly made; and the said Justices or Council, as the Case may be, shall, by Agreement with the Parties or others advancing any Money for the Purposes of this Act, determine the Order or Priority in which the several Sums advanced shall be respectively discharged; and the Justices of every County and the Council of every Borough so borrowing Money on Mortgage as aforesaid are and is hereby required to appoint a proper Person to keep an exact and regular Account of all Receipts and Payments in respect of Principal Monies borrowed or taken up as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, in a Book or Books separate and apart from all other Accounts; and the said Book or Books, duly adjusted and settled up to the Time being, to deliver annually, in the Case of a County, into Court at some General or Quarter Sessions for such County, and in the Case of a Borough, to the Council of the Borough at such Time as such Council shall appoint; and the Justices for every such County at such Sessions, and the Council for every such Borough, are and is hereby required carefully to inspect all such Accounts, and to make such Orders for carrying the several Purposes aforesaid into execution as to them shall seem meet.

Provision to be made for paying Money borrowed within a limited Time not exceeding Thirty Years.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Justices of every County, and the Council of every Borough, borrowing Money as aforesaid, shall make Provision by means of the Rates which they are hereby respectively authorized to make, and by the Orders and Directions which they are hereby authorized to give, that the whole Principal Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act by such County or Borough, and all Interest for the same, shall be fully paid and discharged within a Time to be limited by such Justices or Council, not exceeding Thirty Years from the Time of borrowing the same.

Power to raise Money to pay off Sums already borrowed.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Monies shall have been borrowed under the Powers of the said Act hereby repealed, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County or Borough for which such Monies shall have been borrowed, with the Consent of the Parties from whom the same shall have been borrowed, to pay off the Monies so borrowed, and to raise and borrow the Monies necessary for that Purpose, and also to repay the said last-mentioned Monies, and the Interest thereof, under the Powers of this Act, as if the same were raised for the Purposes of this Act: Provided also, that all Monies which have been already borrowed shall be discharged within the Time originally fixed for Payment thereof, and that all Monies to be borrowed under this Act shall be discharged within Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

Asylum may be erected beyond the Limits of any County or Borough; and Justices may notwithstanding act therein.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Asylum to be provided for any County or Borough, either solely or jointly, may be without the Limits of such County or Borough; and that when any Asylum provided or to be provided solely or in part for any County or Borough, or any Part of such Asylum, is or shall be situate within the Limits of any other County or Borough, then and in every such Case the Justices of the County or Borough to which such Asylum shall wholly or partly belong shall have full Power and Authority to act in such other County or Borough, so far as concerns the Regulation of such Asylum and the Powers conferred by this Act, in the like Manner as if such Asylum and every Part thereof were situate within such County or Borough.

Visitors to submit general Rules to the Secretary of State, and, subject to such general Rules, to make Regulations and to appoint and dismiss Officers, and fix a weekly

XL. And be it enacted, That every Committee of Visitors shall, within Twelve Months after the passing of this Act in the Case of every Asylum already established, and within Twelve Months after the Completion thereof in the Case of every Asylum hereafter established, submit the existing general Rules, or prepare and submit some proposed general Rules, for the Government of the Asylum under their Superintendence, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his Approval; and such Rules, when approved by him, shall be printed, abided by, and observed; and every such Committee shall have Power, with the like Approbation, to alter and vary such Rules from Time to Time as they shall think necessary; and every such Committee shall make from Time to Time such Regulations and Orders as they shall think fit, not inconsistent with the general Rules for the Time being in force for the Management and Conduct of the Asylum; and in such Regulations there shall be set forth the Number and Description

Description of Officers and Servants to be kept, the Duties to be required, and the Salaries to be paid to them respectively; and every such Committee shall from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, appoint a Treasurer, who shall keep Accounts of all Monies received and paid by him on account of the Asylum, and such other Officers and Servants as they shall from Time to Time find necessary, in proportion to the Number of Persons confined in such Asylum, and at such Salaries or Wages as they shall think fit, and may at any Time dismiss any such Treasurer, Officer, or Servant, and shall from Time to Time determine the Diet of the Patients, and fix a certain weekly Sum to be paid for each Person of the County or Borough, and another weekly Sum for each Person not of the County or Borough, erecting the Asylum, confined in such Asylum, of such Amount that the same may be sufficient to defray the whole Expence of the Lodging, Maintenance and Care, Medicine and Clothing, and other Expences requisite for each Person, and that the total Amount of such weekly Sums, after defraying such Expences, may also be sufficient to pay the Salaries of the Officers and Attendants: Provided always, that such Rate for a Pauper shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Shillings per Week, and that the said Visitors shall annually audit the Accounts of the Treasurer and Clerk of every Asylum, and report the same to the next General or Quarter Sessions for the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, and to the Council of every Borough, at the Expence of which such Asylum shall have been wholly or partly erected or provided.

Rate for each Lunatic.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if the aforesaid Rate of Fourteen Shillings should be found insufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the County or Borough, or of each of the Counties or Boroughs, at whose Expence such Asylum shall have been established, present at any General or Quarter Sessions or any Special Sessions for such County or Borough, or such Counties or Boroughs respectively, to make such Addition to such Rate as to them respectively shall seem fit and necessary, and to make an Order or Orders accordingly, which Order or Orders shall be signed by the Clerk or Clerks of the Peace for the County or Borough or respective Counties or Boroughs, and forthwith published in some Newspaper commonly circulated within such County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs.

If the Rate be found insufficient, Justices in Session may increase it.

XLII. And be it enacted, That in every Asylum already erected or provided, or hereafter to be erected or provided, the Committee of Visitors shall appoint a Chaplain for the same, who shall be in Priest's Orders, and shall be licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese; and the said Licence shall be revocable by the Bishop whenever he shall think fit; and such Chaplain, or his Substitute, approved by the Visitors, shall perform and celebrate, in some convenient Place within such Asylum, Divine Service according to the Rites of the Church of England as established by Law, on every Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and shall also perform and celebrate such Service within the said Asylum at such other Times, and also such other Services according to the Rites of the Church of England as established by Law, at such Times as the Visitors shall direct; and such Committee shall also appoint a Medical Officer, who shall be resident in such Asylum, and a Clerk, who shall not be such Medical Officer, and who may reside in such Asylum or not, as the Committee shall think fit; and the Committee shall have Power to remove such Chaplain, Medical Officer, and Clerk, and from Time to Time to appoint another in his Stead; and the Committee shall, if they think fit, have Power to appoint a Visiting Physician or Surgeon to every such Asylum, and shall appoint One of the Officers to be the Superintendent thereof: Provided always, that if any Patient shall be of a religious Persuasion differing from that of the Established Church, a Minister of such Persuasion, at the special Request of such Patient or his Friends, shall, with the Consent of the Medical Officer of such Asylum, be allowed to visit him or her at proper and reasonable Times, under such Restrictions imposed by the Visiting Justices as shall prevent Injury to such Patient and the other Lunatics confined in such Asylum; and provided also, that the Medical Officer of any Asylum for chronic Lunatics in which there shall for the Time being be less than One hundred Lunatics, need not be resident therein, but the Medical Officer of every such Asylum, if he be not resident therein, shall visit the same Three Times at the least in every Week, and with no longer Intervals than One Day between any Two Visits, and on every Visit shall personally examine every Patient in such Asylum, except any Patients whom there may be special and sufficient Reasons for not so examining, and shall make an Entry in a Book to be kept therein for that Purpose that he has so examined every Patient therein, except any Patients whom there may be special and sufficient Reasons for not so examining, and, in case of there being any Patients whom he has not examined, shall enter their Names in the said Book, and the Reasons for not examining them.

Visitors to appoint a Chaplain, Medical Officer, and a Clerk.

Patients allowed the Visits of any Minister of their own Persuasion.

Medical Officer to visit Asylum Three Times a Week, and examine Patients.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Superintendent, Chaplain, Matron, or other Officer or Servant of any County or Borough Lunatic Asylum shall, from confirmed Sickness, Age, or Infirmity, become incapable of executing the Office in Person, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions, and the Justices of any Borough at any Meeting of such Justices, not being less than Five, and they are hereby empowered, to grant to such Superintendent, Chaplain, Matron, or other Officer or Servant such Annuity as they in their Discretion shall think proportionate to the Merits and Time of Services of such Superintendent, Chaplain, Matron, or other Officer or Servant, and may order the Payment out of the Rates lawfully applicable to the building or repairing such County or Borough Lunatic Asylum: Provided always, that the annual Amount paid by way of Superannuation or Allowance to any retired Superintendent, Matron, or other Officer or Servant of any Asylum shall not exceed the Amount of Two Thirds of the Salary payable at the Time of his or her Retirement.

Justices may grant Annuity to the Superintendent, &c., not exceeding Two Thirds of their Salaries.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of every Asylum shall keep all Books, Documents, and Instruments which the Visitors of the Asylum shall be required to keep or direct to be kept, and shall also keep an Account of all Monies which shall be received or paid on account of the Asylum either to or

Clerk of the Asylum to keep Account of Monies paid and received and send Copies thereof annually to Secretary of State, &c.

or by the Treasurer of the Asylum, or otherwise, and shall, in the Month of March in every Year, send a Copy of the Account of all such Monies for the Year previous, ending on the Thirty-first Day of December, to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and to the Clerk or Clerks of the Peace of the County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs to which the Asylum shall belong, and also to the Commissioners in Lunacy; and such Commissioners shall, within One Month from the Receipt of such Account, make out an Abstract thereof, and lay the same before both Houses of Parliament.

Three Visitors at least to visit once in every Three Months every Asylum.

XLV. And be it enacted, That not less than Three Members of every Committee of Visitors shall, once at the least in every Three Months, inspect every Part of every Asylum in which there shall be any Lunatics of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs for which they shall be Visitors, and shall see and examine, as far as Circumstances will permit, every Lunatic therein, and the Order and Certificate for the Admission of every Lunatic admitted since the last Visitation of the Visitors, and shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose any Remarks which they may deem proper in regard to the Condition and Management of such Asylum and the Lunatics therein, and shall sign such Book upon every such Visit, and such Three Visitors shall in their Visits to every Asylum for chronic Lunatics be accompanied by the Visiting Physician or Surgeon of the County or Borough Lunatic Asylum, in all Cases in which there shall be a Visiting Physician or Surgeon.

Lists of Pauper Lunatics to be made half-yearly, and laid before the Visitors, and Copies transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace and to the Secretary to the Commissioners in Lunacy.

A List of all private Patients to be sent half-yearly to the Commissioners.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That the Medical Officer of every Asylum shall on the First Day of January and the First Day of July in every Year after the passing of this Act prepare a List of all Pauper Lunatics then in such Asylum, according to the Form in the Schedule (C.) No. 1. hereto annexed, and in the Case of every Asylum not devoted exclusively to chronic Lunatics specifying such as in the Opinion of the Medical Officer, and of the Visiting Physician or Surgeon, in case there shall be a Visiting Physician or Surgeon, may be properly placed in an Asylum for chronic Lunatics; and one Copy of every such List shall by such Medical Officer, within Fifteen Days after the same shall have been prepared, be laid before the Visitors of the Asylum, and another shall be transmitted by such Medical Officer to the Clerk of the Peace of every or any County and every or any Borough to which such Asylum solely or jointly belongs, to be by him laid before the Justices of such County or Borough; and another Copy of such List shall within the same Time be transmitted by such Medical Officer to the Commissioners in Lunacy; and the Medical Officer of every Asylum subject to the Provisions of this Act, receiving private Patients, shall also on the First Day of January and the First Day of July in every Year prepare a List containing the Christian and Surnames of all the private Patients in such Asylum in the Form No. 2. in the said Schedule (C.), and shall transmit such List within the same Time as aforesaid to the Commissioners in Lunacy.

Clerks of Boards of Guardians, and Overseers where no Guardians, to make annual Returns of Pauper Lunatics.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Board of Guardians of every Parish and Union under a Board of Guardians, and the Overseers of every Parish not under a Board of Guardians, shall on the First Day of January in every Year, or as soon after as may be, make out and sign a true and faithful List of all Lunatics chargeable to the Parish or Union, in the Form in Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed, and shall on or before the First Day of February next succeeding lay one Copy of such List before the Visitors of the Asylum of the County in which such Union or Parish is situate, and shall transmit one Copy of such List to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or the Clerk of the Justices of the Borough within which the Parish to which each such Lunatic is chargeable is situated, to be by him laid before the Justices acting for such County at their next General or Quarter Sessions, or before the Justices of the Borough, another Copy of such List to the Commissioners in Lunacy, and another Copy thereof to the Poor Law Commissioners; and so much of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, continuing the Poor Law Commission, as requires the Clerk to every Board of Guardians to make out a Return of such Lunatics as aforesaid on the Fifteenth Day of August in every Year shall, from the passing of this Act, be repealed.

Medical Officer to give Notice of any chargeable Pauper deemed to be lunatic to Parish Officers, who are to have every Lunatic whom they shall know of, by such Notice or otherwise, examined and sent to an Asylum.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That the Medical Officer of every Parish and Union who shall have Knowledge that any Person chargeable to such Parish, or to any Parish within such Union, is or is deemed to be lunatic, shall within Three Days after obtaining such Knowledge give Notice thereof in Writing to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, if the Parish be not within an Union, and to the Relieving Officer of the Union if the Parish be within an Union; and every such Overseer and Relieving Officer who shall have Knowledge, either by such Notice or otherwise, that any Person chargeable to the Parish of such Overseer, or to any Parish within the Union of such Relieving Officer, is deemed to be lunatic, shall within Three Days after obtaining such Knowledge give Notice thereof to some Justice of the County or Borough within which such Parish is situate, and thereupon the said Justice shall by an Order under his Hand and Seal require the Overseer or Relieving Officer of the Parish or Union to bring such Person before him or some other Justice of the said County or Borough, at such Time and Place within Three Days from the Time of such Notice being given to such Justice as shall be appointed by the said Order; and the said Justice before whom such Person deemed to be a Lunatic shall be brought shall call to his Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and examine such Person; and if upon View or personal Examination of such Person, or from other Proof, such Justice shall be satisfied that such Person is lunatic, and such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, not being the Medical Officer of such Union or Parish, shall sign a Certificate according to the Form in Schedule (E.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, that such Person is a Lunatic, Idiot, or Insane Person, or a Person of unsound Mind, such Justice shall, by an Order under his Hand according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, direct such Person to be received into the Asylum of the County or Borough in which such Parish is situate, or if there be no such Asylum, or such Asylum be full, then into some House duly duly licensed, or some Hospital registered for the Reception of Lunatics; and such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall immediately convey or cause the said Lunatic to be conveyed to such Asylum, House, or Hospital, and such Lunatic shall be received and confined therein: Provided always, that if any Person deemed to be lunatic cannot, on account of his Health or other Cause, be safely taken before any Justice, such Person may be examined at his own Abode or elsewhere by One Justice, or by an officiating Clergyman of the Parish in which he shall be resident, together with an Overseer of such Parish, or the Relieving Officer of the Union to which the same shall belong; and such Justice or such Clergyman, together with an Overseer or Relieving Officer, shall call to their Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and visit such Person deemed to be lunatic; and if upon View or personal Examination such Justice or Clergyman shall be satisfied that such Person is lunatic, and such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign a Certificate, according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., that such Person is a Lunatic, Idiot, Insane Person, or Person of unsound Mind, such Justice or such Clergyman, together with an Overseer or Relieving Officer, shall, by an Order under his or their Hand or Hands according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., direct such Person to be received into the Asylum for the County or Borough in which such Parish is situate, or if there be no such Asylum, or such Asylum be full, then into some House licensed or Hospital registered for the Reception of Lunatics, and such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall immediately convey or cause the said Lunatic to be conveyed to such Asylum, House, or Hospital, and such Lunatic shall be received and confined therein: Provided also, that if the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary by whom any such Person shall be examined shall certify in Writing that he is not in a fit State to be removed, the Removal of such Person shall be suspended until the same or some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall certify in Writing that such Person is fit to be removed; and every such Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary is required to give such last-mentioned Certificate so soon as in his Judgment it ought to be given.

Provisions as to wandering Lunatics, and Lunatics not chargeable, and not under proper Care.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That every Overseer or Relieving Officer of a Parish or Union, who shall have Knowledge that any Person wandering within his District, Parish, or Union is deemed to be a Lunatic, such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall immediately apprehend or take or cause such Person to be apprehended and taken before a Justice; and every Overseer or Relieving Officer who shall have Knowledge that any Person within his District, Parish, or Union, not being chargeable to any Parish, is deemed to be a Lunatic, and is under the Care of a Relative or other Person who neglects or cruelly treats him, so that he is not properly taken care of, such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall, within Three Days after obtaining such Knowledge as last aforesaid, give Notice thereof to some Justice of the County or Borough within which such District, Parish, or Union is situate; and thereupon the said Justice shall, if he shall think fit, in case such Notice shall be given in Writing, and upon the Oath of the Person giving the same, by an Order under his Hand and Seal require the Overseer or Relieving Officer of such District, Parish, or Union to bring such Person before him and some other Justice of the same County or Borough, at such Time and Place, within Three Days from the Time of such Notice being given to such Justice, as shall be appointed by the said Order; and such Justice before whom such wandering Lunatic, or such Two Justices before whom such Lunatic not being chargeable, shall be taken, shall call to his or their Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and one of the Overseers or the Relieving Officer of the Parish or Union in which such Person has been apprehended or taken, and shall examine such Person; and if upon View or personal Examination of such Person, or from other Proof, the said Justice or Justices shall be satisfied that such Person is lunatic, and if not so chargeable as aforesaid has been neglected or cruelly treated by the Relatives or other Person under whose Care he is, and if such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign a Certificate, according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, that such Person is a Lunatic, Idiot, Insane Person, or Person of unsound Mind, such Justice or Justices shall, if he or they think fit, by an Order under his or their Hand or Hands according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, direct such Person to be received into the Asylum of the County or Borough within which such Person shall have been apprehended or taken, or if there be no such Asylum, or such Asylum be full, then into some licensed House or registered Hospital; and such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall immediately convey or cause such Lunatic to be conveyed to such Asylum, House, or Hospital, and such Lunatic shall be received and confined therein: Provided always, that if any such Person as last aforesaid deemed to be lunatic cannot, on account of his Health or other Cause, be safely brought before any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, such Person may be examined at his own Abode or elsewhere by One Justice in the Case of a wandering Lunatic, and by Two Justices in the Case of a Lunatic not being chargeable; and such Justice or Two Justices shall call to his or their Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and visit such Person deemed to be lunatic; and if upon View or personal Examination such Justice or Justices shall be satisfied that such Person is lunatic, and if not so chargeable as aforesaid has been neglected or cruelly treated by the Relatives or other Person under whose Care he is, and if such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign a Certificate, according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., that such Person is a Lunatic, Idiot, Insane Person, or Person of unsound Mind, such Justice or Justices shall, by an Order under his or their Hand or Hands according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., direct such Person to be received into the Asylum for the County or Borough in which such Parish is situate, or if there be no such Asylum, or such Asylum be full, then into some licensed House or Hospital registered for the Reception of Lunatics; and such Overseer or Relieving Overseer shall immediately convey or cause the said Lunatic to be conveyed to such Asylum, House, or Hospital, and such Lunatic shall be received and confined therein; and the Justice or Justices by whose Order such Lunatic shall be sent to an Asylum, or any Two Visiting Justices of the Asylum to which he shall be sent, shall make an Order upon the Treasurer of the Guardians of the Union in which the Parish shall be situate from which he shall have been taken, or upon the Overseer or Overseers of the Parish from which he shall have been taken, for the Charges of the Examination, Removal, Lodging, Maintenance, Clothing, Medicine, and Care of such Lunatic, and in case it shall afterwards appear that such Lunatic is chargeable to any other Parish, then upon the Treasurer of the Guardians of the Union in which such other Parish is situate, or upon the Overseers of such other Parish: Provided also, that if the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary by whom any such Person shall be examined shall certify in Writing that he is not in a fit State to be removed, the Removal of such Person shall be suspended until the same or some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall certify in Writing that such Person is fit to be removed; and every such Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary is hereby required to give such last-mentioned Certificate as soon as in his Judgment it ought to be given: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Justice or Justices, or any Two Visiting Justices of the Asylum in which any such Lunatic is confined, that such Lunatic hath an Estate applicable to his Maintenance, and more than sufficient to maintain his Family, if any, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if they or he shall think fit, to make an Application in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals to the nearest Relative or Friend of such Lunatic, for the Payment of the Costs of the Removal, Examination, and Maintenance of such Lunatic; and in case such Costs shall not be paid within Six Months after such Application, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, by an Order under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to direct the Overseers of any Parish where any Goods, Chattels, Lands, or Tenements of such Lunatic shall be, to seize and sell so much of the Goods and Chattels or take and receive so much of the Rents or Profits of the Lands and Tenements of such Lunatic as may be necessary to pay the Charges of the Removal, Lodging, Maintenance, Clothing, Medicine, and Care of such Lunatic, accounting for the same to such Justice or Justices, such Charges having been first proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, and the Amount set forth in such Order; and if any Trustee or other Person having the Possession, Custody, or Charge of any Property of such Lunatic, or if the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Person or Persons having in his or their Hands any Stock, Interest, Dividend, or Annuity belonging or due to such Lunatic, shall, upon the Production of the Order of such Justice or Justices, pay the whole or any Part thereof to any Overseer or Relieving Officer, to defray the Charges set forth in such Order, the Receipt of such Overseer or Relieving Officer shall be a good Discharge to such Trustee, Governor, and Company, or other Person as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to restrain or prevent any Relation or Friend from retaining or taking such Lunatic under his own Care, if such Relation or Friend shall satisfy the Justice or Justices before whom such Lunatic shall be brought, or the Visitors of the Asylum in which such Lunatic is or is intended to be confined, that such Lunatic will be properly taken care of.

Penalties on Medical Officers, Overseers, &c. omitting to give Notice as aforesaid.

L. And be it enacted, That if any Medical Officer of any Union or Parish as aforesaid shall omit, for more than Three Days after obtaining Knowledge of any chargeable Pauper being deemed to be lunatic as aforesaid, to give such Notice thereof as is herein-before required, or if any Overseer or Relieving Officer as aforesaid shall omit, for more than Three Days after obtaining Knowledge of any chargeable Pauper or other Person not chargeable being deemed to be lunatic as aforesaid, to give Notice thereof to a Justice as aforesaid, or if any Constable, Overseer, or Relieving Officer shall omit to apprehend and take such wandering Person deemed to be lunatic as aforesaid, such Medical Officer, Overseer, Relieving Officer, or Constable, as the Case may be, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

No Paupers to be received into any Asylum without a certain Order and Certificate.

LI. And be it enacted, That no Pauper or other such Person as is herein-before mentioned shall be received into any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, without an Order and Statement, according to the Form and stating the Particulars required in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., under the Hands of One Justice, or an officiating Clergyman, with One of the Overseers or the Relieving Officer of the Parish or Union for which such Pauper or other Person shall be sent as aforesaid, nor without a Medical Certificate according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 1., signed by One Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and dated not more than Seven clear Days previous to the Reception of such Patient; and every Person who shall receive any Pauper or other such Person as is herein-before mentioned into any Asylum without such Order and Medical Certificate shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

No Person, not being a Pauper, to be received into an Asylum without an Order and Two Medical Certificates.

LII. And be it enacted, That no Person other than a Pauper, or such other Person as is herein-before mentioned, shall be received into any Asylum without an Order under the Hand of some Person, according to the Form and containing the Particulars required in Schedule (E.) No. 2., to this Act annexed, nor without the Medical Certificate, according to the Form and containing the Particulars required in Schedule (E.) No. 2. annexed to this Act, of Two Persons, each of whom shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and who shall not be in Partnership, and each of whom shall separately from the other have personally examined the Person to whom it relates, not more than Seven clear Days previously to the Reception of such Person into such Asylum, and shall have signed and dated the same on the Day on which such Person shall have been so examined; and every Person who shall receive or detain any Person not a Pauper in any Asylum without such Order and Medical Certificate as aforesaid shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor: Provided always, nevertheless, that any Person (not a Pauper or such other Person as herein-before is mentioned) may under special Circumstances be received into any Asylum, upon the Certificate of One Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary alone, provided that such Order state the special special Circumstances which have prevented the Person from being examined by Two Medical Practitioners; but in every such Case such Certificate shall be further signed by some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, within Three Days after the Reception of such Patient into such Asylum; and every Person who, having received any Person into any Asylum as aforesaid, upon the Certificate of One Medical Practitioner alone, as aforesaid, shall keep or permit such Person to remain in such Asylum beyond the said Period of Three Days without such Certificate having been further signed as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

A Medical Practitioner signing untrue Certificate guilty of a Misdemeanor.

LIII. And be it enacted, That any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall knowingly sign any such Medical Certificate as aforesaid which shall untruly state any of the Particulars required by this Act shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and that no Certificate signed by any Medical Officer of the Asylum into which the Lunatic is received shall be of any Avail, or be deemed to be in compliance with the aforesaid Provisions regarding such Certificate.

Every Pauper to be in the first place taken to the principal Asylum of the County or Borough, if Circumstances admit.

LIV. And be it enacted, That every such Order by a Justice, or Clergyman, and Overseer or Relieving Officer as aforesaid, for the Reception of a Lunatic into an Asylum, shall extend to his Admission not only into the principal Lunatic Asylum of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, but also into any other Asylum for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough, and also to any Asylum for any other County or Borough, or any House licensed or Hospital registered for the Reception of Lunatics: Provided always, that every Lunatic shall under every such Order as last aforesaid be taken, in the first place, to the principal Asylum of the County or Borough in which the Parish or Place from which he is sent shall be situate, and shall there be kept, unless there be no such Asylum, or there is a Deficiency of Room in such principal Asylum, or unless there shall be some special Circumstances whereby such Pauper cannot conveniently be taken in the first place to such principal Asylum, which Deficiency of Room or special Circumstance shall be stated in Writing upon the Order for the Reception of such Lunatic into any Asylum, registered Hospital, or House other than the principal Asylum aforesaid; and that no such Lunatic shall be sent to or detained in any registered Hospital or House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics, except there shall be no Asylum, or no Asylum in which he can be received, or there shall be some special Circumstances whereby he cannot be taken thereto, which shall be stated in like Manner as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Two Visiting Justices of any Asylum, by an Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to direct any Overseer or Relieving or other Officer of any Parish, Union, County, or Borough contributing to any Asylum to remove any Pauper Lunatic chargeable to such Parish, Union, County, or Borough now or at any Time hereafter being in any registered Hospital, or House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics therefrom, to an Asylum subject to the Regulations of this Act; and such Lunatic shall be removed at the Expence of such Parish, Union, County, or Borough accordingly; and every such Overseer or Relieving or other Officer as aforesaid who shall for the Space of Fourteen Days after the Date of any such Order neglect or refuse to remove any Lunatic according to such Order, and every Officer or Proprietor of any registered Hospital or licensed House who shall refuse to permit any such Removal, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not more than Twenty nor less than Two Pounds.

Every Pauper Lunatic, not being in an Asylum or House licensed for the Purpose, shall be visited Once in every Three Months by a Medical Man, and returned in a List to the Clerk of the Peace and the Commissioners in Lunacy.

LV. And be it enacted, That every Pauper Lunatic chargeable to any Parish, who shall not be in an Asylum or a registered Hospital, or a House duly licensed for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics, shall be visited once in every Three Months by the Medical Officer of the Parish or Union to which such Lunatic shall belong; and a List of all such Lunatics shall be sent once in every Three Months by such Medical Officer to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Borough to which such Lunatic shall belong, or in which he shall be resident, to be by him laid before the Justices acting for such County at their next General or Quarter Sessions, or before the Justices of such Borough, and to the Visitors of the Asylum for the County in which such Parish or Union shall be situate, and to the Commissioners in Lunacy, according to the Form in Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed; and the said List shall state whether any such Lunatic is or is not, in the Opinion of such Medical Officer, fit to be at large, and is properly taken care of; and such List of such Lunatics shall be prepared and signed by the Medical Officer required to make the same: Provided nevertheless, that after an Asylum shall be established for any County or Borough under the Provisions of this Act no Pauper who shall have lately become lunatic (whether such Pauper shall or shall not have been previously confined in an Asylum) shall be received, lodged, or detained in any House or Place other than a County or Borough Lunatic Asylum, or a public Hospital, or a House duly licensed for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics, for a longer Period than shall be requisite for obtaining an Order for the Removal of such Lunatic to such Asylum; and if any Medical Officer shall return any such Pauper in any such List as fit to be at large, or shall knowingly sign any such List, untruly setting forth any of the Particulars required by this Act, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not less than Ten and not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Power to Visitors to remove Paupers to an Hospital for chronic Lunatics, and to provide further Room, if necessary, for curable Lunatics.

LVI. And be it enacted, That with a view to make room in the principal Lunatic Asylum for any County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, for Patients deemed capable of Cure, it shall be lawful for any Three of the Visitors thereof, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, from Time to Time to cause to be removed from such principal Asylum to some other Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House any Pauper Lunatic who shall have been returned in the Lists herein-before required to be made by the Medical Officer of such principal Asylum as a proper Patient to be removed to an Asylum for chronic Lunatics, and also at any Time in like Manner to send to the principal Asylum any Pauper Lunatic who shall be confined in the Asylum for chronic Lunatics, or in some Hospital or licensed House; and in case at any Time there shall not be in the principal Asylum of any County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, any Pauper Pauper Lunatic who shall have been returned in such Lists, the Medical Officer of such Asylum shall, by Writing under his Hand, report such Fact to the Justices of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs to which such Asylum shall solely or jointly belong, and to the Commissioners in Lunacy, who shall thereupon report the same to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and it shall also be lawful for the Commissioners in Lunacy, or any Two of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to direct that any Lunatic, and whether returned in such Lists as last aforesaid or not, shall be removed from the principal Asylum to an Asylum for chronic Lunatics, or Hospital or licensed House, or from an Asylum for chronic Lunatics, or Hospital or licensed House, to the principal Asylum, and every such Lunatic shall be removed accordingly by the Visiting Justices of every such Asylum, and no further Certificate shall be necessary for any such Removal.

Every Pauper Lunatic deemed to be settled in the Parish from whence sent till adjudged to be settled in some other Parish.

LVII. And be it enacted, That when any Pauper Lunatic shall be confined under the Provisions of this Act he shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed to belong to and continue chargeable to the Parish from which, or at the Instance of some Officer or Officiating Clergyman of which, he shall have been sent, until such Parish shall in due Course of Law, as in the Case of any other Pauper, have established that such Lunatic is settled in some other Parish, or that it cannot be ascertained in what Parish such Lunatic is settled, and that every Pauper Lunatic who is chargeable to any Parish shall, whilst he shall reside in an Asylum, be deemed, for the Purposes of his Settlement, to be residing in the Parish to which he is chargeable.

Two Justices may inquire into and adjudge the Settlement of a Lunatic.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices for the County or Borough in which any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House is situate, or to which such Asylum shall wholly or in part belong, or from any Part of which any Pauper Lunatic shall have been sent, at any Time to inquire into the last legal Settlement of any Pauper Lunatic confined or ordered to be confined therein; and if satisfactory Evidence can be obtained as to such Settlement in any Parish, Township, or Place, such Justices shall, by Order under their Hands and Seals, adjudge such Settlement accordingly.

Mode of determining that a Pauper Lunatic is chargeable to a County.

LIX. And be it enacted, That if any Pauper Lunatic shall not be settled in the Parish by which, or at the Instance of some Officiating Clergyman or Officer of which, he shall be sent to any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, and it cannot be ascertained in what Parish such Pauper Lunatic is settled, the Relieving Officer of the Union in which such first-mentioned Parish is situate, or the Overseers of such first-mentioned Parish, shall give Notice to the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which such Lunatic was found to appear for such County before Two Justices thereof, at a Time and Place to be appointed in such Notice; and such Two Justices, or any Two or more Justices of such County, may then and there, upon the Appearance of such Clerk of the Peace, or any one on his behalf, or in case of his Nonappearance, upon Proof of his having been served with such Notice, inquire into the Circumstances of the Case, and unless the contrary be shown shall adjudge such Pauper Lunatic to be chargeable to such County: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Two Justices to direct such Inquiry to be made to ascertain the Parish in which any Pauper is settled, as they shall think fit, and to delay adjudging a Pauper to be chargeable to any County until such further Inquiry shall have been made; and provided also, that every County to which any Pauper Lunatic shall be adjudged to be chargeable as aforesaid may at any Time thereafter inquire as to the Parish in which such Lunatic is settled, and may procure such Lunatic to be adjudged to be settled in any Parish.

In Cases of Inquiries and Appeals, Guardians and Officers interested to have access to the Lunatic.

LX. And be it enacted, That in every Case of an Inquiry, Investigation, Dispute, or Appeal as to the Parish in which a Pauper Lunatic is settled, the Guardians, Clerks of the Guardians, Relieving Officers, and Overseers of every Union including any Parish, or of any Parish, which Parish respectively is interested in such Inquiry, Investigation, Dispute, or Appeal, and every Person duly authorized by them respectively, and the Clerk of the Peace of any County interested in such Inquiry, Investigation, Dispute, or Appeal, and every Person duly authorized by such Clerk of the Peace, shall at all reasonable Times be allowed free Access in the Presence of the Medical Attendant to the Lunatic to examine him as to the Premises.

Justices to make an Order upon the Officers of Unions and Parishes for Maintenance of Lunatics.

LXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom any Lunatic shall be sent to an Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, under the Powers of this Act, or for any Two Justices being Visitors of any Asylum to which a Lunatic shall be sent or removed, to make an Order upon the Treasurer of the Guardians or other Officer of the Union or Parish, or the Overseers of the Parish from which, or at the Instance of any Officer or Clergyman of which, such Lunatic shall have been sent or removed, for Payment to the Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House of the reasonable Charges of the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic in such Asylum, Hospital, or House; and every Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseer on whom such Order shall be made shall, out of any Monies which may come into his Hands by virtue of his Office, from Time to Time pay to the said Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor the Charges aforesaid.

If Lunatic adjudged to belong to some other Parish, Justices to make Orders upon such other Parish, or the Union to which it belongs, for his Maintenance

LXII. And be it enacted, That if, after any Lunatic shall have been sent to an Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, it shall be adjudged that such Lunatic is settled in a Parish different from the Parish from which, or at the Instance of some Clergyman or Officer of which, he was sent to such Asylum, Hospital, or House, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the County from any Part of which any Lunatic shall have been sent, or for any Two Justices, Members of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, to make an Order or Orders upon the Treasurer of the Guardians of the Union, including any Parish, or of any Parish or the Overseers of the Parish in which such Lunatic shall be so adjudged to be settled, for Payment to the Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseers of the first-mentioned Union or Parish of all Expences incurred by or on behalf of such Union or Parish in or about the Examination of such Lunatic, and his Conveyance to the Asylum, Hospital, or House, and of all Monies paid by the Treasurer of the Guardians, or the Overseers of such first-mentioned Union or Parish, to the Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House for the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic, and incurred within Twelve Calendar Months previous to the Date of such Order, and also for Payment to the Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, of the reasonable Charges of the future Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic; and every Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseer on whom any such last-mentioned Order shall be made shall, out of any Money which may come into his Hands by virtue of his Office, immediately pay to the Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseers of such first-mentioned Union or Parish the Amount of the Expences and Monies by such Order directed to be paid to him or them, and from Time to Time pay to the said Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House the future Charges aforesaid: Provided always, that the Guardians of any Union or Parish, or the Overseers of any Parish, Township, or Place, affected by such Order, may appeal against the same in like Manner as if the same were a Warrant of Removal; and in case of such Appeal the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or the Overseers of the Parish, Township, or Place, or the Clerk of the Peace of the County to which such Lunatic was chargeable before such Order was made, may defend such Appeal, and the Persons appealing or intending to appeal, and the Persons defending such Appeal, shall have all the same Powers, Rights, and Privileges, and be subject to the same Obligations, in all respects as in the Case of an Appeal against a Warrant of Removal.

If it is ascertained that a Lunatic is chargeable to a County, the Justices to make Order upon the Treasurer of such County for his Maintenance.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That if, either before or after any Lunatic shall have been sent to an Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, it shall be ascertained or adjudged in due Course of Law that such Lunatic is chargeable to a County, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices, Members of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, or any Two Justices of the County in which such Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House is situate to make an Order or Orders upon the Treasurer of such County so chargeable as aforesaid for Payment to the Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseers of any Union or Parish of all Expences incurred by or on behalf of such Union or Parish in or about the Examination of such Lunatic, and his Conveyance to the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, and of all Monies paid by the Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseers of such Union or Parish to the Treasurer or an Officer or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, for the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic, and incurred within Twelve Calendar Months previous to the Date of such Order, and also for Payment to the Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House of the reasonable Charges of the future Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic; and every such Treasurer of a County on whom any such Order shall be made shall, out of any Monies which may come into his Hands by virtue of his Office, immediately pay to the Treasurer of the Guardians or the Overseers of such Union or Parish the Amount of the Expences and Monies by such Order directed to be paid to him or them, and from Time to Time pay to the said Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House the future Charges aforesaid.

Provision for the Reimbursement to a County of Monies paid on account of a Lunatic afterwards adjudged to belong to any Parish.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That if after any Lunatic shall have been sent to an Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House as aforesaid, and shall have been adjudged in due Course of Law to be chargeable to a County, such County shall afterwards procure in due Course of Law such Lunatic to be adjudged to be settled in any Parish, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices, Members of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, or any Two Justices of the County in which such Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House is situate, to make an Order upon the Treasurer of the Guardians of the Union, including any Parish, or of any Parish, or the Overseers of any Parish, for Payment to the Treasurer of the said County of all Expences and Monies paid by such last-mentioned Treasurer as herein-before is provided, and incurred within Twelve Calendar Months previous to such Order, and also for Payment to the Treasurer or Officer or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House of the reasonable Charges of the future Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic; and every such Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseer on whom any such Order shall be made shall, out of any Monies which may come into his Hands by virtue of his Office, immediately pay to the Treasurer of such County the Amount of the Expences and Monies by such Order directed to be paid to him, and from Time to Time pay to the said Treasurer, Officer, or Proprietor of the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House the future Charges aforesaid.

Visitors may discharge a Lunatic on a Relative or Friend undertaking that he shall be no longer chargeable, &c.

LXV. And be it enacted, That in any Case where Application shall be made to the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum by any Relative or Friend of a Pauper Lunatic confined therein, requiring that he may be delivered over to the Custody and Care of such Relative or Friend, it shall be lawful for any Three Members of the Committee of Visitors aforesaid, if they shall think fit, and upon the Undertaking in Writing of such Relative or Friend to the Satisfaction of such Visitors that such Lunatic shall be no longer chargeable to any Union, Parish, County, or Borough, and shall be properly taken care of, and shall be prevented from doing Injury to himself or others, to discharge such Lunatic.

Justices to make Orders out of their respective Jurisdictions.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justices, being Members of the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum, to make any such Order as aforesaid upon the Treasurer of the Guardians or Overseer of any Union or Parish, although such Union or Parish may not be within the Jurisdiction of such Justices, and that any such Justices may make any such Order as aforesaid upon the Treasurer of any County or Borough, although such Justices shall not have Jurisdiction therein.

LXVII. And

Persons aggrieved by an Order or Refusal may appeal to the Sessions.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall feel aggrieved by any Refusal of an Order of any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Justices at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County or Borough where the Matter of Appeal shall have arisen, the Person so appealing having given to the Justice or Justices against whom such Appeal shall be made Fourteen Days Notice of the Intention to make such Appeal, and the said Justices at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal in a summary Way, and such Determination as they shall make shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Money ordered to be paid by any Clerk, Overseer, Relieving Officer, or Treasurer to be levied (in case of Neglect to pay) by Distress.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Treasurer of a Board of Guardians, or any Relieving Officer or Overseer, or any Treasurer of any County, upon whom any Order of Justices for the Payment of Money under the Provisions of this Act shall have been made, shall, for the Space of Twenty Days next after due Notice of such Order, refuse or neglect to pay the Money so ordered to be paid, the said Money, together with the Expences of recovering the same, shall be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Treasurer, Overseer, or Relieving Officer so refusing or neglecting, or any of them, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two Justices hereby authorized to make the Order for Payment of the Money aforesaid, or by an Action at Law against such Treasurer, Overseer, or Relieving Officer; and in case of any Action no Objection shall be taken to any Default or Want of Form in any Order of Admission or Maintenance, or in any Certificate or Adjudication under this Act, if such Order or Adjudication shall not have been appealed against, or if appealed against shall have been affirmed.

Power for Medical Persons, Guardians, and Overseers of Unions and Parishes to visit Pauper Patients of such Unions and Parishes confined in any Asylum.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary to be appointed by the Guardians of any Union or Parish, or the Overseers of any Parish, and also the Guardians or any appointed Member of the Guardians of any Union or Parish, and also the Overseers of any Parish, shall be permitted, whenever they shall see fit, between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and Six in the Evening, to visit and examine any or every Pauper Lunatic belonging to such Union or Parish confined in any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House: Provided always, that if the Medical Officer of any Asylum shall be of opinion that it will be injurious to any Lunatic to permit such Visit and Examination, and such Medical Officer shall state in Writing the Reasons why such Lunatic should not be visited and examined, and shall sign such Statement, and deliver the same to the Person or Persons so requiring to visit and examine such Lunatic, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Medical Officer to refuse such Visit and Examination.

When any Asylum can accommodate more than the Lunatics of the County or Borough, Visitors may order the Admission of other Lunatics.

LXX. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum that such Asylum is more than sufficient for the Accommodation of all the Pauper Lunaties of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs for which the same shall have been provided, the Committee of Visitors shall give Notice thereof by Advertisement in some Newspaper commonly circulated in such County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, and it shall be lawful for such Visitors, and also for the Justices of a County or Counties in General or Quarter Sessions for such County or Counties, and the Justices of a Borough or Boroughs, at a special Meeting or Meetings, (subject nevertheless and without Prejudice to any Agreement in that Behalf with any voluntary Subscribers,) to make an Order for the Admission of so many Pauper Lunatics of any other County or Borough as to them shall seem expedient, under the Conditions and Regulations following; (that is to say,) that no such Lunatic shall be admitted into such Asylum without an Order and One Certificate according to the Form in Schedule (E.) No. 1., and endorsed by a Visitor of the said Asylum, or a Justice of some County or Borough to which such Asylum solely or jointly belongs, nor without an Undertaking by the Minute of the Guardians or signed by Two of the Overseers of the Union or Parish to which such Lunatic shall belong for the due Payment of the weekly Allowance and other Expences attendant upon the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic during his Continuance in such Asylum, as well as for the Removal of such Lunatic from such Asylum within Three Days after due Notice given in Writing by the Superintendent of such Asylum: Provided always, that the Provision for the Maintenance of such Lunatics to be so admitted shall be fixed by the Visitors at such Rate as shall in their Judgment be sufficient to cover every Expence liable to be incurred on account of each such Lunatic, or at any higher Rate; but that so much of such Rate as shall exceed the Sum usually charged at such Asylum for the Maintenance of any Pauper Lunatic belonging to the County or Borough for which such Asylum shall be erected, or any Parish situate therein, shall be deemed to be and shall be leviable as any Monies hereby directed to be raised for erecting and providing an Asylum for any County or Borough.

Discharge and Removal of Lunatics from Asylums.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Three Members of the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to order the Removal or Discharge of any Person confined in any such Asylum, whether such Person shall be recovered or not, and also for any Three Members of the Committee of Visitors, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, by and with the Advice and Consent in Writing of the Medical Officer of such Asylum, to permit any Person who shall be confined in such Asylum, and shall be deemed convalescent, to be absent either wholly or partly from the Asylum, upon Trial, for such Period not exceeding One Month as such Visitors shall think fit, and to make such Allowance to such Person, not exceeding the Sum which he would cost if in the Asylum, which shall be and be deemed his Cost in the Asylum, and also, with the like Consent, to discharge therefrom any Person confined therein, whose Recovery may be certified by such Medical Officer; and every Person who shall have been sent to any Asylum as a Pauper Lunatic shall be safely kept therein until such Order for his Removal, Trial, or Discharge shall have been given as aforesaid; and and if any Superintendent, Officer, or Servant in any Asylum shall, through wilful Neglect or Connivance, permit such Person in any Case to quit or escape from such Asylum, or be at large without such Order as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not more than Twenty Pounds nor less than Two Pounds. Penalty on Officers, &c. allowing them to escape, &c.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That on the regular Discharge or Removal of any Pauper from any Asylum the necessary Expences attending the said Discharge or Removal of such Pauper shall be borne by the Union or Parish (if any) to which such Pauper shall then be deemed to belong, as herein-before is provided, or if such Pauper shall then be chargeable to a County as herein-before is provided, then by such County; and such Expences, being proved to the Satisfaction of and allowed by Two Justices for the County in which such Union, Parish, or Asylum shall be situate, or for the County to which such Pauper shall be chargeable, shall be paid by the Guardians or Overseers of such Union or Parish out of the Money raised therein for the Relief of the Poor, or by the Treasurer of such County out of the Rates of such County. Expences of the Removal or Discharge of a Pauper.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of every Asylum shall, immediately on the Admission of any Person as a Lunatic into such Asylum, make an Entry with respect to such Lunatic in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, to be called "The Register of Patients," according to the Form and containing the Particulars specified in the Schedule (G.) No. 1. to this Act, except as to the Form of Disorder, the Entry as to which is to be supplied by the Medical Officer of the Asylum within One Month after the Admission of the Patient, and after the Second and before the End of the Seventh clear Day from the Day of the Admission of any Person as a Lunatic into any Asylum shall transmit to the Commissioners in Lunacy a Copy of the Order and Certificate or Certificates on which such Lunatic has been so received, together with a Statement to be made and signed by the Medical Officer of the Asylum, according to the Form in the said Schedule (E.) No. 3. to this Act annexed; and any Clerk omitting so to make such Entry, or to transmit such Copy and Statement, within the Time aforesaid, and every Medical Officer omitting to make or sign such Statement, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds. Every Clerk receiving a Lunatic into an Asylum to make an Entry thereof in a certain Form. Copies of all Orders and Certificates of Admission, &c., to be transmitted to the Commissioners in Lunacy.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That in every Asylum the Medical Officer thereof shall once in every Week enter into a Book to be kept for that Purpose, to be called "The Medical Journal," a Statement according to the Form in the said Schedule (G.) No. 3., showing the Number, Sex, and State of Health of all the Patients then in such Asylum, the Christian and Surname of every Patient then under Restraint, Seclusion, or under Medical Treatment, the Condition of the Asylum, and every Death, Injury, and Violence which shall have happened to or affected any Patient since the then last preceding Entry, and shall also enter into a Book, to be called "The Case Book," as soon as may be after the Admission of any Patient, the mental State and bodily Condition of every Patient at the Time of his Admission, and also the History from Time to Time of his Case whilst he shall continue in the Asylum; and such Books shall from Time to Time be regularly laid before the Visitors, for their Inspection and Signature; and every Medical Officer omitting to make such Entries or any of them shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds. Weekly Medical Journal and Case Book to be kept in every Asylum.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That in case of the Death of any Patient in any Asylum, a Notice and Statement, according to the Form in Schedule (E.) No. 4., of the Cause of the Death of such Patient, and the Name of any Person or Persons who were present at the Death, shall be drawn up and signed by the Clerk and Medical Officer of such Asylum, and a Copy thereof shall be by the Clerk transmitted to the Registrar of Deaths for the District, and to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Borough, Counties or Boroughs, by which the Asylum is provided, and to the Commissioners in Lunacy, within Forty-eight Hours of the Death of such Patient, and also to the Relieving Officer or the Overseer of the Union or Parish or other Person who shall sign the Statement accompanying the Order for the Admission or Confinement of any Lunatic; and every Medical Officer or Superintendent who shall neglect or omit to draw up, sign, or transmit such Statement as aforesaid shall respectively forfeit and pay any Sum not more than Twenty Pounds nor less than Two Pounds. In case of the Death of a Lunatic, the Cause of Death to be stated, and sent to the Clerk of the Peace and Commissioners in Lunacy.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of every Asylum shall, within Three clear Days after the Death, Discharge, or Removal of any Patient, make an Entry thereof in the said Register of Patients, according to the Form and containing the Particulars in the said Schedule (G.) No. 2. to this Act; and every such Clerk who shall not, within such Three clear Days after the Death, Discharge, or Removal of every Lunatic as aforesaid, make such Entry as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not less than Two Pounds nor exceeding Ten Pounds; and every such Clerk who shall knowingly and wilfully in such Entry untruly set forth any of the Particulars required shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor. Entries to be made of the Death, Discharge, or Removal of every Lunatic.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Superintendent, Officer, Nurse, Attendant, Servant, or other Person employed in any Asylum, under the Regulations of this Act, shall in any way abuse, ill-treat, or wilfully neglect any Lunatic confined therein, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor. Penalty on Officers ill-treating Lunatics.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Complaint and Information of and for Offences against this Act, where any pecuniary Penalty is hereby imposed, may be made before One Justice; and such Justice may summon the Person complained of to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, and upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons (either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode), any Two Justices may issue their Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before any Two Justices; and any Two Justices shall and may, upon the appearing of such Person pursuant to such Summons, or upon such Person being apprehended with such Warrant, hear the Matter of every such Complaint and Information, by Examination Recovery of Penalties, and Application thereof.

tion of any Witnesses upon Oath, and make such Determination thereon as such Justices shall think proper; and upon Conviction of any Person such Justices may, if they shall think fit, reduce the Amount of the Penalty by this Act imposed for such Offence to any Sum not less than One Fourth of the Amount thereof, except where otherwise provided, and shall and may issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals for levying such Penalty or reduced Penalty, and all Costs and Charges of such Summons, Warrant, Hearing, and all incidental Costs and Charges, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person so convicted; and it shall be lawful for any such Two Justices to order any Person so convicted to be detained and kept in the Custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the said Offender shall give Security to the Satisfaction of such Justices, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, for his Appearance before such Justices on such Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security; but if upon the Return of such Warrant of Distress it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had whereupon to levy the said Penalty, and such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justices, either by the Confession of the Offender or otherwise, that the Offender hath not sufficient Goods and Chattels whereupon such Penalty, Costs, and Charges may be levied, such Justices shall and may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty, and all such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, shall be sooner paid; and all such Penalties, when recovered, shall be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the Asylum for the County or Borough, or the united Counties or Boroughs, where the Offence shall be committed, or to the Secretary of the Commissioners in Lunacy, whichever shall prosecute for such Offence, and the Overplus (if any) arising from such Distress and Sale, after Payment of the Penalty, and all Costs and Charges as aforesaid, shall be paid to the Owner of the Goods and Chattels so distrained.

Form of Conviction before Justices.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act for which a pecuniary Penalty is imposed may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form, or in any other Form to the same Effect, as the Case may require, and that no Conviction under this Act shall be void through Want of Form:

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord at in the County [or Borough] of A.B. was convicted before us of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County [or Borough,] for that he the said did ; and we the said adjudge the said for his Offence to pay the Sum of Pounds.'

Power of Appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any Order or Determination of any Justices under this Act, other than Orders adjudicating as to the Settlement of any Lunatic Pauper, and providing for his Maintenance, may, within Four Calendar Months after such Order or Determination made or given, appeal to the Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, the Person appealing having first given at least Fourteen clear Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and the Nature and Matter thereof, to the Person appealed against, and forthwith after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace, with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order and Award of the said Court thereupon; and the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, upon Proof of such Notice and Recognizance having been given and entered into, shall in a summary Way hear and determine such Appeal, or if they think proper adjourn the Hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions, and, if they see Cause, may reduce any Penalty or Forfeiture to not less than One Fourth of the Amount imposed by this Act, and may order any Money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such Order or Determination, and may also award such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured, or such Costs to either of the Parties, as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such Determinations of the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all Parties to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Every City, Town, Liberty, &c., not being a Borough within the Meaning of this Act, to be annexed to and rated as Part of the County within which the same is situate.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That every City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District, not being a Borough or Part of a Borough within the Meaning of this Act, shall for all the Purposes of this Act be annexed to and be treated and rated as Part of the County within which the same is situate, or if such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District be situate partly in one County and partly in another, then to and as such one of the same Counties as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, direct, and shall contribute rateably to the Expences of the Asylum of the County to which it is or shall be so annexed, whether such Asylum has been provided before or shall be provided after the passing of this Act, and shall for the Purposes of this Act be within the Jurisdiction of the Justices of such County; and in every Case in which any such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District as aforesaid shall be annexed to a County in which an Asylum has been already erected or provided, the present or any future Committee of Visitors of such Asylum shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, or after such Annexation shall be made, fix a Sum to be paid by the City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District which is or shall be so annexed towards the Expences then already incurred in erecting or providing such Asylum in due Proportion to the Population of such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District, and of the County to which it shall be annexed, according to the last Returns under the Authority of Parliament, and the same shall be paid by every such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District, to the Treasurer of such such Asylum, and shall be levied and raised by such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District by a Rate to be made therein, in the same Manner as any Rate to be made therein for the Purpose of levying or raising any other Monies hereby directed to be levied and raised for the Purposes of this Act; and the Justices for the County to which such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District is or shall be annexed as aforesaid, in General or Quarter Sessions, are hereby authorized and required to make such Rate as aforesaid; and the Sum so paid by such City, Town, Liberty, Parish, Place, or District shall be applied by the Treasurer of the Asylum to whom the same shall have been paid in such Manner as the Committee of Visitors shall direct, according to the Provisions and for carrying into execution the Purposes of this Act.

Council of every Borough to exercise the same Duties, &c. of erecting Asylums as are conferred upon Justices, &c.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That the Council of every Borough which shall, by Writing under their Common Seal, give Notice to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department of the Intention of such Council to take upon itself the Duties, Powers, and Authorities herein-before imposed or conferred upon or given to the Justices of the Borough, shall from thenceforth be subject to, and have and exercise all the Duties, Powers, and Authorities of and for erecting and providing Asylums, and carrying into execution the Purposes of this Act, which by this Act are imposed or conferred upon or given to the Justices of such Borough, or upon any Committee of Visitors to be appointed as directed by this Act, and all Matters and Things which in this Act are required to be done at any General or Quarter Sessions may and shall thenceforth be done at any Meeting of the Council of such Borough; and all Notices which by this Act are required to be given to or by the Clerk of the Peace shall and may thenceforth be given to or by the Town Clerk of such Borough.

Committee appointed by Council to act as Committee of Visitors.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Council of any such Borough to confer upon any Committee to be appointed by such Council such of the Powers and Authorities which by this Act are conferred upon any Committee of Visitors to be appointed thereunder as to such Council shall seem fit.

CAP. CXXVII.

An Act for the better securing the Payment of Small Debts. [9th August 1845.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient and just to give Creditors a further Remedy for the Recovery of Debts due to them:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person is or shall be indebted to any other in a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds besides Costs of Suit, by force of any Judgment obtained, or of any Order for the Payment thereof or of any Costs in any Court, which Judgment or Order shall have been obtained from any Court of competent Jurisdiction in England, it shall be lawful for the Creditor so having obtained a Judgment or Order to obtain a Summons from any Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy for the District in which such Debtor shall reside or be, or from any Court of Requests or Conscience, or Inferior Court of Record for the Recovery of Debts, or other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, within the Jurisdiction of which such Debtor shall reside or be, having a Judge who shall be either a Barrister at Law, Special Pleader, or an Attorney who shall have practised as an Attorney for not less than Ten Years in one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, Creditor obtaining Judgment or Order in respect of a Debt not exceeding 20*l.* may summon the Debtor before a Commissioner of Bankrupts or Court of Requests, &c.

minster, which Summons such Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy or such Court shall be authorized and required to grant, according to the Form in Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed, upon the Application of such Creditor by any Petition or Note in Writing, according to the Form in Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed; and the Debtor, appearing before such Commissioner or Court at the Time to be appointed in such Summons, shall be examined by the said Commissioner or Court, and shall, if the Creditor think fit, be interrogated before such Commissioner or Court by the Creditor summoning him, touching the Manner and Time of his contracting his Debt, the Means or Prospect of Payment he then had, the Property or Means of Payment he still hath or may have, the Disposal he may have made of any Property since contracting such Debt; and such Creditor shall also, if such Commissioner or Court shall think fit, be examined by the said Commissioner or Court touching his Claim against the said Debtor, and shall, if the Debtor think fit, be interrogated before such Commissioner or Court by the said Debtor touching the said Claim against him; and it shall be lawful for such Commissioner or Court to make an Order on the said Debtor for the Payment of his Debt by Instalments or otherwise; and in case such Debtor shall not attend as required by the said Summons, and shall not allege a sufficient Excuse for not attending, or shall if attending refuse to disclose his Property, or his Transactions respecting the same, or respecting the contracting of the Debt, or shall not make Answer thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioner or Court, or shall appear to such Commissioner or Court to have been guilty of Fraud in contracting the Debt, or of having wilfully contracted it without reasonable Prospect of being able to pay it, or of having concealed or made away with his Property in order to defeat his Creditors, or if he appears to have the Means of paying the same by Instalments or otherwise, and shall not pay the same at such Times as the Commissioner or Court shall order, or as the Court shall have ordered in which the original Judgment shall have been obtained or Order made, then in any of the said Cases it shall be lawful for such Commissioner or the Judge of such Court to order such Debtor to be committed, for any Time not exceeding Forty Days, to the Common Gaol wherein the Debtors under Judgment and in Execution of the Superior Courts of Justice may be confined within the County, City, Borough, or Place in which such Debtor shall be resident, or to any other Gaol or Debtors Prison within the same County, City, Borough, or Place which shall by any Declaration of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State be allowed as a Place of Imprisonment under this Act, so long as such Declaration shall remain in force and unrevoked.

On Debtor appearing he may be examined by the Commissioner or Court.

Creditor may also be examined.

If Debtor fail to attend, or to make satisfactory Answer, or shall appear to have been guilty of Fraud, &c. he may be committed.

II. And be it enacted, That every Bailiff and Messenger to whom any such Order shall be issued, or who shall be acting as an Officer of the High Bailiff of Westminster or Southwark in the Execution of any such Order issued to such High Bailiff, shall be thereby empowered to take the Body of the Person against whom such Order shall be made, and all Constables and other Peace Officers within their several Jurisdictions shall aid in the Execution of every such Order; and no Protection, or Interim or other Order issuing out of any Court of Bankruptcy or for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, nor any Certificate obtained after such Order for Imprisonment under this Act, shall be available to any Debtor imprisoned under such Order as aforesaid.

How Order shall be executed.

III. And be it declared and enacted, That no Imprisonment under this Act shall in anywise operate as Satisfaction or Extinguishment of any Debt or Demand; but any Person imprisoned under this Act, who shall have paid or satisfied the Debt or Demand, or the Instalments thereof payable, and Costs remaining due at the Time of the Order of Imprisonment being made, and all subsequent Costs, shall, upon Entry of such Payment endorsed on the Order of Imprisonment, signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, be discharged out of Custody by Leave of a Commissioner or Judge of the Court in which the Order of Imprisonment was made.

Imprisonment not to extinguish Debt; but on Payment thereof, &c. Debtor to be discharged.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Judge of every Court of Requests or Conscience, and of every Inferior Court of Record for the Recovery of Debts, and of every other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, of which the Judge is a Barrister at Law or Special Pleader, or an Attorney of Ten Years standing of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, in which Court Proceedings shall be had for the Recovery of any Debt or Demand within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, shall have the like Powers, in the Suit instituted for Recovery of such Debt or Demand, of examining the Parties to the Suit, and, upon Occasion of pronouncing Judgment therein, if Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, shall have the like Powers of further examining the Parties, and, in the several Cases herein-before specified, of committing the Defendant to Prison, which he might exercise under the Provision herein-before contained, if Judgment for such Debt or Demand had been obtained in his Court, and the Judgment Creditor had obtained a Summons for such Defendant from the same Court under this Act; and all the Provisions of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Case as if such Summons had been obtained.

Certain Courts to have the like Powers in original Suits.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in any City, Town, or District wherein there are several Courts for the Recovery of Small Debts, neither of the said Courts shall have any Power under this Act in respect of any Debt which shall have been sued for in the other of the said Courts in the same City, Town or District, unless such other of the said Courts shall not have a Judge qualified as herein-before specified.

Where several Courts exist in the same Town, &c. Business not to be transferred.

VI. And be it declared and enacted, That in making Application to any Commissioner or Court as aforesaid, or taking any Proceedings under this Act, or under the Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the Law of Insolvency, Bankruptcy, and Execution, or under an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, Application, &c. need not be made by Counsel or Attorney. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 116.

Debtors, it shall not be requisite for any Party, whether Creditor or Debtor, to employ either Counsel or Attorney or Solicitor.

Affidavits in Bankruptcy and Insolvency may be sworn before Keepers of Prisons.

VII. And be it enacted, That any Affidavit of any Prisoner in any of Her Majesty's Prisons or Gaols in England to be used in Matters of Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or under or by virtue of any Statute relating to Bankrupts or Insolvent Debtors, or of this Act, may be sworn before the Visiting or other Justice, or if within Twelve Hours none such shall attend, then by the principal Keeper or Gaoler of such Prisons or Gaols respectively, and they and he shall be respectively authorized and required to administer the Oath upon any such Affidavit or Affidavits.

Actual Necessaries of Judgment Debtors not to be seized.

VIII. 'And whereas it is expedient to protect the actual Necessaries of or belonging to Judgment 'Debtors from being seized in Execution;' be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Wearing Apparel and Bedding of any Judgment Debtor or his Family, and the Tools and Implements of his Trade, the Value of such Apparel, Bedding, Tools, and Implements not exceeding in the whole the Value of Five Pounds, shall not be liable to Seizure under any Execution or Order of any Court against his Goods and Chattels.

Jurisdiction of Courts may be altered.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to enlarge the Jurisdiction of any such Court of Requests or Conscience, or Inferior Court of Record for the Recovery of Debts, or other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, to all Debts and Demands, whether on Balance of Account or otherwise, or Damage arising out of any express or implied Agreement, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and in such Cases as Her Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, may think fit, to enlarge the District of any such Court, or, where any Part of the District of such Court is comprised within the Jurisdiction of any other like Court, to contract the same, and also to make any Alteration or Regulation for the holding or sitting of any such Court, both as to Time and Place, any thing in any Act constituting any such Court to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Powers and Authorities now vested in any such Court, the Jurisdiction or District whereof shall be so enlarged, or the District whereof shall be so contracted, shall apply and extend to the Jurisdiction or District given or limited under the Powers of this Act, and that as fully as if such Jurisdiction or District had been given by the Act or Acts establishing or regulating such Court and its Proceedings; provided always, that no such Order shall take effect in respect of any Court which shall not have a Judge who is either a Barrister at Law or Special Pleader, or an Attorney of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster who shall have practised as an Attorney for at least Ten Years; and in any Court in which there shall be no Judge qualified as aforesaid the Person or Persons to whom the Appointment of Judge, or, if there be no Judge, to whom the Appointment of any Clerk of the Court, belongs, or the Majority of such Persons, who shall be present at a Meeting called for the Purpose, shall within Three Calendar Months next after the making of any such Order, and also within Three Calendar Months next after any Vacancy of the said Office of Judge, appoint a Judge, qualified as aforesaid, subject to the Approval of Her Majesty, to be signified under the Royal Sign Manual; and in default of any such Appointment as aforesaid it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint a Judge, qualified as herein-before provided, for the Court in which such Default shall have been made; provided always, that no Judge, Clerk, or Officer of any Court whose Emoluments shall be increased under this Act, nor any Person or Persons whose Franchise or Right of Appointment to any Office in any Court shall become more valuble under this Act, shall be entitled to any Compensation for any such Increase of Emoluments, or increased Value of any such Franchise or Right of Appointment, if the same, or the Value of the same, shall be diminished or taken away by any Alteration in the Constitution of the said Court, or otherwise, by Act of Parliament: Provided also, that Notice of the Intention of Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to take into consideration the Expediency of making any such Order, and of the Time when the same will be considered, shall be given in the London Gazette One Calendar Month at least before the same shall be so considered.

Removal of Judges of Inferior Courts.

X. And be it enacted, That every Judge of any such Court of Requests, or Conscience, or Inferior Court of Record for the Recovery of Debts, or other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, shall be removable by the Lord Chancellor for Misbehaviour or Incapacity.

Who shall be competent to hold the Court.

XI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Debts and Demands which were not within the Jurisdiction of the Court before the passing of this Act, and also whenever the Number of Commissioners present at any Court shall not be sufficient for the Trial of Causes according to the Constitution of the Court before the passing of this Act, the Judge shall act alone, with all the Powers of the Court, and shall determine all Questions, as well of Fact as of Law, in the Causes which shall be brought before him.

Appointing of Deputy to act during the Absence of the Judge.

XII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Illness or unavoidable Absence, the Cause whereof shall be entered in the Minutes of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Judge, or, in case of the Inability of the Judge, for the Commissioners, or the Person or Persons to whom the Appointment of the Judge belongs, to appoint a Deputy, qualified as is herein-before provided in the Case of the Judge, to act for him during such Illness or unavoidable Absence; and it shall also be lawful for the Judge, with the Approval of the Person or Persons to whom the Appointment of Judge belongs, and of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to appoint a Deputy, qualified as aforesaid, to act for him for any Time or Times not exceeding in the whole One Calendar Month in any consecutive Period of Twelve Calendar Months; and any Deputy so appointed, while acting under such Appointment, shall have all the Powers and perform all the Duties of such Judge: Provided always, that, independently of the Power herein contained, every Judge shall have the same Power of appointing a Deputy or Deputies Deputies to hold his Court for all Cases of Debts and Demands within the Jurisdiction of the Court as it was constituted before the passing of this Act which he has under the Act or Acts according to which the Court is now constituted, and that such Deputy or Deputies, if qualified as is herein-before provided in the Case of the Judge or in the Case of any Deputy appointed before the passing of this Act, if approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall have in all Cases within the extended Jurisdiction of the Court the Powers and Privileges, and be subject to the same Liabilities, and perform all the Duties of such Judge while acting under such Appointment.

Execution of Process in Westminster and Southwark.

XIII. And be it enacted, That, until Parliament shall otherwise direct, the Execution of all Process issuing out of any of the last-mentioned Courts, the Jurisdiction of which shall include the City and Liberty of Westminster or any Part thereof, shall belong to the High Bailiff of Westminster, and out of any Court the Jurisdiction of which shall include the Borough of Southwark, or any Part thereof, shall belong to the High Bailiff of Southwark.

Power for Judge to frame a Table of Fees.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Judge of any such Court, the Jurisdiction or District whereof shall be extended under the Powers of this Act, shall, subject to the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, frame a Table of Fees to be payable by the Suitors of such Court or Courts in respect of every Proceeding therein; and a Table of such Fees shall be put in some conspicuous Place in the Court House and in the Clerk's Office; and the Fees on every Proceeding shall be paid, in the first instance, by the Plaintiff or Party on whose Behalf such Proceeding is to be had, on or before such Proceeding; and all such Fees shall be received by the Clerk or Clerks of such Court, who shall account to the other Officers of such Court for the Amount or Proportion thereof which shall be payable to them respectively, and shall also in the Month of March in every Year render to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an Account of all such Fees which shall have been received in the Year ending on the last Day of December then next preceding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to lessen the Amount of the Fees to be taken in any One or more of the Courts the Jurisdiction or District whereof shall be extended as aforesaid, in such Manner as to him shall seem fit, and again to increase such Fees, so that the Scale of Fees given in the Schedule to this Act marked (C.) be not in any Case surpassed: Provided also, that in all Cases where any Judge, Clerk, or other Officer of any such Court shall have been paid by Salary instead of Fees, such Judge, Clerk, or other Officer shall continue to receive such Salary in respect of the Business now within the Jurisdiction of such Court, and in respect of the Business under the Powers of this Act, such Fees applicable thereto as are set out in the said Schedule (C.), or such additional Salary instead of such Fees as the Secretary of State shall direct; and all Sums payable in the Name of Fees to any such Judge, Clerk, or other Officer, over and above the Amount of such Salary, shall be applicable for such Purposes and in the Manner prescribed by the Act or Acts of Parliament under which such Court is constituted; and that in awarding Compensation to any Judge, Clerk, or Officer of any such Court under the Provisions of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, Account shall be taken of the Fees and Emoluments to which he shall become entitled under this Act, and any Increase of his Fees and Emoluments under this Act shall go in diminution of the Amount to be awarded to him for such Compensation.

Fees in Courts of Bankruptcy.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Registrars of the Court of Bankruptcy shall be entitled to take the Fees on every Proceeding had under this Act before or under the Authority of any Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy in his District which are specified in the Schedule marked (D.) hereunto annexed, and the Messengers and Ushers of the Court of Bankruptcy shall be severally entitled to have the same Fees which are provided as the Bailiffs and Serjeants Fees in the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, subject to such Alterations as may be made in the said several Fees by the Court of Bankruptcy, so as not to exceed the Scales of Fees herein provided.

Fees, &c. payable under any existing Acts not to be affected.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall extend to or affect any Fees or Salary payable by virtue of any existing Act or Acts for Business or Proceedings in any Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, except such Business or Proceedings as shall be had under or by virtue of this Act; but it shall be lawful for the Judge of any Court, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to alter the Fees receivable under the Act or Acts under which his Court is now constituted, but not so as to exceed the Scale of Fees given by such Act or Acts respectively.

Poundage to be demanded from Suitors upon Sums claimed.

XVII. And be it enacted, That for raising a Fund for providing a Court House and Offices for any Court of Requests, or other Court for the Recovery of Small Debts, and for other Purposes herein-after mentioned, the Clerk or Clerks of any such Court in which and while it shall be necessary to raise such Fund shall demand and receive from the Plaintiff in every Suit brought in that Court, before he shall issue any Summons in that Suit, the Sum of Sixpence when the Debt or Damage claimed shall not exceed Twenty Shillings, and for every Claim exceeding Twenty Shillings One Fortieth Part thereof (neglecting any Sum less than Three-pence in estimating such Fortieth Part), or other such Sum, in either Case not exceeding the Rates herein-before mentioned, as the Secretary of State from Time to Time shall order, which Sum shall be paid in all Cases in the first instance by the Plaintiff upon Suit brought in such Court, and shall be considered as Costs in the Cause; and the Clerk or Clerks of the Court shall keep an Account of all Monies so paid to him or them, and shall account for the same to the Judge of such Court for the Time being, and the Amount thereof shall accumulate, to form a General Fund for such such Court, and shall be applied in providing a Court House and Offices, or in defraying the Rent and Taxes, Stationery, and other necessary Expences of holding and carrying on the Business of such Court, in such Manner as the Court for the Time being, with the Approval of the Secretary of State, shall direct.

Summonses to Witnesses.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That either of the Parties to the Suit or any other Proceeding before any such Commissioner or in any such Court may obtain Summonses to Witnesses, to be served by a Messenger or Bailiff, with or without a Clause requiring the Production of Books and Writings in their Possession or Control, and in any such Summons any Number of Names may be inserted; and every Person on whom any such Summons shall be personally served within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and to whom at the same Time Payment or Tender of his Expences shall have been made, on such Scale of Allowance as shall be from Time to Time settled by the Court of Bankruptcy or Judge of any such Court as aforesaid, as the Case may be, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient Cause, to appear, or to produce any Books or Writings required by such Summons to be produced, and also every Person present in Court who shall be required to give Evidence, and who shall refuse to be sworn and give Evidence, shall forfeit and pay such Fine not exceeding Five Pounds as the Commissioner or Judge shall set on him, and Payment of such Fine shall be enforced in like Manner as Payment of any Debt recovered by Judgment of any Court of competent Jurisdiction; and the whole or any Part of such Fine in the Discretion of the Judge, after deducting the Costs, shall be applicable toward indemnifying the Party injured by such Refusal or Neglect, and the Remainder thereof shall be applicable to the Expences of the Court in which the Fine was imposed.

Lists of unclaimed Suitors Money to be made out and put up in the Court.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Clerk or Clerks of every such Court shall in the Month of March in each Year make out a correct List of all Sums of Money belonging to Suitors in the Court which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months before the First Day of the Month of January, specifying the Names of the Parties for whom or on whose Account the same were so paid into Court; and a Copy of such List shall be put up and remain during Court Hours in some conspicuous Part of the Court House, and at all Times in the Clerk's Office.

All Suitors Money paid into Court and unclaimed for Six Years, to go into the Court Fund.

XX. And be it enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall have been paid into any such Court to the Use of any Suitor or Suitors thereof, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the Period of Six Years before the passing of this Act, and which are now in the Hands of any Commissioner, Trustee, Judge, or Officer of such Court, or otherwise held in trust for such Suitors, and all further Sums of Money which shall hereafter be paid into any such Court to the Use of any Suitor or Suitors thereof, shall, if unclaimed for the Period of Six Years after the same shall have been so paid into Court, vest in and belong to the Judge or Judge and Commissioners of such Court for the Time being, in trust for the general Purposes of such Court, and shall form a General Fund for the Payment of all Debts due on behalf of the Court, and the necessary Expences of holding or carrying on the Business of such Court.

Power to remove Suits exceeding 10*l.* into Superior Courts.

XXI. And be it enacted, That any Suit to be instituted in any such Court, wherein the Claim or Demand shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds shall be removable by Certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, or into the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster by Leave of a Judge of any one of the said Courts, and upon such Terms as he shall order.

Power to execute Warrants and levy Executions out of Jurisdiction.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where final Judgment shall have been obtained in any such Court, and a Warrant or Execution shall have issued against the Goods and Chattels of the Defendant, or an Order for his Commitment shall have been made, under this Act, and the Defendant, or his Goods and Chattels, shall be out of the Jurisdiction of such Court, it shall be lawful for the Officer charged with such Warrant, Execution, or Order of Commitment to apply to any Justice of the Peace acting for any County, Division, or Place in which the Defendant, or his Goods and Chattels, shall then be, upon Proof being made upon Oath (which Oath such Justice shall be empowered to administer) that the Person or Goods and Chattels of such Defendant is or are believed to be within the County, Division, or Place where such Justice of the Peace shall act, such Justice of the Peace shall sign or endorse his Name upon the said Warrant, Execution, or Order of Commitment, and thereupon the said Officer charged therewith shall take and seize the Person or the Goods and Chattels of the Defendant, wheresoever the same shall be found within the County, Division, or Place for which such Justice of the Peace shall act, and all Constables and other Peace Officers shall be aiding and assisting within their respective Districts in the Execution of the said Warrants, Executions, or Orders.

Powers of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 96. applicable to this Act.

XXIII. And be it declared and enacted, That all the Enactments of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, and of the several Acts under which the said several Courts are now held or constituted, shall within their several Districts be deemed to apply to every Proceeding under this Act, so far as the same are applicable, and not repugnant to the Provisions of this Act.

Interpretation of Terms in the Act.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Word "Judge" shall be construed to include every Person being either a Barrister at Law or a Special Pleader, or an Attorney of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster who shall have practised as an Attorney for at least Ten Years in one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, minster, who, according to the Constitution of the Court, presides in any such Court as aforesaid, or acts as Judge or Assessor therein, whether by the Title of Judge, or Barrister, or County Clerk, Assessor, or Steward or Deputy Steward, or by any other Style or Title whatsoever; and the Word "Person" shall include a Body Corporate; and every Word importing the Singular Number or Masculine Gender shall include also several Persons or Things, and Females as well as Males, unless the Context shall require another Construction.

Application of Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall apply only to England.

CAP. CXXVIII.

An Act to make further Regulations respecting the Tickets of Work to be delivered to Silk Weavers in certain Cases. [9th August 1845.]

5 G. 4. c. 96.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relative to the Arbitration of Disputes between 'Masters and Workmen, it was enacted, amongst other things, that "with every Piece of Work given 'out by the Manufacturer to a Workman to be done there shall (if both Parties are agreed) be delivered 'a Note or Ticket in such Form as the said Parties shall mutually agree upon:" And whereas it is 'expedient that, so far as relates to Silk Weavers, such further Provision should be made for Delivery 'to them of a Note or Ticket of Work as herein-after is expressed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-five when any Manufacturer of Silk Goods or of Goods made of Silk mixed with other Materials, or the Agent of any such Manufacturer, gives out to a Weaver of such Goods a Piece of Warp to be woven, such Manufacturer or Agent shall at the same Time deliver to such Weaver (unless both Parties shall by Writing under their respective Hands agree to dispense therewith) a printed or written Ticket, signed by

by such Manufacturer or Agent, containing the following Particulars of the Agreement between such Manufacturer or Agent and such Weaver; (that is to say,)

The Count or Richness of the Warp or Cane:

The Number of Shoots or Picks required in each Inch:

The Number of Threads of Weft to be used in each Shoot:

The Name of the Manufacturer, or the Style of the Firm under which he carries on Business:

The Weaver's Name, with the Date of the Engagement:

And the Price in Sterling Money agreed on for executing each Yard Imperial Standard Measure of Thirty-six Inches of such Work in a workmanlike Manner:

And such Manufacturer or Agent delivering such Ticket shall make or cause to be made, and shall preserve until the Work contracted to be done shall have been completed or paid for, a Duplicate of such Note or Ticket.

Ticket to be Evidence in Disputes;

II. And be it enacted, That in the event of any Dispute between the Manufacturer or his Agent and the Workmen, such Ticket and the said Duplicate thereof shall be required to be produced, and shall, together or either of them, be Evidence of all things mentioned therein, or respecting the same.

Work to be produced in order to Adjudication.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where the Subject of Dispute relates to the alleged improper or imperfect Execution of any Work delivered to any Manufacturer or his Agent, such Piece of Work shall be produced, in order to Adjudication, or if not produced shall be deemed and taken to have been sufficiently and properly executed.

Power of summoning Witnesses.

IV. And be it enacted, That if any of the Parties to the said Complaint shall make Oath before any Justice having Cognizance of such Complaint that he or she believes that the Attendance of any Person as a Witness will be material to the hearing of such Complaint, such Justice may summon such Person, having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his Expences, to appear and give Evidence on Oath before him at a Time and Place set forth in the said Summons; and if any Person so summoned shall not appear at the Time and Place set forth in the said Summons, and shall not make Excuse for the Default to the Satisfaction of such Justice, and if the due Service of the Summons be proved, or if such Person appearing according to the Summons shall not submit to be examined as a Witness, then such Justice may adjudge such Person so making default in appearing or refusing to give Evidence to pay such Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds as such Justice shall think fit, and the Party so adjudged to pay such Penalty shall pay the same accordingly.

Service of Summons.

V. And be it enacted, That every Summons required by this Act shall be served by delivering the same to the Person summoned, or by leaving the same at his or her usual Place of Abode, Twenty-four Hours at least before the Time appointed by the Summons for such Person to appear.

Levying and Application of Penalty.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any such Penalty or Costs so adjudged by any Justice to be paid is not paid immediately upon Adjudication such Justice may issue his Warrant to distrain and sell the Goods and Chattels of the Person so adjudged to pay the same for the Amount thereof, with Costs; and the Proceeds of such Distress, after paying the Penalty and Costs, and the Costs of such Distress and Sale, shall be paid over to the Person convicted; and the said Penalty shall be paid over to the Sheriff or other proper Officer of the County, City, Borough, or Place in which such Conviction shall take place, for Her Majesty's Use, and shall be returned to the Court of Quarter Sessions, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the more speedy Return and levying of Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and Recognizances estreated. 3 G. 4. c. 46.

Recovery of Wages and Sums due for Work.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Silk Manufacturer or other Party employing, contracting, or engaging with any Person for any Work in any Branch of the said Manufacture, or connected therewith or incidental thereto, or for specific Work, or otherwise, and whether such Person is to be paid according to the Nature or Amount of the Work done, the Time employed, or any other Manner, shall not from Time to Time pay and discharge all such Sums of Money and Wages as shall be justly due and payable to any such Person, it shall be lawful for a Justice of the Peace, on Complaint made for that Purpose, to summon such Manufacturer or other Party to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and for any Two or more Justices of the Peace to hear and determine such Complaint, and order Payment of such Sum as shall appear to such Justices to be justly due and payable, together with Costs for Loss of Time and recovering the same, and in default of Payment immediately, or within such Period as the said Justices shall direct, the said Justices shall issue their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Manufacturer or other Party; and the said Justices, if they shall think fit, may also, by Order in Writing, authorize such Person to return his Work unfinished; and such Justices shall also fine such Manufacturer or other Party for such Neglect of Payment, if the First Offence Five Pounds, and for the Second Ten Pounds, and Five Pounds extra for every succeeding Offence, unless the said Manufacturer or other Party shall deliver to the said Person employed a Notice in Writing, within Four-and-twenty Hours after such Refusal to pay to the said Person employed the Amount of Wages due, stating the Reasons for such Refusal in full, and that the said Manufacturer or other Party intends to have such Work arbitrated.

No Certiorari to be allowed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That no Order or Conviction or Proceeding touching the same respectively shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record; and that when any Distress shall have been made for levying any Money by virtue of this Act the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party making the same a Trespasser on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Warrant, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings in relation thereto, nor shall the Party distraining be deemed a Trespasser from the Beginning on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but the Person aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for special Damage (if any) by Action on the Case.

Alteration of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

AN

OF

VOLUME THE SEVENTEENTH,

Containing the Acts passed 7 & 8 Vict. and 8 & 9 Vict. (1844, 1845.)

☞ In this Index the Acts which relate to Ireland or Scotland exclusively are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Subdivisions according to the several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

Acts relating to Bridges, Canals, Docks, Ferries, Harbours, Piers, Ports, and other Works of the like Nature, to the draining and inclosing of Lands, to Railways and Turnpike Roads, the watching, paving, lighting, &c. of Towns, and to Companies, in particular, are classed, according to their Subjects, under the general Title Local Acts.

The Acts commonly called Estate Acts will be found under the Title Private Acts.

The Public Local and Personal Acts are referred to in the Roman Numerals, by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions.

Minute References are also made from one Head to another; and from the various Heads under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually entered.

(Pr.) denotes Private Acts printed by the Queen's Printer, the printed Copies whereof may be given in Evidence.
